A CHRISTMAS GIFT

We would suggest to our readers who are considering what manner of presents to send to their absent friends, that in all probability, no gift would be more highly appreciated than a year's subscription to the Graphic, which would visit them 52 times and each time be a reminder of your thoughtful kindness. It is not the pecuniary cost of a gift that counts, but the spirit in which it is given as aptly expressed by the poet.

"Tis not the weight of jewel or plate,
Or the fondle of silk or fur;
'Tis the spirit in which the gift is rich,
As the gifts of the wise ones were;
And we are not told whose gift was gold
Or whose was the gift of myrrh."

The worst thing about a mild winter is that it is so hard on the clothes you are expecting to save for next winter.—Mesa (Ariz.) Daily Tribune.

It is going to be hard to persuade Babe Ruth that he doesn't deserve as much as Judge Landis gets.—Syracuse (N. Y.) Post-Standard.
