

Correspondence

FERNWOOD

Owen Baker joined the Whitney boy chorus Tuesday evening.

We are glad to hear that Herman Ofel is improving so rapidly.

William Cochran of McMinnville is visiting his sister, Mrs. H. C. Ross.

Miss Effie Powell spent the week end in Newberg with Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Gill.

Mrs. John Wohlgenuth was the guest of Mrs. A. B. Schert Monday afternoon.

N. D. Brouillette is building a new brooder house, expecting to raise several hundred young chicks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Schert and Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Livengood spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Jones.

E. H. Ross went to McMinnville Monday evening to attend the basketball game between McMinnville and Tillamook.

Mrs. C. H. Wheeler and daughter, Marguerite, from Portland, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Bryant Sunday.

Mrs. Casey and three children from Alberta, Canada, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Casey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pearson.

Mrs. Felt has returned to her home at Seio, Oregon, after visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pearson. Her brother, Russell Pearson, returned home with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaw have returned from the east where they have been since last June, playing in vaudeville. They are visiting with Mrs. Shaw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Barnett.

A Graphic classified will sell it.

SUNNYCREST

Chas. K. Hubbard reports his green house finished and a few things beginning to grow.

Miss Sadie Alspaugh, who has been with relatives at her old home near Tualatin for some time, returned home last Sunday.

Mrs. A. O. Peterson's mother, Mrs. Anderson from Seattle, was a visitor at the Peterson home last week. She returned to her home last Saturday.

Paul J. Meyers, A. O. Peterson, C. W. Bradshaw and Chas. K. Hubbard attended the meeting of the local farm bureau in Newberg last Saturday.

Mrs. Paul J. Meyer received a telegram from California telling of the death of her mother, Mrs. Morris. The Morris were former Newberg people.

Mrs. Eugene Hubbard was hostess to the Parks and Dillinger families Tuesday evening, the occasion being a sort of family reunion in honor of Mrs. Edell.

Mrs. Edell, sister of Mrs. Parks and Mrs. Eugene Hubbard, returned to her home in Olympia, Wash., last Wednesday. Mrs. Edell has been visiting some time with friends and relatives here.

The Sunnycrest ladies' club is to meet today (Thursday) at the home of Mrs. Hubbell. The ladies have missed several regular meetings on account of the great amount of sickness during the past few weeks.

Mrs. George Slaton returned home from California last Sunday. Mrs. Slaton was called to San Francisco on account of the death of her son and the serious illness of her grandson. She reports the boy as being out of danger at the time of her return.

There were several prospective-Berrian members in this locality, but some of the folks from the neighborhood attended the minstrels the first of the week. Several vest buttons were lost, a few strings broken, and one case of cracked ribs. Berrian solicitors keep out of Sunnycrest.

Butter wrappers printed at the Graphic office.

CHEHALEM CENTER

Charles Shires had an attack of pleurisy the first of the week.

Everyone is glad to hear that Mr. Loveland is so improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Van Blaricom of Newberg were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loveland last Sunday.

Practice for "Safety First" is in full swing. It will be given some time early in April. Watch for the date.

March 17 is the date set for the next parent-teachers' meeting. A good program is assured, and everyone is invited.

Miss Marguerite Johnson spent last Monday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary P. Johnson. She is now at Dundee.

J. D. Crater is convalescing from an attack of the flu. Mrs. Crater and son Harry and wife were all sick, but have recovered from the disagreeable malady.

Several of the children have been out of school because of sickness. Billy Ralston was out for over a week and Pearl Agee has been absent for over two weeks because of tonsillitis. Little Harry Morgan has been quite sick.

Mr. and Mrs. William McBride of Portland came out Saturday visiting with Mrs. Maude McMillan over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. McBride have purchased a fine new bungalow near Oregon City and expect to make that their residence.

The medal contest held by the W. C. T. U. in the school house on the evening of February 24 was a success. The young people all did very well. Marion Cupples was the winner of the beautiful silver medal.

Butter wrappers printed at the Graphic office.

