COLLEGE BOYS EARN OWN WAY

Half of University Students in U. S. Self-Supporting.

CUBAN TELLS HOW HE DID IT

Yale Survey Gives Fair Indication of Conditions as They Prevail in Most American Universities—52 Per Cent Earning Their Way, at Least in Part—Waiting on Table for Board Is Favorite Way of Helping Out—Odd Jobs Pay for Books.

Young man, do you want to go to college? Say Yale, or Harvard, or Columbia, or Cornell, or Northwestern, or any of the big American colleges?

"Yes," you say, "that would be fine. But I haven't the money."

You don't need the money!

Make the money as you go along. Half the college students in America are earning their way through college, at least in part, government experts have found.

A trip to Yale shows you how they do it.

A questionnaire was sent out by the bureau of appointments of Yale to determine how many students were paying their own way by working.

Half Working Way.

President Angell of Yale says that half of the students of the college answered, and of these 52 per cent were working their way through.

One of them is Antonio Fresnada. He is a Cuban, and he started under a great handicap.

Fresnada is now in his junior year. He says it is a cinch for a young man to work his way through college.

"My freshman year was the hardest," says Fresnada. "The only thing I knew was manual labor."

"I waited on table for my board, took care of a furnace and shoveled snow from the sidewalks for my room. I sold Sunday papers, acted as agent for a laundry and at various other jobs made enough to pay for books and clothes."

"Vacations I worked as section hand on the railroad and carried bricks."

"But I stuck to it—while other fellows were becoming athletic heroes and taking part in social affairs."

"It is easier now. Tutoring and typewriting furnish me with enough to get by on."

"I pay $3 a week for my room. My board costs me $11 a week, tuition $8.50, books and papers $2, clothing $4, laundry $1.50, incidentals $3. This totals $33, and I find no difficulty in earning it."

"The experience has been valuable to me. It has taught me that if I believe in a thing, I can do it."

Many Self-Supporting.

Yale is not an exclusive school for the sons of rich men. It counts its self-supporting students by the hundreds.

However, exceptional qualities are demanded of the student who works his way through. The leisure time exempt from classes and studies, that more fortunate students spend in seeking pleasure, the self-supporting man must spend in earning his way.

A bureau of appointments whose chief aim is the aid of needy students is maintained.

The bureau works in two ways—by granting beneficiary college scholarships and acting as a clearing-house for work.

Where the bureau, after careful investigation of the applicant, deems that a youth's character and secondary school record have been of sufficient promise, an allowance of $120 of the total tuition fee of $150 for the first term may be made. The allowance for the second term of the school year and for succeeding terms depends on the student's academic standing.

For the first two years these allowances are made with the understanding that no obligation of repayment is incurred.

After the first two years, noninterest-bearing notes are taken for the remitted tuition, payment on which is due five years after graduation.

HUSBAND TO WASHTUBS

Court Sentences Him to Help Wife There Until He Gets a Job.

Judge George R. Hefly of Huntington, W. Va., established a precedent when he sentenced James Alexander, defendant in Domestic Relations court, to duty at his wife's washtubs.

Alexander was arrested by Sheriff Williams on complaint of Hattie Alexander, his wife, that he failed to support her and that instead of being a help he was dependent upon her, earnings from washing clothes.

When arraigned, Alexander pleaded lack of employment. After hearing the evidence of the wife, Judge Hefly ordered that the "court, after hearing all the evidence, is of the opinion that the defendant is guilty as charged. He is ordered released from custody of the sheriff and directed to return home and assist his wife with her washing until such time as he can find employment elsewhere that will enable him to properly support his family."

Tubful of Honey From Hollow Tree.
A washtub full of honey has been distributed among friends by Mr. and Mrs. Jay Carty of Gibbstown, N. J. Carty was cutting down a large tree when he struck a hollow spot and found the trunk filled with honey.

WHEN SELF-LOVE IS WOUNDED

Then is Called into Play the Ugliest of All Human Passions, That of Jealousy.

Jealousy is the ugliest of all human passions—and the one which makes the greatest misery in the world. It is the outcome of egotism, the twin sister of vanity, and its brood are all the sorrows of the human race.

But what is jealousy when analyzed?

It is the bitterness which arises either when someone else possesses that which we desire and cannot obtain, or the fear that what we possess may be taken from us by another. The very fact of our feeling fear shows that we know this other possesses a power stronger than our own—and this is a reflection upon our personal merit, and therefore a wound to our self-love, says Elinor Glyn in the London Times.

Men and women are jealous when another approaches one they love—their natural egotism is wounded by the inference that this other has not realized their own worth, and dares to dispute their sway—jealousy being roused to fury should the one they love respond to alien glances, because the wound to self-love is deeper still in that case, and the poison sinks into the very being.

But jealousy between the sexes is a more pardonable fault than any other form of the virus, because it goes back to the instinct of self-preservation and, in the broader sense, race-preservation, and although its indulgence produces misery and crime, its origin is not altogether base or wholly egotistical.

If people tried half as hard to be happy as they do to become rich, we would have very few miserable people.—Louis M. Notkin.

LET HIM KNOW IT

When a fellow pleases you,
Let him know it.
It's a simple thing to do—
Let him know it.
Can't you give the scheme a trial?
It is sure to bring a smile,
And that makes it worth the while—
Let him know it.

You are pleased when anyone
Lets you know it.
When the man who thinks "well done"
Lets you know it.
For it gives you added zest
To bring out the very best—
Just because some mortal blest
Lets you know it.

When a fellow pleases you
Let him know it.
Why, it isn't much to do—
Let him know it.
It will help him in the fray,
And he'll think his efforts pay;
If you like his work or way,
Let him know it.
