

Local and Personal News

Dr. E. A. Romig was a Portland visitor Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Parker were Portland visitors on Tuesday of this week.

Dr. J. S. Rankin has been attending the medical meetings in Portland this week.

Miss Elizabeth Skipworth came up from Portland and spent Sunday at the Ralph Otis home near Rex.

Mrs. R. C. Bale of Kelo, Wash., spent Sunday in Newberg with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Morley.

A Brazeau of Shaniko, eastern Oregon, came over Monday for a few days visit with his son, Billy Brazeau, of the Music Box.

Save your crops by killing the squirrels. Poisoned grain will do it and you can get it of the Farm Bureau at 12 1/2c per quart.

Mrs. F. Englebright, who underwent an operation at the Emanuel hospital in Portland last week is reported as doing nicely at present.

Miss Marie Utley, teacher of mathematics in the McMinnville high school, spent the week end with her aunt, Mrs. A. J. Morgan of Villa Road.

A quart of poisoned grain that costs only 12 1/2c of the Farm Bureau will kill a great many squirrels which would cost you a great deal more than that.

A. J. Schrader, who has been renewing acquaintances here for the past two weeks, left Wednesday for Spokane, Wash. He will stop at Kennewick and Dufoe enroute.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Millsap and son, William, of Lebanon, Oregon, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Millsap's sister, Mrs. Verona H. Nelson, from Friday of last week until Monday morning.

Lee Vandermark has turned over his barbershop in the Duncan building to I. J. Wess of McMinnville, who will run the shop for Mr. Vandermark. Mr. Vandermark will travel for a tailoring house.

Mrs. Rebecca W. H. Smith, city recorder, who has been confined at the Newberg hospital with an attack of pneumonia for the past week, is now better and will be able to return to her home today, Thursday.

Hubert and Matt Koehn, who have been working at Tillamook since the sawmill shut down, returned home last Saturday and will probably remain here now. They came home by way of Astoria and report a fine trip.

Mrs. H. A. Shotwell, who has spent most of the winter with her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Nottage, left Friday for Portland. She expects to spend a few weeks with a daughter in Seattle and will then go to Alaska for the summer.

Mrs. D. L. Hannon left Sunday night for Los Angeles, California, where she will visit her parents for a short time and will then come back to Sacramento from which place she will start on a two months' lecture tour, working her way back towards the Oregon line.

Willis B. Corey, who was formerly a resident of Newberg for many years and who has been spending some time in Eastern Oregon, has purchased property near Gresham and will locate there. Mr. Corey visited Newberg friends and relatives the latter part of last week.

It is reported that the drillers who are putting down the oil well south of St. Paul, have the well down about 400 feet and have passed through some very pleasing indications. However, they did not stop to examine any of these but are pushing on down to depth where they hope to encounter the real oil.

Carl and Barney Groth, who have operated the Groth Electric company business as a partnership for some time past, have dissolved partnership, Barney Groth retaining the entire business and Carl retiring from the firm. The business will be conducted along the same lines as heretofore. Carl expects to leave in a short time for a trip through the middle west.

Teddy W. Leavitt and wife of Anacortes, Wash., and Maynard Leavitt and family of Corvallis, were week end visitors at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Leavitt, of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt left Monday for Salem where they will visit Mrs. Leavitt's parents. They are members of the Leavitt soul-winning team, which will commence a series of evangelistic meetings at Yamhill on Easter Sunday. They are doing independent evangelistic work, and will go back to the Sound country where they make their headquarters, about the first of June.

Miss Grace Wilson spent the week end with relatives in Portland.

Misses Muriel Yarnell and Lulu Forsyth were Portland shoppers Friday.

Mrs. D. L. Hannon has rented her home on Third street to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hale.

Mr. Slason, manager of the Miller Mercantile company store at Salem, was a Newberg visitor on Tuesday.

Theo Langton has finished his course in mechanical engineering at O. A. C. and returned to his home here last Thursday.

Rev. Schuman, an M. E. pastor of the Rodney avenue church in Portland, was a visitor at the Rev. Klenke home in this city on Monday.

Kill the squirrels. Get your poisoned grain of the Farm Bureau at 12 1/2c per quart. Guaranteed to kill anything which takes it internally.

Martin Miller, who has filed for county commissioner, called at the Graphic office Friday afternoon. Mr. Miller lives two miles from the town of Dayton.

Allen Smith was up from Portland the latter part of last week, returning to Portland Sunday. Mr. Smith expects to go on a trip to the east in the near future.

