

NEWBERG GRAPHIC

VOLUME XXXIII

NEWBERG, YAMHILL COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 1922

NUMBER 35

MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES WERE IMPRESSIVE

FINE ADDRESS BY J. D. STEVENS

Grand Army of Republic and American Legion Unite in Honoring Soldier Dead Last Tuesday

Another Memorial Day has passed into history and with its passing the memory has again been refreshed of those things and those persons for whose sake it is held. The celebration of this annual event in Newberg was marked by the usual ceremonies under the auspices of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. and the American Legion and ladies auxiliary.

At 9:30 Tuesday morning the members of these organizations together with the veterans of the Spanish-American war met at the I. O. O. F. hall and from there marched to the local cemetery. This procession was led by the band, and this was followed by a firing squad from the Legion, uniformed in khaki and wearing the regulation "tin" hats. Of course the colors were borne in military style by a G. A. R. man escorted by two others and the usual lineup of automobiles containing old soldiers, Relief Corps members and civilians joined in the procession.

At the cemetery the usual impressive memorial services were held and the graves of the nation's heroes were decorated, while citizens of the community joined in and decorated the graves of their departed loved ones.

At the noon hour a sumptuous dinner was served in the I. O. O. F. hall by the Women's Relief Corps for the G. A. R., American Legion, Spanish American War Veterans, and ladies auxiliary.

At 2:30 p. m. a formal program was given in the I. O. O. F. hall which was attended by a large audience filling the hall comfortably. If such a statement could be made regarding that hall on a hot day like last Tuesday. The program opened with the singing of "Glory, Glory Hallelujah" by the audience. Mrs. Georgiana Babcock and Mrs. Wesley Boyes leading. Post Commander George Meder was in the chair. Next Rev. Hayes pronounced the invocation and Mrs. Babcock then sang "Christ in Flanders." A piano and saxophone duet was given by Billy Brazee and Allen Morris. The audience then sang "The Star Spangled Banner."

J. D. Stevens, a G. A. R. man of Portland, made the address of the day. We wish that we could publish that address in full for it was both instructive, interesting and inspirational to a high degree. Mr. Stevens went into the history of the Persian-Grecian wars for his foundation and built upon that a structure which included a great deal of the history of our country. He told of our struggle with the mother country in two wars. A great portion of his address naturally dealt with the Civil war and he showed a knowledge of the various campaigns of that great struggle which the histories of today do not give in detail as he was able to give it to his audience. His word pictures of those two outstanding characters, Abraham Lincoln and Ulysses S. Grant were remarkable, and made every person stir with a feeling of just pride that he is a citizen of a country which can claim such great heroes of the past.

The program closed with the singing of "America." Or rather it was supposed to close with that but a motion was made to give a vote of thanks to Mr. Stevens and then Mr. Stevens was moved to recite a patriotic stanza. Next year it is probable that the new Legion building will be completed and this will afford a better place for such a gathering and then there will probably be a larger attendance.

BOYS WORK MASS MEETING HELD TUESDAY EVENING

A mass meeting was held on the vacant lot adjoining the Graphic office on Tuesday evening of this week in the interest of the boys work movement in this locality. President L. T. Pennington of Pacific College presided on this occasion and very happily introduced the various speakers, besides making many excellent remarks himself. Among those who spoke were Mayor S. M. Calkins, Meade Elliott, Prof. E. H. Ross, and five of the boys themselves, they being Kenneth Braden, Phillip Hodson, Cyril Ware, Burton Waterman and Floyd Coe.

A very large crowd was present and enjoyed the program furnished which included, besides the speeches, music by the band and several numbers by the Whitney boys chorus. Committees are considering plans for the permanent financing of the movement and judging from the interest manifested, this will be speedily taken care of. The boys are entering heartily into the work and Mr. Elliott is finding his time well occupied with the many activities of the boys work movement.

A. M. Sherwood and family came down from McMinnville and spent Memorial Day at the home of Mrs. Sherwood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. G. Miller.

PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION FIELD DAY ON FRIDAY

The annual parent and teachers field day is to be held on the school athletic field tomorrow, Friday afternoon, commencing about one o'clock.

The athletic events which are being arranged by Prof. Ross of the high school and Meade Elliott, secretary of the local boys work, are as follows:

Boys
50-yard dash—10 and under; 10 to 13; and 13 to 16.
Sprint races—10 years; 10 to 13; 13 to 16.
Broad jump—13 and under; 16 and under.
Sack race—Open all ages.
Three-legged race—All ages.
Relay race—Four boy teams from each grade; 1st and 2nd awards.

Girls
25 yard dash—10 years and under; 10 to 13; 13 to 16.
50-yard dash—13 years and under; 13 to 16.
Peanut relay—(2-girl team).
Baseball throw—Open all ages.
Ribbon awards are being prepared for the winners in these events and keen competition is anticipated.

