TROPHY PRESENTATION TO BE MADE TUESDAY

GOVERNOR TO MAKE ADDRESSES

Afternoon Meeting Will Be Held in the Friends Church—Banquet in the Evening

Next Tuesday will be a big day in Newberg for on this day the city will be host to Governor Olcott and a number of other very prominent people from various points. It is the day on which the flag trophy will be presented to the Newberg fire department and to the public schools and plans are all completed to make it a big day and a real celebration. A formal program will be held at the Friends church at 2:30 p. m., at which time Mayor Calkins will make the address of welcome, while Governor Olcott will present the flag to the department and Chief Sherlock will accept the trophy. Jay W. Stevens, chief of the fire prevention bureau of the national board of fire underwriters will make the presentation speech to the schools, while Superintendent A. C. Stanbrough will accept this trophy.

There will be a banquet at the legion hall in the evening, but this will not be open to the public. The fire department wishes to explain to the public that it is impossible to make this an open banquet because of lack of room and facilities. There are some forty firemen and there will be quite a number of guests from out of town. In addition to this it is planned to invite the heads of some of the local organizations and some of the city officials, which will take practically every available seat.

At the banquet Mayor Calkins will act as toastmaster. Music will be furnished during the banquet by the Klenle orchestra and by a quartet. Addresses will be made at this time by Governor Olcott, Jay W. Stevens, A. C. Barber, state fire marshal, Battalion Chief Grenfell of Portland, Chief Graham of Corvallis, and B. F. Dowell, president of the Pacific coast fire chiefs' association.

The entertainment committee which has been making arrangements for this affair consists of V. Delbert Miller, E. L. Van Blaricom and O. O. Livengood. J. H. Sherlock, Jr., is chief of the local fire department.

The city officials have authorized us to say that they will be pleased to have every business house close on the afternoon of February 21st in keeping with the idea of celebrating this trophy victory. The city officials feel that this is no more than the fire boys are entitled to and hope that every person in Newberg will see fit to cooperate to this extent.

BERRIANS WILL GIVE MINSTREL AND VAUDEVILLE SHOW SOON

While no positive date has as yet been set for the big minstrel and vaudeville entertainment which the Berrians are going to give in the very near future, it is practically certain that it will be given some time between the first and tenth of March. The work of outlining the score for the minstrel show is well in hand and this promises to be a real novelty entertainment. Large programs carrying advertising by the various merchants will be presented as souvenirs and these will be most unique and well worth keeping.

Those who have agreed to take parts in this entertainment are urged to keep all practice dates in mind from this time on as attendance is absolutely to be insisted upon by the committee and all should feel the necessity for working hard to make the entertainment a complete success. A committee attended the Elks minstrels in Portland on Wednesday night and got some very helpful suggestions and some strictly new ideas which will be worked in.

Any persons who have something exceptionally good to offer should get in touch with either Dr. VanValin or C. E. Dawson immediately and give them an opportunity to give the various stunts their attention before the program is all lined up.

This entertainment is to be given as a benefit to help pay for uniforms for the Berrian band and everyone should be interested in seeing this matter accomplished.

BARRIE'S OLD DRUG SHOP IN "THE LITTLE MINISTER"

The apothecary shop where Sir James M. Barrie's mother used to go to get laudanum to put in Jimmy's ear, is shown in the picture version of "The Little Minister," a Stanlans production for Paramount, with Betty Compton in the role of "Lady Babbie," which will be presented at the Baker theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, with matinee on Wednesday. This little building is in the heart of the village of Thrums, Sir James' birthplace, and the setting he used for several of his stories, was reproduced exactly from old photographs. George Hackathorne plays opposite the star and others in the supporting cast are Nigel Barrie, Will R. Willing, Guy Oliver, Fred Huntley, Robert Brower, Joseph Hazelton and Mary Wilkinson. There will also be a good comedy.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY WAS CELEBRATED ON LAST SATURDAY

The observance of Lincoln's birthday which was held last Saturday by the G. A. R. and W. R. C. was a complete success from the standpoint of dinner and program. It is a very regrettable fact that the attendance on the part of the townspeople was almost nil and we fear that it is a sad commentary on the mental attitude of the public that they do not give more attention to affairs of this sort.

