

Locals and Personals

John Hornbrook and family spent Christmas with relatives at Yamhill. Miss Ethel Andrews, of Vancouver, is a guest at the Ed. Harvey home this week.

Belvin Vincent came over from Tillamook to enjoy Christmas with home folk.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Pinney enjoyed Christmas with relatives at Woodburn.

Miss Norma Harvey who is teaching at Seaside, came home for the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Anna Newell and son Edgar, of Oryme, B. C. spent Christmas at the home of F. E. Hadley.

Miss Elva Best who is teaching at Hamilton, Washington, is spending her holiday vacation here with home folk.

Glenn, son of W. L. Scott has been quite sick for some days past and unable to perform his usual duty of delivering the evening Journal.

Night officer Henry, had an enjoyable Christmas at Portland, where he met his daughters and their families in pleasant reunion around the festal board.

On December 24, there arrived a highly acceptable and welcome Christmas present at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kelton Perry, at McMinnville, the gift being a fine baby boy. Mrs. Perry is well known here, being the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Ferguson. Mrs. Perry and son are doing nicely and it is expected that the reborn begin nesting the youngster will be able to visit Newberg and pull grand father's mustache.

Miss Daisy Newhouse, who has been teaching at La Grande, is home for a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nelson spent a part of the holidays with relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Keeney enjoyed Christmas with the family of F. L. Gustin at Rex.

Keith and Kenneth Dyer of Sheridan, were Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Scott of Newberg.

J. J. Thurston and family of Portland, were Christmas guests of Richard Thurston at their home at 302 Third street.

F. M. Vincent, of Tillamook, was in Newberg Sunday and Monday visiting his mother, and his brother Vin Vincent and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Morris, and the Misses Mary Balzer and Katherine Pettingill experienced a delightful Christmas at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clemenson, of Tacoma, are here visiting his grandmother, Mrs. C. Clemenson, and the E. L. Evans family, at 1011 North street.

Mr. and Mrs. Vin Vincent and family spent Monday night at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. J. B. Fernbacher at St. Paul, where there was a pleasant gathering of the Vincent clan to the number of sixteen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Horace H. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah C. Nelson, Miss Ella Nelson, of Hoquiam, Washington and Miss Rebekah Gates, of Seattle, spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rogers, of Portland.

Oliver F. Kilham, representing the agriculture department of the Newberg high school will speak on Friday evening at the convention of the Oregon State Teachers' association, on the subject of "The Farm Project as a Home Improver."

Miss Florence Cooley, druggist at the Parlor Pharmacy for some time past, has gone to her home at Junction City, for her holiday vacation, after which she will go to Salem, where she has accepted a position in the Capital Drug store.

The home of Mrs. Emeline Vincent was the scene of a delightful family gathering on Christmas day to do honor to Mother Vincent and to the bountiful repast, such as only mother knows how to prepare for the children. Among those present were her son Vin Vincent and family, of Newberg, J. G. Vinson and family, of Gaston, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McDaniels, of Portland, and Mrs. J. B. Fernbacher, a daughter, from St. Paul.

When the mopping up process was complete at the high school gym, last Thursday night, the local Yanks emerged victors over the Forest Grove American Legion basketballers, 32 to 5. This notable victory is the fourth straight for the Newberg team and will entitle them to an early engagement with the leading teams elsewhere in the state. Brandy Elliott, running sherpheooter perforated the pill net for a total of eighteen direct hits. "Tis said that our team will play a return game at Forest Grove tomorrow night.

Miss Bella Herd spent the holiday vacation at Newport.

Miss Francis Elliott came home from Salem for Christmas dinner.

S. L. Parrott, visited his aged mother on Parrott Mountain Wednesday evening, she being in declining health.

Dr. Albert Stratton and family, of Portland, were guests of Mrs. Dora Wells last Sunday.

George Pettingill, who is home from O. A. C. has been assisting in the Parlor Pharmacy.

John E. Vestal came from Portland to feast with the Henry Eheret family Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Siler and son, were out for a Sunday visit with the A. S. Guley family.

Several Newberg citizens went to McMinnville Monday to attend the county budget meeting.

Minnesota dinner Friday noon at Duncan's hall. Good program. Come and bring picnic lunch.

Miss Luenne, of McMinnville, is spending a few days in Newberg, with Miss Mona Timberlake.

Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Logan, arrived home Thursday morning from Redmond, Crook county, where they spent several weeks.

The W. F. Edwards family, of Vancouver, spent Saturday and Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Newby, came over from Washougal, Washington, Tuesday evening to attend the reunion of college students.

