

Local and Personal News

After suffering a relapse, Mrs. C. B. Sanders is again convalescent.

E. Cox is building a new bungalow to replace one destroyed by fire last July.

Mrs. Pearl Ware left Friday morning for a business trip to her former home at Mullen, Idaho.

Miss Cornelia Titus left Wednesday for Albany where she will visit Miss Irma Taylor for some time.

Contractor Thos. Herd is just finishing extensive repair work on the G. A. Dearborn house in Dundee.

The Pacific College Ladies Auxiliary will meet with Mrs. M. P. Elliott at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Little, and son, Robert, and Mrs. E. E. Upmeyer of Salem autoed over last Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Dimond.

Frank Wire, manager of the F. S. Harmon Wholesale Furniture Co. of Portland, came up Saturday for an over Sunday visit with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Wire.

R. M. Sanders left last week, by auto, for Bend after an extended visit with home folks. Dr. L. W. Horn accompanied him, having in view a deal for some Bend property.

James E. Martin, who has been conducting a delivery service about town, has now taken over the Telegram agency from R. E. Gray. Mr. Gray has gone to Portland to reside.

Miss Lena Hornbrook spent Monday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hornbrook of Fifth street. Miss Lena is taking a nurses course at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Sterling of Kelso, Washington, came down Monday evening for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Florence Moore, returning home on Tuesday. Mrs. Moore is employed in the Golden Rule store.

The water was turned into the new wading tank at the city canyon park last Saturday and since that time many of the little folks have been taking advantage of the opportunity offered to wade and swim during the heat of the day.

Mrs. Russell Parker returned last Friday from Chehalis, Washington, where she has been visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Stannard. Rev. Stannard returned with her and remained over night here before going to Brownsville to visit a brother.

A. E. Allen of Springbrook was in town Wednesday superintending the ceremonies attendant upon the arrival of a new son at the Newberg Hospital. Mr. Allen seemed to be entirely rational in spite of the important duties of father and to continue to send in his weekly Springbrook items for the Graphic.

The Spaulding Logging Co. report furnishing lumber and building material for a number of new houses and repair work and a number of home builders have taken advantage of the building plans which are being furnished with the building material, free of charge, thereby making a considerable saving on plans and having a home properly arranged.

Bernard Mainwaring, formerly of this place, and a last year's graduate of O. A. C., has engaged in the newspaper business at Hermiston, Oregon, having taken over the interest of M. C. Athey, in the Hermiston Herald. Mr. Mainwaring is a very capable young man and we predict that he will make good in this new enterprise. He will be associated with E. J. Kingsley, a merchant of Hermiston in the ownership of the paper.

Earl Hutchinson, of the Newberg Cyclery, and Allen Morris were making a trip to Portland on Monday afternoon in a side car motorcycle when they ran over a girl on the highway. It is said that Hutchinson ran his car clear into the ditch in his effort to avoid hitting the girl but that she jumped directly in front of him. They took her to a doctor who painted several bruises with iodine but aside from that she seemed to have sustained no serious injuries.

Mrs. W. J. Saunders is recovering from quite a severe illness of two weeks.

Contractor C. H. Ellis is building an addition to the Jas. McGuire house on Third and Garfield streets.

Mrs. J. C. Willis requests us to notify her friends that their Portland address will be 421 Going street.

Henry Cook purchased a Buick six last Saturday. Mr. Cook is the mail carrier in the northern part of the city.

W. A. Bond, who lives on south River street left last Saturday with his family for a short stay at the coast.

Rev. Huddleston is having his residence on the corner of Second and Edwards streets repainted and overhauled.

Charles D. Frick, son of C. C. Frick, arrived here on Tuesday from Detroit, Michigan, and will probably make this his home.

Tom Tyndall is having a new roof put on his building on First street which is occupied by C. A. Morris and Jimmie McGuire.

George T. Bradshaw of Portland, a nephew of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Wire, spent Sunday at the Wire home northwest of town.

Mrs. S. M. King of Portland, who was formerly a resident of Newberg, came up last Saturday and spent a few days visiting old friends here.

