A CITIZEN MAKES COMPLAINT

"Once upon a time," as the story goes, the grandfather of a genteel family, became so helpless through old age, that he spilled a portion of his meals, and had to eat with a spoon. This was shocking, a gross breach of polite society, for which he was relegated to a table of his own, and as he was liable to break some dishes, he was furnished with a wooden bowl and spoon. The little grandson much admired the bowl and spoon, and at once began a clumsy imitation of it with his jackknife. His parents admired the little boy's ingenious contrivance, and one day asked him what he was trying to make. "Why! don't you see papa! This is going to be a bowl and spoon for you to eat from when you are old."

Haez Fabula docet:

Three elegant and genteel young men of this genteel, polite little city of Newberg, while going home from school, and crossing the beautiful concrete bridge, of which we citizens of Newberg, are so proud, met an old lame lady on that bridge, and as they walked abreast they actually made that old lady step down into the mud in order to make room for the three "gentlemen"? A few days later, the same old lame lady, met the identical three young "gentlemen," and in order to be "civil" had to step down into the mud again to let these courteous and gentlemanly young citizens pass over to the east side, and when she protested she was accosted with very uncivil language. Not only this, in this highly civilized little city, but the writer also met the identical young gentlemen lately and courteously made way for them by stepping into the mud.

Please read Leviticus 19, v. 32.
Prov. 20, v. 29, 1 Tim. 5, v. 3.

A Citizen.

WEST CHEHALEM

William Heizenbeutle, one of our local boys, enlisted in the U. S. army last week. After a brief stay at Vancouver barracks he will leave for camp Meade, Maryland, where he will start training in the Tank Corps. All his local friends wish him the best of luck and success in the service of his country.

Clair and Frank Follette, residents of Oretown, Tillamook county, were visitors at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. H. Follette, during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Muzzy have returned, after an absence of about a year, to the Daniels farm where Mr. Muzzy will take his old job as foreman. We are always glad to have old neighbors return and settle in our midst.

Walter Rogers and Shelby Stillwell made a business trip to McMinnville last Wednesday.

The Christian Endeavor Society is going to put on a sociable social at the church on New Year's Eve. Everybody is invited to come and have a good time.

Rev. Harrabellio A. Maraueopa, the famous Malay evangelist, will preach Sunday morning and afternoon at the West Chehalis church. Coffee will be served free at noon. People who expect to remain for the afternoon service are requested to bring a light lunch as this will be easier on the ladies than a big dinner and so many dishes. Sometime during the day an offering will be taken for the benefit of the Chinese famine sufferers. You will miss a great opportunity if you fail to hear the evangelist. Come and bring anyone who may be spending the holidays with you. It will be well worth while.

Kenneth Fendall and Grant Yergen are home from O. A. C. for the holidays.

DeVere Fendall took Sunday dinner with the H. C. Baker family.

DUNDEE

W. J. Bennett left Tuesday morning for Des Moines, Iowa, called there by the illness of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. John Herring and their parents spent Monday in Portland.

The regular meeting of the Dundee Woman's club was held at Community Hall on Thursday. A very interesting business meeting occupied the greater part of the afternoon. Reports from the recent very successful fair were made. A vote of thanks was given to all those not members of the club, who aided so materially in various ways in making the entertainment a success. It was especially requested that this vote of thanks be included in the Dundee items in the Graphic in order that the sentiment of the club might

HARMONIES OF HOLIDAY TIME

Lie not so much in the gifts you bestow as in the spirit in which they are given; the consciousness of having been the instrument of happiness; the medium of continuing peace on earth and good will toward men. With a feeling of the joyousness of the season and a spirit of thankfulness, we wish one and all reach the whole community. Mrs. Bentley, hostess for the day, assisted by Mrs. R. A. Olmsted and Miss Bernice Keyes, served delicious refreshments. The club room was beautifully decorated in Christmas green and red, a beautiful Christmas tree occupying the center of the room. Each guest received a souvenir from the tree in the shape of a candy cane. At the eleventh hour Miss Sally Beck brought out her box of left-over bargains and amid much fun and confusion soon disposed of everyone of the articles.

Mrs. Roe R. Robinson who has been ill with bronchitis for the past seven weeks is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. H. B. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Herring, Mrs. F. W. Meyer and little Johnnie Ryan have all had tonsillitis but are recovering.

Word has been received in Dundee of the death on Friday, at Dayton, Washington, of Mrs. Mary Logsdon, a pioneer resident of this community. Many residents of Dundee remember Mrs. Logsdon as Mary Fullquartz whose home was on the old Fullquartz's donation claim, now the home of H. W. Lock.

Friends of Mrs. Richard Moorecroft are pleased to know that she has recovered from her recent illness.

"See what we found in your crankcase oil"

THIS lens shows some of the dirt that can be found in any crankcase after a few weeks of driving—road dust, carbon and fine particles of metal. Such dirt circulates with the lubricating oil through the engine, together with gasoline that escapes past the pistons and dilutes the oil.

Have the dirty, diluted oil in your crankcase drained out—now—before unnecessary wear begins. We can do that best for you with Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service—convenient, quick, economical. We use Calol Flushing Oil, the scientific, thorough flushing agent which does not contaminate the fresh oil. We assure proper lubrication for your engine by refilling the cleaned crankcase with Zerolene of the correct grade.

Make a regular habit of Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service. It gives better engine performance and longer life to your car.
