 The Sunday School work at present is covering the life of Paul. Intense interest has been shown and good results are being obtained.
 On last Sunday morning, Dr. Gibson preached an exceptionally fine sermon on the world progress of Christianity, giving a convincing explanation of his optimistic view.
 At the close of the service, Mrs.
 Bertha Skuzie and Mrs. W. A. Bond were admitted to membership by letter.
 A special invitation is extended to join the growing congregation of mid-week prayer meetings.

A 100% attendance in the Bible school has long been the aim of the officers of this school and last Sunday it was nearly reached, lacking only a few. The work of the bible schools of America cannot be too highly appreciated. A knowledge of God's work is fundamental to good citizenship, and no man can be truly American who is not also God-fearing. Abraham Lincoln at the age of ten had read the Bible through three times. In all his law addresses he referred to and quoted the scriptures. U. S. Commissioner Simeon King, a personal friend of Lincoln's, is authority for this statement.

 America needs more Lincolns and the way to produce them is by in-stallating into the hearts and lives of our children a respect for the word of God.

Despite the chautauqua attraction, the evening service was well attended and although some were disappointed in not hearing the sermon promised, Brother Phillips announced a mishap in the loss of the notes gathered and the story which was told was interesting and contained a fine moral. These services last just one hour and are intended to be helpful as well as interesting.

The women's missionary society held a fine meeting last week and the papers prepared did much credit to the authors. The sisterhood meets next Tuesday, and all the ladies are invited to be present.

Two specially interesting sermons are promised for next Sunday. "Rest for the Restless" is the title of the morning one, and "America's greatest need" will be discussed in the evening.

The junior C. E. is still much alive and the boys and girls may always look for a bright happy hour from 5 to 6 every Sunday afternoon.
 C. H. Phillips, Minister.

BAPTIST CHURCH
 9:45, Sunday School.
 11:00, sermon by Rev. W. H. Cox.
 Special violin music by Sheridan M.
 Delepine from Portland.
 8:00 p. m., sermon by Rev. W. H.
 Cox.

The church has called Rev. Cox, of Pendleton church to be its pastor.
 A cordial invitation is extended to all.
 Let each church member feel that he has a responsibility in doing his part, in working with the pastor in the Lord's work and in all of the departments. He will expect it and the Lord expects it.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
 The morning service next Sabbath will have for its topic "The Meeting or Synod at Corvallis, July 12th

REST FOR THE RESTLESS and
AMERICA'S GREATEST NEED are the sermon topics at CHRISTIAN CHURCH
 at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M.
 Also good music and fine fellowship to the 19th." Mr. Sanderman and Mr. Lee reporting. All the congregation and all of Presbyterian inclinations are cordially invited.

The Sabbath school hour is 9:45 promptly—one of the most pleasant and important hours of any one's week, studying the teachings of our Maker. Subject, "Jesus is Christ," Acts 9:19-30. Men's class in church office is studying in Revelation, chapter 11. All not attending elsewhere are cordially invited.

Evening worship at 8:00, topic, "Christ Our Light," a theme that every one should understand.
 Wednesday evening, mid-week service at 8:00, "Paul Teaching at Antioch," Acts 11:19-30, 12:25.
 This is the real hour of quiet restreat and refreshment to the Christian and every one wishing to renew his life and joy. Session meeting at 8:50 to review and to plan as required.

STRAWBERRY GROWERS
FIND ADVERTISING PAYS

Strawberry growers believe that advertising pays since they used it in moving their crop.

When the strawberry season opened this year the California growers were offered 3 1/2 cents a pound by canners for their berries. They felt that this was too low and that the crop should be moved fresh. The growers adopted an advertising campaign which enabled them to move the entire crop at 8 cents a pound through the local markets.

Results were obtained the first day with the advertising campaign.
 By an agreement with the canners all of the strawberries not sold by 11 o'clock each day were to be barbered. Only the first day found any berries left for the canners so well did the advertising succeed.

A modest sum, was used in advertising in newspapers and journals of the bay cities and retailers were furnished with posters announcing fresh strawberries to the trade. The growers received a fair price, the wholesaler made a profit, the retailer was kept busy and the public bought generously. A single day's slump in the general strawberry market would have cost the growers many times the cost of advertising.

Professor J. B. Horner's book, "Oregon, Her History, Her Great Men, Her Literature," has proved so popular that a second edition published by the J. K. Gill company of Portland is expected to be out by August 25.