Miss Florence Bassett who is in the employ of the Falls City Lumber Co. came out and spent Saturday and Sunday with the home folks.

Miss Sarah Sutton, who is teaching in a Tacoma high school is here spending the holidays at the Sutton home on North Meridian street.

Wm. Finnegan footed it over Chehalis Mountain from Laurel Tuesday evening to attend the "old students" gathering at Pacific College.

Jno. F. Chrisman of Astoria, Washington, is visiting with his sisters, Mrs. Ellen Bloom, and Sadie Chrisman, of 408 West Fifth street.

Meade G. Elliott, who has charge of the boys' work at the Seattle Y. M. C. A. came to spend a part of the holidays at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Elliott.

Shiloh W. R. C. and G. A. R. Post will have joint installation of officers January 6th, at their hall 311 First street. Dinner will be served at noon to the Post and Corps members.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carlisle, who came out from Minneapolis, Minnesota, recently, with the intention of locating, are housed for the present with his brother, Frank Carlisle, out at Springbrook.

Miss Mae Wallen and Jay Fullerton were married on Monday evening of this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Wallen, the parents of the bride, out Springbrook way. They left that night for a trip of a couple of weeks to California.

Don Chase and family, came from Astoria for a Christmas feast under the parental roof. Mr. Chase said they had been having some extremely high tides at the mouth of the Columbia owing to high winds off shore.

Mrs. Hattie E. Gilliland, the mother of Mrs. Austin Bowman, died Wednesday night, aged 82 years. Funeral services will be conducted at the W. W. Hollingsworth Co. chapel Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Hill, Mrs. Fannie Allen, Mrs. M. A. Davis, Miss Carrie Allen, and C. L. Baker of the Miller Mercantile Co., and Ellis Baker, spent a pleasant Christmas with the Walter Ricks family in Portland.

Thomas Compton, a former Central City, Nebraska, friend of Pres. John D. Mills, is here looking for a location. He recently returned from Southern California where he spent considerable time, after having sold his Nebraska farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Barnes, who were recently married at Evansville, Wisconsin, are recent arrivals at Dundee and he has contracted to work on the prune ranch for his cousin, W. H. Bentley, the coming year. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes are both college graduates.

Carroll Kirk, who is secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Bellingham, Washington, was in Newberg Tuesday night attending a meeting held here in the interest of the County Y. M. C. A. He was a member of the graduating class of Pacific College, 1901.

A note received from Mrs. E. E. Goff, written from Athens, says they are enjoying their holiday visit with their daughter and family. That the weather east of the Cascades is unusually mild and that there is good promise, with the fields of green wheat for a bountiful yield.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Coe came over from Tillamook, Sunday for a visit with the E. L. Evans family.

As a result of a friendly tussle with another boy on the sidewalk, Adel Lewis is carrying a broken arm in a sling.

The Misses Margaret and Dorothy Hodson were home-comers for the holidays, as was also Miss Gladys Paulsen.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Timberlake and family, and Mrs. Fern Sleppy and daughter, Madeline, spent Christmas at Willamina.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Hadley came from Athena, where he is teaching, to spend the holidays at the H. C. Paulsen home.

Editor Umbaugh was over from Kelso, Washington for a Christmas visit with his children at the Frank Rundell home.

The Parent-Teacher association will hold a meeting in the grade school building Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.

O. J. McCoy and wife had a pleasant Christmas visit at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Parrish at Fernwood.

Little Catherine Duer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Duer, who had been ill with diphtheria for several days died this, Thursday evening.

A few days ago Floyd Berkett and Miss Mabel Reed, daughter of John A. Reed, hid themselves away to Vancouver, Washington where they were married.

Wm. Keeney, who is engaged in farming and stock growing on a large scale, at Olex, was here a few days ago for a short visit with his brother, C. A. Keeney.

Mrs. Minnie Owens is spending the holidays with her daughter, Miss Blythe, who is teaching music in the Seventh Day Adventist College at Walla Walla, Washington.

Help your school by eating your New Year's dinner with the P. T. A. at the grade building. Special tables for families and friends. Splendid service and good home cooking assured. Hours 12:00 to 2:00 o'clock.

While the editor was out of the office Wednesday a can of sweets was left on the desk along with a note which read: "Hoosier sorghum just arrived from Indiana, compliments of Clyde M. Collins." Thanks for the "home coming" reminder.

