

WEST CHEHALEM

Last Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Billy Sullivan gave an afternoon tea, to which a number of the ladies were invited. The afternoon was spent in social conversation and in looking at a display of exquisite hand made laces, which Mrs. Sullivan collected while in Europe, after which dainty refreshments were served. Owing to the inclemency of the weather a number of those invited were unable to be present. All present voted Mrs. Sullivan a delightful entertainer. Those enjoying her hospitality were: Mrs. J. U. Smith and daughter Margaret, Mrs. Goodin, Mrs. Ben Yergen, Mrs. Mabel Washbond, Miss Roberts, Mrs. W. C. Smith and Mrs. H. C. Baker.

Next Sunday the annual election of Sunday school officers will be held. Be sure and come and be on time. Following Sunday school there will be preaching. Come and bring a light lunch and stay for the afternoon services. Christian Endeavor at 2:00 p. m. Preaching at 2:45 p. m. It has been decided to do this as a regular thing for the rest of the bad weather months.

The Ladies Aid Society seems to be showing signs of life. Probably the reappearing of the sun has had something to do with it. They will hold a meeting in the basement of the church this week on Thursday. All the ladies are invited.

Miss Roberts, the primary teacher at Ewing Young, was ill last Friday and in her absence one of the seventh graders, Winona Smith took charge in the primary room.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Atkinson, of Sand Lake, Oregon, made a weekend visit with their brother, H. C. Baker, on their return trip from California, which they made in their Chevrolet, as far south as Los Angeles. On account of snow in the mountains of northern California they decided to come back by boat from San Francisco, which they did.

Next Sunday is the anniversary of a great day in the nation's history, the day the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States affecting nation-wide prohibition was adopted. West Chehalis is going to celebrate the day by singing temperance songs and a few temperance readings will be given. Everybody is extended a hearty invitation to come.
