CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The storm of last Sunday morning was responsible for the drop in attendance at the Bible school hour, but the bright afternoon evidently had something to do with the specially good audience at the evening service, when Mr. Phillips delivered an address calculated to help and inspire. Speaking from the text, "My God shall supply every need of yours" he emphasized the providence and ability of God to meet the needs of man, illustrating his subject from familiar experiences of life. We are sure everyone felt encouraged, despite the continual pessimistic cry of some, as Mr. Phillips emphasized that God's provision for man's spiritual life is one continual declaration of His faith in man and His desire for his eternal happiness. Those who enjoy helpful, scriptural, and plain sermons will always be assured of this type of address by the pastor.

Time is hastening and Easter will soon be here. There is no more appropriate time for giving oneself to the Saviour than during the season in which we think of his great sacrifice for man. The Bible school is planning a great decision day and calls upon all the members to help in the work.

High school students particularly invited to Mr. Phillip's class in the Bible school. The course of study will aim to establish the fact of the divine origin of the book of books. The information to be obtained in this study will well repay one for the time expended.

Senior C. E. St. Patrick's social Friday night of this week. A cordial invitation to all the young people who have the time to spend an hour with this society.

The intermediate C. E. is as much alive as ever. Boys and girls are always welcome.

Sermon topics for next Lord's day: For the morning service, "God's purpose in Christ." A discussion of the incarnation. Believers in the divinity of Jesus will appreciate this sermon. In the evening a topical sermon entitled "A Ruined Race." Beside the good singing will be worth while.

Bible school 9:45 a. m. Communion 11:00 a. m. Intermediate C. E. 4 p. m. Senior C. E. 6:30 p. m. Song and sermon, 7:30 p. m. A welcome for all. C. H. Phillips, minister.

Wednesday at 7:30—Mid-week worship. "What caused a nation's fall;" II Kings 17:9-18.

The ladies' aid is postponed from this week to next Friday, March 17.

The annual congregational meeting comes Wednesday evening, March 29, when reports from all the different secretaries and treasurers of the church departments are to be read. Secretaries and treasurers will get the uniform paper of the pastor for their reports to be written on; from the Sabbath school work of the year; the different organized classes; the music department; the ladies' societies; the trustees and session and pastor; and any others who have work of the year to report. Elections of one trustee and two elders also take place. It is hoped that we shall be able to have a good get-together at the tables for supper preceding the congregational meeting.

It is time to have our plans for the Easter celebration ready—the anniversary of the most wonderful occurrence in the annals of human history, and the occurrence that means the most to mankind. It is hoped that many will celebrate the occasion by placing their names with the rest, upon the roll of the Redeemer's church.

The idea has been circulated that the Master never gave the details of His church's organization in His word, but just a few great principles, leaving the details to be worked out during the course of the church's progress and history. Such a thinker surely has not read the Bible very closely, nor learned the awful lessons of the church's history on this point. For the fearful history of the dark ages and the awful corruption of the church in that period, came from just this same false doctrine and idea, and from the church's fixing up an organization to suit the ideas of men, rather than the teachings of her Master. The effect was corruption both in the organization and in the lives of the members. The kind of organization required of His church by our Master is clearly laid down in the guide book, and it behooves us to study that first and get the Master's mind therein made known, if we wish the glorious results intended in His church.

TEACHERS' TRAINING CLASS

Rev. George H. Lee, our regular teacher, had charge of the class last Monday evening. The lesson discussed was "The Forty Days" after the resurrection. All the criticism, which "higher critics" hurl against the doctrine of the resurrection of our Lord, is based on unbelief in the Bible as God's sacred word.

Next Monday's lesson will be "The Early Church." This class meets at 7:30 every Monday evening in the chapel of the Presbyterian church. The public is cordially invited to these meetings. Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL AND CHURCH

Unusual interest is being shown in the united Sunday school and church recently started in Park Addition. Several of the local pastors have had charge of the preaching service following the Sunday school hour. Although the attendance has been temporarily decreased on account of much sickness, the meetings have been very good. The church is located on Ninth and Columbia. Sunday school is held at 2:30 p. m. on Sunday and the preaching service at 3:30. Everybody welcome.