Dr. E. A. Romig has moved his offices into the suite formerly occupied by Dr. Barcroft over the First National Bank. Dr. Romig occupied this suite when he was practicing here before.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson have purchased the Griffin property on Fifth street near College and are now settled in their new home. Their many friends are glad that they are again residents of Newberg.

Klenke & Sons made delivery on an Ivers & Pond "Princess grand" piano to Miss Putman at her studio in the city hall, Thursday morning. This piano had been ordered for two months and came by boat from Boston.

Mel Amy, George Nichols, Sam McVey and Jesse Cummins went on a fishing trip to the Sandy river on Wednesday and brought back smelt enough for all their friends. The Graphic acknowledges a generous donation.

The Legion are planning an entertainment for the evening of Saturday, April 22. This will be Scotch night when bagpipers, dancers and singers of this nationality will be brought up from Portland to give an entertainment.

The Newberg public school baseball team started the season out with a victory of 30 to 6 at Springbrook Thursday, April 6. The Springbrook team has been after new worlds to conquer. (They found them) Mark Hanna is the captain of the Newberg team.

Mrs. H. E. Mills returned Sunday from a visit with her son, C. L. Aldrich, at Oakland, California. She reports cold, disagreeable weather at Oakland, although it was nice in the Sacramento valley. Growing conditions were no farther advanced at Oakland than they are here.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Timberlake started Monday afternoon for Los Molinos, California, where they were called by the sickness of Mr. Timberlake's sister's husband, who has the pneumonia. This is the same family which lost a boy and a girl in the collision of a train and bus at Red Bluff last winter.

Hal E. Hoss of the Oregon City Enterprise and George Huntington Curry of the Baker Herald passed through Newberg on Monday afternoon and while in the city paid a fraternal visit to the Graphic office. They were making a tour of the Forest Grove, Yamhill, Carlton, McMinnville, Newberg loop, and were on their way back to Portland.

A. M. Staples received some rather severe injuries last Thursday evening when a team which he was driving became frightened at the electric cars as he was driving them under the trestle at the end of Villa Road northeast of town. Mr. Staples does not know exactly what happened as he became unconscious, but when he came to, his face was badly cut in several places and one rib was cracked.

Miss V. I. Anderson, teacher of English at the high school, and Robert Brown, Chester Newlin and Florence Heater leave today, Thursday, for Eugene, where they will attend the conference of high school editors and business managers at the University of Oregon. Miss Heater is president of the local high school student body, while Robert Brown is editor and Chester Newlin business manager of the N. H. S. Echoes.

T. H. Thorne moved a family to Centralia, Wash., Saturday morning.

Cliff Spaulding is driving a new bug which was rebuilt at the Newberg Motor company's garage.

Dr. Brooks of LaGrande is making an extended visit with her friend, Dr. Adele M. Gochour of this place.

Mrs. Earl Pinney is home after spending two weeks at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Myers of Woodburn.

Mrs. Hugh Dorn had a bad fall on Tuesday morning, resulting in a broken limb. She is reported as getting along nicely at present.

Miss Amy Hall, who teaches at Rainier, Oregon, will spend Easter with her mother, Mrs. A. E. Hall and her sister, Mrs. F. R. Rundell.

Mrs. F. S. Baldwin of West Allis, Wisconsin, accompanied by her daughter, Harriet, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Churchill, of this place. They will probably make an extended visit.

Rev. Charles T. Whittlesey, professor of ancient languages in Philomath College, who died April 2 at Corvallis, was known by many people in this section as he spent his summer vacation at Springbrook for a number of years.

A rumor has been persistently circulated about town that a man was murdered somewhere in the territory across the river from this place last Sunday, but no definite information seems to be available and it is generally considered as a false report.

A. R. Slyter arrived her last week from Kennewick, Wash., for a visit with his son, S. N. Slyter, and wife at their home on Second street. Mrs. Jane Mills, his daughter, who resides at Independence, visited here Sunday and was accompanied home by her father. The latter will return here later and will probably spend the greater part of the summer here.

Charles B. Wilson, formerly of Newberg and now county clerk at McMinnville was taken very sick last Saturday and was in a very serious condition for some time. Mrs. S. J. Madison reports that on Wednesday he was some better. The doctors are somewhat puzzled over his case but believe that it is intestinal flu. Mr. Wilson had what was thought to be the grippe a short time ago and this may be an after-effect of that trouble.

Mrs. E. L. Evans entertained last Thursday, April 6, in honor of Mrs. Karen Madison, whose 32nd birthday anniversary occurred on that day. The afternoon was spent over coffee and cake, with the birthday cake holding the central place. Mrs. Christine Clemmenson, sister of Mrs. Madison and mother of Mrs. Eli Evans, was also present. Mrs. Clemmenson is 86 years old. Other guests were Mrs. S. J. Madison, Mrs. Ben Evans and Mrs. James Blackburn.

