CHEHALEM CENTER

The Misses Ida Grimes and Edna Mewhirer, of Fernwood, were week end visitors at the home of Miss Anna Tange.

Mr. Byers of the farm bureau, was canvassing this neighborhood for members, accompanied by S. T. Bixler. They report good success on enrollment of all the farmers.

There will be a basket dinner and all day's meeting at the school Saturday. Mrs. Lottie Hannon and Mrs. Ada Jolley will be there and expect to organize L. T. L. and Y. P. R. auxiliaries of the W. C. T. U. All those interested in the work are invited to attend.

The attendance was very good at the parent-teachers' meeting last Friday evening. All enjoyed the short program and the social time afterwards. During the social hour cake, cookies, doughnuts and sandwiches were served with the usual cup of coffee. A new entertainment committee was named as follows: Mrs. Tony Crater, Miss Eleanor Ford and Aubrey Tange; to visit school: The Mesdames Ingraham, Bixler and Cook.

RIBBON RIDGE

Virgil Vanoose spent Sunday at the A. F. Hertig home.

Gladys Hertig called on Mrs. George Wenger Sunday.

Mrs. Lou Carter called on Mrs. George Carter Monday.

Mrs. Pattison was a Sunday caller at the George Carter home.

Mrs. Frank Lowe called on Mrs. Grover at Newberg Saturday.

Mrs. Lou Carter spent Friday at the home of Mrs. Charles Salice.

Mrs. A. H. Boyd attended the ladies' aid in the valley Wednesday.

Mrs. A. H. Boyd attended the W. C. T. U. meeting in the valley Monday.

Mrs. George Carter and son, Marvin Thomas, are home from the Newberg hospital.

George Wenger, Jr., of Mountain Top, was a caller Thursday at the A. F. Hertig home.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Slade and daughter spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Evan Carter on Mountain Top.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Nelson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cook and family spent Sunday with the home folks, Mr. and Mrs. William Carter.

WEST CHEHALEM

Mrs. Virgil Fendall was a last week's visitor of Mrs. Al Versteeg.

Donald Davis spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sullivan were last week's visitors at the W. E. Morgan home.

Mrs. B. F. Yergen visited with her mother, Mrs. Henry Hopkins of Newberg last Monday.

Mrs. John Merritt from Lockport, New York, was visiting last week with Mr. and Mrs. George Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Dolph have been in Portland for some time with their children, Jane and Cyrus. Cyrus Dolph has been having trouble with his ear.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis from Yamhill surprised their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Davis, on their thirty-second wedding anniversary, Wednesday, January 11.

The ladies' aid society met Wednesday of last week and elected the following officers: Mrs. B. F. Yergen, president; Mrs. H. C. Baker, vice-president; Mrs. Alice Bush, secretary; and Mrs. Anna Nelson, treasurer.

Last Monday there was a W. C. T. U. meeting at both school and church. In the forenoon Mrs. Ada Jolley and Mrs. Lottie Hannon went to the school house and organized a loyal temperance legion. They were rewarded with 23 members, who elected Lela Hodgdon, president;

Henry Bass, vice-president; Russell Baker, secretary; and Eric Thumberg, treasurer. This was followed by a real dinner in the church basement. In the afternoon the meeting and program were both enjoyable and profitable. Mrs. Mary L. Mallett, state president, gave an interesting talk on medicinal temperance, and Mrs. Jolley a short talk on cigarettes. Mrs. Hannon conducted the devotional meeting. A goodly number were in attendance considering it was blue Monday. Things really looked blue for John Barleycorn.

SUNNYCREST

George Slater was a Portland visitor the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Crater and family spent Sunday with friends in Newberg.

An epidemic of colds seems to have hit this neighborhood the past week and everyone is barking.

Today, Thursday, the Sunnycrest ladies' club expects to meet at the home of the new president, Mrs. Harley Hall.

Mr. Munsen, who bought the Downhour property, has purchased a new horse to use in cultivating his berry patch.

B. M. LeFevre and Max Meckler have been building new fences and improving the by-road leading down to Mr. LeFevre's house.

Ben Craven is nearing the completion of their new bungalow. He is plastering and doing the inside finishing during the bad weather.

Mrs. Eugene Hubbard entertained several of her relatives at a sumptuous Sunday dinner last Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Morris Parks and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dillinger and small granddaughter.

A. Byers, who has been solicitor for the farm bureau in the Newberg district came out to C. W. Bradshaw's Sunday evening. Monday he was taken to new territory.

