PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NEWS

Church Services.

Morning service April 10th at 11 with the usual fine music. Theme, of pastor, "A Bloodless Gospel," Jude 11. Evening worship at 7:30. A pleasant Sabbath evening; good music. Theme, "Creation, or the Wonder of Genesis 1st."

Sabbath school at 9:45 for all not attending elsewhere, and Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:30. "The Lord's Day," Matt. 12:1-13. leader, Miss Olga Keller.

Will Attend Presbytery.

Mr. Crow and Mr. Lee are to attend the meeting of Presbytery at Eugene, beginning Tuesday afternoon at 2:30, probably leaving here at 6:04 that morning. A meeting of great interest and value is looked for. A pageant of the resurrection, entitled "The Dawning," is to be given that evening by the choir and congregation of the Eugene Presbyterian church. The next evening Dr. H. P. Packard of Urumia, Persia, is to speak. He has been head of the Westminster hospital there for the past 18 years.

The Wednesday evening mid-week service here will be omitted on account of the pastor's absence. Mr. Lee hopes to be at home again early Thursday.

Woman's Presbyterial Society.

The annual meeting of the Women's Presbyterial society is held this week at Dallas. Mrs. Lee and Miss Lee, from India, are to attend, also Mrs. Goff, Mrs. Oliver Evans and Mrs. Langellier. A meeting of unusual interest is looked for.

Entertain Choir

A delightful social evening was given to the choir at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodworth Tuesday. Music by Mr. Woodworth, also by Mrs. C. A. Morris and Mrs. Paul Newmeyer, and the male quartet was greatly enjoyed. Exquisite refreshments were served by Mrs. Woodworth, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Durstine. The choir and the officers of the church are to be congratulated upon the good spirit and earnest interest now characterizing the church's work. It looks like the opening of the best year yet.

Annual Meeting

The annual congregational meeting held last Wednesday evening began with a covered dish supper at 7:00 o'clock and was a most interesting and encouraging meeting. Besides the delightful social spirit, the annual reports from all departments of the church made excellent reading. Mr. Crow and Mr. Asmus were re-elected elders, and Mr. Coggins added to the Session. Mr. E. E. Goff was re-elected to the board of trustees.

The church manual recently issued by the pastor proves to be a handy manual for answering the questions often asked respecting this church. A copy is free for every member of the congregation. All are requested too, to remember the firms advertising in its pages, when out shopping; by their aid the handy little book was issued.

The Sunday morning services last Sunday at the Methodist church were devoted entirely to the admission of new members and to their instruction. Twenty-three new members were received on probation and five were transferred by letter from other churches.

FRIENDS CHURCH

Rev. L. Clarkson Hinshaw, superintendent of Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends, will deliver a sermon Sabbath morning at 11:00 o'clock. The sermon subject will be, "The Central Message of Quakerism." This is a timely message and will be of special interest to all. All members of the church are urged to be present. Everyone not worshipping elsewhere is cordially invited to attend the meetings at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The message in the evening will be given by the pastor on the subject, "Jesus Christ Crucified." Fred E. Carter, Pastor.

ANNUAL MEETING AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The 14th annual meeting will be held at the church building on Saturday, April 9. The program will commence at 10 a. m. sharp with a song service, followed by reports, etc. Dinner will be served in the basement at noon after which two special addresses will be delivered prior to election of officers. After supper at 6:30, the C. E. will present their program and the day will be concluded by an address by the pastor, C. H. Phillips. All the members are urged to make a special effort to spend the whole day.

W. F. M. S. TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING HERE APRIL 12-13

The Columbia River Branch of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church will meet here on April 12 and 13. Mrs. Matt. S. Hughes of Portland, president of the Columbia River Branch and widow of the late Bishop Hughes, will preside at the sessions, which will be held at the local M. E. church. About 50 delegates are expected to be present from Portland as well as many others from various points over the district, which includes the states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Dr. Hewitt will make an address on the opening night. Dr. Hewitt, who is at present the pastor of Rose City Park church in Portland, was for many years a missionary to Japan and he will speak of his experiences in that country. Special musical numbers will add to the program and other features will be added.