Mrs. Moffat, who lives on Sheridan street in this city has three Rhode Island Red hens which have been making a remarkable record in egg laying this spring. These hens are only nine months old but during February they laid four dozen and ten eggs for Mrs. Moffat. In March they laid seven dozen and during the first six days of April they laid twenty eggs. Mrs. Moffat says she has one hen which laid six double yolked eggs in March and that this same hen lays two eggs in one day every once in a while which accounts in part for this phenomenal record.

Mrs. Neal McCoy entertained the Cannery Cousin club of which she is a member, at her home on Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent. One event was a guessing contest on a jar of candy, Easter eggs and animals, the winner being Mrs. Callison and the prize a candy keepie. Refreshments were served by the hostess and consisted of cream pie with whipped cream and punch. Those present were Mrs. Keller, vice-president of the club; Mrs. Hanville, secretary; Mrs. Bullack, Mrs. Mills, Mrs. Shotz, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Haworth, Mrs. Prosser, Mrs. Dorton, Mrs. Callison, and Mrs. Branchflower, an honored guest.

Mrs. Kramer of this place is looking forward to the coming in of her ship in the near future as the result of the finding of oil in Montana near where she owns 640 acres of land. H. Beaupre of Sunburst, Montana, was a Newberg visitor the first of the week and held consultation with Mrs. Kramer regarding this property on which the Sunburst Oil and Gas Co., of which he is treasurer, has a lease. A well has been brought in about ten miles from Mrs. Kramer's property, which has not yet been pumped, but which Dr. Beaupre claims will pump 200 barrels a day. Naturally Mrs. Kramer is elated over the outlook for her own property.

F. H. Crowell of this place has an exhibit of new coins which are quite interesting as they are rare and few have been seen here. They comprise the Liberty dollar, the Grant half dollar, the Pilgrim half dollar, the Sedalia half dollar and the gold Grant dollar. The Grant half dollar is of the 1922 coinage and shows the head of Grant. The Pilgrim half dollar, coined in 1920, celebrates the 300th anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth. The Sedalia half dollar, a 1922 coin, is in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the statehood of Missouri. Mr. Crowell says that these coins sell at a premium, some of the half dollars costing as much as $1.50, while the gold dollars cost $3.50. Mr. Crowell has placed these coins in the Chas. A. Morris window.

Adelphian Easter sale, electric light window, April 15. Fancy work and food. 2811

A. K. Durant of McMinnville was a business visitor in the city Thursday, today.

Mrs. Fred Fogel and her mother, Mrs. Lulu Dumont, were here from Portland Monday visiting with Mr. Fogel, who is employed at the Newberg Motor company repair shop.

The Yamhill county bankers' association met at McMinnville Wednesday evening, when every bank in the county, with the exception of the first National bank of Sheridan, was represented. There were about thirty-five or forty in attendance and a very fine banquet was spread for the occasion. Following the dinner several matters of special interest to the bankers were discussed but no definite action was taken. It was voted to accept the invitation of the Sheridan and Willamina banks to meet at Sheridan some time in June. S. L. Parrett, W. H. Woodworth, E. P. Gill, R. A. Butt and Clarence Butt of this place attended the meeting in McMinnville.

Two youths, Monroe Worthen and Harry Buell, were arraigned in Judge Churchill's court Wednesday afternoon to answer to a charge of burglary preferred against them by George Larkin of the Larkin-Prince Hardware company. According to reports, the two youths are supposed to have entered the Larkin-Prince hardware store Sunday night by removing a pane of glass, and then stealing a quantity of goods, including rifle and shells, etc. It is said that these goods were found in the Worthen home and that the boys confessed after one had shot the other in the leg and was forced to call a doctor. No plea was entered by the boys as their case will have to be heard in the circuit court, but they waived preliminary examination and Judge Churchill placed their bail at $100 each, subject to the call of the circuit court. L. M. Buell, father of Harry Buell, furnished bail in his case, and up to the time of this writing the Worthen boy had not furnished bail.

