

Correspondence

FERNWOOD

Lee Renne and family are spending the week at Pacific City.

Wm. Cochran of McMinnville is visiting his sister, Mrs. H. C. Ross. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schert were visitors at the A. S. Livengood home, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt of Aberdeen, Washington, visited Miss Ruth Baker last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Worth and baby of Willamina were visitors at the Gettman home Sunday.

Rev. P. J. Schnert and family from Newberg were visitors at the Gettman home, Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Monteith of Corvallis spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Powell, parents of Mrs. Monteith.

Frank Jones and family and Mrs. C. L. Jones and family went to Chehalis mountain Monday to help celebrate the birthday of Grandpa Jones.

The annual picnic given by the band boys was held Sunday in the Abernethy grove on the Willamette. A large crowd attended and enjoyed the music furnished by the band, and the splendid lunch served by the ladies.

RIBBON RIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. George Carter is soon to have a new house.

Mrs. A. F. Hertig spent last Wednesday with Mrs. W. R. Carter.

Charles Salices were visiting at the James Hadden home at Fernwood on Monday.

Rudolph Wenger spent Tuesday and Wednesday of this week at the George Wenger home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kinney have moved back to their West Chehalis home to take care of the prune crop.

Arthur Lyons and wife and son, Wallace, were Newberg visitors Saturday. Mrs. Lou Carter went with them.

Mrs. Gains Evans has returned to her home in Hillsboro after a few days visit with her mother, Mrs. John Carter.

Last Thursday was Willie Grover's birthday and Mrs. Pay Hartford and Mrs. Frank Sovil gave him a nice birthday dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Salice and daughters, Mildred and Eva, spent the evening last Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hertig.

N. P. Nelson of West Chehalis has his threshing machine on the Ridge and is doing some fine work and all the farmers are smiling.

William Ormand and son and Mrs. McLain and another lady from Newberg were all out to the ranch to spend Sunday with Mrs. Ormand.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Carter and grandson, Bobby Carter, and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hertig motored to Sauvie Island Sunday to visit the Ivan King family. They intended to bring back some fish with them but we haven't seen the fish yet.

SUNNYCREST

Vera Parks returned home Monday from a week's visit with friends in Portland.

Miss Alta Kirby, a niece of Mrs. Chas. K. Hubbard, is visiting at the Hubbard home.

A. O. Peterson has been making hay the second time this season. His second crop of clover is in the shock.

Hugh McCredie, who works in Portland, was home to visit the folks Saturday and Sunday of last week.

Mrs. DeVore and daughter, Lois, returned from their visit to Texas last Monday. They report some warm weather in that part of the country also.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillinger and family from the Red Hills were visitors at the L. H. Gable home Sunday. Ice cream and cake were the main features in the battle against the stunning effects of Old Sol.

Two of the older Wilsey boys left for their former home in Idaho Tuesday of this week. They have places in the harvest fields there. Harvest is usually somewhat later in that high altitude than here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hubbard and sons, Dan and Percy, and Mrs. Hubbard's mother, Mrs. K. C. Hollingsworth, left for a visit in the east last Thursday. Mrs. Hollingsworth is visiting her daughters in Kansas, while Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard pay a visit to Mr. Hubbard's mother in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hall and family and Delmer Hall were visitors at the home of Linas Christenson at Chehalis Center Sunday. Everyone enjoyed themselves in one of Mr. Christenson's cherry trees, as there were some very fine cherries at this late season.

CHEHALEM CENTER

John Graves made a business trip to Idaho last week.

The W. C. T. U. met at Mrs. Smith Walton's home Wednesday.

Chas. Chandler of Oregon City, is visiting with George Crocker.

Mrs. Bixler's twin girl, Alta, has been quite sick this past week.

Rev. Crocker and family went on a trip to Hillsboro on Wednesday.

The threshers are very busy here now threshing the beautiful golden grain.

A. L. Tangen went to McMinnville last Saturday to transact some business.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Johnson and daughter are out enjoying a vacation at the coast.