The dinner which was given by the ladies of the relief corps at the noon hour to the old soldiers was up to the usual standard set by these estimable ladies both as to quantity and quality. No one ever goes away from a relief corps dinner without a feeling of overindulgence for it would be impossible for human flesh to withstand the appeal of such delicious viands.

The program in the afternoon was in the hands of N. E. Britt while Mrs. Frank Zumwalt had charge of the music. The program opened with the song "Star Spangled Banner," then followed the invocation by Comrade Hayes. Lincoln's Gettysburg address was read by Mrs. Emma Snow, following which Lincoln's letter to Mrs. Bixby of Boston was read. After this another song was given.

Judge Harris of Salem delivered the address of the day. We wish that Newberg's citizenry could have heard that able address. It was characterized by one present as being the best he had ever listened to. The address was everything that a good one should be.

The G. A. R. have requested us to say that they wish to acknowledge their gratitude to Judge Clarence Butt for his courtesies extended in different ways.

GAVE VALENTINE PARTY

A very pleasant and largely attended social function was held at the American Legion hall on Tuesday evening, February 14, when an entertainment committee from Newberg Lodge No. 104, A. F. & A. M., gave a Valentine party. It was strictly an invitational affair and the entertainment for the evening was in the nature of a dance and card party. The fore part of the evening was a masked affair and many very unique costumes were in evidence. The committee are to be congratulated upon the very successful handling of this social event. It is understood that various social functions will be given by this committee and that they will vary the style of the amusements offered.

DR. AND MRS. S. M. WENDT ENTERTAINED WITH PARTY

Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Wendt entertained a host of their friends at a Valentine party on Tuesday evening at their home on Fourth street. The color scheme of red and white, which is so fitting for the occasion, was carried out in the decorations of flowers, etc. The evening was delightfully spent in the enjoyment of recitations, songs, music and games, for Dr. and Mrs. Wendt are able entertainers and proved themselves to be excellent hosts. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Jesse Edwards, Ralph Gray, Milo Elliott, L. S. Otis, Chamberlain, Levi T. Pennington, Archie Seely, W. W. Silver, C. A. Walker, Zeff Payton, D. Miller, N. F. Byers, Lee Payton, A. C. Stanbrough, L. I. Hull, V. A. Vincent and Dr. and Mrs. Wendt, and the Mesdames Clara Calkins, Miles, Terry, Sears, Eula Vincent, Macy, Florence Nye, Frances Nye, Lois Sears, Mary Elliott and Mary E. Bankson, and Mesdames L. M. Parker, M. M. Potter and L. M. Nye, Messrs. E. H. Burns, Paul Elliott and Wilbur Elliott.

ENTERTAINED FOR GUEST

Mr. and Mrs. Eliza Hadley entertained at their home about a mile northwest of town, in honor of Mrs. Emma Truchot of Portland, a cousin of Mrs. Hadley, last Wednesday. Progressive 500 provided the entertainment for the evening, while efforts to remove Miss Amy Harger and Mr. F. A. McGivern from the head table proved the bone of contention throughout the evening. Mr. McCullough and Miss Mina Langton were finally successful in ousting the two players. A delightful luncheon was served to which all did ample justice. The guests all departed in the wee hours, hoping Mrs. Truchot would come again soon.

REVIVAL MEETINGS

The meetings at the Nazarene church are progressing nicely. There has been a number seeking and finding the Lord and we expect many more. The evangelist is preaching the truth without fear or favor. He has had wide experience, has been a pastor in New England for a number of years, has been president of Oklahoma College, and district superintendent of the Kansas district. Come and hear him. There will be services each night at 7:30. C. D. Norris.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Hanna Mae Blake, Newberg, to Albert J. Vanderbeck, Newberg.
Rosa Clara Neuschwander, Gaston, to Fred William Blachard, Gaston.

