SUNNYCREST

Eugene Hubbard has been helping Rufus Tucker break some new ground on his place south of Dundee the past few days.

C. W. Bradshaw, as project leader in berries, has been busy planning for an educational demonstration for next week. He says he would like all those who are interested in berries to go to visit as many of the patches as possible with the demonstration.

Rev. Phillips preached a "Mothers Day" sermon at the C. A. Crater home last Sunday. There was a good attendance of the neighbors and quite an interest shown. Until further notice Rev. Phillips will hold regular services each Sunday at 3:00 p. m. All are invited to attend and become acquainted.

Several of the neighbors formed a jitney party last Sunday and paid a visit to the city park in Portland. Those making the trip were: Mr. and Mrs. Hubble and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hall and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Graves, Miss Retha Fischer, Mrs. Homer Fisher and small son, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. K. Hubbard and Mr. Elmer Hall. A good lunch was enjoyed and the children sure enjoyed the playground.

Miss Ethel Bush went to Corvallis to spend the week end with Miss Lois Fendall, who is attending O. A. C.

William V. Dolph returned Friday from a trip through California which extended as far south as San Diego.

Ernest Baker recently sustained a sprained ankle when the horse which he was riding, stumbled, causing the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Maxwell and children with Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Davis and son, Harold, were visiting up the lake Saturday evening.

Rev. Herbert G. Crocker with Mrs. Crocker and son, George, were in attendance at the West Chehalis Mothers Day services, Rev. Crocker delivering the Mothers Day sermon. The short program consisted of vocal solos by Mrs. W. E. Morgan and Mrs. H. L. Amoth, a violin solo by Winona Smith and readings by E. G. Fendall and Ella Amoth.

The graduation exercises of the Ewing Young school will be held at the school house May 19 at 8:00 p. m. Those graduating are: Clara Winona Smith, Ruth Carpenter, Russell Baker, Frank Clark, Eric Thumberg and Henry Bass. Following the presentation of diplomas, the class, assisted by other members of the school, will give a play entitled "The Steadfast Princess." Admission will be 25 cents.

CHEHALEM CENTER

Mr. and Mrs. Rice Davis of Newberg were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McClafflin Sunday.

The young ladies' glee club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Elsie Tangen to tie off another quilt for the children's farm home at Corvallis.

School closes Thursday. The school program will be given Saturday evening on account of the primary election being held at the school house Friday.

Mrs. P. W. Baughman and children went to Portland to visit relatives last Friday. Mr. Baughman, accompanied by Joseph Ford, went down after them Sunday morning, returning home Sunday evening.

There were a number of visitors present at the W. C. T. U. meeting at Mrs. Marie Tangens, and at the close of the meeting three new members were enrolled, Mrs. Mamie Hess, Mrs. Joseph Marnack and Mrs. Floyd Blanchard.

Several real estate transfers have occurred lately in this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Corbett sold their tract to a gentleman from California. Wright Ramay and wife sold their home and property to Riley Smith and Mr. Smith has sold his young prune orchard.

Last Thursday the W. C. T. U. ladies held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Tangen. About twenty-five ladies gathered there in the morning and spent the day as there were two quilts on the frames to be quilted off. They quilted them off and held the meeting in the afternoon.

This was a most enjoyable affair, as the ladies each brought a covered dish of edibles and a very delightful luncheon was participated in. The next meeting will be next Thursday at the home of Mrs. Bird McClafflin where they will quilt two more quilts for the children's farm home.

Last Friday evening the parent-teachers' association convened at the school house, a number of people being present, Mrs. E. J. Ford, president, in the chair. Miss Dorothy Hess gave a reading; a number of the young ladies and Aubrey Tangen and Bennie Shires gave a very laughable dialogue, "Dr. Cureall."

Mr. Bixler presented the question of more donation work being done on the school grounds. A number responded favorably, and the day of June 1st was set for the time of all coming out and helping with the work. A very pleasant social time was enjoyed, refreshments being served. The following were elected to serve as officers next year: Mrs. Fred Cupples, president; Mrs. C. A. Cole, secretary; S. T. Bixler, treasurer.

DUNDEE

Clarence Miller has returned from a stay of several months at Lake-side, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bendstrup were Sunday visitors of relatives in Vancouver, Washington.

John Workman spent Saturday and Sunday at his Dundee home, Sylvanus Springs farm.

Mrs. A. A. Parrett is making a brief stay at the coast where she is superintending the erection of their seaside cottage.