In our write-up of the berry festival and in telling about the parade line-up, the Graphic was in error in stating that Lester Hannon entered a dog and cart. The name should have been Lester Hanna.

The Spaulding Logging Co. began delivery of the lumber, Monday, for the new garage which W. T. Anderson is erecting on First and Center streets. Geo. E. Howland has charge of the construction work.

W. J. Gordon and wife, who have been spending two weeks at Tillamook stopped over in Newberg on Tuesday enroute to Portland. Mr. Gordon is a newspaperman, having been in that business in Minnesota.

Mrs. William Pickett and little daughter of Camas, Washington arrived here Sunday for a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hevland of this place. Mrs. Pickett was formerly Miss Frances Hevland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. King, who have taken over the Lee Millinery on First street, arrived here from Snohomish, Washington, this week. Mrs. Lee who has operated this business for some time past, will go to Merced, California, where she has a brother.

Phillip Graff, a recent newcomer to Newberg, is showing the right "Build a Home" spirit. He built a modern home upon his arrival and has let a contract to Messrs. Rood & Terrell for the second building on his tract on the highway between Newberg and Dundee.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edwards accompanied their son, C. J. Edwards by auto from Tillamook to Newberg Tuesday. C. J. went to Portland and Vancouver and will return to Tillamook Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards have not fully decided whether to return to the coast with him or remain for a longer time in Newberg.

Grant Conway reports that his crop of clover was phenomenally large this year. He states that they secured sixteen big loads of the hay from four acres, making about four tons to the acre. Mr. Conway has been building up the soil and is getting proportionate returns. He will feed the hay himself and thus get the best price for his product.

Everyone knows that C. E. Dawson is a painter and so it is no advertisement for us to reiterate the statement. However, there are probably few persons who knew that he was equal to painting the beautiful picture of Mt. Hood which is on exhibition in the window of the Newberg Grocery—Elford & Chamberlain. The scene shows Mt. Hood from Bull Run creek and the picture is about 2x8 feet in size.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller left Saturday morning for a trip to the coast.

W. E. Crozer and Stacy McCracken made a business trip to Salem Wednesday.

Rex Brouillette, a former Newberg boy, has opened a new tire shop at Vancouver, Washington.

Will the little girl who lost a pocket book containing one dollar please call at the Graphic office and get same.

Merrill Gibson has registered at the Portland school of Dentistry where he will take a four year course.

Miss Ruth Nottage leaves Friday morning for Seattle where she will attend the Wayfarer Passion Play to be given in that city next week.

Miss Rose Ellen Hale, a niece of Mrs. J. L. VanBlaricom, is visiting here at the present time. Her home is at Montague, California.

Morris Dudley of Newberg was in McMinnville Monday to see about getting a road from his place out to the county road.—Telephone-Register.

Miss Mildren Burnham, who has spent the past year in Newberg and vicinity, left for her home in Brookings county, South Dakota last Monday.

Mrs. E. D. Anderson, with her little daughter, Barbara, of Seattle, Washington, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bradley, of the Triple Oaks.

Rex Brouillette, Mr. and Mrs. Brouillette, and Mrs. Caroline Blake drove up from Portland on Sunday and stopped at the Wesley Boy's farm in the Fernwood district.

Mrs. M. M. York, nee Mable Edwards, of Elwood, Indiana, who with her two little girls, are visiting at the coast, are expected in Newberg for a visit sometime in August.

Mrs. W. H. Fuzzy of Bloomington, Nebraska, arrived here last Saturday for a visit with her brother, U. S. G. Miller. She will probably remain until about the middle of August.

Mrs. Ina B. Holcomb, and the Misses Helen, Ina and Ruth Druck, of Carlton, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leander Allumbaugh at this place, and are attending the chautauqua.

Miss Jessie Gibson has returned from Pacific Beach, Washington, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Morris, wife of Congressman O. S. Morris of Hoquiam, Washington.

