DUNDEE

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Greenwell on Wednesday. Plans for the Easter sale of cooked foods and aprons were made. Arrangements were also made for the "missionary tea" to be given in the Dundee Library on February 15. Mrs. Mary Bliss, of Portland, will be an honor guest and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

A most interesting drive for attendance at Sunday school is in progress. Ninety-four persons were out Sunday and the session was an interesting one. The increased attendance looks hopeful for a real community Sunday school. Grace Johnston is captain for the "Blue" side and Constance Stevens for the "Reds."

Miss Turner and C. H. Clecke, of Portland, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Dearborn, at Val-leview.

Mrs. Hannah Imus entertained the Home Missionary society on Tuesday last. A well planned program consisting of readings from the Missionary Scrap Book, and the regular text book, "The Church and The Community," was given, also readings from the leaflets, "Marcey Center, Chicago," "Community House Boston," and "Spending Dad's Money." Mrs. W. H. Bentley's excellent paper on "The Mexicans as I Have Observed Them in Southern California," was the most interesting part of the program. After the program the hostess served delicious refreshments.

A brief business meeting of the Dundee Woman's Club preceded the social hour on Thursday. This was followed by an anagram contest in which most of the ladies present showed what they did not know about the "Movie World." Mrs. Spence Vedder received the prize for making out the most names of moving picture stars. The hostess, Mrs. John Edwards, assisted by Mrs. W. J. Gordon and Mrs. Bland Herring, served refreshments. The day being beautiful and sunny, mothers of young infants were able to bring the wee ones and the latter part of the afternoon was an impromptu "Baby show." Little Esther May Devore made her first appearance at the club and won all hearts as did also Lucile, Roberta Parrett and Robert Ray Allan. The other little folks present who are more or less regular attendants at club meetings and who are always warmly welcomed, were: Sophia Margaret Herring, Margaret Louise Holmeyer, Marguerite Louise Reynolds, Norman William Parrett, Bernard Groth Herring, Benjamin Alfred Vedder, May Allene Wilson, and Isabella Angie Wilson.

Christmas cards were received in Dundee from Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Hunter from Sautelle, California. Their friends will be glad to know that Mr. Hunter, who had been very ill since leaving Dundee, was improving.

Mrs. Thomas Miles, of Newberg, visited Mrs. John Devore on Thursday.

Mr. Locke has sold the J. D. Gordon place to a Mr. Menefee, of Portland. The new owner has not yet taken possession.

At the annual telephone meeting held on Monday evening, Roe R. Robinson was re-elected president and appointed general manager of the telephone company. R. A. Olmsted was elected secretary, and Clark Noble, treasurer. It was decided to have every phone and the whole line thoroughly inspected twice each year, February and August being the months chosen for the work.

Don't forget the entertainment on Saturday evening. The girls have put much work on their varied program, and a good time is promised all who attend.

The postponed meeting of the Parent-Teacher association will be held at the school house on Tuesday, February first, at 3:30 p. m., sharp. Besides the entertaining features on the program, affairs relating to the schools will be discussed and an informal debate on legislative school measures held. It is hoped that all persons interested in the welfare of the schools will make a special effort to attend.

Mrs. Barbour and daughter, Lillian, were guests at the Frank Keyes home last week.

Claus Groth is attending the University of Oregon, taking a special course in expert accounting.

While playing at her uncle's garage on Sunday, Charlotte Thun was hit in the head by an auto chain that fell from its hanging. She was picked up unconscious with a fractured skull. She was taken to a hospital in Portland and at last reports was doing as well as could be expected.

The members of the school board went to school Tuesday morning to hear the work in sight singing, and they express themselves as greatly pleased with the wonderful results Prof. J. P. Powell is achieving. The daily demonstration in our schools is a testimonial to the efficiency of the method of "Learning to Sing at Sight," that Mr. Powell has given his life to perfect and has published. Mr. Powell, who will soon have his eighty-ninth birthday, is a living example of what great enthusiasm can do to keep the mind and body young. But with all his love of music and his desire to help the world understand its uplifting influence he is not a one-sided man. He has at least three other hobbies and rides them, in the only way that hobbies should be ridden, not to the Land of Boredom, but to the Green Fields of Altruism. These hobbies are, first, a beautiful, practical Christianity, which really comes before his music, because it is that which is back of the music, its inspiration, and that is giving it free of charge to the young people of Newberg and Dundee. Mr. Powell delights in his garden, which is always the best to be found in these parts, and for another recreation he has his pleasure in the study of a universal language, a world dream he hopes to see realized in his day.

LAD HILL

Mrs. James A. Parrott returned home from Newberg, Saturday, where she has been taking treatments from a chiropractor, and says she is much better.

Clair Sovey is visiting with old friends and acquaintances this week. He has been in the marines four years and spent most of the time in China. It is very interesting to hear him talk, as he has had a wonderful experience.

