QUARTERLY MEETING AT
FREE METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. W. N. Coffee, who has been pastor of the Newberg Free Methodist church for the past two years, but who is now serving as district elder over the Salem district, will hold Quarterly meeting in Newberg, July 1 to 3.
 Those who have heard Rev. Coffee, recognize him to be a very able preacher and will be pleased to know they are afforded another opportunity to hear him.
 H. E. Krieder, Pastor.

METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.
 Preaching, 11 a. m.
 Epworth League, 7 p. m.
 Preaching, 8 p. m.
 Prayer meeting Wednesday, 8 p. m.
 On next Sunday morning the Sunday school will begin a series of lessons on the life of Paul of Tarsus.
 These lessons will run for a number of months and promise to be the best yet.
 On Friday, July 8, the Vanguard class will be entertained by the King's Workers class at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Z. L. Chamberlain.
 On last Sunday morning, Dr. Gibson preached an excellent sermon, taking for his theme, "As Thy Days, so shall Thy Strength be Also."
 On next Sunday morning Dr. M.
 C. Wire will fill the pulpit for Dr.
 Gibson. Dr. Wire requires no introduction to Newberg, and never fails to present an excellent sermon.
 The evening service will be conducted by Mrs. Oscar Huddleston in the interest of Philippine missions.
 The Women's Home Missionary society will meet on the afternoon of Tuesday, July 5, at the home of Mrs.
 John Hornbrook, 712 Fourth street.
 This is the silver tea meeting. All members and friends of the society are urged to attend.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Bible school 10 a. m. Help this work.
 Baptismal service, 11 a. m. A good sermon too.
 Junior C. E., 5 p. m. Send your boy.
 Senior C. E., 7 p. m. This is for you.
 Song service, 8 p. m. A helpful hour.
 Presence of visitors always appreciated.
 C. H. Phillips, Pastor.

Friday night last week was a memorable one for the pastor and his wife. Mrs. Phillips was in the garden and Mr. Phillips was deep in his sermon for the coming Sunday evening when they were both startled to see a regiment of people coming down Fulton street loaded with good things. It was about 75 of the members who had come to give what they termed a house warming and they succeeded well for both the recipients were some time getting cooled off. Besides a purse of money, the number of good things which were showered upon them amounted to nearly 100 lbs of groceries. The evening was spent in singing and recitations and general enjoyment. Closing with a light lunch of wafers and punch, the latter being particularly good.

The evening service last week was one of the best attended yet and many favorable comments concerning the sermon were heard.
 These services are not too long and it is the aim of the minister to make them both interesting and instructive.

A number of the Endeavors called at the home of Mr. Bottom before the C. E. hour and sang some of the old time songs for them. Mrs.
 Bottom is unable to leave the house and this is a true and good Christian work. It is hoped that many others will be visited in this manner.

Special patriotic service in the Bible school next Lord's day by the Junior boys. A prize to every boy and girl who brings a visitor and also a like present to the visitor.

 Make this a big day.

Two good services are promised for next Sunday. In the morning the sermon entitled "God in the Sermon on the Mount," will be followed by a baptismal service when two candidates will be immersed. In the evening the pastor will speak on "Questions of the day and The Question of the Day." Don't miss either of these. Bring a friend. The church is unfortunate in again losing some good members. Mrs. Sloan went two weeks ago and this past week, Mr. and Mrs. Martin and family left for Hillsboro. We shall miss the fellowship and assistance that was always manifested by them but wish them well in their new home and work.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sabbath school at 9:45. Bible study is one of our greatest needs.
 It is a fine time to begin now for the new lessons in the life of Paul beginning with this quarter. The men's class is now studying in the books of Revelation.
 Morning worship at 11:00. Holy communion. This is a plain commandment of God's word and required by our Savior. "This do ye in remembrance of Me." And ought we not to do it? Members of the church who are not able to be at other services should not fail to be present and commune with Christ at His table.
 Y. P. S. C. E. at 7:00 led by Clarence Fitch. "God's Will."
 Evening service at 8:00, patriotic service celebrating God's kindness to our land. Theme, "Our National Liberty." Deut. 25:17.
 If the usual union teachers-training class is postponed from Monday on account of the Fourth, it is hoped that due notice will be given in the various pulpits on Sabbath. Watch for such notice. The class has started finely, and Mr. Phillips is proving himself a capable student and excellent leader and teacher.
 The Sunday school must raise up teachers of the word.
 Wednesday at 8:00, mid-week service. "Saul the Pharisee." Acts 7:54 to 8:3; 22:3,4; 26:4,5,9,10.
 All who wish refreshing should be present at the mid-week service and Bible hour.

The new members received by the session of the church to membership last Sabbath will be publicly welcomed at the communion service, and it is expected will enter freely and heartily with us into the service of the Master.

