Miss Thelma Parrish went to Portland last Thursday and had her tonsils and adenoids removed. Miss Thelma is getting along nicely but will be absent from school several days.
Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Brouillette entertained the following guests at dinner on Monday: Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Stretch from Merced, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stretch and family from Newberg.
Mrs. George Scherf is visiting friends in Floyd, Iowa, expecting to be away for a month or so. Mr. and Mrs. Morris Mueller and family, lately of Canada, are visiting with Mr. Scherf during his wife's absence. Mrs. Mueller is a niece of Mr. Scherf.
Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Scherf entertained with a New Year's dinner Sunday. At an attractively appointed table covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Lee Renne, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Livengood, Miss Grace Riley and the host and hostess. Appropriate for the occasion was the beautiful snow-white cake, used as a centerpiece, with the figures 1922 done in red candy and bearing 12 red candles representing the "birth-day" of the twelve new months to come.

SPRINGEROOK

James Crane and son, Carl, made a business trip to Portland last Saturday.
School reopened Tuesday after being closed one week over the Christmas holidays.
Ferris White has returned to the O. A. C. to resume his studies after the holiday week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Johnson and little daughters spent three days the first of the week under the home roof of the Johnsons.
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Chase and Master Dorman and Miss Doris were guests at the Johnson brothers last Friday over night.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crater returned from Goble Monday evening, having spent the holidays there. Mrs. Crater's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leist, from Oakland, California, returned with them for a visit.

Mrs. Olive Graves and little daughter, Kathryn, returned last Friday from Victoria, British Columbia, where they have been for a number of months, at the home of an aunt. They will remain some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Graves.

The evangelistic meetings are progressing nicely at the church. Rev. Hinshaw is conducting the meetings Mr. and Mrs. Murphy very ably assisted with the music. Mr. Murphy is very talented and all enjoy his clear, musical voice in words of praise of the holy Master.

The W. C. T. U. ladies are to hold their meeting next Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Marie Tange. All the families of the neighborhood are invited to attend. There will be a social in connection with the meeting. Each guest will be measured about the waist and will be taxed a penny an inch. It is hoped all will register unusual circumference as the ladies wish to raise some money. Refreshments will be served and it is hoped all will have a good social time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller entertained a New Year's party Saturday evening. Games and telling stories were the evening's entertainment. A delicious lunch was served at mid-night, consisting of sandwiches, pickles, coffee, fruit salad and cake. Those enjoying the evening were the Messrs. and Mesdames P. W. Baughman, Wright, Ramey, Eliza Hadley, Marion McCullough, E. J. Ford, Carl Williams and Frank Clark and Mr. Ralph Ramey, aside from the host and hostess.

A watch party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson near Newberg Saturday evening. Music and guessing games were indulged in, all having a jolly good time. After the New Year was duly ushered in, the guests were seated at the table where plates of sandwiches, a variety of delicious cake, also pickles and cookies, coffee of the most approved aroma completed the dainty luncheon. Those enjoying the evening were the Messrs. William Thun came home from the hospital last week. He is not fully recovered but is able to walk a short distance by the aid of his crutches.
Miss Gertrude Imus, who is teaching at Caldwell, Idaho, spent the holidays with her mother in Dundee. The Imus family had a reunion on New Year's day.
David Marr, Claus Groth, and Fred Hutchinson were all home for the holidays. David and Fred are students at O. A. C. and Claus at the University of Oregon.
The parents of Mrs. Homer Barnes left for California last week. They have been visiting in Dundee for some time, on their way from their home in Wisconsin to spend the winter in Oregon and California.

Some where between your correspondent and the Graphic force lies the blame for a mistake in last week's issue. In the Dundee items one line should have read "Mr. K. D. Hatch was formerly a resident of the Red Hills."

Mrs. Frank Keyes received the sad news of the death of her only sister, Mrs. Roy Miller of Bend, Oregon, last week. Mrs. Miller was well known in Dundee, where she lived for some years. The sincere sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Keyes in her sorrow.

Ye Dundee folk, attention! Did you know that there was a strife proceeding among you, which is growing in volume and ever increasing in force? The contest rages more bitter every day. It is the auto race which had its beginning last Sunday at the Sunday school. We wish to appeal to your sense of the beautiful and come and join us, the greens.

Domestic relations which for some time have been strained in the Clarence Hess home were settled at McMinnville recently by action of the court when a decree of divorce was granted to Mrs. Hess. A settlement of the property had been agreed upon, each party getting half. Mrs. Hess was given charge of the little daughter and Mr. Hess the son.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bennett of Corvallis, formerly of the Red Hills, are rejoicing over the birth of a son at six o'clock on New Year's morning, at the Newberg hospital. Friends of the Bennett family will also be pleased to hear that Robert and Ralph, who are both taking an electrical engineering course at the Oregon Agricultural College, came through the first semester creditably. Ralph, who has been a mathematical genius since infancy, had a one hundred per cent standing in that branch. Elizabeth Bennett spent part of holiday week with her little