W. J. Bennett was a Dundee caller last week. Mr. Bennett's old neighbors are always pleased to see him and hear news of his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Olmsted and Mr. and Mrs. Newton W. Bailey and family drove to Corvallis on Sunday, visiting Mrs. Bailey's mother and sisters.

Mrs. Ella Langellier and Mrs. R. V. Swink spent Sunday in Portland enjoying Dr. Bowman's beautiful sermon on "Mothers" at the Presbyterian church.

Frank Keyes and family spent Sunday on the Keyes prune farm in Salem. They visited the tulip farm just this side of Salem and are enthusiastic over the wonderful grandeur of the sight.

Work on the excavation for the new home of Paul Groth was started this week. The new house will be on Alder street just a few feet from his present home and next door to the home of the Groth parents.

Red Hill residents enjoyed the boyish enthusiasm and friendliness of the bunch of boy hikers from Newberg that spent Friday night at the Noble place. They were a manly lot of boys and we hope they will come again.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Harper and Miss Dorothea Nash of Portland were week-end guests at Otterbrook. They made several calls on old friends and neighbors in the Red Hills and enjoyed the drive to the company orchard which was in full bloom.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Allan of Victoria, B. C., spent the last half of last week with their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allan, at Park Hill home. The Victoria guests, as usual, were charmed with Dundee and Mrs. Allan remarked, "The next time I come, I'm coming to stay."

Mr. and Mrs. S. Allan, Alfred Allan and family and the Allans from Victoria motored to Vancouver, Wash., on Sunday to visit Alex Allan and wife, stopping enroute to enjoy a picnic dinner in one of Portland's beautiful parks.

At the last meeting of the Dundee woman's club several members from the Newberg civic club were present. Informal speeches by Mrs. E. E. Goff and Mrs. Evans of Newberg were appreciated by all present.

The subject of China was the main topic for the day, several interesting papers and short items concerning affairs in that country being read. After the program a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed. The guests from Newberg were Mesdames Oldenburg, Palmer, Wood, Ben Evans, Kelly, Nelson, Cooper, Swart, Stares, Rice, Fitzpatrick, Goff and Zumwalt.

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN

Mr. Boatwright has purchased a Ford.

The Hutchens boys were out trying their Ford Thursday, which they bought this week.

Mr. Nelson from Newberg was on the mountain Thursday sawing wood for different parties.

Mrs. Floyd Hoffman, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Humphreys visited the Buck Haven school Tuesday.

Tom and Cal Hutchens have a job cutting oak wood at West Chehalis. They say they can make better wages at that than working at farming.

While in Portland last week Mr. McCormick ran across our old neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schultz. They are living the other side of Vancouver and like it fine up there and are both very well, for them.

E. V. McDougall spent the day Friday with his folks at Dayton. Saturday he and his wife went to Portland to do some shopping and Saturday they attended the opening concert at Mineral springs pavilion.

A good many mountaineers were in Newberg Saturday, Ray Ego, Mr. Burton, Albert Hintz, Mrs. C. E. Skelton and son, Robert, and Tom Hutchens were among those we saw, also Mr. and Mrs. Henry Versteeg and family.

L. C. Finigan, E. C. Wohlschlegel and W. R. Davis made a trip to Portland. Winnifred Finigan did some shopping in Newberg while they were gone and Mrs. Tom Shook and son from Hillsboro returned home with them.

That truck driver, who ran his truck up on the bank and tipped over Tuesday without much injury to himself or machine and not much damage to the load of eggs was a lucky fellow. Maybe the next one won't fare so well.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira McCormick took a load of chickens to Portland Saturday, which they sold on the public market. Miss Jessie Peterson and Sergeant DeZure returned with them to spend the week end, the McCormicks taking them back to town Monday.

Lee Lane came out from Beaver and he and his family and Ray Ego and the J. P. Jones family took a trip up the Columbia highway clear through to The Dalles Sunday, and returned home Monday. They went up to see the Frank Smeltzer family and found them all fine, but the trip was too much for Mrs. Jones and she is in bed at the present writing. We hope she will soon be well. After coming back from the trip, Lee Lane and his wife and children returned to their home at Beaver.

Additional Locals

The "Aokiya" camp fire girls will have a candy sale at Crede's market Saturday at 1:00 o'clock.

Miss Geraldine Rundell, who has been teaching at Timber, is expected home Saturday for the summer vacation.