FARM BUREAU MEETING HELD TO ORGANIZE LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS SOUGHT

Local Officers Were Elected—Other Business Matters Were Discussed—Colonel Aird Here

Last Saturday a meeting of the farmers was held in the Newberg Commercial club rooms to perfect an organization to carry on the work of the Farmers' club and the Farm Bureau. As their work is along similar lines, the two organizations would only duplicate the work. President W. H. Dean of the Farmers' club called the meeting to order. After a general discussion, N. P. Nelson made a motion to proceed to the formation of a new organization that would be a merger of the interests of the Newberg Farmers' club and the new Farm Bureau. After the adoption of this resolution, C. W. Bradshaw, president pro tem of the local Farm Bureau, took charge of the meeting.

Mr. Bradshaw called upon Col. Will Aird, secretary of the state Farm Bureau federation, to give an outline of the general plan of work as carried out in other counties. Col. Aird said the best results were obtained through getting rather small local organizations so as to get close to the individual farmer.

As an example of the practical working plan, Col. Aird reviewed the 1922 program of work in the Benton county Farm Bureau. The work as outlined in this county included projects under the general heads of organization, marketing, meetings, poultry, pest control, dairying, crops, soils, farm management and rural engineering, livestock, boys' and girls' work, office work and publicity. A project manager was appointed for these several heads and the work carried out through the local units. Space does not permit to go into detail as explained by Col. Aird on each subject, but as an example the poultry project might be taken:

1. Four poultry demonstration farms were conducted.
 2. Six farms to keep cost of production records.
 3. Hold eight culling demonstrations.
 4. Hold five feeding meetings. Get ten feeding demonstrators.
 5. Hold five meetings to discuss incubation, brooding and housing.
 6. Encourage farmers to purchase baby chicks from reliable breeders to secure good stock.
 7. Aid poultrymen in marketing produce.
- Each of the projects are worked out on this plan and carried out under the supervision of the project manager.

Col. Aird recommended, when the county organization is perfected and the time comes to hire a manager, that close attention be paid to the qualifications of the man selected, as upon his work depends to a large extent, the success or failure of the federation.

A vote of thanks was extended to Col. Aird for his assistance in the forming of the new organization.

Mr. Dean made a motion that a committee of five be appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws and nominate officers for the coming year. The following committee was named: N. P. Nelson, J. U. Smith, S. T. Bixler, C. K. Hubbard and H. N. Baker. A recess was declared while the committee arranged the constitution and by-laws and made nominations. The new name as recommended by the committee and adopted by those present is to be the "Newberg Farm Bureau Club." Any bona fide farmer is eligible to active membership, while those who are not in this class may become associate members upon being voted in by the active members.

The governing power of the new organization is to be the board of directors, composed of nine members, as follows: The four officers of the club, president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, and assistant secretary-treasurer—also five directors, to be elected, one from Newberg or within two miles limit, and one from each geographical quarter of the outlying districts. These districts to have their local organization, represented by their director in the general unit. This plan was thought better than organizing in each school district, as some are too small to support an organization, but by combining two or three in some cases a good organization could be formed.

The following officers were nominated by the committee and unanimously elected: President, W. H. Dean; vice-president, C. W. Bradshaw; secretary-treasurer, Charles K. Hubbard; assistant secretary-treasurer, Henry Amoth. The directors were not elected at this meeting but will be at a meeting to be held in the near future.

It is hoped the organization can be entirely perfected in the very near future and projects outlined and leaders selected. The newly elected officers were instructed to arrange for a permanent meeting place, where the business of the club can be carried on.