Mrs. Stanhope Phillips of New York spent a few days last week at the Rev. Crocker's.

Miss Mary Sarrells of Brooklyn, New York, is visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. Crocker.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson and little daughters, Beede and Carol, were visitors at the Johnson home Sunday.

Mrs. G. I. Morgan and son, Everett, and daughters, Carrie and Ora, motored out to Pacific City the first of last week.

Carlos and Edward Johnson attended the big Fordson tractor demonstration at Powell Valley last Friday afternoon.

Miss Elsie Tangen went to Portland Friday, and Miss Anna Tangen accompanied her home. The latter had been visiting at the home of Mrs. Swan Benson.

Grandma Johnson motored to Portland with the Henry Chase family Sunday to live with the J. C. Willis family, who have just moved there. Her many friends will miss her.

Many friends mourn the loss of Mrs. George Young, who died here last Friday evening. She came in 1912. The bereaved husband has the sympathy of the entire neighborhood.

WEST CHEHALEM

Rev. Brock will preach on "When to Laugh" next Sunday morning.

M. W. Pattons were entertaining friends from Forest Grove last week.

Mrs. Herbert E. Osterholm of Chicago is visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. W. Morgan.

K. D. Fendall made a trip to Portland last Sunday afternoon, also one late in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kutcher and family of Sheridan visited with Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Bass and family recently.

Miss Bassford, of Eugene, a former teacher at school district No. 61, visited with the W. V. Dolph family last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Baker of Forest Grove and their daughter, Iney, of Portland, visited with H. C. Baker and family Friday and Saturday of last week.

Miss Rosie Hesgard of Portland made a short visit at the E. G. Fendall home Sunday afternoon and also attended the Y. P. S. C. E. meeting in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Yergen of Donald, after having spent a week at Pacific City, spent last Wednesday with Ben Yergen and family on their return trip.

A good meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. was had last Sunday evening. The topic for discussion was "The Consecration of our Pleasures." Much good was derived from the discussion.

Mrs. J. S. Murray and two daughters of Salem have been visiting with Mrs. Murray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hopkins of Newberg, and also visited her sister, Mrs. B. F. Yergen and family, last Sunday.

The talk by Mr. Holding, the Missionary from China, who is here obtaining dairy cows for his part of China, was very entertaining and instructive. A clearer conception of the Chinese people was gained by those who heard him.

On the evening of July 28, some sneak thieves visited P. H. Bass's wood saw and stole a Stilson pipe wrench, 1/4 gallon of cylinder oil and a hard bit. We know who took these things, as they were tracked home, so please return the same, and save further trouble and no questions will be asked.

LAD HILL

Clair Sovey started to work with the Graham Wilhelm thresher Monday.

Clair Sovey went to Portland Friday to visit his parents, returning Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lee were in Newberg transacting business Saturday.

Mrs. Fred Scheurer and children of Butteville visited with Mrs. Al. McCulley Thursday.

Considerable cord wood is being cut by a crew of Italians on Mrs. Viola Sellwood's place.

Mrs. Bertha McCulley went to Newberg Friday to visit a few days with her mother, Mrs. Raider.

The surveyors expect to finish their work on market road No. 6 Friday. It has been a long tedious job. They began work June 13th.

Mrs. Leo Knoll and daughter, Mrs. Mervin Morrison of Tacoma, Washington, are visiting this week with the former's sister, Mrs. Jack Smith.

Mrs. Jack Smith and Mrs. George Smith called on Mrs. Al. McCulley Sunday afternoon. Mrs. McCulley has been in very poor health again, but was feeling better Sunday.

The dance given at Wilsonville for the benefit of the new club house at Lad hill to replace the one recently destroyed by fire, was a decided success, the profits being close to $50.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. A. Sellwood and son, Will, drove up from Milwaukie, Wednesday, to look over their farms. They have one rented to Mr. Woolover and the other one to Will Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Struve went out to Willhoit Springs for a week's vacation and are having such a good time they wrote for Bruno to bring them some more cats and they will stay another week.

