Sunday Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Newhouse entertained Mr. Chamberlain and wife of Chehalis, and Mrs. and Miss Rusk.

Ball game Friday afternoon between Springbrook and Newberg resulted in a score of 9 to 18 in favor of Newberg.

M. G. Mills and family have returned to this part of the country. For the past few years they have resided in Idaho.

S. S. Duncan and wife drove up from McMinnville Saturday and spent over Sunday with their two sons that are running Mr. Duncan's farm.

Miss Lora Putman went to Portland Friday and will take treatments at the Portland Medical hospital. She has been in poor health for some time.

David Hobson of Winthrop, California, is at home on a visit to his parents. Miss Gertrude of Portland and Alfred also were at home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders returned to Springbrook after a four years' absence. They have been visiting throughout the east, and California, this past winter. They are the guests of Will Shires at present.

SUNNYCREST

We like your "Berrian" idea, Mr. Kilham, and will soon have enough berries producing out this way to qualify. We are all awake and willing to help.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crater and Mr. and Mrs. Parks drove over to Scholls to attend the funeral of Mr. Koerber. Mr. Crater is acquainted in that section of the country, having lived there several years ago.

Saturday evening a very enjoyable time was spent by several of the neighbors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Alspaugh. The Alspaughs are new folks and this occasion was taken to get acquainted.

The funeral of Charles G. Koerber, who died at the hospital in Portland last Tuesday, was held at the Scholls church Friday, April 15, this having been his home neighborhood for some 28 years. The past year, however, he made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Chas. K. Hubbard, two miles west of Newberg.

The "Isaac Waltons" of the neighborhood, Al Namitz and Chas. Hubbard, went to the mountains for a fish last Sunday. Their report was: Had fisherman been fish it would have required a truck to bring home the catch, but as they were only "poor fishes" the upper shirt pocket furnished ample room.

Several of the neighbors helped Harley Hall celebrate his birthday Monday evening. It would take a volume to tell of the good time and all the good things there were to eat. But justice was done to both in a far better manner than mere words can express. All present wished Mr. Hall many more such happy birthdays.

Some men are born to trouble, some make trouble, and some have trouble thrust upon them. The correspondent qualifies in all three categories. Being human he is born to trouble; being given a bottle of ink he has trouble thrust upon him, and the way he uses said ink is sure to make trouble. But the gist of all these words is simply the fact that the author has taken upon himself to name that portion of the United States that lies along the road directly west of First street, Newberg, Oregon, and continues with said road until it fades and dies in the heart of the Red Hills. The name chosen is "Sunnycrest." If this gives anyone a "grouch" don't blame the editor, but come and send the correspondent to the hospital.

CHEHALEM CENTER

Mrs. Elsie Tange was a Portland visitor over Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Myer left Friday evening for a week-end visit with relatives in Portland.

Miss Emma Kiltham, who is a member of the Teachers' Training class at Newberg high school, accompanied by Mrs. Atrell, visited the school all day last Thursday.

There was a little mistake in last week's write-up about Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hall motoring to Dufur, Oregon, returning with Mrs. Alta Christianson and the Quinn children. It was Harley Hall, instead of Mr. Harley.

Rev. Paul Lewis and Mrs. Lewis returned from their sojourn at Cloverdale, where they held a series of very successful revival meetings. They were tired but glad they could do the work of the Master.

The W. C. T. U. meeting at the home of Mrs. Elwood Hodson last Wednesday was not very well attended, owing to various reasons. Another meeting is called this week at the home of Mrs. Mary Johnson.

Mrs. Olive Graves' mother passed away last Wednesday morning. The body was brought to Newberg by C. A. Hodson, the undertaker. Funeral services were held at the chapel in Newberg Sunday afternoon. Interment at Rose Lawn cemetery. Mrs. Graves has the kindest sympathy of her many friends in her sorrow and bereavement.

Last Friday evening the Parent-Teachers held their meeting consisting of music, etc. Marian Coupples gave one of her good numbers and there also was a debate—"Resolved, that the tractor is more beneficial than the horse to the farmer." Robert Shires and Lawrence Baker spoke for the affirmative and Edward Johnson and Paul Marnach for the negative. Henry Haverman, Ancel Tykson and Mrs. Marie Tange served as judges, awarding the laurels to the negative side. It is conceded by all that the horse after all is the best friend of the farmer. The Kohls comedians were also present and presented their entertainment, which consisted of music, comic, vaudeville and a punching bag contest.

LAD HILL

George St. Clair returned home from Portland Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kiser were Newberg shoppers last week.

A. E. Peterson had the misfortune to lose his brooder house, new brooder, oil heater and 200 baby chicks over a week old. The fire was supposed to have been started by the explosion of the heater. Mrs. Peterson was awakened, but too late to save anything from the building. It was a total loss and is estimated to be about $200.

The Parent-Teachers' association met on Wednesday of last week. A goodly number were present. Officers were elected. A new president was elected; the rest of the old officers were retained. The Parent-Teachers' during the first three months of the year served hot lunches twice a week—Tuesday and Thursday—which were greatly enjoyed by all the children and teachers. The association meets the second week of each month.

Mrs. C. C. Wiley and Mrs. Asmus gave a surprise dinner at the home of Simon Sanderman in honor of their sister, Mrs. Sanderman's birthday. The family went to church and after leaving the house, Mrs. Wiley, with the car filled with good things to eat, went to the Sanderman home and prepared a big dinner. When they came home the whole family was much surprised to find the tables set and well filled. Those present were the three sisters and their families, being twenty in number.