The sessions on Wednesday, the 13th, will be taken up with the business of the organization. The Columbia River Branch handles many thousands of dollars annually in the carrying on of its missionary work, and this will be a very important meeting.

METHODIST CHURCH HOLDS ITS ANNUAL BANQUET THURSDAY

The choir of the M. E. church held its annual banquet at the church last Thursday evening, March 31, when 41 persons gathered around the festive board and thoroughly enjoyed themselves for a full evening.

The rooms had been very beautifully decorated for this occasion, the color scheme being yellow and white. Tables were arranged in the shape of a U with a beautiful golden harp occupying the space in the center. Baskets of flowers hung about over the tables adding to the effective arrangement. The catering, decorating and arranging for the banquet was in the hands of the Epworth League, with Arthur Titus acting as chairman of the committee in charge.

V. V. Gould, who is the director of the choir, presided as toastmaster and introduced the various speakers. Toasts were given by Miss Velma McConkie, Earl Pinney, Tom Tyndall, Rev. C. E. Gibson, Mrs. Verona Nelson and Mrs. James McWhannel. This banquet marks the beginning of the tenth year of the choir under its present organization.

The membership of the choir is as follows: V. V. Gould, director; Miss Mabel Miller, pianist; Mrs. Clyde Stretch, Mrs. Fred Kennedy, Miss Marie Krohn, Miss Anna Myrtle Deach, Miss Helen Scott, Miss Clara Haymes, Mrs. Ella H. Harvey, Mrs. Verona Nelson, Mrs. Frances Bauer, Miss Ella Prettyman, Glenn S. Taylor, Mrs. James McWhannel, Henry Clemmens, Clyde F. Stretch, James E. Martin, Earl H. Pinney, G. F. Prazier, Mrs. Arthur Hodson, Mrs. Ralph G. Otis, James McWhannel, Miss Effie Pinney, Miss Mariel Yarnell, Mrs. G. W. Dart, Mrs. Argie Ginn Gould, Miss Mildred Benoit, Mrs. Chas. E. Gibson, Mrs. M. E. Vandell, Mrs. Walter Bartlett, Mrs. Byron Brown, Miss Velma McConkie.

CONTEST CLOSES AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The conclusion of the contest between the boys and girls of the C. E. society of the Christian church was celebrated in royal style last Friday evening, when about forty-five young people sat down to a full course banquet provided by the vanquished and enjoyed by all. Short pithy speeches followed and added zest to the dinner after which the Male Quartet from Eugene Bible University gave a ninety-minute entertainment, which has never been excelled and but rarely equalled in this town. The C. E. society is proud of their effort and is planning other profitable and enjoyable times in the near future.

Floors—Refinish Yours Yourself with paint or varnish. We tell how

IT'S a simple matter, if you cannot get a painter, to refinish any floor—fun, in fact, to do the work yourself.

We make the finest finishes. They dry over night, so you can walk on them in the morning.

They are made for laymen's use as well as painter's—they flow and spread easily and cover well. The result is a smooth and lustrous finish—just the one you want to get, although you—an amateur—do the work.

Women can apply these products as well as men.

Fuller makes a famous floor paint—Rubber Cement Floor Paint and two famous var-ishes called "Fifteen-for-Floors" and "Fullerwear."

They are Fuller's Specifications for home floors—each for a particular effect.

We make also a special line of paints, varnishes, enamels, etc., for all kinds of interior decorating. And we maintain a Free Advice Department that will tell you in detail how to use them. You simply describe the article, how finished now, and the effect you want to get.

We've specified these materials and methods for you after 72 years' experience with paints and painting practice. We are one of the largest paint manufacturers in the United States.

Don't think you can't do work like this simply because you haven't ever done it. Follow Fuller Specifications and you'll get the right effect.

LITTLE FOLKS PRESENT PAGEANT—PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Under the capable direction of Mrs. Lee the Light Bearers of the Presbyterian church gave a very excellent entertainment at the church on last Friday evening before a good audience. The program, which lasted for nearly two hours, was given by 52 children ranging in age up to 13 years, and who were in costume.

While this was a repetition of a previous entertainment, there were many new numbers added to the program and the reception given its rendition was most hearty and spontaneous. Mrs. Lee is to be congratulated upon her excellent training of the little folks.
