

Locals and Personals

The new fire apparatus will be installed the first of next week.

Mrs. Martha Rorobaugh has gone to Salem for an extended visit with relatives.

W. O. Robertson was out from Portland the first of the week visiting his brother, W. L. Robertson.

Wallace, the barber, presented himself with a handsome Christmas present, a new Dodge car and he is happy.

The Edwards, Dr. Wallace and the Simms families, all of Portland, are spending the week-end with S. F. Wallace and family.

Rev. L. Clarkson Hinshaw, who has been holding special meetings at Marion, is home for the holidays but expects to leave in a few days to begin meetings at another point.

Wm. Schaad, who was severely injured some time ago by being caught by a falling building he was moving, was in town a few days ago, but has not entirely recovered from his wounds.

Miss Flora Sheldon, who came out from Appleton, Wisconsin, some time ago and bought a home at Newport is here to spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dean, who live out north of Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. McCane of Helix, Eastern Oregon, arrived in Newberg Thursday and will spend the holidays at the home of Mrs. Fannie J. Atten.

Milton E. Jr. is the name of the fine baby boy who came to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Kienle at 12:25 o'clock a. m. on Sunday.

Mrs. J. Carl Nelson, formerly of Newberg, was knocked down by an automobile in Portland one day last week and had to be taken to a hospital for treatment.

Postmaster John Larkin informs the Graphic that although the post-office will be closed all day Saturday, there will be one free delivery made by the carriers in the morning of that day.

Elmer Thomas, Wm. Holland, Seth Dodge and Merit Timberlake will take advantage of the vocational education offer for ex-service men and enter O. A. C. at the beginning of next semester.

Bert Miller, who is home from a vacation of two weeks, says he has been "everywhere," including Forest Grove, where he visited his cousin, Omar Fendall, whom he says is building up a good business.

C. C. Murton attended a musicale given by Reed College at Portland last Thursday. Mr. Murton's daughter Lucille, who is an accomplished musician, was organist on this occasion.

Mrs. M. Myrtle Fortune left here on Tuesday for Kerman, California, not far from Fresno, where she has a sister living. Her little daughter has been there for the past three months.

Mrs. W. W. Hollingsworth has been very seriously ill with pneumonia during the week, but took a turn for the better Wednesday afternoon, and hope has since been held out for her recovery.

Elzie Hollingsworth, passenger locomotive engineer, running out of Wymore, Nebraska, and Orville Hollingsworth who is engaged in the undertaking business at Port Angeles, Washington are here on account of the serious illness of their mother.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Alexander, who were here visiting the Morgan, Hurford, Woodruff families and others have gone to Vancouver, B. C. to visit a brother before returning to their home at Three Hills, Alta, Canada.

Alonso Thorn of Aubrey, Indiana, and his brother, William Thorn of Marion, Indiana, are visiting at Newberg and Portland, and expect to spend the winter in Oregon. William Thorn is the father of Mrs. H. G. Moore of this city and has another daughter, Mrs. E. D. Flynn, living in Portland. Alonso Thorn, has a son in business at Portland.

Vivian Hadley made a business trip to Woodburn last Saturday.

The Martins Trio will give the next Lyceum number on Friday evening of next week.

The Martino Trio will give the the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Pinney, Thursday and Friday.

The cannery closed down Monday on account of the funeral of Henry Dorton, who was night fireman at the plant.

Walter Ricks, of the Ellison-White Lyceum bureau, came out Wednesday evening to get a Newberg turkey for Christmas dinner.

E. W. Collier, accountant for the Miller Mercantile Co., expects to start out in a few days to make a tour of the seven other stores operated by the company. He will travel by auto.

Pres. John D. Mills and Dr. W. V. Coffin went to Salem Wednesday evening to work in the interest of the college campaign, $3,000 having previously been subscribed in the capital city.

The wooden bridge that was put up on Second street to span the canyon while the new concrete viaduct was being built, is being dismantled for removal in order to clear the way for the new city park that is in the making.

That fat goose prospect noted last week in connection with the item regarding Charley Cavell's yearly pilgrimage to Arlington was all right, except that the delivery of the goose was made to the C. H. Fitzpatrick home at 1115 Fourth street.