It is to be hoped that the new club will prove as beneficial a proposition to its members as the Farmers' club has been. Also that it will work as well and harmoniously with the Berrians and Commercial club for the betterment of Newberg and vicinity.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT CLUB GIVE A DINNER

EXCELLENT PROGRAM RENDERED

Costumed Youth Represent Seasons and Others Beautiful Song and Nature Representations

The dinner and entertainment given by the Civic Improvement club last Thursday evening was a splendid success. The large U-shaped table in the legion hall was filled twice and everyone voted the dinner the best ever. Following the dinner and prior to the evening program, John U. Smith entertained the audience in an alcove of the main auditorium with some magical tricks in which he thoroughly demonstrated his ability to deceive the eye. Mr. Smith can play the hat trick, the shell game or the mysterious torn paper trick with equal deceptive ability.

The formal program which occupied the evening was a most creditable affair. Mrs. Dr. VanValin was the prime mover in arranging this program and she certainly deserves great credit for the successful entertainment which was given.

Mrs. E. E. Goff, president of the club, made the opening remarks, following which the program was given:

- Duet, Lucile and Leona Smith, dressed as Liberty girls, "The Stars and Stripes Forever" (Sousa).
- Instrumental solo, by Eileen Abernathy, dressed as a gipsy girl, "Hungarian Rhapsodie."
- Readings, by Mrs. Charles Morris.
- Instrumental solo, Helen Baird as an Indian girl.
- Fashion show: Spring represented by Miss Jean McDonald, wearing a daffodil dress. Summer represented by Miss Dorothy Hodson, wearing a sweet pea dress.
- Autumn, represented by Miss Lois Vandermullen, wearing a hollyhock dress.
- Winter or Jack Frost, represented by Herbert VanValin.
- Gipsy girl, represented by Miss Louise Sharpe.
- Colonial girl, represented by Miss Octavia Ware.
- Valentine, represented by Miss Emmabell Woodworth.
- Watercolor girl represented by Miss Mae Waterman.
- Instrumental solo, Arietta Gell, dressed as a little girl from Holland.
- Song and chatter by two southern gentlemen, Mr. Bert Miller and Mr. Charles Morris.
- Instrumental solo by Miss Mary Balsler, as an Irish lassie.
- Two songs by Mrs. Babcock.

A nice sum of money was realized which will be used to purchase shares in the new memorial community building. The ladies wish especially to thank the members of Lester C. Rees Post, American Legion, for their help and kindness in regard to the use of the hall.

REQUESTS SUGGESTIONS OF TAXPAYERS ON OUR SCHOOLS

Newberg, Or., Feb. 11, 1922. Editor of Graphic:

I believe it is time our shortage of public school facilities is brought to the attention of the tax payers of District No. 29, so they may give the matter serious consideration before expressing themselves for or against a new building.

There are now four grades in temporary quarters which are not satisfactory and with a continual increase in enrollment the situation will become worse. The school board is anxious to have this problem settled within the next three months. We would like the opinion of all taxpayers on this subject, especially those who have children.

The board is endeavoring to formulate plans to submit to the taxpayers at some future date. Meantime our friends should be giving this serious thought, and make whatever suggestions they have.

Respectfully,
W. H. Woodworth,
Chairman of board of school district No. 29.

GRANDPA AND GRANDMA

To some people the acquisition of the title of grandpa and grandma brings thoughts of age and wrinkles but not so in two Newberg homes where the titles come with all the pleasure of their first grandchild. It's Grandpa and Grandma Nelson and Grandpa and Grandma Paxson now, for Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nelson are the very proud parents of a daughter, Jacquelin, born Friday, February 10. Incidentally this is the first grandchild in either the Paxson or Nelson families and of course all are greatly pleased.

Papa Joe works for the Union Oil company and is a very warm personal friend of Walter Bartlett, who happens to be employed by the Standard Oil company. Now Walter could not think of allowing the Union to get ahead of Standard and he too became a proud papa on Saturday, February 11, the new daughter being named Mary Alice. Mrs. Bartlett was formerly Miss Myrth McNay. Both mothers are doing nicely and all of the families are receiving the hearty congratulations of their friends.

