PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sabbath school at 9:45 with classes for all ages. Supt. S. Sanderman. Morning service at 11:00. "God's Covenants are His Agreements to Do for Us All Things Needed, On Condition of Simple Trust." Best of music, and services of highest character, free from extravagance of every kind.

Afternoon service at 3:00 at which Dr. Adelaide Woodard of India is to report upon the work there. Every member of this congregation, all the organized Sabbath school classes, the young people's society, the ladies' societies, and officers and members of this church are urgently requested to be present and fill the church to hear Dr. Woodard.

No evening preaching service next Sabbath, January 8.

Mid-week service Wednesday at 7:30 for the blessing of all who wish to seek the Savior in His word, and not fall of the assembling of ourselves together. Neglectors of divine services and church membership are the easy marks of every false and foolish fad and cult that come along with pretense of piety and plausibility. Keep close to Christ and His church, and its services.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Two important items were omitted from the notes of last week, one relating to the Christmas eve social at the church. This was a very pleasant affair and was enjoyed by the goodly number present. Particularly gratifying was the number of visitors.

SPECIAL MEETINGS

Every Night This Week

Rev. S. J. Reid, D. D.

the Noted Irish Evangelist

ors present. After a nice supper the evening was spent in a social way, ending with a visit from Santa Claus with candy, etc., for the children. The Bible school had no special program for Christmas day but a special offering was taken for the old folks home at Walla Walla and the relief of aged ministers, which amounted to $30.50.

All members out Saturday next all day. Fine inspirational time. Reports and plans for all departments of the work.

Sermon topics for next Lord's day as follows: "An Inseparable Love." A message of cheer and comfort for those who believe in Jesus and one that should lead others to love him. In the evening Mr. Phillips will discuss the question "Is the World Getting Worse?" Don't miss either of these.

A special effort is to be made to maintain an average attendance of over 100 in the Bible school. Our classes are graded and have capable teachers. The lessons are most interesting and a fine spirit prevails.

The two C. E. societies are always endeavoring to avoid a rut and last Lord's day evening witnessed one of their efforts which was an interesting and novel departure from the usual form of installation ceremony. The officers of each society were represented by Freda Parrish and Mabel Fortune respectively and the societies by Harold Jones and Willard Bassett. These couples were united by the pastor in a mock wedding ceremony pledging, in behalf of those they represented, fidelity to each other and to the trust imposed in them, their promises being endorsed at the conclusion by the societies rising and repeating the pledge. A splendid hour is always assured those who attend these meetings.

Bible school 9:45. Get the habit. Communion service 11:00. A bond of unity. Intermediate C. E. 4:00 p. m. A busy society. Senior C. E. 6:30 p. m. Fine fellowship. Sermon and song at 7:00. Always good.

All welcome.

C. H. Phillips, Minister.

OUT-AND-OUT S. S. CLASS ELECTION AND PARTY

The boys in the Out-and-Out class of the junior department of the Methodist Sunday school met with their teacher on south Dayton Ave. on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 31.

New officers for the first quarter of the year were selected: Paul Kennedy, president; Willie Post, vice president; Leslie Paulson, secretary; and George Wallace, treasurer.

After the election, games and several contests were enjoyed. In the competitive stunts for a prize (searching, ground work, balance, marksmanship) Paul Kennedy and Leslie Paulson tied for first honors, whereupon another contest was given them and they tied again, likewise once again, taking still one more stunt to decide. The winner finally being Leslie Paulson.

The boys then assembled in the dining room where they found a "full fledged" Christmas tree for the table decoration upon which Santa Claus, on his return trip to the Northland, had left gifts for all, the boys enjoying guessing "whose was whose" while eating ice cream and cake.

Everyone went home smiling and with a resolve that the New Year would find them trying to live up to their class name and motto: "Out-and-Out for Christ" and "Doers of the Word, and not hearers only."

MINISTERIAL MEETING

Meeting of the evangelical ministers of Newberg and vicinity, next Monday, Jan. 9, at 10:30 a. m., in office of Presbyterian church. All gospel ministers of this Chehalis valley urgently requested to attend, and any visiting ministers.

H. E. Kreider, Sec.

Provident Maiden

A small girl at an English school was not only roly-poly, but very pretty. When her majesty stopped for an instant to smile upon her she put up her wee mouth for a kiss, which she received. "Molly!" gasped her astounded mother, after the distinguished visitor passed on. "How could you?" Molly gave good reason. "I fought," said she, "it 'ud be interestin' to tell my gran'children."

Are You Doing Your Duty? You Owe An Obligation. Are You Paying the Debt?

Civil laws do not force you to pay this one. The law of health does. Are you going to lose the greatest asset to your welfare? Are you going to cast aside that which no man or agent can restore? Do not play with the fire of neglect, and forget your teeth. Be a philosopher for once and act upon the decisions of the medical and thinking world—who say we cannot have good health and bad teeth.

Do not try to persuade yourself that you are unable to have dental work. You can't afford not to have it. Fear of being hurt is no longer the barrier. Ask yourself the question, and be honest with the answer: "Why am I delaying when I can have teeth filled, nerves taken out, crowns put on, the very worst teeth taken out, WITHOUT PAIN?"

Pride, health and personal appearance are calling upon you to "clean up" that mouth. At least put same in a sanitary condition. You would not wear a black mask or permit a soiled spot to remain on the outside of your face—then why permit such on the inside? The individual with good teeth says the world is all right, and there are many more pleasures than sorrows. Much more to live for than to die to be relieved of, etc.

If you are not seeing life in this spirit you would do well to look for a cause—IT MAY BE YOUR TEETH. I will give you my honest opinion and advice regarding the condition of your teeth or gums ABSOLUTELY FREE. I will make you a price which you may consider favorably or unfavorably without further obligation. In my office you will know exactly to the cent what your dental work will cost you before starting operation.

I call your attention to the prices below. I use nothing but the best of materials and the latest methods known to the dental profession. ALL WORK GUARANTEED and backed by fourteen years of practical experience. Trained dental nurse always in attendance.
