DUNDEE

Mrs. May Miller, sister of Mrs. Frank Keyes, visited at the Keyes home the first of the week. Mrs. Miller is visiting in Portland to be near her father, Mr. Richard, who is very ill with stomach trouble. Mr. and Mrs. Keyes and family spent a part of last week with Mr. Richard.

Alex Allen, on his way to McMinnville, where his wife is visiting her parents, stopped at Park Hill Home, on Monday for a few hours with the home folks.

Medric Greer, spent Thursday and Friday with the Otterbrook relatives prior to his trip to Humboldt county, California.

The Parent-Teacher's meeting which was to have been held on Tuesday evening, has been postponed until the first Tuesday in March, to give more time to the preparation of a program, the holiday vacation and Christmas activities having occupied so much of the time the past month.

Prof. and Mrs. Allor, entertained the whole high school at dinner on December twenty-fourth. It was an elaborate dinner and the young folks who had never before had such an honor shown them were delighted beyond expression over the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hayward have returned from a trip to Massachusetts.

Mrs. W. H. Kans, from Spokane, aunt of Mrs. Richard Moorecroft, and Mrs. Moorecroft's parents from McMinnville, had Christmas dinner in Dundee. One day during vacation week, Mr. and Mrs. Moorecroft took their aunt on the Columbia River Highway trip. They report a wonderful surprise in the beauty of the scenery at this time of the year, the green rocky bluffs and swollen waterfalls being a great change from the summer scene.

The Dundee teachers all had pleasant, restful vacations. Miss Mildred Baker spent part of her time in Salem and Portland, Miss Ruby Martin was at home in Newberg, enjoying the visit of her sister from California, Miss Minier also had her vacation in Newberg, Mrs. John Parrett had a "glorious time" just staying at home and doing "all the things she wanted to do."

The event of the week was the entertainment given on Friday night by the Y. M. P. C. The boys of the club were fortunate in having David Marr home for the vacation, and he took charge of the program. Fred Hutchinson was business manager of the affair and handled things in his usual enthusiastic and capable way. No doubt the weather interfered with the attendance which was not large, but those that were present thoroughly appreciated the efforts the boys made to give a big, clean program, full of music and fun. Several dialogues and dark face stunts amused the audience and the singing was especially enjoyed. The boys sang in solos, duets and chorus, but since so many of the faces were black the reporter can't tell which was who. Emil Sander's voice, which always pleases his Dundee friends, was recognizable in his two solos, which were well received, and David's Marr's beautiful tenor filled the hall with melody. Dundee is justly proud of these two young men and is always delighted to hear them. John Trunk, in monologue, "A Humane Officer," was the principal comedian. The great surprise of the evening was the presence of Mr. John Leslie, brother of Mrs. F. W. Meyer, who helped the boys out with his talent. Mr. Leslie has a strong baritone voice of pleasing quality and he sang Scotch songs in costume. My! how he did bur-r-r those r-r-r's! His hearers would have kept him singing until the New Year, but, curiosity as to the contents of the baskets to be auctioned off tempered their enthusiasm. Uel Marr presided at the piano in his usual efficient manner. At the close of the program an open meeting of the "Black Face Club" was held and after preliminary business, separate votes of thanks were given, to Rev. Tabor, who has stood by the boys in all their work since he has been in Dundee and whose speech in behalf of the boys and their club was one of the pleasing features of the evening's program, to the ladies present, who prepared the baskets, to the men who were about to buy them, and to Mr. Leslie, who's participation in the evening's entertainment has made him a solid friend of the boys. The Y. M. P. C.'s taking part in the program were Uel Marr, Pres., Fred Hutchinson, Vice-pres., Alfonso Neiderberger, Sec'y-Treas., Serg't-at-Arms Emil Sander; Will Hutchinson, Ernest Leland, Paul Neiderberger, Albert Neiderberger, Harry Robertson, Miles Robertson, John Trunk, George Trunk, Stanley Warner and Aleson Warner.

The Y. M. P. C. cordially invites all Dundee, to be present at the basketball game to be played at Community Hall on Friday evening. Fernwood, the visiting team, is a good strong one, and a game of unusual interest is promised. No admission fee.

ANNOUNCING--

Rock-Bottom Prices on the Player-Piano of Known Value
--The Nationally-Priced

(Inventor of the Gulbransen)
GULBRANSEN
Player-Piano

Suburban Model
$495

Country Seat Model
$600

White House Model
$700

Back to old prices!

Back to a point where goods can be merchandised on the basis of relative values, on a basis consistent with the normal money levels of wheat, corn, labor, etc.

Where people can feel that every dollar they pay goes into real value in merchandise.

Where a portion of every dollar is not a tribute, a donation to the times in which we have been living.

Where the words "Value received" written in a contract mean value received!

Gulbransen prices have been reduced to that point—radically reduced.

The Suburban Model—the Player-Piano of sensible economy—reduced from $595 to $495.

The White House Model—the superfine Gulbransen—now $700—and the Country Seat Model—the sturdy, substantial, handsome Player-Piano—cut to $600.

No wonder we refer to rock-bottom prices!

The period of waiting for lower prices—as far as the Gulbransen is concerned—is past.

Gulbransen prices are basic, the standard of value in the Player-Piano field. They must be fair and reasonable because they are the same all over the United States.

Therefore, any reduction in the price of a Gulbransen is genuine. It is a case of an article always reasonably and moderately priced, always an exceptional value—being reduced to ROCK-BOTTOM!

Every Gulbransen on our floor will be moved at the new prices.

Gulbransen prices are war tax paid. All three models gladly demonstrated at our store

CHEHALEM CENTER

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Beale Stanley next Wednesday.

The services at the church were exceptionally good Sunday morning. Rev. Paul Lewis, pastor. A collection was taken to help relieve the suffering in the Near East. It was announced that the prayer meeting will be held Wednesday evenings instead of Thursday evenings, in the future. Rev. Childs gave a farewell sermon in the evening as he and his wife are leaving the neighborhood soon.

Chehalem Center school began Monday, with Mrs. Elizabeth Meyer and Miss Louise Hodgkin continuing the year's work.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hendrickson and young son, went to Portland to partake of New Year's dinner under the A. V. Hendrickson parental roof. Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Crocker and son George, came over from Oregon City, last week. Always glad to welcome them back in the community.

Miss Ella Ray and her brother,

Charles Ray, spent the holidays with relatives in Tualatin.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rodgers and family spent Monday with Mrs. Marie Christiansen, who continues to be in very poor health.

Miss Tony Liest of near Lents, was a visitor at the J. D. Crater home last week.

Miss Elsie Tangen spent the holidays at home.

WEST CHEHALEM

West Chehalem church people were glad to note the attendance on Sunday, of some of the Ribbon Ridge people, including the L. A. Bribbine family and Miss Mildred Burnham, the teacher at District No. 68.

Revival meetings are being held and Rev. Marangeopa has been giving some wonderful sermons to a rather small crowd. We firmly believe that it is well worth anyone's time to come and hear him. He has a wonderful way of telling the Gospel story. Come and hear him as many nights as you can this week.

Omar Fendall and family, of Forest Grove, spent last Sunday with the E. G. Fendall family.

Kenneth Fendall, made a short visit with Ralph Baker last week.
