HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

School will open January 3, 1921, after one week's vacation.

The six-weeks examinations took place in all of the classes on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. Report cards will be issued the first week in January.

The editorial staff of the Senior's annual, the "Chehalem" has been elected. It consists of the following: Grace Colby, business manager; Herbert Owen, assistant business manager; Helen Robertson, editor; Mary Sanders, assistant editor; Mona Timberlake, advertising editor; Royal Gettman, joke editor; Max Sturges, art editor; Elsie Tykeson, assistant art editor; Mary Harmon, society editor; Frank Lutz, athletic editor; Florence Lee, alumni editor.

About 150 subscriptions have been taken for the "Annual."

Several of the alumni members visited the High school last week. Among them were: Mina Lutz, Grant Yergon, Whitmer McDonald, Beatrice Towers, Rudolph Schaad and Lucy Youngs.

Some of the teachers and pupils who live out of town are spending the holidays at home.

On Monday December 20, Mr. Huddleston gave a lecture on the Philippine Islands. He was, until recently, a missionary in the Philippines for about fourteen years, and presented facts and conditions regarding those islands as they really are. He told of the wonderful advancement that has taken place there under the rule of the United States. English is the dominant language in the schools, and it is also spoken by a large percentage of the general public. Modern school houses have been built to accommodate 900,000 children. The most noteworthy feature about these schools is that they are practical in training. Universities, libraries, churches and other institutions have also been established. The United States has been influential, not only in promoting the growth of educational and religious institutions, but also in helping the trade and commerce of the islands. This rapid development is due to a great extent to the works of the missionaries of the various denominations. The lecture was illustrated with a fine set of stereoscopic views, and was both interesting and instructive. Hawaiian music by Harley Banes and Clifford Denott was very much appreciated by the audience.

DUNDEE

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Noble spent the Christmas holidays in Portland and Multnomah.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dearborn entertained at Christmas dinner, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Hillsinger of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowell, of Newberg, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Olmsted of Dundee.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton W. Bailey and children visited Mrs. Bailey's mother and sisters at Corvallis during Christmas week.

Mrs. W. J. Bennett has received word from Des Moines, Iowa, of the death of Mr. Bennett's father on Thursday of last week. Mr. Bennett, who was on his way to his father's bedside, would not reach there until Friday.

The regular monthly meeting of the Dundee Parent-Teachers association will be held Tuesday evening, January fourth, at seven-thirty. Everyone interested in our schools is cordially invited to attend.

The Y. M. P. C. has planned a free entertainment at Community Hall for New Year's eve. Ladies attending are asked to bring baskets.

William G. Steel, field secretary of the Oregon State Motor association, made a business trip from Eugene to Portland the first of the week, stopping Monday night at Orterbrook. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Jean E. Steel, and the Misses Helen M. Hatch of Grand Mound, Washington, Irma Ludford and Clarice Jordan, of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kay had a family reunion on Christmas day, the first time all of the children have been together for several years. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Kay and Mr. and Mrs. David Kay of Portland were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Bland Herring had a family gathering at Christmas time, their children and grandchildren from Portland and relatives from Lafayette, as well as those in Dundee and vicinity being present, twenty-eight in all.

Misses Sally Beck and Frances Rochli spent Christmas holidays in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Groth had a number of their children and grandchildren with them on Christmas day.

CHEHALEM CENTER

Miss Marguerite Johnson came out from Portland Saturday for Christmas dinner, returning in the evening.

Miss Elva Morgan spent Christmas in Newberg at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Hurford.

Mrs. J. G. Lofey, a former Missourian, visited lately with the G. I. Morgan, J. R. Hornberg, and Mrs. Hurford, families.

Milton Oakley went to Estacada, to spend the holidays with relatives. Henry Bresaw, wife and sons, were out from Portland, as guests for Christmas at the home of Mrs. Mary Remillard.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shires, of Springbrook, spent Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Shires.

Mrs. Marie Christiansen is in a very weakened condition as she has not been able to assimilate any food for a month or more.

Maurice Walton, who is home from Hood River, Mrs. Mary E. Scott and Mrs. Elizabeth Colton, of Newberg, partook of Christmas festivities at "Bonny View."

L. R. Ralston and family had the misfortune to lose their nice young milk cow lately.

Frank Remillard came home from Portland for the holiday season. Ernest Everett and wife were over from Vancouver, for Sunday.

Mrs. Marie Tangen, the Misses Elsie and Anna Tangen and Aubrey Tangen, ate their Christmas dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Grimes of Fernwood.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Baekanoft, of Newberg, were out Saturday at the home of B. F. Hawley.

The family gathering that partook of the Christmas feast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meyer were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hall and daughter, Florence, Mrs. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cate, of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hendrickson and young son, Robert Victor.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hodges and son, visited friends and relatives in the community, the past week. They are down from Eastern Oregon.

The school gave closing exercises last Thursday which were exceptionally good, the tree, all beautifully decorated with tinsel and presents being one of the many features of the program. School takes up next Monday, January 3.

A very successful revival closed at the Chehalem Center church last Sunday, with 14 seekers at the altar the last night. Rev. Frank Childs, was the evangelist, assisted by Rev. Paul Lewis, pastor.

Splendid missionary Christmas exercises, were given by the Sunday school, Christmas eve. A large and attentive audience enjoyed the program.

W. H. Dean and wife are out again after a siege of lagrippe.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Baron will be at home to their many friends now, since moving to the little home of F. Bulger, out Springbrook way.

Last Wednesday evening while the young people were practicing for the Christmas exercises at the church, someone was mean enough to steal the best tire off of Rev. Paul Lewis' car. Evidently they were frightened away, for they had another one partly off.

Rev. Harrahelio A. Marangeopa, the malay missionary, preached a very forceful sermon at the Chehalem Center church, last Sunday night.

Mrs. Katie Brunton and children, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bryan, on the Mountain. If her husband can sell the farm in Idaho they expect to locate somewhere around Newberg.

Ralph Dean and family, motored to Albany to spend Christmas with Mrs. Dean's parents.