WEST CHEHALEM

Thelma and Artis Noble are now going to school again.

Donald Davis made a trip to McMinnville Monday of this week.

Mrs. Gertrude Follett returned to her home at Tillamook last Tuesday.

Mrs. Carol Starr from Portland is making an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Edna Amoth.

Donald Davis is home from Portland where he has been attending Behnke-Walker business college.

Mrs. D. E. Davis and Mrs. Mabel Schoppert were Sunday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Kopplin.

Mrs. Anna Fendall and Mrs. Ida Baker called on Mrs. Edna Amoth and Mrs. Eva Amoth Thursday afternoon of last week.

H. B. Goodin recently met with a rather serious and painful accident. While slashing brush on his farm his axe glanced and made a large cut in his foot, necessitating several stitches.

The ladies' aid society met all day Wednesday, March 1. Visitors were, Mrs. York, who lives on the J. U. Smith place, and Mrs. Mabel Schoppert of Roseburg, who is visiting her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Davis.

The local W. C. T. U. met Wednesday of last week at the church and elected officers. Mrs. E. G. Fendall was re-elected president; Mrs. Henry Amoth, vice-president; Mrs. Geo. Bush, secretary; and Mrs. A. H. Boyd, treasurer.

The regular quarterly church business meeting was held last Sunday following church. All old officers and officials were re-elected. De-Verre Fendall was elected to make the third trustee. Mr. Brock's resignation was also accepted.

A number of West Chehalis folks attended the Berrian minstrels in Newberg Monday and Tuesday nights. There was also some local talent, among whom were J. U. Smith, D. P. Shaw, Charley Wade, Wm. V. Dolph and Vernon Wade.

Rev. Brock gave in his resignation to the West Chehalis church Sunday last. Mr. Brock has decided he must go elsewhere. Mr. Brock was

Butter wrappers printed at the Graphic office.

DUNDEE

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Vedder visited relatives in Portland Sunday.

Frank Keyes has returned from Salem where he has been pruning his orchard.

Miss Sally Beck motored to Astoria last Thursday to look after her property there.

Mrs. Etzwiller, from the coast, is having for her reading "Simeon Grubbs' Dream."

A girls' glee club was organized last Thursday evening at the school house. There were fourteen charter members. Miss Elsie Tangen was elected president; Mrs. Harry Crater vice-president; Miss Frances Waylett, secretary; and Miss Violet Staley, treasurer. Mrs. Harry Crater was appointed director.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Mary P. Johnson on February 23. A goodly number were there. After the business hour, they enjoyed a social hour. Delicious refreshments of cake, sandwiches and coffee were served. The next meeting, which will be held March 9, is to be at the R. W. Staley home.

On the evening of February 23, Miss Waylett was exceedingly surprised when a number of her friends came in to spend the evening. Everyone had a wonderful time, they say, playing games and tricks, and just talking. The climax of the fun was reached when the surprise cake was cut. Almost everyone received some article which was a pointer as to their future. The party broke up a little after 12 o'clock, everyone wishing Miss Waylett many happy returns.

Auction bills printed at the Graphic office.

RIBBON RIDGE

Fay Harford took two loads of hogs to Newberg last Monday.

C. L. Bryant and Joe Shook were Saturday visitors at the Hertig home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hertig made a business trip to Newberg on Monday.

Mr. Wenger has just about finished pruning his prune and walnut orchard.

Harry Carter and Virgil Vanoose spent Saturday evening with Emil Jensen.

Mrs. Elmo Blalock and Miss Ruth Kinney visited with Mrs. Ethel Carter on Thursday.

Charles Sallee and Harvey Nelson of West Chehalis visited W. R. Carter last Saturday.

Several of the farmers are having to buy hay on account of the continued bad weather.

Mr. and Mrs. George Vanoose and son, Virgil, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lyons.

Elmo Blalock helped Fred Kinney of West Chehalis spray his big prune orchard last week.

Mrs. George Vanoose and son, Virgil, and Uncle Billy Carter, visited J. T. Carter Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. William Carter spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. George Carter last Wednesday.