Dr. J. H. Romig, of Seward, Alaska, was here a few days ago visiting his distant relative, Dr. E. A. Romig. He is maturing plans for compiling a history of the Romig family in this country, the Romig clan tree having had its origin at Brunn, Austria.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Evans gave their first Christmas and anniversary dinner Saturday. The guests were grandmother Clemmens, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Duncan, of McMinnville, Miss Theo and Verne Duncan, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Ned McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Neal McCoy, Leland Duncan, Helen, Wilma and Adelphe Evans and Kenneth McCoy.

An excellent Christmas program was given at the Friends church on last Sunday night, with a full attendance. An offering of more than $300.00 was given toward Newberg's quota of $1,400 for the state fund for feeding the hungry children of Europe. In addition to this amount the local Friends church has included in its expense budget for the year, $500.00 for this same relief work, making a total of more than $800.00 for European relief. In this connection it may be said that by the special request of Herbert Hoover the Friends have the entire charge of the distribution of food for the starving children in Germany, and the expense of said distribution, so far as the management and the necessary help figures, is being borne by the church.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Bible school 10:00 a. m. Preaching 11:00 a. m. Topic: "Glory of The Church." C. E. 6:30 p. m. Song service at 7:30. Sermon topic: "Lessons From Great Tragedies."

Watch night party under auspices of C. E., program and lunch, 9:00 to midnight. All young people invited.

CHRISTMAS SEALS

Those who have been selling Christmas Seals are requested to turn in the money received, and any surplus seals to Mrs. George Kelty, vice president of the Civic Improvement Club.

By order of the President
MRS. E. E. GOFF.

DR. W. V. COFFIN AT FRIENDS CHURCH SUNDAY MORNING

On Sunday morning Dr. W. V. Coffin, will speak at Friends church. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Note of Appreciation

To Our Customers:

We are grateful to our customers for the business given us through the year 1920.

We recognize our business is that of serving the public and we have done our best in maintaining an adequate service, always mindful that the public convenience is the one thing of transcendent importance.

In the coming year we shall appreciate a continuance of your patronage and helpful cooperation, that we may develop greater efficiency in public serving.

We bespeak for you and yours the blessings of happiness and prosperity through the year 1921.

Sincerely,

Yamhill Electric Company

"IT SERVES YOU RIGHT"

A. M. Chamberlin, who grew up in Newberg and who is a freight engineer on the main line of the S. P., filled in as extra on a passenger on the electric through Newberg Monday.

Miss Lella Diedericks, who has a good position with the Portland Loan Co., located in the Dekum building in Portland, came out and spent Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Cora E. Diedericks.

The money you are careless with to day will look mighty good in Our Bank when you are old and tired out

General Pershing began to be a general when he was a small boy. He played soldier.

Then he became lieutenant, captain, and general, by always WORKING to that end.

If you want to be a captain of INDUSTRY, you must be industrious and BANK REGULARLY a part of your earnings and not be tempted to make foolish investments.

We invite YOUR Banking Business.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

NEWBERG, OREGON

Soaps and Brushes

High grade Toilet Soaps—scented and unscented, Bath Soaps, Transparent Glycerine, or milled cakes in a variety of odors. Complexion Soaps, Medicated Soaps, Nursery Olive Oil Castile Soaps, best for Baby's delicate skin, and especially good for your own use.

Rexall Toilet Soap. Harmony Glycerine Soap.
Nursery Olive Oil Castile Soap
Harmony Bath Tablets
Rexall Medicated Skin Soap Klenzo Shampoo Soap
Violet Dulce Toilet Soap.

LYNN B. FERGUSON

Prescription Druggist
The REXALL Store
302 First St

NEWBERG,

OREGON

Just Water!

We're not one of those "barber shop" stations. We don't try to coax you to have insulation replaced, battery re-charged and a lot of miscellaneous needless work done when all your battery needs is a drink. Drive in. Let's get acquainted for your battery's sake. And you ought to know about Threaded Rubber Insulation—the kind selected by 136 manufacturers of passenger cars and motor trucks.

Groth Electric Co.
810 FIRST ST.

Always Use High Class STATIONERY to Create a Good Impression

The Very Latest Styles

It's an old, old saying that the people you write to often judge you by your stationery.

And there is a great deal of truth in the fact that stationery can be so chosen as to reflect the best of judgment and taste.

Stationery suitable for one occasion may be entirely out of place for another. Then, too, the styles in stationery change the same as styles in clothing.

To be sure that your stationery is right for all purposes, always buy it here.

Graham's Drug Store

Phone White 113

EASTMAN KODAKS

NYALS REMEDIES