Mrs. Nellie McCulley went to Oregon City last week and was taken suddenly ill while preparing to come back to her brother's, Jack Smith's. Although she was in a serious condition for a while, she is improving slowly and hopes to be able to come back in about ten days.

Thursday, August 4th, was Will Hitchen's birthday and his mother, Mrs. Esther Hitchen and sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sutton, came out from Newberg to help celebrate the day. Birthday cake with candles, ice cream and all good things that go with a birthday dinner, and a jolly good time such as home folks know how to have will be long remembered by those present.

C. M. Kiser went to Newberg Tuesday afternoon to bring his steam engine home, after having some repair work done on it at the foundry. George Smith went along to drive the water wagon. They took their blankets and camped on the road as they couldn't make it back the same day.

REX

Max Sturgis went back to Gaston Monday to work on the road.

The threshing machine was in the Shaad neighborhood Monday.

R. E. Brown and son, Glen, left Saturday for the coast for a week's outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Yokel, Mrs. Sturgis and Woodworths went to Lake Grove Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Strate went to Portland Friday to care for her daughter, Mrs. Gudat.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Token have a 7 1/2 pound girl. They used to live here at Rex.

The parsonage is getting a new coat of white paint. Mr. Wiley is doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Rennie and family of Fernwood visited at the Woodworth home Sunday.

Grace Heater of Springbrook visited with her friend, Alta Brown, Saturday and Sunday.

Evert Garland, Frank Guston and Francis Jenkins left Sunday evening for the harvest fields.

Will Shaad took two of his children to Portland Friday to have their tonsils and adenoids removed.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Mills of Springbrook were here on Monday visiting her father, N. L. Wiley.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gudat are rejoicing over the arrival of the baby boy, born last Thursday. Mrs. Gudat was Martha Strate.

Mrs. Evangeline Martin, Delight Carter and Estol Gulley attended the Rex Friends church last Sunday. Mrs. Martin delivered the sermon.

August Shaad took three of his children to Portland last Friday to have their tonsils and adenoids removed. All stood the operation well.

Ed Asmus received a telegram Monday from Friend, Nebraska, stating that his mother was seriously ill. He left Monday evening for that place.

Mrs. Schwarzin and son, Kirk, and Mrs. Rosetti left Sunday for the coast. They go to Astoria first and then to Long Beach, Washington. They expect to stay two weeks.

Mrs. Woodworth and Mrs. Sturgis went to Portland Wednesday morning. Mrs. Sturgis came home that evening, but Mrs. Woodworth stayed with her daughter and came home Thursday evening.

A party from Portland consisting of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lingquist and daughters, Viola and Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson and son, Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Beckman, Mr. and Mrs. Mulligan, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and daughters, Marion, Pauline and Ruth, and Mrs. Sadie Mathews motored out to Rex Sunday morning, where Mr. and Mrs. Jay Ditto and Mrs. F. I. Eves joined them and all enjoyed the day at the Abernethy picnic grounds by the river. Fine bathing and a good dinner and supper were enjoyed by all.

SPRINGBROOK

Mrs. John Reese has left for Rockaway for a vacation.

S. J. Hubbard has returned from a visit to Marion, Oregon.

Mrs. P. H. Hammond spent last Sunday visiting in Portland.

S. S. Duncan from McMinnville spent Sunday at the Duncan brothers farm.

Mr. Gregg was a Portland visitor last Monday, returning home the same evening.

Gravelling the new mountainside road is progressing very rapidly and will soon be completed.

Mrs. Middleton and daughters returned home a few days ago from an extended visit at Dallas.

Olga Hart, while enroute to Tillamook, stopped off here last Friday evening and visited at the Lemon home.

Threshing of the local grain was completed during the past week and a fair crop according to acreage was threshed.

Rollin Heater succumbed to the call of the distant breakers and is now passing a few days at Newport and Yaquina Bay.

After labeling and casing a quantity of the season's cherry pack, the Springbrook Packing Co. shipped out a carload a few days ago.