Tom Cummings spent the week end fishing at Blaine with Mr. Miller and two other men from Portland. Mr. Miller took the party in his Maxwell. Tom says the fishing was good.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Elliott are here from Georgetown, Illinois, and expect to make Newberg their home. They are stopping at the home of Mrs. A. S. Craven, who is Mrs. Elliott's mother.

Rev. W. H. Cox of Pendleton has accepted a call as pastor of the Newberg Baptist church and will arrive here this week. Rev. Cox will make this his home and will preach his first sermon at the local church next Sunday.

Dean Elwood O. Perisho, who spoke at the chautauqua tent on Sunday afternoon, also spoke at Friends church at the morning service. During the day he was entertained at the E. H. Woodward home and in the evening he visited with his cousin, Rev. Thomas Perisho.

There will be no meeting of the W. C. T. U. during the month of August. The second Wednesday afternoon in September will be the meeting at which departments will give full reports of work done during the year. Let us have full reports. Election of officers for the ensuing year will be held at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Brigham and little daughter stopped over in Newberg on Thursday for an overnight visit with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Dimond. Mr. Brigham is a professor in the engineering department at O. A. C. The Brighams were residents of Fallon, Nevada, during the time that Mr. Dimond was connected with a paper there.

C. C. Frick left Thursday for Seattle, Washington, to attend the state convention of the Elks lodge. Mr. Frick attended a reception given in honor of the Grand Exalted Ruler W. W. Mountain in Portland on Wednesday evening. Mr. Frick is a member of the Flint, Michigan, Lodge No. 222 B. P. O. E., which is the lodge of which Mr. Mountain is a member. W. T. Anderson and Ernest Duncan also attended the Portland reception Wednesday evening.

Dr. A. C. Baker, and son of Breukville, Ohio, visited at the home of A. S. Mellinger on Monday, the doctor being a cousin of Mrs. Mellinger. They have been traveling on their trip to Oregon for the last several months. They are greatly pleased with the Oregon climate. Also on the same day, Marion and Caunon Wogornan of the same place came to the Mellinger home, one coming on the train and the other by stage. They arrived here only an hour apart, and neither knew that the other was in Oregon. The Wogornan brothers expect to return to Oregon again as they were favorably impressed with the climate. They have spent the winter in California.

W. D. Bowman has been laid up this week with an attack of rheumatism.

Will Round is here from Long Beach, Washington, visiting his father, Rev. Geo. F. Round.

Rev. and Mrs. George F. Round will go to Falls City Sunday to preach and visit old friends.

Dr. E. L. House, chautauqua lecturer, was entertained at the E. E. Goff home Wednesday evening.

H. G. See, of the Golden Rule store, left Sunday on a trip to Idaho where he will spend several days on business.

Woodburn has been selected as the next annual gathering place for state convolve of the United Artisans and Al-Azar Conclave.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cummings drove to Portland Tuesday evening to meet Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Elliott and daughter, Kathryn, of Illinois, who intend making their home in Newberg.

Dave Smith, Baldy Willis and Jack McDonald returned Wednesday from a trip to Pacific City, Tillamook and Seaside where they have been spending a week camping and fishing. They brought back a nice string of fish.

Miss Maude Davis of Sacramento, California, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Bassett for the past week, leaves today for Portland where she will spend several days with relatives before returning to her home in California.

The Graphic still has a number of copies of our last issue, containing the write-up of the Berry Festival. You cannot do a greater service for Newberg or for your friends than to send them a copy of this issue, telling them about our successful festival. They are five cents a copy.

The new residence, contractor C. A. Walker is erecting for O. B. Westfall on Second and Main streets is fast taking on the appearance of a modern bungalow and will soon be ready for the fancy windows and doors which the Spaulding Logging Co. is making up especially for him.

