Preaching, 8:00 p. m.

During the past two months the Sunday schools of Methodism have been giving attention to the social teachings of the Bible. This is one of the most timely subjects that could have been chosen at this juncture in the making of American history. An unusual interest has been manifested in the work done in the classes, one class having increased in attendance by about fifty per cent.

On next Sabbath morning a brief review of all the general social problems will be made, considering them as "The Challenge to the Church."

On last Sunday morning, Dr. Gibson preached an unusually fine sermon on the value of dreams and their reality. Emphasis was placed on the idea that only by ambitious effort and the greatest of sacrifice can we realize our vision of worthy house of worship for Methodism in Newberg. On last Sunday morning, Dr. Gibson asked all the members to remain for a short time after the preaching service. At that meeting it was decided that a get-together meeting of all Methodists and those whose church preference was Methodist to be held in the city park on Sunday, July 31. This service will be in the form of a one day camp meeting, and will be addressed by Bishop William O. Shepard of Portland.

The meeting will be held in the park because the local church will accommodate only about half the membership.

On next Sunday the Epworth League will be led by Mrs. F. J. Deach.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Morning service at 11:00 after Sabbath school at 9:45. Evening worship at 8:00 after Y. P. S. C. E. meeting at 7:00. Message at morning worship on "Accountability to God." Rom. 14:12. And at evening worship, "Regard for Law." Heb. 10:28. C. E. topic, "Lives that Inspire Us." Heb. 11:32-40; 12:11; leader, Frank Cogins. This is the work that all young people need who are to be blessed and a blessing.

Mid-week service Wednesday at 8:00. Meeting of the Women's Missionary society Tuesday at 2:30 at home of Mrs. John E. Bradley at Triple Oaks. The program committee asks members to study June number of Home Mission Monthly and be ready to answer questions on any article in it at the meeting.

The union teachers-training on Monday evening at Presbyterian chapel at 8:00. Will all Newberg pastors and Sunday School superintendents please take notice and also give the notice with sympathy on Sunday. All are requested to observe the undenominational and christian character of this movement and its exceeding great importance at this time to our town and to our great Sunday School work in the various churches. The first necessity is good teachers, true teachers, trained teachers. In order to know a thing well, one should try to teach it to others, and to teach it in the best way possible. And true christian teaching is an exceeding great need of our day.

Rehearsal of our young people's choir on Friday evening at 7:30. A delightful C. E. business meeting and social was held at home of Miss Olive Reid Tuesday evening. Miss Olga Keller, Edith Sanderman, Olive Reid, Florence and Mildred and Mr. and Mrs. Reid, Llewellyn Sanderman, Mr. and Mrs. Lee, Frank Cogins, and Marjorie, Hillis Hannings, Ralph Irwin, Clarence Fitcher, Margaret Anderson, Mrs. Best and Miss Elva were among those present.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOTES

The continued success of the evening services is very cheering to those responsible for the work of the church. Last Sunday evening a large congregation entered heartily into the song service, always an inspiring part of the evening hour, and enjoyed a straightforward sermon in which the pastor gave some sound reasons why everyone should become a member of the church of Christ.

At the C. W. B. M. meeting held last week the new officers for the coming year were elected as follows: president, Mrs. Sickafous, (re-elected); vice-president, Mrs. Phillips; secretary, Mrs. Kelly, (re-elected); treasurer, Mrs. Miller, (re-elected); literary secretary, Mrs. O. Evans.

Several members of the C. E. society motored over to McMinnville last week to attend a rally given by the Yamhill societies. A very enjoyable time was spent not the least of which was the midnight lunch on the road home and the wandering among the hills in search of the right road home from Yamhill.

Mrs. Sloan left for the east on Wednesday to visit indefinitely with her friends there. We are all sorry to lose her for her faithfulness and cheery assistance has always been a source of inspiration to us.

Plans are being laid for a very interesting contest in the Bible school and members are warned to be ready for there will be something doing very soon. Come out each Sunday that you may be in on the ground floor.

Two specially good sermons are promised for next Sunday. In the morning at 11 the topic will be "The Call to the Heroic" and in the evening at 8 Mr. Phillips will give an exposition of the 24th chapter of Matthew. This prophetic chapter has been a source of much confusion and one will be profited by hearing this sermon.

A special invitation is extended to any not otherwise engaged to be with the membership at the prayer meeting hour on Wednesday of each week at 7:30. The book of Acts will be studied under the direction of the pastor.

Bible school, 10 a. m.—make it 100.

Praise service, 11 a. m.—a good meeting.

Lake Keechelus—in the heart of the Cascades, Washington

Through the heart of the Cascades

The Gasoline of Quality

ON the motor road from Seattle to Tacoma and the East, the motorist passes through many points of unusual scenic interest.

Lake Keechelus is one of these. It is over six miles in length, having the appearance of a great river, and is situated at an elevation of 3,000 feet in the very heart of the Cascade range.

Motorists will find this region a most enchanting country dotted with beautiful lakes and mountains and huge fir, spruce and cedar trees measuring in some instances six to eight feet in diameter.

And all along the route the motorist can get Red Crown Gasoline—the all-refinery motor fuel that insures quick starting, rapid acceleration and more power.

Look for the Red Crown sign.