The lost meerschaum pipe of Harry Carter was found by Charles Sallee in front of the Sallee front gate.

If this cold weather continues the women on the Ridge will have to knit wool stockings for their baby chickens.

C. Thayer, Elmer Hodson and Mr. Watkins from the Lakeview district were visitors at the George Wenger home during the last week.

J. T. Carter and son Harry took dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Avon Slade; also a car load of friends from Portland called on the Slades.

Emil Jensen took supper with Mr. and Mrs. William Carter. Other Sunday callers were Harry Carter, Virgil Vanoose, Mrs. Charles Sallee and daughter, Eva Sallee.

Butter wrappers printed at the Graphic office.

SPRINGBROOK

Lyle Burgoyne left Monday on a business trip to Roseburg.

Little Bernice Mardock, who had a severe attack of pneumonia, is slowly recovering.

Esther Miller of McMinnville spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burgoyne.

P. H. Hammond has removed his lumber to his recently purchased property on the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Darling and family of near Gaston, were Sunday guests of C. E. Stone and family.

Supt. Duncan was a caller at the schools last week. He reports most of the side roads bad and makes his trips by walking.

Mr. and Mrs. Keach are recovering from a recent illness, while Mr. and Mrs. Hodson are now undergoing the troublesome cold.

Miss Ethel Cowgill and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Mills were in McMinnville last Sunday to meet with the county O. E. cabinet.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallen and Mrs. Fullerton returned the first part of the week from a several days' visit with relatives in Marshfield.

Axum Newby and daughter, Myrtle, made a business trip to Portland Monday. Mr. Newby is still having treatment for his eyes in that city.

Mr. Stone, who suffered the loss of part of his dwelling by fire some time ago, is rapidly repairing the damaged part and will soon have everything like it was before the fire.

There have been several cases of absence from school in the last few weeks, but Tuesday saw a 100 per cent attendance again. This speaks well for Springbrook as a healthy place.

The boys of the eighth grade have organized a baseball team with Bertam Miller, captain. They have been trying to stir up a game with some outside school but so far have been unsuccessful, as there are too many Babe Ruth's in Mr. Miller's team.

The campfire girls met for a ceremonial meeting at the home of Miss Grace Heater last Monday evening. Following the business part of the meeting, games and music were enjoyed until a bountiful supper was served by the hostess. Those present were Eula Vincent, Lucile Ehret, Alice Hodson, Bernice Carlisle, Bernice Newhouse and Hazel Newhouse.

Several from here attended the minstrel show given by the Berrians. Fred Kincaid was one of the patrons and while he was enjoying the show some miscreant had the gall to steal the spotlight from his car. This is the second one Fred has had stolen in the last few weeks. The one that attempts it the third time had better watch out, as there is an end to all patience.

Butter wrappers printed at the Graphic office.

REX

R. Walters and family visited at Portland on Monday.

N. L. Wiley went to Portland last week Wednesday on business.

Miss Josephine Whitney entered the seventh grade Tuesday morning.

Mrs. William Kincaid of Springbrook called on the Macys on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Schaad went to Portland last Wednesday to do some shopping.

W. F. Sanderman of Portland visited at the home of his brother, Simon, last Monday.

H. S. Putman went to Woodlawn, Washington, on Monday, and returned in the evening.

The Pacific College Y. M. C. A. boys had charge of the services at Rex Friends church last Sunday.

Francis Jenkins came home Monday evening from O. A. C. He is on the sick list and came home to rest up.

V. Erickson of Salem arrived Sunday to attend the funeral of his daughter. He returned Monday evening.

Mrs. A. O. Macy and daughter, Margaret, of Portland, came up Monday evening for a short visit at the Perry Macy home.

Auction bills printed at the Graphic office.

NEWBERG

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Kiser are spending a few days at the home of Rufe Bristow.

Sunday there will be a community song service at the club house at 3 p. m. Everyone is welcome.

Frank Connors of Portland and Theo Baker of Fernwood spent Sunday at the home of George Smith.

