The Tillamook high school basketball team will compete with the Newberg team at the high school gym on Friday evening, January 28.

The Ray hop yard over the river is being made ready for the next crop. One of the improvements is a new cabin 16 feet wide and 200 feet long.

The H. M. Hoskins family went to McMinnville for a Sunday visit with relatives, Mrs. Hoskins and Master Lewis remaining over until Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Scott, who has been here from Salem during the week, visiting her daughter, Miss Gladys, who is a student in college, said that she would locate here as soon as she could make a sale of her home in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davis, former residents out on the mountain beyond Springbrook, came Wednesday for a visit with his brother, John, and family. They have been living at Albany for several years, where Mr. Davis has a job with the Oregon Electric. They had three sons in the army, one of whom never returned.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Haworth, of Springbrook, who went to Southern California, six weeks ago are home again. They visited their son, Huber and family, at Puente, and with his brother, Rev. Richard Haworth, at Whittier, as well as with other relatives. They say that citrus fruits are going to waste down there, owing to the slowness of market conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hagey, former residents out near Dundee, are down from Bickleton, Washington, on a visit. Mr. Hagey is a wheat farmer and he said that while he might have sold his crop at one time at $2.50 per bushel, he sold later at $1.55, and wheat is now down to $1.35 there. He further expressed the belief that the price would drop to $1.00 before the bottom is reached.

C. W. Powell, Civil War veteran and long time resident of Dayton, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mattie A. Hadley, in Oregon City, last Sunday, aged 90 years. Funeral services were conducted at Dayton on Wednesday, by the G. A. R. post, of Dayton, of which he had long been a member. Deceased was a brother of Cap. W. S. Powell, also deceased, who was for many years a resident of Dayton, where he was active in business affairs.

Orville Smith, proprietor of the Newberg Restaurant, moved his fixtures across the street Wednesday, to his new location in the room in the Edwards building, formerly occupied by G. W. Brentner's grocery. The front has been changed, placing the door directly between the windows in the center instead of at the corner, as formerly, and the room has been brightened up with fresh paint so that it looks like new. The appointments of the restaurant are now first class, and it would rank well in a large city.

With conditions as they now are throughout the country the wise course for those who are not pretty full-handed financially is to remain close to shore. A certain Newberg party has near relatives who drove through to Southern California a few months ago, and they now write him that they have sold their machine to get money to live on, and are asking for assistance in getting back to Oregon. Samuel Van Blaricom, brother of J. L. Van Blaricom, of Newberg, who drove through to Southern California in a machine has returned to Vancouver, Washington and says he found work hard to get down there, the same as elsewhere.

An obituary of Mrs. Marie Christianson, deceased, which came in too late for the paper this week will be published next week.

Newberg, Oregon, January 27, 1921.

Within the next 30 days we shall occupy the premises of the Newberg Restaurant in conjunction with our present office and store. We purposed to make this change last September but in justice to our tenant we did not take over the premises until other quarters could be secured for the restaurant in the Edwards building. When we have completed remodeling the building we will have one of the best and most complete electric stores in the Willamette Valley, and will carry a full line of the choicest electrical merchandise, at prices that are right. We will carry a stock large enough to accommodate the several towns we do business in, and buying in quantities we propose to give our customers the benefit of the best prices possible.

We are glad to say the prices of electrical merchandise are downward and we have made some substantial reductions in prices on a good many articles. We respectfully invite you to visit our store and inspect our stock. Electric ranges we sell at cost. The rate we give for electric cooking competes with any fuel cost and the satisfaction derived from this method of food preparation is emphasized by those who use the electric range.

Majestic Heaters formerly $13.00 we now sell for $10.25

Electric Irons (Hot Point) formerly $8.25 now sell for $6.98.

Electric Toasters (Hot Point) formerly $8.25 now sell at $6.98

Electric Toasters (Westinghouse, Automatic Turnover) now sell for $6.98.

Haag Electric Washing Machine, all metal with heavy copper tub; 10-sheet capacity with G. E. motor, with swinging wringer; formerly sold for $155.00, now $131.58 cash Terms if desired.