A dinner will be served at the public school building on New Year's day from 12 to 1:30 o'clock by the Parent-Teacher association for the benefit of the school lunch room. Menu: chicken, mashed potatoes, peas, salad, Jelly, pickles, pie and coffee.

The girls' Physical Training Club, hold their regular meetings on Wednesday night of each week. At their meeting last week they adopted the name "Kokohana Athletic Club." The name Kokohana, is an Indian word, meaning lively, and is quite appropriate.

Word has been received from Mrs. J. A. Hollingsworth, who went to Whittier, California, last week, saying that she made the trip without inconvenience and is feeling much better. It is hoped that after spending the winter in the south she will entirely recover her health.

Mrs. Frank Nephew arrived home on Saturday last, from Massachusetts, where she had been visiting her father for several weeks past, being called home by the serious illness of her husband, who is now convalescent and able to be up but still quite weak.

Fred McKay and family and Lawrence McKay are here from Vanhook, North Dakota, to spend the holidays with the Rev. C. D. Norris family. V. N. Briggs, of Plaza, North Dakota, is also a visitor at the Norris home. The McKays are on their way to Pasadena, California.

Mrs. Cora Busk, of Union, Union county, who has been visiting her daughter, Miss Irene, stenographer and bookkeeper for the Carlton Milling Co., spent a few days in Newberg last week the guest of her aunts, Mrs. Ellen Bloom and Sadie Chrisman, of 408 West Fifth street.

Mrs. R. W. Van Valin and son, Herbert, attended the annual mother and son reception given by the boys division of the Portland Y. M. C. A. last Friday night. The affair started at 5:00 p. m. with a gymnasium demonstration and swimming contests and was followed with a banquet.

The annual Minnesota dinner will be given in Duncan's hall on Friday, December 31, at the noon hour. Anyone who was born in Minnesota or ever lived in that state is invited to bring a picnic lunch with knife and fork. A good program has been prepared by the committee. Come and let us get acquainted. By order of president, Marie K. Evans, sec.

H. W. Stone, general secretary of the Portland Y. M. C. A., who came out last Friday evening to attend the business men's banquet, said that Oscar L. Cox visited Portland recently in the capacity of private solicitor for one of the largest banks in New York City. Mr. Cox will be remembered as a student in Pacific College who graduated with the class of 1898. He was a fellow with bulldog tenacity who went in to win in anything he undertook.

Wilson & Son, who recently opened a pool room in the building on the corner of First and Howard streets, formerly occupied by Evans & Son, plumbers, has sold out to A. G. Streeter, who comes from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Haworth, of Springbrook, left this week for Southern California where they will spend a part of the remainder of the winter. They have a son, J. Huber Haworth, at Puente, and a brother, Rev. Richard Haworth, who lives on a citrus ranch near Whittier.

The Gift Season Is On

Many persons wonder what to buy to give to those near and dear to them.

Something useful, handy, that lightens the household duties and affords pleasure and comfort in the home are the gifts that are appreciated.

There are many electrical devices that offer the highest value of service, and render practical and beneficial results. Here are a few of them.

A Vacuum Cleaner An Electrical Washing Machine

An Electric Iron An Electric Toaster

An Electric Grill A Headlight Heater

The more expensive devices we arrange terms to suit the convenience of the purchaser.

Call at our office and inspect these articles.

We sell strictly first class, high grade, electric merchandise at prices within the reach of everybody.

Yamhill Electric Company

"IT SERVES YOU RIGHT"

Mr. and Mrs. Dan B. Putman, of Springbrook, will spend the holidays with relatives at Chehalis and Sprague, Washington. Miss Lora will remain at home and keep bachelor's hall.

Fred Blanchard and son who recently refitted the corner room of Gregory building on First street, formerly occupied by the Lee Millinery, now have swell quarters for their confectionery and restaurant.

Groth Electric Co.

