

NEXT FARMERS' MEETING AT CANNERY NEW YEAR'S DAY

The Newberg Farmers' Club will hold its next regular meeting at the Rupert Co. Cannery, Saturday, January 1, at 2:00 o'clock sharp. A large amount of business will need our attention, including the selection of program and entertainment committees. If you want something to please the eye and the ear, or tickle the palate, come to the meeting and so express yourselves to the entertainment committee. Ladies especially are urged to join the club and be ready to help in this part of the work. If you men want plenty of good "eats" get your wives to join as we do not have enough women members at present to make much of a showing in getting up refreshments.

The question of a community fair will also come up for discussion.

The following outline on fertilizers will be used as the basis for a free-for-all discussion.

1. Commercial:—Nitrates, Potash, Phosphates combined.
2. Barn Manures:—Value; methods of handling, etc.
3. Cover Crops:—Clover, Rye, Vetch, Sunflowers, etc.
4. Miscellaneous:—Straw, Stalks, Ashes, Leaves, Brush, Sulfur, Compost Heap.

Near Fertilizers—Lime, Sawdust, Land Plaster, Ashes, Humus.

Everyone will be expected to ask and answer questions. What cannot be answered now will be referred to the proper parties and answered at some future meeting.

Give us experience with each kind of fertilizer.

Sample queries:—Which is better, barn manure or commercial fertilizers? Does it pay to save straw? Which is better, rye, vetch or clover.

President.

BOLD, BAD BURGLARS.

On Sunday night burglars effected an entrance to William Hannegan's pool hall by breaking a large glass from a window on the west side of the rear room of the building, at First street. The thieves were doubtless after coin of the realm, as the loot which they carried away was inconsiderable in both quantity and value, consisting only of a few cigars.

Burglars, probably the same parties, entered the pool hall on the night of the city election and secured about $2.00 in small change from the cash register, having effected an entrance by prying up a window.

Indications would point to juvenile offenders, who are some day destined to come to grief if they persist in their evil practices.

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

A series of tableaux with good musical accompaniment will be presented by the Bible school of the Christian church on Sunday evening at 7:30. A collection devoted to the Armenian relief will be taken. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this seasonable service. Come and bring a friend. You'll enjoy it.

DON'T FORGET, THIS CHRISTMAS TIME

Christmas and hurrying feet With busy throngs along the streets And thousands who seek with eager desire

To find just the gift that will cheer and inspire, And thus millions are spent on "Christmas cheer."

For business is good at this time of year.

All well and good, and yet something whispers,

"Lest we forget."

Lest we forget the little men Who will never see their papas again. All these little folk, they wouldn't complain

If they could only get something to eat again.

Their eager voices are heard through the strife

"Give us food and clothes and you give us life."

It isn't too late to help them yet

If we don't forget, if we don't forget.

The really efficient workman is not going to be hurt by the readjustment of industrial conditions. But what is going to happen to the four-flushing pay-day sponge is enough to make the angels weep.—McAlester (Okla.) Guardian.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

What Could Be a More Suitable Present to the Family than a Ford Car?

It is not a luxury, it is a necessity, so as a gift it is a useful one. You owe it to yourself—to your wife and to your children—to get into the city. Mt. Hood, the Columbia Highway and all the streams and woods of Oregon brought closer to you. It broadens your horizon, increases your happiness and promotes good health. The amount you spend for Christmas gifts for the family can be used as first payment. The balance may be paid in small amounts throughout the year. Take advantage of Henry Ford's Christmas gift to you.

NEWBERG STORES ARRAYED IN HOLIDAY GARB

The front windows of all the business houses on First street, from Main street down to Center, are resplendent with holiday suggestions and evidence of the Christmas spirit which seems to pervade the atmosphere of the entire business part of the city.

Never before in the history of Newberg has there been such a profusion of Christmas goods and cheer as is now presented by the enterprising merchants of the city.

The dry goods establishments have large and especially attractive stock of raiment, suitable for prince or peasant, together with notions and novelties from all parts of the habitable globe, and especially suited to the season.

The jewelry stores with their wealth of glittering jewels and magnificent display of cutglass, silverware, gold ornaments and costly gems, present a picture to delight all beholders, while the groceries and confectioneries, with their endless supply of varied sweets, fruits and nuts both domestic and foreign, have every conceivable good thing in the way of eats. All presented in a most attractive manner, make a fine appearance. Even the garages have caught the spirit of the occasion as will be seen by a glance at their windows: while the Larkin-Prince Hardware store with the old fashioned fire place and brick chimney makes one think of by-gone days when the children hung up their stockings on Christmas Eve night, and the furniture store with their easy chairs, rugs, pictures etc., present a gay appearance.

It sure is a sight, good for sore eyes to take in all the shows of Christmas effects in the windows of the business houses all along First street.

The more we see of some women the more we wonder at the high cost of clothing. The demand is supposed to create the price.—Lemont (Ill.) Optimist-News.