Mr. Byers reports the work is progressing nicely. Several of the neighbors attended the lectures held under the auspices of the farmers' chautauqua last week. Everyone was well pleased and expressed it as the wish to hold such each year. Some attended every lecture and considered the time well spent.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hall and young son; Edwin, left early Sunday morning for a visit with Mrs. Hall's sister, Mrs. Homer Fisher, at Gresham. This was the visit Mr. and Mrs. Graves had expected to make at Christmas but had to postpone on account of Mrs. Grave's illness.

Last Sunday was Mrs. Wiley's and Mrs. Kaufman's, of Newberg, birthday, Thursday, January 19th, was Mrs. Schubert's, Mrs. Wiley's daughter, and C. K. Hubbard's birthday. Mrs. Wiley, therefore, invited the Kaufman family and the Hubbard family to help celebrate the occasion at a birthday dinner Sunday. To try to tell all the good things provided would require at least a column in the Graphic, and only intensify the longing for another birthday among those present. So let us end in the usual manner and say it was an enjoyable occasion.

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN

Merle Cady was in Newberg Saturday.

Mildred Maynard has been having a spell of bronchitis.

Iola and Gladys Kohl were Newberg visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira McCormick were Newberg visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Will Davis was an afternoon caller at Mrs. Kohl's Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Kohl spent Tuesday evening at Roy McDougall's.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Noble were Sunday visitors at the Henry Versteeg home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellery McDougall visited at the J. P. Jones home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDougall and son visited with the home folks at Dayton Saturday and all attended

Mr. Stewart's sale in the afternoon.

Myron Bryon was operated on Tuesday at a Portland hospital and is getting along nicely.

Iola and Gladys Kohl spent Sunday visiting at the Frank Shook and Elmer Whitmore homes.

John Haynes has been visiting the last few days with his brother, Tom Haynes, at Banks, Oregon.

Don't forget the dance at Cady's hall Saturday night. Everybody invited to come and bring their friends.

Wilbur Jones' mother, Mrs. Betsy Jones, has been quite ill for some days past. We hope she will soon be better.

Eggs are selling for 65 cents a dozen in eastern Oregon. Quite a difference in price from what they are quoted here.

Mrs. Date Hutchens came home Tuesday after spending several days with her son, Roe Hutchens and family, at West Chehalis.

A. L. Pepper came out from Portland Tuesday to visit at the Floyd Hoffman home. Mr. Hoffman returned to Portland with him.

Mr. Hult and Mr. Nichols from Newberg came out last Wednesday with some new parts for the mail carrier's car, which went along fine after being repaired.

Newberg visitors from the mountain, besides ourselves, on Friday, included Mr. Brunson, Mr. Oakley, Mr. Clark, Cal Hutchens, E. V. McDougall, Bertram Snyder and Mrs. Joe Ego.

Regular Oregon weather was ushered in Wednesday morning, with the temperature at 48 degrees and the sun shining brightly, and we are very glad to see the weather warming up.

Chauncey McCormick and two sons went to Newberg Saturday and brought back with them their cow. The Chauncey McCormicks have been staying with Grandpa McCormick for a while.

The freezing and thawing weather has done quite a bit of damage to the late sowed grain, pulling much of it out by the roots. That which was seeded earlier in the fall, got rooted better, so was not damaged much.

We attended the chautauqua at Newberg Friday as quite a few others did and enjoyed it very much and learned quite a few things. The most enjoyable to us was, I think, the pictures and talks of the landscape artist on beautifying the homes.

SPRINGBROOK

Elmer Thorne was a Portland visitor last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clio Mardock are spending the week with relatives in Salem.

Mr. Burgoyne and sons, Lisle and Fred, were Portland visitors last Monday.

Paul Stumma has returned to school after being absent several days with a bad cold.

Mrs. Hattie Dyer returned Tuesday from Portland where she has been visiting an uncle and aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Mills visited friends and relatives near Halsey and Salem last Saturday and Sunday.

Bernice Carlisle is still confined to her home with sickness. Mrs. P. H. Hammond is somewhat improved.

The S. P. bridge construction crew are camped on the sidetrack here for a few days while repairing bridges in this district.

James Crane and son, Charles, accompanied by Delton Brown and son, Sanford, made a business trip to Portland last Saturday.

Clarence Graves had the misfortune of striking his leg by the ax slipping while chopping wood. He will be laid up several days by the accident.

Many friends of Mrs. L. B. Ferguson attended her funeral and burial last Friday. The sympathy of this community goes out to the bereaved husband. Both were held in high esteem.