Mrs. G. W. Wells returned last Thursday evening from Hillsboro where she made a week's visit with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson of Portland spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Patterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hevland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fuller and children, Romig and Tommy, and Mother Fuller, came up from Portland Sunday and spent the day at the Ralph Otis home.

Frank K. Morrison of Worthington, Indiana, is visiting his brother, R. N. Morrison of Rex. Mr. Morrison is a printer and made the Graphic office a pleasant visit while in Newberg last Saturday.

Mrs. Julia Bishop of Seattle arrived at Newberg, Monday, the 8th, for a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. John Blake, and other friends. Mrs. Bishop left Newberg a year ago last fall for Seattle.

M. C. Brickell has rented the new bungalow being erected by Frank Cumming on Second street and expects to be able to occupy it by the 10th of June. Mr. Brickell is employed in the George Ward barber shop.

Meetings are being held in the hay loft at the Charles Crater place each Sunday. Rev. C. H. Phillips preaching. A large number attended last Sunday and enjoyed the splendid sermon. The meetings are held at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Davey, Mrs. Mary Bass, Mrs. Edith Behnke and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Otis, Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Campbell, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Otis and little daughter, Peggy, motored up the Columbia river highway last Saturday for a day's outing.

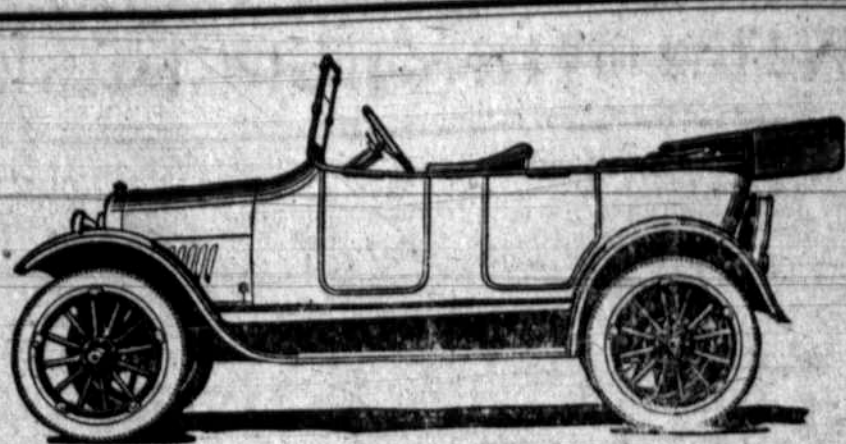

The Portland-Newberg Stage company announce that they have made a general reduction in their fares to all points, effective last Sunday, which makes the fare to Portland now 90c one way and $1.50 round trip. In addition some changes will be made in schedules in the near future, supplementing the present service by increased service to McMinnville.

The Newberg grade teachers' association met on May 17, at Mrs. C. A. Evans' home. The business meeting was followed by a program consisting of a piano solo, Principal C. L. Van Wormer; "Keeping out the emigrant," Miss Margaret Ward; "What Japan is thinking," Mrs. Hoyt; orchestral quartet, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Nichols, Miss Jackson and Miss McConkie; project plan, Supt. A. C. Stanbrough; piano duet, Miss McConkie and Miss Wilson. Refreshments of sherbet and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Terry and Miss Segrid Mattson, a sister of Mrs. Terry, left Tuesday morning for an auto trip back to their old homes in Ohio and Wisconsin. This will be their first visit back since coming to Oregon ten years ago and they would not make this one except to see their parents, who are getting up in years and in failing health. Mrs. E. Lambert of McMinnville will accompany them. All will return in about seven weeks. Mr. Terry is engaged to teach next year at Nehalem and Miss Mattson will teach in Washington. Both expect to remain in Newberg until school commences in September.

The fire department was called out last Tuesday to a fire at the Victor Mersman home on Wynooki street but arrived too late to be of much assistance. Mr. Mersman was away from home and upon his return found the residence in flames and does not know the cause of the fire. The fire department was somewhat delayed at the start because someone had parked an automobile on Howard street opposite the city hall contrary to the city laws and when the fire apparatus swung out of the fire hall they could not get by without moving it. This delayed them. The Mersman dwelling was practically a complete loss, but we understand Mr. Mersman carried some insurance.

A floater named Thomas Regan, who has been employed at a number of places near here and who was working for Henry Versteeg last, raised a check given him by Mr. Versteeg from $6 to $60 and presented it in payment for some shoes and hose at the See-Valton company store last Saturday. The check was honored and cash given him for the balance. Getting suspicious about
