

Teach Children To Save

Start the kiddies right by making them want to save their money.

A personal savings account in a high-class banking institution like this, where children are given the proper attention and encouragement to handle their own finances is a good start in the right direction. One dollar opens an account.

LAD HILL

Mrs. P. Graham met with a painful accident recently, when she stepped in a hole and threw her ankle out of place. Mrs. Grace Kiser has been taking care of her.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sovey came out from Portland to attend the sixth anniversary of Commercial Club Hall.

The masquerade dance was a success in every way. Prizes were given to the best characters as follows: Ladies' first prize, a beautiful hand-painted picture, to Miss Kathleen Cone, of Newberg; second prize, a lovely hand-made dolly, to Miss Letha Cone, of Donald; third prize, a handkerchief with beautiful hair pin lace edge, to Mrs. Joe Roberts. Gentlemen's prizes were: first prize, a beautiful hand-painted picture, to Joe Graham, of Butteville; second prize, a box of home-made candy to Mr. Bartell, of Ladd Hill, and third prize a deck of cards to Mrs. Grace Kiser, who impersonated the "Inspector." The birthday fruit cake was beautiful. It was a story cake decorated with scroll work and pink roses with the six candles on top and was auctioned off in slices, bringing $15.75. The cake was baked by Mrs. Geo. Smith.

Miss Olive Purdy, of Salem, was down to attend the masquerade Saturday.

C. C. Loucks had his car towed to Wilsonville Monday for repairs.

R. H. Walls and C. C. Loucks went to Oregon City Wednesday on road business.

George Smith had a very narrow escape Monday when his cream separator "exploded." The threads on a large bolt, that holds the skimming device together had become so worn that it came loose while he was separating the milk, and as this bowl goes at a terrific speed (about 10,000 revolutions to the minute) the air was full of parts of the separator for a short time. One part of the bowl hit George near the temple, cutting quite a gash. He had to buy a new separator, but he is very thankful that it was no worse.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Kiser visited with Mr. Kiser's sister, Mrs. P. Graham, Monday.

A very pleasant birthday surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. George Smith Sunday, when home-folks brought well filled baskets with good things to eat and came to spend the day. As their birthdays are only two days apart both events were celebrated the same day. They were presented with a beautiful set of dishes from "all." Those who came to celebrate were: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Parrish, of Fernwood, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith, John Watson, Alice Smith, Melba Tautfest, Howard Smith, Melvin Tautfest, Donald Ward.

Delmar Kiser has gone to Buxton where he has a contract for getting out telephone and telegraph poles.

Don't forget the "Mysterious Fannie Brown," will be at the Clubhouse Saturday, March 5.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday school at 9:45. We are aiming to make it one of the best in Oregon.

Morning Worship at 11:00—"Undervaluation."

Y.P.S.C.E. at 6:30—"The Kingdom." LaVerne Hodson, leader.

Evening Worship at 7:30—Reports of Every-member Visitors; and Message on The Urgency of the Hour.

Mid-week service Wednesday at 7:40. All friends not attending elsewhere urgently invited.

Geo. H. Lee, Pastor.

NAZARENE CHURCH

The revival meeting at the Nazarene church is continuing with increased interest and victory. Rev. F. B. Smith and family are now in charge. Brother Smith preaches a strong gospel message and the family of five sing inspiring songs, accompanying on various instruments.

Regular preaching service every night at 7:30, preceded by one-half hour of prayer. Three services Sunday: 11 a. m., 2:30 and 7:30 p. m.

All are cordially invited.

C. D. Norris, Pastor.

Wiles of a Country Editor.

"I've hit upon a great scheme," said the editor of a small local paper. "I nearly doubled our circulation last week."

"How'd you work it?"

"See that steel stamp? Well, I just cut out a paragraph in the society column of the whole edition."

"How'd that help the circulation?"

"Why, every woman in town bought an extra copy to see what had been cut out."—For Worth Star-Telegram.

When a loaf of bread becomes hard or dry wet it all over with cold water, wrap it in a damp towel and put it in a hot oven for 5 minutes. You will find it like new bread.

To lengthen the usefulness of fat pour it through a cloth laid over the strainer each time after use. This removes the foreign substances that usually burn before the fat is thoroughly heated and causes the dissatisfaction of repeated frying in the same fat.

When you fill the jar with preserves do not fail to have the syrup overrun the top. This will insure airtightness.

Save the top off a pineapple, put it in a pint jar of water and it will soon root. Then pot as you would any other plant and you will have a pretty decoration for the porch.

Cheap silence cloth—An excellent substitute will be found in an old honeycomb spread that has served its days of usefulness on the bed.

Fish, like meat, is high in body-building value.

Add shredded cocoanut to your cup custards.

Fish, stewed with macaroni is an agreeable novelty.

Fruit should be eaten each night before going to bed.

Doughnuts should be mixed as soft as possible.

Dye white silk hose which have turned yellow.

Placing a mirror where it will catch the light from an open doorway will lighten a small, narrow hallway and make it seem wider.

"Well, professor," inquired the young musician, "how do my compositions please you?"

"Why, I think," responded the older man, "that they may perhaps be played when Mozart, Haydn, Mendelssohn and Meyerbeer have been forgotten."

"Really?" exclaimed the young musician in ecstasy.

"Certainly, but not till then," remarked the other.—Houston Post.