Battery Service Station

Willard Batteries

ALL KINDS

RECHARGED REPAIRED REBUILT
A BATTERY FOR EVERY CAR
FREE TESTING SERVICE

810 FIRST STREET

BRICE'S OLD LOCATION

PHONE RED 217

Substantial Reduction in Prices Friday, 24th

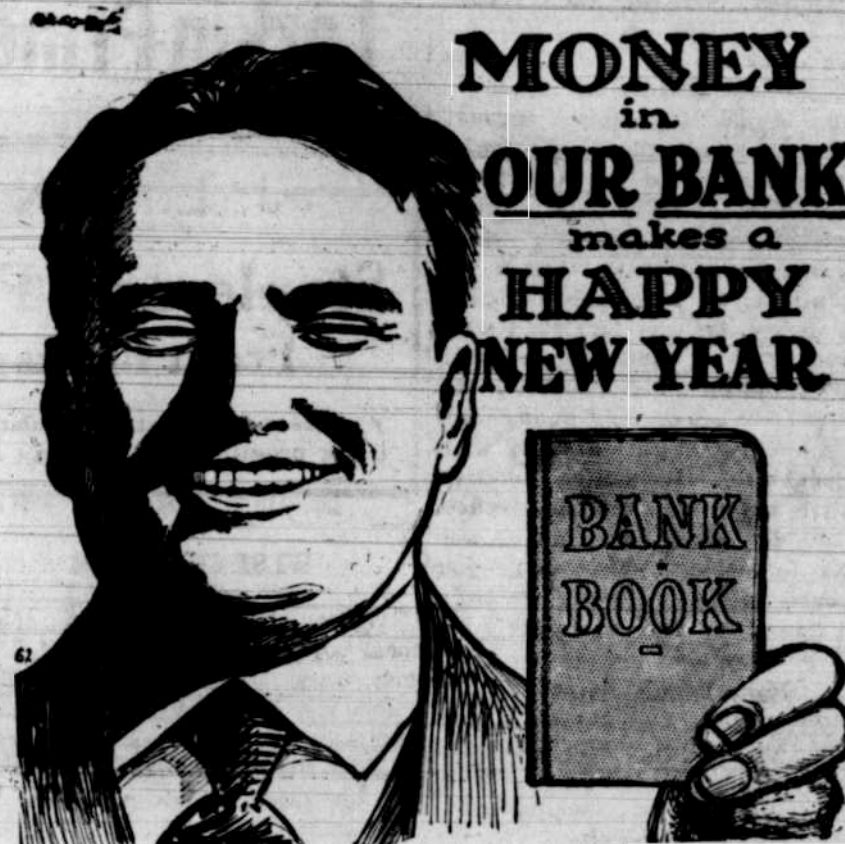

Friday Only We Make Special Reductions on

Py-ra-lin Ivory
Christmas Stationery
Christmas Candy
Manicure Sets and many other
Christmas gifts

611
First St.

Graham's Drugstore

Phone
White 113

MONEY in
OUR BANK makes a
HAPPY
NEW YEAR

THIS BANK WISHES YOU A HAPPY NEW YEAR. WE ARE HAPPY, AND IF YOU ARE NOT ONE OF OUR REGULAR DEPOSITORS, WE WISH YOU A HAPPY NEW YEAR ANYWAY.

WE SMILE IN OUR BANK. OUR CUSTOMERS RECEIVE ATTENTION. WE ARE HERE TO SERVE YOU AND WILL GLADLY WELCOME YOU AS ONE OF OUR CUSTOMERS. COME IN.

PUT YOUR MONEY IN OUR BANK.
YOU WILL RECEIVE 4 PER CENT INTEREST

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

NEWBERG, OREGON

EVERY DROP AFFORDS PROTECTION

No. 6 Disinfectant
Should Be In your Home

More Disinfecting power for your money—No. 6 DISINFECTANT for household use, live stock, poultry, etc. It is six times stronger than carbolic acid and much safer to use.

The bottles are sealed with the new cork-less seal and are extremely convenient to open and close.

No. 6 Disinfectant
— IS A —
PURETEST PRODUCT

4 oz., 8 oz. and 16 oz. Bottles

LYNN B. FERGUSON

Prescription Druggist
The REXALL Store
302 First St

NEWBERG,

OREGON