

Correspondence

CHEHALEM CENTER

Mrs. Rush is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Charley Shires.

Once again wedding bells will ring in Chehalem Center. Look for announcement later.

Mrs. Ruth Cate of Portland, who is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meyer, is having a severe attack of the quinsy.

Miss Mary Farrell, who was returning from a trip to the Orient, and had spent several weeks visiting with her childhood friend, Mrs. Herbert Crocker, departed last Friday for her home in Brooklyn, N. Y., via Victoria, B. C.

Last Saturday morning Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Crocker and son, George, started on a motor trip to the beach. Arthur Ridgway accompanied them; also Mr. and Mrs. Chester Roake and family and Chas. Chandler of Oregon City made up the happy party.

WEST CHEHALEM

Mrs. Bray is on the sick list now. Henry Bass visited with the Baker boys last Sunday.

Mr. Pollette was a Sunday guest of the Strong family.

Ralph, Harold and Wilbur Baker were Sunday guests of Kenneth Fendall last Sunday.

Daniel Baker of Forest Grove is making a few days' visit at the home of his son, H. C. Baker.

Next Friday the Y. P. S. C. E. will stage a hard times social at the church. Appropriate to the times we think.

Mrs. Dolph and daughter of Portland, a sister-in-law of Mrs. W. V. Dolph, were Sunday guests of the W. V. Dolph family.

Last Sunday Fred Patton and Lois Fendall, Ralph Buffman and Ethel Bush took an outing by making the trip to Pacific City in Mr. Buffman's big Lexington car.

Wednesday of this week the W. C. T. U. had a porch social at the home of Mrs. E. G. Fendall. This organization should be boosted by the whole community. Its mission is one of grave importance.

RIBBON RIDGE

Lester Boatman was home Sunday from Gaston.

Fay Harford and family were Yamhill visitors Sunday.

J. C. Stevens of Portland is visiting at the George Wenger home.

Rudolf Wenger and Arthur Lyons made a business trip to Salem Monday.

Mrs. McLain and Mr. Dorn of Newberg spent Sunday with Mrs. Ormand.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cook and children spent Sunday at William Carter's.

Wm. Evans of Hillsboro spent the week end with his daughter, Mrs. George Carter.

Lillian and Clara Louise Hertig returned Monday from Newport and report a fine time.

Mrs. John Carter is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Evan Carter, at Mountain Top.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hertig spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ziegler at West Chehalem.

Delmer Hertig returned to Portland last Saturday after spending the week with his parents.

SPRINGBROOK

Dennis Mills and family are now on their annual vacation to the coast.

Scott King visited with his daughter, Mrs. Iva Allen, over Tuesday evening.

Due to the threatening weather of last week, Rev. Carl Miller with his father and family has returned home from the coast.

Arrangements are now in progress to begin the drying or evaporating of the forthcoming prune crop which will begin within the coming week.

Miss Watson has accepted a position as an instructor in the Baker, Oregon, public schools and will leave for that city within the next week.

A new enterprise has sprung into existence about here during the past two weeks and as a result many tons of dried cherries lying about in the orchards have been picked up and sold to different companies.

Fred Kincaid participated in the National Anglers' Tournament, held in Portland last week. As this was Mr. Kincaid's first entry in such a tournament, his taking of a place in the 1/2 oz. bait accuracy speaks for itself.

Ed. Feary and family returned home on Thursday evening after an extended motor tour which covered many points of interest in the southwestern part of Washington. Among other points of interest Mt. Rainier National Park was visited.

Miss Daisy Newhouse, who has been attending the summer session of the Bellingham, Washington, Normal school, has returned home again, and will soon leave for La Grande, Oregon, where she will teach in the public schools.

C. E. Newhouse and Frank Carlisle and families returned last Friday evening from a motoring trip over the Evergreen highway. They visited many points of interest, including a climb to the peak of Beacon Rock, overlooking the Columbia river.

REX

Edna Doree is working in Portland.

Mrs. Maude Butler will preach the sermon next Sunday, August 28.

The well drillers are drilling for water on Mr. Backmans place this week.

Maxine Sturgis came home Sunday from Gaston, where he has been working.

Mrs. Florence Eves left for Portland Monday for a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Werelein.

Mrs. O. Guddat and little son of Medford are here visiting with her mother, Mrs. Henry Strate.

Mrs. Carlson, mother of Mrs. Jack Smith, is under the doctors care. We hope she will soon be convalescing.

C. C. Wiley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Ditto and Mrs. Eves went to Adolph's last Sunday for a picnic dinner.

Mary Jones left for a visit with her brother, George, near Seattle, Washington. She expects to be gone some time.

Mrs. Ackerman and son, Edwin, daughter, Adella, and Miss Lydia Strate left for the coast last Thursday. They returned Monday evening.

Mrs. Thomas and children returned Sunday from Bull Run after a few weeks visit with her sister. They expect to move there soon. Mr. Thomas is working there.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thorne, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, and Mr. Whitlock of Newberg drove out to Rex Friends church last Sabbath. Mr. Whitlock delivered the sermon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sturgis of Boise, Idaho, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dandle of Seattle, Washington, came Monday evening to visit Mr. and Mrs. Sturgis, brother and sister of Mrs. Sturgis.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frost and family went to Portland last Thursday to visit friends. They went up the Columbia highway on Saturday and returned home Monday. Mr. Frost had his vacation from the mail service.