SHIPPED A VERY FINE BULL TO THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

Professor Graves of Washington, D. C., who has scoured the northwest country in the interests of the agricultural college at Lincoln, Nebraska, purchased a splendid Jersey bull from Isaac Hunt of this place and the animal was shipped from Newberg on the afternoon electric, Tuesday. Sultan Telivo is the name of this fine pedigreed Jersey sire and he is every inch a king. Mr. Hunt purchased this animal from the Van Kleek herd at Beaverton, but it is understood that he originally came from the famous Ladd herd. The animal was shipped by express and some idea of his value may be obtained from the fact that the express bill alone was $350.

The shipping and handling of this big five year old was no small problem. He was crated at the Hunt place east of town and brought to town by truck. The crate was five feet nine inches high and was of course of very heavy construction. The Sultan himself weighs 1500 pounds, and with the crate and all it was some task to handle him. The crate was well padded and Brussels carpet was used on the floor. Certainly no one would think of asking a Sultan to stand on anything short of Brussels. However, in this case it just happened that this was the most available material. The afternoon electric was stopped at the College street crossing and the auto truck was backed up to the side door of the express car. Here with the aid of crew bars and many men Sultan Telivo and his crate were finally loaded into the express car and although the train was delayed some fifteen minutes by the transaction, what is a mere matter of fifteen minutes to a trainload of people when so prominent a being as a Sultan must entrain.

One of the main reasons for the selection of this animal is that he has three heifer calves in the Tillamook county which averaged over 600 pounds of butterfat at the first lactation. Mr. Hunt has a son of this splendid animal also.

It is quite a distinction that a great state like Nebraska should send clear out to Oregon to get an animal like this. It is still greater distinction that Newberg should be able to furnish this animal. Newberg is the Berrian city. But evidently she will not alone be noted for berries. Dairy herds such as a fine sire like this one bespeaks, are a splendid asset to any community.

HIGH SCHOOL BAND ENTERTAINMENT FEBRUARY 22ND

Some explanation regarding the motives prompting certain individuals to support a musical organization for the high school would be both timely and a means of enlightenment to persons to whose minds the matter is not clear. There is always a large amount of musical talent going to waste in the high schools which if properly developed would be of inestimable value to the country.

There is no time in the life of young men better adapted to the development of such talent, considering environment and association. There is no better means by which young blood can be trained to take the places of those now serving the community, but who for various reasons will not always supply the demands for music. There is always the possibility that the development of musical talent assists in building character. To be a first class musician calls for a sound body and a clear head. There is the thought, serious and inescapable, "The boy of today will be the citizen of tomorrow, and if his interests can be channelled into proper channels, his life will be an asset rather than a liability.

With these ideas in mind a high school band has been organized, but finding it could not be self-supporting because of the inability of its members to give any of their time to earning money during the school year to support it, the hope of its continuance was dependent upon the interest manifest on the outside, and the liberality of the people. The requirements are very modest. The cost of tuition and music is all that the public is asked to help meet. As a means to this end, an excellent program will be given in Wood-Mar Hall on the evening of February 22, general admission 35 cents; children under 12, 20 cents; reserved seats, 50 cents.

Those who will take part are: Berrian band, Pacific College orchestra, musicians from Portland, high school dramatic club, high school band, and others. Keep the date in mind, the place and the occasion.

MUSICAL CLUB MET

The Monday Musical Club met in the studio as usual. The program centered around the Lyre. It was as follows:
"Story of the Lyre" by Mrs. Chas. A. Morris; "How Mercury Found the Tortoise Shell," by Mrs. R. P. Gill; duet by Miss Hadley and Miss Moore; reading, "Finding the Lyre," Lowell, by Mrs. Gould; reading, "Shepherd of King Admetus," Lowell, Mrs. Hoskins; "How the Lyre came to Apollo," by Miss Howard. The roll call was "Myths in Music," and brought forth a fund of musical lore.