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN
Perry Kohl went to Newberg Thursday.
Mrs. Kohl and Earl Eitzwiler were in Newberg Monday.
Buford Deford has traded his Ford for a Dodge roadster.
Harry Wohlshlegel went over to Metzler's Tuesday, to work.
Alfred Hutchens was a Sunday guest at the John Ornduff home.
Mrs. A. Barber of Hillsboro visited Monday at the Avery Woods home.
Mrs. Perry Kohl went down to Walton's Friday after some petite prunes.
Roy McDougall and family visited Saturday with the home folks at Dayton.
Mr. and Mrs. Ben Deford and Bert Hollenbeck were Newberg visitors Wednesday.
Winnifred Finigan was an afternoon caller at Ed Wohlshlegel's Wednesday.
Kenneth McInnis is helping Roy Marlin of Huber, Oregon, with his spring work.
Ernest Wohlshlegel and family were Sunday guests at the Lewis Finigan home.
Fred and John Haynes and Floyd Hoffman took a load of potatoes to Newberg Friday.
Ivy Ornduff is visiting this week at the home of her brother, Lacey Ornduff, and family.
Violet Edwards was in Newberg Saturday; also H. J. Maynard took in a load of potatoes.
A letter from Lee Lane at Beaver says that his wife is now out of the hospital and doing nicely.
Mrs. Carl Wohlshlegel of Scholls has been on the sick list this week. We hope she will soon be better.
Mr. Harvey from Laurel spent the night Tuesday at the home of his brother, M. M. Harvey, and wife.
Looks like Charlie Burton had started a stage line to Newberg by the number of passengers he had Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Ross Alumbaugh are visiting a few days this week with their daughter, Mrs. Albert Hintz, and family.
Along with the April showers Wednesday we saw a big flock of geese going north. Looks like spring might be near.
Mr. and Mrs. Avery Woods are the Electrical merchandise, wiring materials, are not bought for one day or one year. Purchases of such materials should be bought with discriminating judgment. Cheap materials are expensive in the long run. Standard equipment, made by concerns with reputations to maintain, is the kind every electrical customer should select, and every dealer should sell. There is a satisfaction in the use of such goods because of the minimum of future trouble. We try to buy the best and sell on a basis pleasing to those who patronize us.

Yamhill Electric Company

"It Serves You Right"

DR. S. M. WENDT

Surgeon
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Calls answered to your home.
Edwards Building Newberg

proud parents of a ten and a half pound boy, who came to live with them last week.
The stork flew over the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lacey Ornduff, April 5th and left them a nice little baby girl, named Mary Alva.
We didn't suppose there was another person in Newberg or vicinity who had feet big enough to keep N. P. Nelson's rubbers on.
Mr. and Mrs. E. V. McDougall took Mrs. Dodd to her home at Sandy Saturday morning. They returned home Sunday evening.
There was no school at Buck Haven Monday, as Mrs. Davenport, our teacher, was ill, but she was able to be back again on Tuesday.
Mrs. C. W. Sinniger spent Saturday and Sunday at the J. P. Jones home, caring for the twins, while Mrs. Jones and May were away.
There will be a basket social and candy sale Friday, April 14, at school district 92, near Dr. Logan's place. Mr. Nelson will auction the baskets.
Chauncey McCormick lost a fine horse from pneumonia last week. Mr. McCormick had only just recently bought this team and gave a good price for them.
L. T. Finigan went to Hillsboro Tuesday, bringing home with him his daughter, Clarabel Shook and her son, Stanley, who will spend the week with the home folks.
Last Tuesday evening six couples met at the McCormick home and spent the evening playing rook, and Saturday some met and played rook at the Lloyd Hoffman home.
A few of the farmers have sold their potatoes but most of them are holding on to take another chance. It's hard to tell which way the market will swing.
Newberg visitors on Saturday be-
(Continued on page ten)
"SAFETY FIRST" a three act play, will be given at the Chehalis Center school Saturday evening, April 15. Proceeds for children's farm home. Admission 25c and 15c. 2712*
ALL NIGHT service at McCoy Bros. garage. 2711

The Stradivara

"Known for Tone"
a Phonograph
YOU WILL BE PROUD TO OWN
PLAYS ALL MAKES OF RECORDS
Come in
Judge for yourself. We will be pleased to demonstrate this machine to you.
The price is within reach of all.
Terms reasonable
Records
If we do not have the one you want we will get it for you.
LYNN B. FERGUSON
Prescription Druggist
The Rexall Store
302 First St. Newberg, Ore. Black 106

W. H. WOODWORTH, President R. P. GILL, Cashier A. R. MILLS, Vice Pres.

First National Bank of Newberg

Foreign Exchange Interest on Time Deposits

Domestic Exchange Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent

C. A. Morris

THE JEWELER-OPTICIAN

Easter Announcement

A New Lot of Hats at
MRS. LEAVITT'S HAT SHOP
107 North Main Phone Black 25