FERNWOOD

Wendell Boyes is spending a few days at Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Walker spent the week end at Pacific City.

Mrs. Walter Everest attended the G. A. R. picnic at Dundee, Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Higgins from Newberg is visiting with her son, W. A. Parrish.

Miss Euphemia Boyes is spending a few days in Portland with relatives.

Mrs. Alquard of Portland is spending her vacation with her uncle, Ed. Pierson.

Fred Worth from Portland is visiting with his daughter, Mrs. C. Gettman.

Mrs. B. L. Hicks of Yamhill spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. A. S. Livengood.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hilgers spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Brouillette.

Mrs. A. B. Scherf is ill with tonsillitis, this being the fourth attack since January.

Wesley Boyes and family motored to Portland Sunday and spent the day with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Matthews of Newberg spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Parrish.

U. S. Bryant and family returned Sunday evening from a ten days' outing at Neskewin.

Mrs. C. L. Jones, Mrs. Charley Jones and Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Jones motored to Salem, Wednesday.

W. A. Parrish has purchased a new Dodge touring car and expects to remodel the old Maxwell into a truck.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Farrell and son, Marc, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Scherf visited with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mueller of Gladstone, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Sanders and daughter, Grace, were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. A. S. Livengood, Sunday.

C. W. Bradshaw, president of the Newberg Farmers' club, appointed E. H. Ross, A. B. Scherf and W. A. Parrish, to look after the exhibits from this district for the 1922 Berry Festival.

SUNNYCREST

Rufus Tucker returned home from the harvest fields near Dayton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leaton took a trip up the highway Sunday in company with Albany friends.

Old Kansas friends were visitors at Valley View, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeVore, Sunday.

The L. H. Gable family spent a very pleasant Sunday picnicking at the locks near Lafayette last Sunday. Sunnycrest will have to concede to Harley Hall the first prize for corn this year. His sure is a fine patch.

Mrs. Fisher and family have returned to their home in Gresham for awhile, all the farm work being well disposed of for this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hutchens, from Idaho, visited at the C. A. Crater home the latter part of last week. Mr. Hutchens is a cousin of Mr. Crater.

Miss Maude Koebler paid a week end visit with her sister, Mrs. Chas. K. Hubbard, last week. Miss Koebler is employed in a candy factory in Portland.

Hugh McCredie moved his family to St. Johns Monday. Mr. McCredie is employed in a power plant at that place. They expect to leave the farm for about a year.

The Downhouse boys have sold their five acre place and are planning to move soon. The man who bought it has been boarding with them for the past week.

A. E. Moore sold his five acres last Saturday. This is the last of Mr. Moore's old home place to go. He has his ten acre Red Hill place yet, farming it from town.

T. A. Sutton is either rushing the season greatly or else is so far behind as not to be in season at all, for he has been picking a few strawberries from his "Gold Dollars" lately.

Little Elmer Alspaugh was quite sick the latter part of last week, but is improved now. But misfortune seems prone to leave, as Harry, the oldest boy, has been sick since Monday of this week.

George Slator had a quite serious accident last Monday morning. He was going to St. Johns with the truck hauling McCredie's household goods and was riding on top of the load. A telephone wire, which was quite low, nearly caught the load and in reaching to put it over the load, George lost his balance and fell to the ground, cutting his head very seriously and sustaining several other bruises.

DUNDEE

Charlie Parrett motored to Portland Wednesday morning.

Miss Gertrude Imas is home from her week's visit in Portland.

When do we have the next number of the Dundee Lyceum course?

Miss Oneda Ryan from Happy Valley is visiting with her cousin, Opal Hess.

Miss Flora Walters from Maunpin is visiting at the T. R. Warner home.

Miss Edith Minchen is home after spending several days with friends in Salem.

Miss Isabella Allan spent the week end with her mother at the Rockaway beach.

Miss Gladys Johnson came home from Hood River Sunday where she had spent the summer.

Mrs. Goens of Dufur, Oregon, and a sister of Mrs. Frank Keyes, is visiting at the Keyes home.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sander, with Selma Waiskey, motored to Crater Lake the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Vedder, Mrs. Alma Carrol and Charles Parrett headed for the coast Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin and Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman, all from Oswego, guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Starr on Sunday.

Miss Elsie Venable from Illinois is visiting with her brother, Ira L. Venable and family. Ten years have elapsed since the Venables and Miss Elsie have seen each other.

We have received word from Uel Marr, who is having a big time visiting friends at Homestead, Oklahoma. He will be home in about three weeks, preparatory to going to college.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Smith and daughter, Marie, Mr. and Mrs. Hack, Miss Beale Thun, Henry Thun, and Charlott and Anna Thun comprised a coast party Friday, returning Monday.

Mr. Tevis and Miss Carrie Nelson of Hillsboro, Miss Nelson of Bacoña, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Parks and family and last but not least, Eugene Hubbard from Sunnycrest were visitors this week at the W. R. Dillinger home.