WHITNEY BOYS' CHORUS WILL GIVE CONCERT

OFFERS MANY FINE FEATURES

Boys Will Sing and Will Give Readings and Will Be Assisted by Splendid Local Musicians

One of the big events of the year will be the concert to be given by the Whitney boys chorus at the Friends church tomorrow (Friday) evening. Mr. Morris, the local director of the chorus informs us that about 400 tickets have already been sold for this concert and it is expected that the house will be sold out. The prices have been set at a very moderate figure so that all can attend. The admission is 30 cents for adults and 20c for children. The boys have been selling the tickets around town but they may also be secured at the Morris jewelry store or at the doors that night.

A practice was held last Tuesday evening and this proved to be most satisfactory. Several of those present stated that it was worth the entire price of the admission to the concert just to hear the boys practice their songs without the special numbers. We will not attempt to give the complete program here. The special numbers which will be given as added features by some of Newberg's best musical talent were enumerated last week. In addition to these and to the chorus numbers the boys will give some special numbers. Have you ever heard a real, live boy give a reading? Some of them are regular side-splitters. The titles of a few of them are: "Willie Meets a Visitor," "So Was I," "Broken-Hearted Dutchman," and "Limitations of Youth."

Mr. H. E. K. Whitney, the general director of the Whitney boys chorus and who is already favorably known in Newberg, arrived here today and is making the final arrangements for this big concert. He will stay over for the concert and help in directing its rendition. Mr. Whitney is doing a splendid work among the boys and this movement in Newberg is largely recognized as a splendid thing. Boys not only get the benefit of the musical training, but they get a disciplining and moral uplift which many of them would never otherwise know. The people of Newberg should have great pride in the knowledge that the local chorus is by far the largest per capita chorus in the state. If you are proud of this fact, you should encourage the boys by your financial assistance at this time, as well as by your moral support and attendance.

OREGON GROWERS BUY PACKING COMPANY BUILDINGS HERE

The Oregon Growers cooperative association has purchased the lot and buildings in Newberg, owned by the White Sox Orchard company, and formerly owned by the Newberg Sash & Door company. The lot is 200x150 feet fronting on Main street which is paved. There are three buildings located on this lot, two of which are constructed of cement blocks. The main building is 40x80 feet, two stories high and equipped with an electric elevator. There is also a large shed of wooden construction located on the lot which is suitable for apple packing. The main building is favorably connected with the main line of the Southern Pacific company by a spur which will accommodate two cars.

The association has a membership of 157, near double that of December last. With this new acreage it is expected that a great increase in tonnage will be handled this year. The association last season cared for 125 tons of berries, mostly logans and blackcaps; 100 tons of cherries, mostly Royal Ann; 230 tons of prunes and several tons each of pears, apples and walnuts.

OBITUARY

Margaret Catherine Staley, aged 5 years and 9 months, and oldest daughter of John and Margaret Staley, died Tuesday at 6 o'clock a. m. at their home at Ninth and Blaine streets.

Little Margaret was as sweet as a flower in springtime, the shortness of her life made it doubly endeared as a treasure of love. Besides her sorrowing parents she leaves a baby sister, Helen Dorothy, and two brothers, Robert and Harold, whose coming she awaits in their heavenly home where she is "Safe in the arms of Jesus, safe on His gentle breast."

Funeral services were conducted from the Methodist church on Wednesday, Chas. E. Gibson, minister, officiating.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express to our neighbors and friends our heartfelt thanks for the kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our beloved daughter and sister. We wish to thank the officiating clergyman, the little girls and the ladies that furnished the music at the service, also for all the beautiful floral offerings.
Mrs. Agnes Swanstrom and sons.