We are informed that the fruit growers will hold a meeting at the cannery Saturday afternoon, to discuss ways and means regarding the status of the cannery building and equipment.

Dan Atkinson has lumber on the ground and is getting ready to erect a new barn as soon as good weather comes. Later he contemplates building a dwelling. This will greatly improve his farm.

Merlin Brown stands first and Clarence Graves second in the eighth grade examinations held this month.

Fred Kincaid with W. T. Anderson of Newberg, paid a visit to the auto show in Portland Tuesday.

The marriage of Miss Blanche Cowgill and Mr. Herbert Miller was solemnized last Friday night in Portland. The couple will reside in that city, where Mr. Miller has employment. The best wishes of Springbrook go with them.

The Christian Endeavor of Springbrook will give reports on the book "The Why and How of Foreign Missions" next Sunday evening at 6:30 at the Springbrook church. A special invitation is extended to all to come and hear these reports.

There was a large attendance from Springbrook last Monday evening at the costume recital given by Miss Britt at the Presbyterian church in Newberg. Bertram Miller, Carl Crane, Miss Hazel Newhouse are Miss Britt's pupils here, and all show what training by a high class teacher can do.

The schools are preparing for two events this week. Friday afternoon will be devoted to the mid-year class graduating exercises. In addition to the class address by President Pennington of Pacific College, there will be music, songs, etc. Saturday will see the gathering of the teachers of Yamhill county to hold an institute.

The ladies are preparing to serve lunch at noon. Several prominent educators will be present and deliver addresses. To both these events the patrons are invited, and especially the meeting on Friday.

DUNDEE

W. H. Foster has a new auto.

Mrs. W. H. Bentley was a week end visitor at Portland.

W. J. Bennett of Corvallis was a business visitor to Dundee on Tuesday.

Mrs. W. M. Doud of Newberg is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Bentley.

Mrs. Ella Swink went to Portland on Wednesday to attend Dr. Boyd's funeral.

An uncle of Mrs. Gidings, who had been visiting in Dundee, left Wednesday for Los Angeles.

Gladys Johnson and Helen Sperling were delegates from Dundee to the Methodist conference in Portland.

The football game on Saturday between Dundee and Fernwood was a hotly contested game, resulting in a victory for Dundee.

Mrs. Kate Hess, who has been living in Idaho, passed away on Thursday last. No details of her illness have as yet been received.

William Ray Parrett, the new son of Mr. and Mrs. John Parrett, who came to town January 18, is a welcome addition to our population.

J. Howard Paine, who is one of Dundee's more recent residents, was called to Portland last week on account of the death of his father.

There will be a meeting of the parent-teachers' association at the school house on the first Tuesday in February at 3:30 p. m. All the patrons of the school are earnestly requested to attend.

Elwin Patterson and family from Calgary, Canada, have come to Dundee to remain. They are at present with the Carl Patterson family. The Patterson brothers are grandsons of Uncle John Parrett.

All interested in the formation of a musical club please meet with Mrs. Warren at Mrs. Wisk's Saturday evening at 7:30. This is free to all and is being formed to promote more musical interest in the community.

Another of the bi-monthly socials of the Dundee woman's club was held on Saturday evening and was largely attended. The basket ball game that preceded the social was a most interesting one, and the remainder of the evening was enjoyed by those in attendance.

The third entertainment of the Dundee lyceum course will be given Friday evening, January 27, at 8 o'clock. The lecturer comes from the Willamette University and will give an illustrated talk on China. His father was British consul in China for a number of years and the speaker himself was born and raised there. As China is the all-important subject in world affairs of the day, it is expected that there will be a large attendance.

Willamette Circle No. 231, Women of Woodcraft of Dundee, was royally entertained by Home Circle No. 57 of McMinnville last Wednesday evening, January 18, the night of the installation of officers. Some of the grand circle officers were present. A very interesting talk was given by Grand Advisor Minnie Hiner. Much enthusiasm was in evidence during the evening. After the business hour a chicken supper was served in the banquet hall. All who went report a jolly good time.

The Dundee Epworth league has announced the fourth number of its lyceum for next Friday night, January 27. J. V. Lewis, student of theology at Kimball College, has been secured to deliver his illustrated lecture on the subject of "China." Mr. Lewis was born in China, and the pictures he shows were made by himself. This lecture was given by Mr. Lewis last summer on a chautauqua circuit and was very well received. While it is an educational lecture and is especially interesting to students, there is no part of it