Mrs. J. G. Jackson returned Tuesday evening from Heppner, Oregon, where she went to return her granddaughter to her parents. The granddaughter has been under the care of a local physician for the past year. Mrs. Jackson's daughter, Mrs. W. T. Wheeler, came back with her. Mrs. Jackson came back much sooner than she had intended on account of having received word that the remains of her son, Wayne C. Jackson, who died in France while in action, would be returned to Salem and that the body arrived in New York on July 15. The funeral will be held from their old home in Salem and will be under the care of the American Legion.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Cox, one mile east of Newberg, was the scene of a merry picnic party last Sunday when eighteen guests, Rebekahs, brothers and sisters gathered and spent the day with them. Lunch was served by the ladies at 12:30 under the cherry trees and a light lunch was also served at 6:30. The day was spent in the enjoyment of games. During the day another machine arrived containing J. M. Guld and wife of Ketchikan, Alaska, and Mrs. F. E. Wilson of 32 east 57th street north, Portland, they being a brother and sister of Mrs. Cox. The guests departed for their homes at about 7 p. m. after having spent a most enjoyable day.

There were some local people among those who made the recent trip to the top of Mt. Hood with the Mazamas. W. H. Woodworth and daughter, Emmabell, and W. E. Durstine, who is visiting the Woodworths, went from Newberg. H. E. Milleson was from Dundee and J. L. Stuart, cashier of the Dayton Bank, from Dayton. There were 160 in the party making the climb. They arrived at timberline cabin on the night of the 16th and left there at 3 a. m. the next morning, and arrived at the top at 12:30. The day was quite clear and Mr. Woodworth states that it was possible to see all of the mountains and the vast grain fields of eastern Oregon very plainly.

Price of
Hot Point Irons Reduced
Get 'em while it's hot.
We sell them.
Yamhill Electric Company
"IT SERVES YOU RIGHT"

On last Thursday at the regular meeting of the Womens Relief corps five new members were initiated: Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Hulda Hansen, Mrs. Elsie Nelson, Miss Mina Ames, Mrs. Theodora Nottage. There were 38 members present and Mrs. Joan Hill, a visiting member from Los Angeles, gave a pleasant talk. At the close of the meeting, 12 members of the G. A. R. were found waiting at the door with ice cream for the corps.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Simms of Portland motored out Saturday and Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Wallace returned with them Sunday for a short visit.

Tristram Coffin, son of Dr. W. V. Coffin, came from Seattle Wednesday to get his father's things, in preparation for starting from Seattle by steamer for their home at Whittier, California, next Wednesday. Dr. Coffin is quite seriously sick and he was compelled to give up his work soliciting for Pacific College.

Women Love
Jonteel
They love the odor. Perfumed with flowers from the Far East, from the sunny South, from many distant lands—the wonderful new odor of 26 flowers. You, too, will love it. And you'll find just a touch of it in FACE POWDER JONTEEL—a powder of super fineness yet heavy enough to STAY ON.

You'll find it in Combination Cream Jonteel, a cream that not only provides a perfect powder base, but which adds a delicate clearness to your complexion. You'll find it in Talc Jonteel, Soap Jonteel and the many other delightful requisites that complete this famous toilet line.

FACE POWDER JONTEEL 50c
Combination Cream Jonteel, 50c
Manicure Sets Jonteel, $1.50

Talc Jonteel, 25c
Odor Jonteel $1.50

Compact face powders and rouges in shades to match your complexion.

LYNN B. FERGUSON
PRESCRIPTION DRUGGIST
The REXALL Store
302 First Street. Phone Black 106 Newberg Oregon.

Teach your children the Banking Habit

It is the DUTY of all parents to teach their children the banking habit.

Urge YOUR boys and girls to put their first piece of money, however small, in our bank; they themselves, if watched and encouraged, will make their balance grow.

Then they will know the VALUE and POWER of money. As they grow older they can, when a good chance comes along, make a safe investment or go into business.

Start your children TODAY.

We invite YOUR Banking Business.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
NEWBERG, OREGON

SPECIAL SALE on Toilet Soaps
Creme Oil
Wild Rose Glycerine
8-oz. Bar Floating Castile
3 for 25c.
Graham's Drug Store
Phone White 113
Headquarters for Kodak Supplies

SAVE YOUR EYES

Statistics show that nine out of ten people would accomplish more and do better work if they used glasses to help them at close work.

Your eyes may need our glasses to help you.

C. A. Morris
THE JEWELER—OPTICIAN