Miss Mary E. Du Paul, Yamhill county nurse, was in town Friday, looking up some cases for the county court. She also visited the school, getting acquainted with the teachers. Miss DuPaul is doing excellent work over the county. She will be in Newberg again soon.

Student loans at the University of Oregon may in the future be limited to non-smokers, according to Dean John Straub, trustee of the fund, which was built up by gifts. "The amount of money spent by an average smoker during a school year is $50 or better," says Dean Straub, "and it is felt that if a student really needs help he should eliminate this item of expense."

Lyle Palmer and wife and Frank Swart and wife and Mrs. W. A. Pearce made a trip up the Columbia river highway last Sunday, going as far as Eagle Creek where they ate lunch before returning home. They report seeing hundreds of large salmon floating in the waters of Eagle creek having killed themselves by dashing against rocks in their efforts to get up the creek to their spawning grounds.

A party of local people held a swimming party at the old ferry last Sunday afternoon. Oregon is certainly establishing a record this year in the way of fine weather, which it will be hard to maintain and hard for other countries to equal. Swimming parties in the open river in October are not a common occurrence even here in Oregon where the climate is more salubrious than it is in many places.

The degree staff of Eureka council Knights and Ladies of Security of Portland visited Newberg Wednesday night and assisted in class initiation and installation of officers. Refreshments were served by the ladies. The meeting was held at the legion hall. There were fifty-two of the visitors from Portland.

The local school board held a meeting this week and found that it is necessary to put on an additional truck to handle the children from the country part of the district. There are forty-five children attending the Newberg schools from the country, where it was expected that there would be only about twenty-five.

Mr. Louis A. Daoust of Portland, who represents the Kelly Koett X-Ray manufacturing company of Covington, Kentucky, was in the city Thursday and Friday to install one of the latest and most powerful X-ray apparatus now manufactured, in the office of Dr. Wendt. The machine is built so that any kind of X-ray picture or examination can be made with it.

Word has been received from Merritt Pierce and family who left Newberg recently bound for Pasadena, California. They report a pleasant and safe trip and add that they are now located on East Orange Grove Ave., Pasadena, California. Rent there is very high and it is almost impossible to get a house for less than from $65 to $75 per month. The weather has been very warm, the thermometer registering as high as 106 since their arrival there. They have experienced a few light showers.

Chapter L of the P. E. O. held a regular meeting at the L. T. Hayward home on the Prince ranch near Dundee on Monday afternoon when about a dozen of the members of the chapter were present. Mrs. Hayward was assisted in her duties as hostess by her daughter, Miss Daisy Eager. Refreshments were served at about five p. m. out under the beautiful trees and incidentally this is unusual for any country in view of the lateness of the season. Dr. Rankin and Mr. Ekerson arrived in time for the refreshments.

There is to be made a canvass of Newberg in the near future by all of the Sunday schools, and a census taken in regard to Sunday school attendance, in the hope of giving to all non-attenders a warm personal invitation to attend the church and Sunday school of their choice, and next Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church at 3 p. m., there will be a meeting of the superintendents of the schools participating, the canvassers who are to be appointed Sunday morning, and the committee in charge, including the members appointed by each school.

Mrs. L. E. Lewis returned Thursday morning from Spokane where her son, Dr. Claud Lewis, has just undergone a third operation for mastoid trouble. She reports that he seems to be doing well.

S. G. Reetz and wife of Pendleton are here visiting the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Reetz of north Main street. They will remain here about a week and will then go on a three months' trip through California.

Frank Alfred Hobson, son of Frank E. Hobson and great grandson of William Hobson, one of the first settlers of Newberg, died October 3 at his father's home on Chehalem mountain, after a lingering illness contracted while in the service. Funeral services were held at the Hollingsworth company chapel Thursday morning at ten o'clock, interment at Chehalem mountain cemetery.

The city marshal reports that a group of local boys were caught with a large quantity of nuts in their possession on Wednesday night and that when first interrogated they claimed to have secured them from some man in the north part of town. Later they acknowledged having stolen them from the library trees. It is understood that at least a number of these boys have been guilty of a number of law infractions and their conduct is being closely scrutinized and further wrong doing on their part will probably land them in the state reform school.

Quite a number of Newberg people made the trip to Salem last Sunday to hear the Whitney boys chorus in concert at the state fair grounds that afternoon. Among those making the trip were: H. G. See and wife and Mrs. Florence Mohr, A. M. Kendrick and wife and Oliver Evans and wife. They report the boys chorus as being a truly wonderful aggregation. It is understood that this chorus may come to Newberg at a later date under the auspices of the Monday Musical club and certainly should they do so, they may be sure of a large attendance on the part of Newberg music lovers.

Last Monday morning Rev. Carter and Rev. Carl F. Miller and the latter's father went to Mr. Carter's cottage at the coast, returning Wednesday afternoon. They report a good catch of fish—silver sides, jack salmon and salmon trout. Mr. Carter says that he caught a salmon that gave him the greatest fight he ever had in any water, and he has had considerable experience fishing in not only a number of rivers in Oregon, but in the lakes and streams of Michigan. Rev. Miller and family are dining with the Carters this evening at their home out North Meridian way, and our best guess is that baked trout will fill the principal place in the menu and the diners.