The night message sent by this church on Armenian peril is a model perhaps and may encourage others to do likewise. "To Hon. Chas.
 L. McNary, Robert N. Stanfield, Willis C. Hawley, U. S. Senate and House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. In behalf of the membership and congregation of the local Presbyterian church we respectfully bring to your attention the situation existing in the Near East. The Armenians face annihilation unless speedy help comes from without.
 America is now in position to give it. Our government and congress should take up question at once. We of your constituency urge you to do all in your power to this end and do it vigorously. Signed H. S.
 Britt, R. J. Davey, Com." Senator McNary replies: "Entirely in accordance with your telegram asking speedy relief for Armenia and will do what I can. C. L. Mc-Nary."

If many others on their own initiative will do likewise, many lives may be saved. Do not wait for others.

Thursday at 8:00, young folks choir rehearsal. Important.

The meeting of the Ladies missionary society at the home of Mrs.
 John Bradley Tuesday afternoon was a very pleasant and excellent meeting. Among those present were Mrs. Reid, Mrs. Woodworth, Mrs.
 Rustrine, Mrs. Langton, Mrs. Sanderman, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Chapin, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Lutz, Mrs. Oliver Evans, Miss Gillis, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Cousens, Mrs.
 Lefevre, Mrs. Gordon. And "Triple Oaks" was agreed on as a fine place for the meeting on a summer day.
 Hostess of next meeting, July 26, is Mrs. Evans.

The Peoples Cash Store closed their store at McMinville and moved their stock to Salem according to the Wil-lamina Times.

THE CAMP FIRE GIRLS
ENJOY A CAMPING TRIP

Fifteen Welatawesset Camp Fire sisters enjoyed a very pleasant camping trip last week. The girls chose a camp site on the place north west of town owned by Mr. Silver.

Monday afternoon the girls arrived at the place and began immediately to set up camp and make the program for the following days of fun. It was decided that the members of the senior camp should each choose a member of the junior camp to assist in getting the meals, as every girl was to help get at least one meal.

After breakfast Tuesday the girls started to the woods for an all day picnic, which every one enjoyed.
 Games were played, pictures taken and almost everything was done that would make everyone have a good time, and everyone had a good time.

Wednesday morning the girls resorted to games such as ruck, checkers, flinch and last but not least, pit. A paper chase occupied the afternoon. Four girls started to scatter papers, making a trail for seven of the other girls to follow.
 The seven girls took up the chase fifteen minutes later and followed for over two hours before reaching the end of the trail, which led over hills and through creek bottoms, over and under logs and through banks of fern.

Wednesday evening the girls gathered for the ceremonial meeting. Each of the girls received several honor beads and the meeting proved very interesting.

After the ceremonial meeting two new members were given the first degree of the initiation into the camp.

Thursday morning the girls broke up camp and all returned home in one of Mr. Calkins' Oldsmobile trucks.

Those who enjoyed the trip were:
 Misses Mary Elliott, Ann Silver, Elizabeth Silver, Helen Baird, Hazel Newhouse, Irene Hollenbeck, Ardath Campbell, Anna Deach, senior members of the camp; the junior members being: Bernice Newhouse, Lucille Ebert, Eula Vincent, Alice Hodson, Edith Hollenbeck, and Grace Heater. The girls were chaperoned by the guardian, Miss Florence Calkins, who did a great deal to see that all the girls enjoyed the trip the most possible.

OBITUARY

Julia Ann Pickering was born at Pleasant Plain, Jefferson County, Iowa, February 18th, 1856. She spent most of her early life at that place. She was married to Allen Smith April 29th, 1877, and soon went to Mt. Airy, Kansas, where she joined the Friends Church and lived for twelve years.

Four children were born to them:
 Mrs. H. A. Terrell of Syracuse, Kansas; Harlan Smith, Newberg, Oregon; Mrs. T. A. Hutchens, Portland, Oregon; and Herman Smith of Iowa City, Iowa.

In 1889 they moved to Newberg, Oregon, which has since been their home. She was converted in early childhood and lived a beautiful Christian life until she closed her eyes in peaceful sleep at 2:20 p. m.
 June 20th, 1921, fully prepared for the change and ready to walk in newness of life beyond the grave.

Besides her husband and four children there is one brother, ten grandchildren and a host of neighbors and friends left to mourn their loss.

Julia Smith was actively interested in the church and the college.
 She acceptably filled appointments of the church and was also one of the substantial workers in the Womans Auxiliary and Ladies Aid and in relief work. As a neighbor, those who had need, knew of her faithful and untiring ministrations while on beds of sickness and in times of sorrow she fit in as one who understood.

She will be missed by those who knew her best.

Blessed are those who have lived in the Lord, for when they die they are the Lord's.

EXPENSIVE FISHING

C. W. Sechrist of Ballston, who has been making a practice of dynamiting the water to get the fish. was picked up Wednesday by a state officer somewhere in the vicinity of Grand Ronde and was ordered to proceed to Ballston where he will face trial for violating the law. We are informed that the minimum fine for this offense is $500. Rather expensive fishing.—Willamina Times.

A comparative price list on several building materials shows lumber leading in return to normal conditions. Lumber is the cheapest and most durable form of construction for the home owner today.

Washington will receive $21,000 and Oregon will receive $25,000 of Federal funds for the protection of their forests from fires during the fiscal year beginning July 1.