Will Smith was given a birthday surprise January 13, when twenty-three of his neighbors and friends came in to spend the evening. Games and music consisted of the evening's entertainment, until eleven o'clock, when bounteous refreshments were served. Those present were: Frank Deach, of Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Parrish, of Fernwood, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Young and daughter, Jeanne, of Linton, and Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Tauffest, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith, Ross Looney, Carl Roy, Reuben, and Clarence Kramien, Donald, Ward, Chester and Roy Kiser, Melba Tauffest, Alice Smith, Howard Smith, Melvin Tauffest and Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith.

Delmar Kiser was home a few days last week, returning to Portland Saturday.

The dance was well attended Saturday evening. There will be a masquerade dance February 22, when six prizes will be given.

The Commercial Club will give a reception to the Lad Hill soldier boys, Saturday evening, January 29. The boys are all home now, since Clair Sovey has returned. All neighbors and friends are invited.

R. H. Walls has been appointed road supervisor in Clackamas county. We are glad Mr. Walls received the appointment for we believe he will fill the place conscientiously.

Much enthusiasm is developing in this community over roads, for while the roads are in a very bad shape, the way the men folks are going at them they won't be this way long.

Homer Kiser came out from Portland Saturday, attended the dance and spent Sunday with his home folks, returning to Portland Sunday.

The county surveyor, commissioners and viewers went over the new proposed road over Parrott Mountain, which connects with the Corral Creek-Wilsonville road in Clackamas county, and pronounced it satisfactory.

Club members are preparing to put on a play entitled, "The Fascinating Miss Fannie Brown."

Carl Kramien went to Linton with his aunt, Mrs. Milton Young, where he hopes to find employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Tauffest and family took Sunday dinner with Roy Hacker and family.

WEST CHEHALEM

Last Sunday the congregation at the West Chehalis church listened to a very interesting and enlightening talk by Mrs. Hannon, State Supt. of the Child Welfare Society. She presented very clearly the work and needs of this Society. After the meeting a local W. C. T. U. was organized by Mrs. Hannon, nearly all the ladies present joining.

William Dolph and family spent the week-end in Portland visiting relatives.

The John Carter family, and Virgil Vanoose, have been ill with the tonsillitis.

The Sunday school was glad to note the presence of new faces among its numbers, those of the Misses Mildred and Eva Sallee.

The new Sunday school apt. announced that he wanted one hundred assistants. Come on! Let's go! Let's go and make the Sunday school go.

Mrs. Lou Carter has been visiting relatives in Portland recently.

Mrs. Grimm—"And so you are going to be my son-in-law?"

He—"By Jove! I hadn't thought of that."—Tit-Bits.

FEWER GOLDEN WEDDINGS

Late Marriages and the Divorce Courts
Reduce the Number of These Anniversaries.

More and more infrequently with the succeeding years do we read of the observance of the golden wedding anniversary. Memory recalls the time when such celebrations were of frequent occurrence; when the sons and daughters, grandchildren and often great-grandchildren gathered to honor and felicitate those who had shared the joys and sorrows of two-score-ten years and invoke heaven's blessing upon them as they continued hand in hand the journey toward life's sunset.

This infrequency may be due in a measure to the present custom of marrying at a later age than was the rule several generations ago and to the fact that we of the present seem to fail earlier under the hand of the grim reaper than did our sturdier ancestors. But to the divorce evil may be accredited the greater part of the blame. The present-day marriage is too often hastily contracted, the parties thereto fail to weigh carefully the responsibilities of married life, and the most trivial differences sometimes lead to separation. The number of couples who live to round out fifty years of matrimonial companionship becomes ever smaller and smaller.

What Delayed Auntie.

Aunt Martha, in town with her daughter, who had to be operated upon, was having her first taste of urban life. To while away her time she "hired out" as a cook. The first Saturday night she was at work her employer sent her to make some purchases. She was hours returning and as the distance was short, her employer grew rather anxious about her. She came in about 11:20.

mormons to Dedicate Temple.

The Mormons of Canada and many from the United States will gather at Cardston, Alberta, next May to attend the dedication of the great temple that has been in process of erection since 1914. The building will cost $1,500,000 when completed and will be unlike any other structure in the domain. The paintings for the rooms and the decorations for the other interiors are now being finished. It is one of the show places of southern Alberta.

Somewhat Ambiguous.

Among the local items that appeared in a country paper was this: "Paul McManus met with a painful accident last week. A fishhook became entangled in his eye. Paul is being attended by Doctor Evers, who says his eye will come out all right."

Potatoes Used as Currency.

Potatoes are now used as the standard currency in certain remote agricultural districts of Poland, since the value of the potato fluctuates less than that of paper money. In the district around Grodno, for instance, the American Red Cross reports, all the local help employed in warehousing or in the activities of the field units is remunerated in a weekly wage of potatoes.

Worked for One.

In a little settlement upstate a number of the property owners had been talking about incorporating and making a town. So they called a mass meeting for the people to voice their opinions.

Only one man opposed it. He said: "Gentlemen, I am not in for making a corporation of this place. My reason is this: I worked for one of them corporations once." — Indianapolis News.