Everybody is going to the coast. Here's another happy bunch that left here with the beach as their destination Wednesday morning: Mr. and Mrs. Ira Venable, Miss Elsie Venable, Louis Venable and Hermena Fankhauser.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Shannahan, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. DeVore, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Powell, Prof. Powell, Miss Carrie DeVore and Pauline Powell motored out to the silver falls where they reported a beauty almost unsurpassed.

Miss Ruth Wilson from Chicago, a cousin of Mrs. E. G. Shannahan, together with Mrs. Shannahan's mother, Mrs. Wilson, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook, motored out from Portland Tuesday and spent the day at the Shannahan home.

Miss Miles, a niece of W. G. Allen, became the bride of Prof. Dahn of a North Carolina college at a recent wedding in Salem. The newlyweds just evaded a charivari party there by motoring out with Mr. Allen to his home in the Red Hills, where they have remained since.

An interesting Sunday dinner party was to be found at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Parrett, where Mr. and Mrs. Dan Way of Newberg and grandparents of Mrs. Harold Parrett, and Mrs. Elizabeth Parrett and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Groth, all grandparents of Harold met together to do the happy couple, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Parrett, honor.

LAD HILL

Everyone is happy as threshing is over and without a rain.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hackett Saturday, August 13, a baby girl, named Azalia Rose.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sovey came out from Portland Saturday to visit friends, returning Sunday.

Mrs. L. D. Kayser of Portland was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Loucks Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Nellie McCully returned from Oregon City last Sunday and is improving slowly after her sudden illness.

Ed Martin and family motored out from Newberg Sunday to spend the day with Mr. Martin's parents, Isaac Martin.

Mrs. Annie Lee of Seattle is here spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Will Smith, and brother, Isaac Tautfest.

Miss Agnes Kramien is out from Portland spending her vacation with her father, Gus Kramien, and brothers, Roy and Reuben.

Mrs. George Smith and son, Howard, spent the week end visiting with the former's mother, Mrs. H. N. Baker, in Fernwood.

There will be a bazaar and ice cream social at the school house Saturday evening, August 27th. Everyone welcome. The proceeds will go towards the new hall.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Parrott, Miss Martha Struve and Bruno Struve had a break down, with Bruno's car while returning from the dance on the highway Saturday evening. They hailed a passing car and succeeded in getting home.

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN

Mrs. J. P. Jones and son, Wayne, were Newberg visitors Saturday.

The I. G. McCormick family spent Sunday with Mrs. McCormick's aunt in Portland.

Olive Wohlschlegel and son have been visiting her father and family in Portland.

Earnest Wohlschlegel and wife are owners of a Ford touring car, just recently purchased.

Beauford DeFord was seen driving along the top of the mountain in a new roadster Sunday.

Threshing is on in full force now and the people along the top are expecting to thresh this week.

Mrs. Roy McDougall returned home Saturday from a visit with her brother and family at Hemlock, Oregon.

Laurel Heights school has no teacher hired as yet. Anyone seeking a position might apply to the school board.

Our neighbors, A. E. Switzer and family, will have a public sale on September the seventh. Been a long while since we saw a sale advertised.

Tom crews and family spent Sunday with some of their old time neighbors, R. W. Piepenbrink and family on the east end of the mountain.

Cal Hutchens and Myron Byran were enjoying the scenery along the mountain Sunday. They said they were going to Mr. Brunson's at Mountain top.

A reunion of the H. J. Maynard family was held Sunday at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, the Roy McDougall's. The children were all present except one son. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hutchens and daughter, Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. George Maynard and children, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Maynard, Miss Nellie Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDougall.

E. A. Hutchens and family, who have been visiting relatives and friends on the mountain and in Newberg and Dayton, will return to their home at Greer, Idaho, soon. Starting from here Tuesday morning, they will visit Portland and Vancouver on their return trip. Mr. Hutchens says in comparison with the mountains, they live on, that Chehalem mountain looks very small from Newberg.

A GOOD DANCE

Saturday and Sunday Nights
Lafayette Mineral Springs on a good new floor
50 x 100

Job Printing
FIRST CLASS WORK

Letter Heads
Envelopes
Statements
Office Forms
Programs
Business Cards
Calling Cards
Tickets
Circulars
Booklets
Auction Bills
Dodgers
Wedding Invitations

Newberg Graphic

Our Slogan:

"Particular Printing for Particular People"

Wright's CASH STORE

Corner First and Main Streets

DRY GOODS

STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES

SATURDAY SPECIAL: Bulk Coffee 15c lb.

You Need This

Aluminum Covered
Sauce Pan

Eight Quart

Extra Heavy Gauge Metal

Price $1.85--Value $4

Headquarters for

Tents, Tent Flies, Wagon Covers, Camp
Stoves, and general Hop and Prune
Pickers Supplies

Larkin-Prince Hdwe. Co.

Newberg, Oregon

SHOES

We have enlarged our Shoe
Department and each day
we are adding new seasonable shoes --- at the right prices always.

GOLDEN RULE

See-Valiton Co.

Where your dollar does it's duty