Aurora is making every possible effort to secure the location of the Pythian home to be erected by the lodges of Oregon and Washington, in their city. Arrangements have been made with the Aurora Observer to publish a Pythian Home edition in the interests of this endeavor.

The brotherhood of American yeomen will hold a pie social on Saturday evening, January 28, at Duncan's hall. All yeomen and families are invited, ladies to bring pie. We expect visitors from other homesteads. Come out and help show them a good time.

Barton Ruddell passed away at his home of his daughter, Mrs. Viola Courdier, Santa Cruz, California, on Tuesday morning, January 17, 1922, at 8:30. Mr. Ruddell was a former resident of Newberg, and his many friends will sympathize with the bereaved family.

M. S. Taylor, who returned from Idaho three weeks ago following an operation for appendicitis, was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital on Wednesday evening of this week, suffering from inflammation of the bladder. Word from Portland Thursday morning was that he rested fairly easy the previous night and that they hoped to be able to avoid an operation.

The "Double Six" will meet in odd fellows' hall next Friday evening and all odd fellows and wives are invited. "Double Six" is a combination of I. O. O. F.s and Rebekahs from Scholla, Wilsonville, Tigard, Tualatin, Sherwood and Newberg that convenes at stated times and places for the promotion of fraternal and social interests and a royal good time is expected here.

James E. Martin, who acts as representative for the Portland Telegram at this place, was successful in winning the first prize in a recent contest which the Telegram conducted all over the northwest to secure new subscribers. Mr. Martin is to be complimented upon his ability to get people to take this paper, when it is considered that he was in competition with Portland and many other larger places. Incidentally it is also somewhat of an honor to Newberg that this city should win first place in such a contest.

Oliver Evans and Harry Perkins took in the auto show in Portland Wednesday.

G. C. Edwards had the misfortune to cut off a thumb while chopping wood the past week.

If you haven't had a cold or been sick the past two weeks, you are out of style. Everybody's doing it now.

A basket ball team composed of the Journal carriers here in Newberg met a team composed of grammar school boys at Dundee and defeated the Dundee boys by a score of 25 to 0. The Journal team was composed as follows: Frank Coggin, Kenneth Range, Johnny Buell, Earnest Knapp and Claude Cummings, with Harry Buell, Orville Armstrong and Dale Russell as substitutes. L. M. Buell, local Journal agent, gave the boys a feed on Wednesday.

Newberg high school won two games of basket ball at Forest Grove last Friday evening, when the local girls' team defeated the girls of Forest Grove high school by a score of 17 to 7 and the local boys won from the boys of that high school by a score of 17 to 15. The Forest Grove girls led at the end of the first half but our girls came back strong in the second half as is shown by the final score. The boys' game was close and exciting throughout. This gives the boys a clean record in their conference games so far this year, having won every conference game played.

The first course of the drill school of the local fire department was held on last Monday evening. Those present were George Nichols, Ray Amy, Floyd Rice, Elgin VanBlaricom, Chandon Chase and Captain Spaulding. These courses will be given each Monday night with ten men of the department. The lessons as given Monday were examination in regard to familiarity of all appliances on the apparatus and their uses, working with smoke masks under actual smoke conditions, quick coupling of nozzles to hose, proper use of revolving cellar nozzle and holds used in carrying unconscious persons from burning building.

The See-Valiton company are making some decided changes in their business at this place. They have decided to get out of the general dry goods business and specialize on ladies' gents' and children's shoes and hosiery and gents' furnishings, such as shirts, collars, ties, work clothes, etc. In addition to this they have arranged to put in a complete shoe repair department and will also manufacture loggers' shoes for their trade. Jasper W. Hubberd, who claims to have had twenty years' experience as a tanner and who is reputed to be an expert shoe repair man and manufacturer, will have charge of this department. In addition to the repairing and manufacturing of shoes, the See-Valiton company will also act as distributing agents for Hubberd's shoe grease, which is a waterproof dressing for shoes.

THE SCHOOL BOARD AND TEACHERS HAVE BANQUET

On Tuesday evening, January 17, the school board and teachers of Newberg held their get-together banquet at the Baptist church. After the dinner they were entertained by a splendid program. Rev. Lee gave a short talk on the subject of "Visiting the Schools." Miss Crozer of the high school favored them with two very fine vocal selections, accompanied by her sister. County School Superintendent Duncan of McMinnville gave a splendid address on "Religious Instruction in the Public Schools." This address was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone and is of vital interest to the teachers and the board.

They then adjourned to the parlor of the church, where they were highly entertained by the committee in charge, consisting of Mrs. Vandell, Miss Sims and Mr. Harlan Smith, assisted by Mrs. Brodie. Among the many games played was the living letters, in which everyone took part.

Sides were chosen, with Supt. Duncan and Supt. Stanbrough as leaders. Each player was given a letter and when a word was called the letters stepped to their respective places. The side which first succeeded in spelling the word, won.

All present proclaimed Supt. Stanbrough's side the best spellers. Much credit was due Rev. Lee and Mr. Kilham for their humorous remarks.

When the party broke up, everyone enthusiastically told of the good time they had had, and wished for another again soon.

The committee in charge of the flag day entertainment met last week to get things started. The program will be given in the Star theatre toward the end of February.

Next week is the last week of the first semester.

WANTS INFORMATION ON NEWBERG—MAY LOCATE

The following letter from Independence, Oregon, is a sample of many inquiries which come to the Graphic office about our little city. The Graphic is always glad to send these samples and in this case turned the request over to the secretary of the Commercial club to have the information sent by that organization.

Independence, Ore., Jan. 20, '22.

Editor Newberg Graphic: Please send me copy of your paper and any information relating to your town which would be of interest to a prospective inhabitant and oblige. Yours very truly, (Mrs.) Catherine McDonald, 286 Monmouth street, Independence, Oregon.

COMPLIMENTS GRAPHIC

Shedd, Ore., Jan. 21, 1922.

Newberg Graphic: Gentlemen:—Enclosed find check for $2.00 to keep the Graphic coming another year. It is like a letter from home and we congratulate you on the way you have handled the paper. Yours truly, S. A. Mills.

DUNDEE

A very interesting meeting of the Dundee woman's club was held Thursday last. The club woman's catechism was the main topic for discussion and will be continued at the next meeting. A "do you know" of current items principally in Oregon was enjoyed, followed by a short contribution or a pleasantry by each one present. Mrs. Noble

Do You Like to Read?

The printed pages should not be painful to read. If they are, your eyes need attention.

Eyes should not give pain with ordinary use, and if they do, there is eye strain.

Our glasses will again make reading a pleasure.

We will see to it that you will see better.

The Yamhill Electric Co. Maintains at Newberg the Most Complete Electric Store in the Valley

We carry everything electrical at prices usually below the retail prices of the larger cities and actually at cost, merchandise like electric stoves and ranges. Our lamps are made by the Edison Lamp Works and are laboratory tested before they are placed on the market. All other lamps are imitations and every manufacturer pays a royalty to the Edison people for the use of the name "MAZDA." Be certain to get the best. We have wiring materials in large quantities. We buy in quantities and our customers get the benefit of these discounts.