C. C. Loucks went to Portland last week and had all his teeth extracted and has been feeling sort of "bum" since.

Mrs. Florin Woods came out from Portland Tuesday to care for her mother, Mrs. Shain, who broke her limb.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stahlnecker of Wilsonville attended the farewell party at the club house Saturday evening.

Mrs. Frank Shain slipped and fell in their dooryard Sunday and broke her right limb just above the ankle. Dr. Romig of Newberg came out and set it.

The farewell party given at the hall Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Walls was well attended. Ninety-five persons were there and everyone had a jolly good time.

Miss Bliss, the teacher, will close school Thursday and Friday of this week. She leaves for Tacoma Thursday evening to attend the golden wedding anniversary of her uncle.

Mrs. C. M. Kiser received word from her son, Homer, that he has been sick and was in the hospital in Portland twenty days with the flu and a complication of diseases. He is better now and is staying with friends in Newberg.

J. Mitchell, who has been in poor health for the last six months, died Monday morning. As he had no relatives here, the neighbors took care of him. He was about 60 years old and was a bachelor. He had lived in this community about ten years. Interment took place at Newberg cemetery on Tuesday afternoon.

Auction bills printed at the Graphic office.

a very faithful preacher here. He brought messages to the people that made a forceful impression and could do the world no harm if preached a great deal more. Mr. Brock's faithful service will be sorely missed in West Chehalis.

A Graphic classified will sell it.

LAD HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Kiser are spending a few days at the home of Rufe Bristow.

Sunday there will be a community song service at the club house at 3 p. m. Everyone is welcome.

Frank Connors of Portland and Theo Baker of Fernwood spent Sunday at the home of George Smith.

C. C. Loucks went to Portland last week and had all his teeth extracted and has been feeling sort of "bum" since.

Mrs. Florin Woods came out from Portland Tuesday to care for her mother, Mrs. Shain, who broke her limb.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stahlnecker of Wilsonville attended the farewell party at the club house Saturday evening.

Mrs. Frank Shain slipped and fell in their dooryard Sunday and broke her right limb just above the ankle. Dr. Romig of Newberg came out and set it.

The farewell party given at the hall Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Walls was well attended. Ninety-five persons were there and everyone had a jolly good time.

Miss Bliss, the teacher, will close school Thursday and Friday of this week. She leaves for Tacoma Thursday evening to attend the golden wedding anniversary of her uncle.

Mrs. C. M. Kiser received word from her son, Homer, that he has been sick and was in the hospital in Portland twenty days with the flu and a complication of diseases. He is better now and is staying with friends in Newberg.

J. Mitchell, who has been in poor health for the last six months, died Monday morning. As he had no relatives here, the neighbors took care of him. He was about 60 years old and was a bachelor. He had lived in this community about ten years. Interment took place at Newberg cemetery on Tuesday afternoon.

Auction bills printed at the Graphic office.

SPRINGBROOK

Lyle Burgoyne left Monday on a business trip to Roseburg.

Little Bernice Mardock, who had a severe attack of pneumonia, is slowly recovering.

Esther Miller of McMinnville spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burgoyne.

P. H. Hammond has removed his lumber to his recently purchased property on the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Darling and family of near Gaston, were Sunday guests of C. E. Stone and family.

Supt. Duncan was a caller at the schools last week. He reports most of the side roads bad and makes his trips by walking.

Mr. and Mrs. Keach are recovering from a recent illness, while Mr. and Mrs. Hodson are now undergoing the troublesome cold.

Miss Ethel Cowgill and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Mills were in McMinnville last Sunday to meet with the county O. E. cabinet.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallen and Mrs. Fullerton returned the first part of the week from a several days' visit with relatives in Marshfield.

Axum Newby and daughter, Myrtle, made a business trip to Portland Monday. Mr. Newby is still having treatment for his eyes in that city.

Mr. Stone, who suffered the loss of part of his dwelling by fire some time ago, is rapidly repairing the damaged part and will soon have everything like it was before the fire.

There have been several cases of absence from school in the last few weeks, but Tuesday saw a 100 per cent attendance again. This speaks well for Springbrook as a healthy place.

