SUNNYCREST

The big trucks have finished hauling piling from this part of the country.

Mark Hanna spent several days of last week at Netarts enjoying the coast. He made the trip with T. A. Sutton and family.

This seems to have been the week of vacations among the Sunnycrest folks and the coast the place to spend them. But from the reports, the time is well spent.

C. W. Bradshaw, J. A. Ridgway, O. F. Kilham and Mr. Bixler represented the Newberg Farmers club at the meeting of the County Federation of clubs held at Amity on Tuesday evening.

W. W. Alsbaugh, who has been working with a threshing crew near Sherwood, came home Monday. He expects to return in a few days to help finish as some of the grain was not quite ready before.

Last Friday the folks from the Christian church of Newberg arranged well filled lunch baskets and came to the Sunnycrest woods to spend the day. They were joined by many of the neighbors and a most enjoyable day was passed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bradshaw, Mike Kaschko, Charles K. Hubbard and Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Kilham of Newberg, were visitors at the home of Mr. Bixler in Chehalis Center one evening last week. The evening was spent discussing ways of bettering the Newberg Farmers club.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeVore and daughter, Lois, Mr. and Mrs. Parks and daughter, Vera, Miss Jessie Dillinger and Eugene Hubbard composed a party which left Sunday morning for Pacific City. As this was the first trip for all except Mr. Hubbard, there were many thrills and surprises experienced. They returned Wednesday evening with many stories to tell.

A committee consisting of F. L. Strait, Mrs. C. A. Crater and W. W. Alsbaugh, has been appointed to represent the Sunnycrest community in preparing an exhibit at the next Berry Festival. Committees of this nature have been appointed by the Farmer's club in every community around Newberg to work in conjunction with the Berrian exhibit committee. The idea of the early appointment is to give each one a chance to prepare exhibits of such things that may be of interest at the festival, yet be out of season at that time, such as canned fruits, jellies, etc.

DUNDEE

Gravel is being unloaded here again for the purpose of finishing the small stretch of paving left undone between here and Newberg. It is to be completed by the end of the week.

Another city improvement is a bridge built across the ditch near the P. O. engineered and constructed by Postmaster Bahringer. He did it all this morning and worked so hard that he sweat in spite of the cool weather.

The Menefee family have moved to Portland from where they intend to go to California. The crop, consisting of wheat and oats, is being hauled to Newberg and Portland markets by William Sheridan and William Hutchinson in a three ton truck.

Clarence Hess, who is one of our steady workers, being R. F. D. carrier, went to the coast last week and after enjoying a short real vacation for several days, he has returned and is on the job again. He tells us that he caught lots of salmon—on the end of his fork at the table.

The latest out is a new cement sidewalk on the south side of 9th street in front of the P. O. and beside the hardware store. We were not sure what street this was on so we found our way up to Mayor Groth's office and asked him what it was, and he, the mayor of our beautiful city itself did not know so we just had to guess at it. Are we right?