Mrs. Fred Kincaid accompanied by her sons, Billie and Sonny, left last Sunday for Seaside where they will spend a few days vacationing.

The continued hot weather is having its effect upon this community as evidenced by the large numbers who are now and will be going over to the coast.

The local delegates to the Friends convention over at Newport have returned home again. All appear more or less tanned from this trip, but all seem happy nevertheless.

There is some serious talk now going, which it is hoped will materialize. It is a well known fact that the stretch of road leading out to the highway from here needs paving.

Virgil Mills and family, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Stockman, are now on a motoring and camping trip. Their itinerary includes Hood River and other points along the Columbia.

Picking of Champion plums in this vicinity began a few days ago and a bountiful crop is being picked. The Duncan brothers expect to pick and pack over six hundred crates of this delicious fruit.

Fred Kincaid is a very busy man these days as he is serving on a committee for the entertainment of the eastern visitors who will attend the National Anglers Tournament at Portland, beginning on the 19th and ending the 22nd of this month.

We are all pleased with the news that Mrs. M. G. Markell and son, Wilfred, are now engaged in the grocery business in Portland. They owned the local store here for a number of years, and their many friends wish them all the success possible in their new location.

The Springbrook Packing company, under the management of C. E. Newhouse, is now preparing to pack the forthcoming blackberry crop, which it is reported will be a bumper this year. Operation of the cannery will begin in the next few days and will continue until all the berries are packed.

After spending some time sojourning in Indianapolis, Indiana, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tamplin returned to their former Portland home a few days ago. Before settling down, they visited at the Daniel Ramsey and B. Keech homes here, they being relatives. They report the weather throughout the east very hot compared to Oregon weather.

DUNDEE

Miss Berniece Keyes has gone to the coast for a brief visit.

Miss Pauline Powell is in McMinnville for a brief visit.

Chas. Parrett and family with Opal Hess have gone to the coast.

Mrs. Laura Machlas from Corvallis is visiting with the Greers this week.

It may be of interest to know that the pavement is now completed to West Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bentley and son, Richard, spent a day in Portland last week.

Miss Agnes Leslie of Portland was a recent visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. Will Meyer.

The Misses Edna and Elizabeth Heath of Corvallis are the guests of their sister, Mrs. Newton W. Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Herring accompanied by Miss Doris Parrott, are enjoying an outing at Pacific City.

Mrs. Richard M. Budd of San Francisco was the guest of Mrs. Ralph Olmstead for several days last week.

Same old story, everyone had a good time at the Ladies Aid and co-workers lawn party Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Carl Himpel, Miss Selma Cramer of the Dalles and Fred and Alfred Holzmeyer are spending a week at Pacific City.

Mr. and Mrs. Roe Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Booth and family motored out to the coast where they will spend a few days.

Archie and John Parrett went fishing Wednesday afternoon. We have not received a report of their catch up to present writing.

E. S. Greer is now able to be out a little and is improving wonderfully. He is able and intends to go with Mrs. Greer to Portland.

Mrs. Harry Chapman and two little daughters of McMinnville were the guests of Mrs. Chapman's sister, Mrs. Joseph Herring, last week.

The Dundee Women's Club held its last meeting of the season last

Ice Cream Freezers Greatly Reduced

Camp and Picnic Supplies
Tents, Tent Flies, Wagon Covers
Camp Stoves, Camp Dishes
Thermos Bottles, Picnic Baskets
Pack Racks
Fishing Tackle
Guns and Ammunition

Larkin-Prince Hdwe. Co.

Newberg, Oregon

Wright's CASH STORE

Corner First and Main Streets

DRY GOODS
STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES

Saturday Special: 6 bars White Soap 25c

Thursday afternoon. They will come together again the twentieth of October. Little Harold Elkins is suffering the loss of the end of one of his forefingers. He was playing with a

(Continued on page eight.)

EVERGREENS WANTED

Cash Paid for Evergreen
Blackberries.

Notify us approximate quantities you can deliver.

Oregon Canning Co.

Newberg, Oregon