The boys of the eighth grade have organized a baseball team with Bertam Miller, captain. They have been trying to stir up a game with some outside school but so far have been unsuccessful, as there are too many Babe Ruth's in Mr. Miller's team.

The campfire girls met for a ceremonial meeting at the home of Miss Grace Heater last Monday evening. Following the business part of the meeting, games and music were enjoyed until a bountiful supper was served by the hostess. Those present were Eula Vincent, Lucile Ehret, Alice Hodson, Bernice Carlisle, Bernice Newhouse and Hazel Newhouse.

Several from here attended the minstrel show given by the Berrians. Fred Kincaid was one of the patrons and while he was enjoying the show some miscreant had the gall to steal the spotlight from his car. This is the second one Fred has had stolen in the last few weeks. The one that attempts it the third time had better watch out, as there is an end to all patience.

Butter wrappers printed at the Graphic office.

REX

R. Walters and family visited at Portland on Monday.

N. L. Wiley went to Portland last week Wednesday on business.

Miss Josephine Whitney entered the seventh grade Tuesday morning.

Mrs. William Kincaid of Springbrook called on the Macys on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Schaad went to Portland last Wednesday to do some shopping.

W. F. Sanderman of Portland visited at the home of his brother, Simon, last Monday.

H. S. Putman went to Woodlawn, Washington, on Monday, and returned in the evening.

The Pacific College Y. M. C. A. boys had charge of the services at Rex Friends church last Sunday.

Francis Jenkins came home Monday evening from O. A. C. He is on the sick list and came home to rest up.

V. Erickson of Salem arrived Sunday to attend the funeral of his daughter. He returned Monday evening.

Mrs. A. O. Macy and daughter, Margaret, of Portland, came up Monday evening for a short visit at the Perry Macy home.

Auction bills printed at the Graphic office.

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN

Alfred Hutchens spent Sunday at the John Ornduff home.

H. J. Maynard and George Maynard went to Scholls Tuesday.

Auction bills printed at the Graphic office.

BAIRD'S

WHY NOT

Phone your Grocery orders to Baird, where you will always get the best quality at the cheapest prices, and prompt delivery?

Good Bulk Coffee, per pound	$.20	Jello, all flavors, per package	.10
Magnolia Coffee, the best of good coffee, 35c pound, 3 pounds for	1.00	Bird Seed, per package	.10
Best Crown Rolled Oats, lb.	.06	Eastern Corn Meal, per sack	.30
Citrus Washing Powder, pr. lb.	.25	Cream Wheat, per package	.25
White Laundry Soap, 6 bars	.25	Shredded Wheat, per package	.15
Arm & Hammer Soda, 3 for	.25	Post Toasties, per package	.10
Postum Cereal, per package	.20	Kellogg's Corn Flakes, "	.10
Knox Gelatine, per package	.20	Full line good fresh Vegetables at all times.

E. C. BAIRD

WE DELIVER

visiting at the home of her brother, Frank Keyes.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenhart and family have taken up a temporary residence in part of the former Dundee hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dearborn returned last Thursday from a winter spent in California. They drove down and back and encountered much cold weather.

In the Sunday school attendance contest which just closed, the Whites were victorious and are crowing over the Greens, who are, according to the agreement, to give the Whites a chicken supper in the near future.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Alfred Allan entertained her immediate neighbors residing in Lovers' Lane. The occasion was supposed to be a surprise to the guests, but one of them has too good a memory for dates to overlook such a one. So she passed the word around and Mrs. Allan herself was surprised when the guests each presented her with a birthday remembrance. Refreshments and a jolly afternoon of games were enjoyed.

The March meeting of the Dundee parent-teachers' association was held at the school house on Tuesday. Mrs. Morecroft gave a talk on the work of the rural improvement club in one of the districts in Yamhill county.

Mrs. Spencer Vedder read an article on the county school unit plan, and Principal Ilor read a report of the reasons for adopting the plan in Crook county. A general discussion of the subject followed, to be continued at the next meeting, which will be the first Tuesday in April.

