FERNWOOD

A surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Livengood Saturday night, by some of their neighbors and friends. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Brouillette, Mr. and Mrs. W. Boyes, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Gill, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cummins and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Pocell.

Last Thursday the Ladies' Embroidery Club met at the home of Mrs. H. E. Pocell. They will meet at the home of Mrs. U. S. Bryant on Thursday, March 17.

Mrs. C. H. Wheeler, from Portland, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Bryant Sunday. Mrs. Wheeler is a sister of Mr. Bryant.

Virgil Bush, brother of Mrs. Joy Roberts of Laurel, spent Saturday and Sunday with the Roberts family. The Gall family were visitors at the Roberts home Sunday.

Mrs. A. B. Sherf, who has been sick again with tonsillitis, is now able to be up again.

There will be a play given at the Fernwood gymnasium Saturday night, entitled "Just For Fun." All come and enjoy a pleasant evening.

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Brouillette and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Powell and daughter, Effie, were guests for dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Farrell, Sunday.

C. Gettman, father of Casper Gettman, spent Saturday and Sunday with the Gettman family.

March 1 being Mrs. L. Adolf's birthday a number of her friends and neighbors gathered in to help her celebrate. The afternoon was spent in pleasant conversation after which a dainty dinner was served by her two daughters, Mrs. Colfelt and Mrs. Smith. A large birthday cake with sixty-six candles on it was made for the occasion. On leaving everyone wished Mrs. Adolf many more birthdays.

Mrs. U. S. Bryant spent Sunday afternoon in Portland.

Harold Jones spent Tuesday afternoon with us. Come again, Harold.

We appreciate the improvements and repairs that the school property is receiving. The work is being done by Mr. Nichols, who is making a good job of it.

Now the sun mounts higher, higher
As he speeds his onward way
And his bright beams, ever brighter,
Glances many a warming ray.
Robins winging through the open
Bring us messages of cheer;
Spring is coming, coming, coming,
Good by, Winter! Spring is here.

Last Thursday being Mrs. Henry Offel's silver wedding anniversary, a pleasant surprise was given her by the members of the German Methodist church. It was rather a surprise all around for when her friends arrived they found Mrs. Offel away

DUNDEE

Miss Selma Cramer, of The Dalles, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Henry Holzmeyer. On Saturday evening, February 26, Mrs. Holzmeyer entertained in honor of Mr. Holzmeyer's birthday, and about forty guests enjoyed the social evening and the refreshments, a large birthday cake with the appropriate number of candles being the special feature of the menu.

The Women of Woodcraft entertained the Woodmen of the World on Thursday evening, of the twenty-fourth of February. Games and elaborate refreshments were enjoyed by the large number of both lodges attending.

The regular meeting of the Dundee Woman's Club was held at Community Hall on Thursday. It was one of the largest attended meetings of the year. After a short business meeting an interesting program was enjoyed. It was a review of the recent Portland trip, each lady present who had taken the trip contributing what to her was the most striking feature of the day's outing, after which a general summing up of the sights at the six manufacturing visited was given by one of the members. Apparently nothing escaped the visitors and the keen interest shown was a tribute to the earnestness and understanding of our Dundee homemakers.

The most widely discussed and best appreciated feature was the cleanliness and order of every plant inspected, and next in interest was the almost human machinery. This club day being the birthday of Mrs. Bland Herring, a birthday cake with candles was placed before Mrs. Herring for her to wish upon. In response to a demand for a speech Mrs. Herring told of her seventh birthday the amusing incidents of which delighted the assembly. Mrs. Bernhard Groth was hostess for the day, assisted by Mrs. Hutchinson and Mrs. Greer. The Dundee school teachers, Mrs. Langellier, Mrs. Devore, Mrs. Carl Groth, Mrs. Francis Keyes, and Miss Selma Cramer were guests of the afternoon.

At the next meeting of the Dundee Woman's club, which will be held on Thursday, March 17, a discussion of Oregon made goods will be the principal part of the program. Each club member is asked to come prepared to tell what of her own state products she is using and why she likes them.

On Monday evening, March 7, relatives and neighbors were invited to the W. S. Allan home to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Alfred Allan and Bruno Homberger, son-in-law of the family. The large number present enjoyed the social time, the games, and the most beautiful birthday cake ever seen by many of them. Happy returns to both honor guests.

Mirandy, of dusky line, made a poor witness. In answer to every question put to her by the attorney she invariably replied, "I think so." The attorney finally became disgusted.

"Now look here," he warned. "I want you to cut out that thinking and answer questions. Now talk!"

"Yes, sah," quavered Mirandy. "But, mistah, you see it's like dis. Ah ain't like you lawyers; ah can't talk without thinkin'."