One of the most interesting meetings that the Dundee woman's club has held was the one on Thursday of last week. The regular business meeting and the usual lessons were followed by the continuation of the subject of Japan. Several interesting papers were read. It was decided to take up the "Japanese in the United States" for discussion at the next meeting. Every member of the club is urged to bring to the meeting any bit of information she can find on this absorbing topic.

Mrs. Ralph A. Olmsted, assisted by Mrs. Michael Miller, Mrs. Mamie Nelson and Mrs. Clark Noble, served refreshments. Thirty-one members of the club and guests were present.

Auction bills printed at the Graphic office.

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN

Alfred Hutchens spent Sunday at the John Ornduff home.

H. J. Maynard and George Maynard went to Scholls Tuesday.

Auction bills printed at the Graphic office.

Sound Tires

Are made of the best fabric and cord, have extra heavy tread of especially prepared rubber that gives marvelous wear.

Try them and let them prove for themselves what they will do for you.

Sold by
East First St. M. P. Elliott & Sons Newberg, Ore.
"BE SOUND ALL AROUND"

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Mills of Springbrook came up to Rex on Monday to attend the funeral of the Erickson baby and while here called on Mrs. Mills' father, N. L. Wiley.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Boyd and children, Mrs. John Riesback and Miss Mary Woter of Salem attended to Rex Monday to attend the funeral of little Mary Erickson. Mrs. Boyd is Mrs. Erickson's sister.

Mrs. Worelein of Portland came to Mr. Whitaker's on Monday evening and took Mr. Worelein back to Portland. Mr. Worelein has been staying at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Whitaker, the past two weeks.

The Misses Lydia and Mary Strate went to Portland to visit with their sister, Mrs. Brickley. Miss Lydia entertained on Wednesday for Denver, Colorado, for an extended visit with her uncle, Rev. W. R. Welte and family.

Mary, the little daughter of Mrs. Ollie Erickson, died at midnight Saturday of bronchial pneumonia. She was eleven months and five days old. Mrs. Erickson was visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Jenkins, at the time. The funeral was held Monday at the Rex Friends church and the remains were laid to rest in Laurel Hill cemetery. She will be missed by her relatives and friends.

A Graphic classified will sell it.

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN

Alfred Hutchens spent Sunday at the John Ornduff home.

H. J. Maynard and George Maynard went to Scholls Tuesday.

Saturday Special

Salt Salmon, pound	10c
Molasses, 15c size	10c
Pepper, pound of the best	25c
Salad Dressing, large bottle	10c
Flour, hard wheat	$1.85
Flour, soft wheat	1.50
Good head Rice, 3 lb.	23c

J. L. VanBlaricom

Mr. Morgan and E. V. McDougall were Newberg visitors Saturday.

Mr. Hazenberg has been making frequent trips down the hill lately.

County School Supt. S. S. Duncan has been visiting the schools on the mountain this week.

School opened at Pleasant View Monday after being closed several days on account of sickness.

Lacy Ornduff and wife and Jay Ornduff and Mr. Williamson were Newberg visitors Wednesday.

A Mr. Hunt, formerly a Minnesota man, but now an Oregonian, is going to work awhile for Henry Versteeg.

Sunday morning there was 13 inches of snow on the level up here on the mountain, but Monday the rain was washing it away fast.

A party was held at the Finigan home Saturday night for Winnifred. About thirty guests were present and a fine time was enjoyed by all.

Henry Versteeg went to Newberg Monday, and Tuesday he took some grain to a neighbor's, some to be cleaned for seeding and some to be ground.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sinniger are visiting this week at the J. P. Jones home and while visiting are making some shakes for the roof of their new barn.

A charivari was held Tuesday night for Rufus Ornduff and his wife. They have been married about a year but only recently moved into the neighborhood.

Ray Clark and wife have moved back into their own home after being with Mrs. Clark's mother, Mrs. Brunson. Mrs. Clark has been quite ill but is better again now.

Mr. Hollenbeck is at home again (Continued on page five)