MONDAY MUSICAL CLUB HELD TWO MEETINGS

The Monday musical club met in the Methodist church, Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock for a vespers service, consisting of a paper by Mrs. Dart on the beginnings of church music, illustrated by selections by the club; a piano duet by Miss Britt and Mrs. Gill; solos by Mrs. Babcock and Mrs. Morris; choruses by the club; and a piano solo by Miss Miller. Accompanists were Miss Britt, Miss Miller and Mrs. Houser.

The club met for the final meeting of the club year, at the residence of Mrs. Swart, Monday evening.

The business of a final meeting was attended to, and officers were elected for the next year.

Following this, Miss Baldwin, of Milwaukie, Wis., delighted those present with a number of piano selections. Miss Baldwin certainly gave great pleasure to the club, and received warm thanks for her contribution to the evening's pleasure.

Refreshments were served, and the club dispersed for the summer vacation, to meet at the call of the president in October.

W. H. WOODWORTH HEADS OREGON BANKERS ASSOCIATION

The Oregon Bankers' association met in Astoria the latter part of last week, about fifty bankers from various parts of Oregon being in attendance. At this meeting W. H. Woodworth, president of the First National Bank of Newberg, was elected president; A. C. Shute, president of the Shute Savings Bank of Hillsboro, vice president; R. S. Howard, vice president of the Ladd & Tilton bank of Portland, secretary; and Sam Laughlin, cashier of the Yamhill State Bank of Yamhill, treasurer.

Mayor James Bremmer of Astoria made an address of welcome to the visiting bankers and Mr. Woodworth of this place made a response in which he thanked Mayor Bremmer for his cordial greeting. The meeting listened to splendid addresses from leading bankers from over the state on topics of interest to the banking profession. An automobile trip around the city, including inspection of the canneries, port docks, saw mills, city park, etc., as guests of the Astoria bankers, was part of the program. Most of the bankers spent the week end at the Seaside beach.

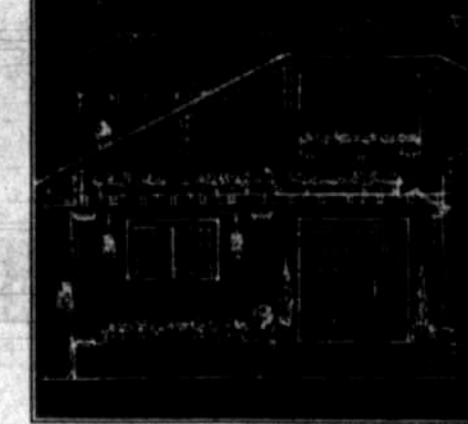

The board of governors of the Newberg commercial club met at the club rooms on Monday evening and transacted a number of important matters. George W. James, who has been one of the directors of the club, was elected president to fill the vacancy made by the death of George Kelly. Tom Tyndall was then elected to fill the vacancy in the position of director.

The board of governors let a contract to the Graphic for the printing of 3,000 booster booklets for the club similar to those previously put out. It was also voted to lend their efforts towards raising funds for the Berrian float for this year.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Iva Coral Wade, Sheridan, Oregon, to John Alex. McGuffin, Sheridan, Oregon.
Gertie Minerva Res, Amity, Oregon, to Henry Jacob Richter, Amity, Oregon.

NEW HODSON UNDERTAKING ESTABLISHMENT BEING CONSTRUCTED

C. A. Hodson, who has been engaged in the undertaking business in Newberg for a number of years, has commenced the erection of a new undertaking establishment at the corner of north College and Hancock streets and has the construction work well under way at this time. Mr. Hodson is supervising the work himself and hopes to have the new building ready for occupancy by about the first of July.

The building, an architect's picture of which accompanies this article, will be 36 feet by 46 feet over all with a basement under it 36 feet square. Mr. Hodson states that this new building will be one of the most modern and up to date in the Pacific

PACIFIC COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM

EVENTS WILL BE JUNE 10 TO 14

Dr. Walter C. Woodward Will Make the Commencement Address This Year

Arrangements are practically completed for the thirtieth annual commencement exercises of Pacific College, which open with the concert of the school of music faculty Saturday evening, June 10, and close with the alumni banquet Wednesday evening, June 14.

The commencement address for the class of 1922 is to be given by Dr. Walter C. Woodward, a graduate of Pacific College, class of 1898, a Ph.D. of the University of California, and now general secretary of the five years meeting of Friends in America, and editor of the American Friend, the national organ of Quakerism. Dr. Woodward is a son of E. H. Woodward, president of the board of trustees of Pacific College.

Arthur B. Chilson, a returned missionary from Africa and now in the field for the American Friends board of foreign missions, will give the address for the Academy class and the Commercial graduates. Rev. Fred E. Carter, pastor of the local Friends church, will give the final address to the christian associations, and President Levi T. Pennington will give the baccalaureate sermon.

The program in outline will be as follows: Saturday, June 10—Concert by the school of music faculty; Sunday, June 11, 11 a. m., baccalaureate services, sermon by Pres. Levi T. Pennington. At 8 p. m., address to the christian associations, Rev. Fred E. Carter. Monday, June 12, 2 p. m., annual baseball game, alumni vs. Pacific College. 8 p. m., class day, class of 1922. Tuesday, June 13, 10 a. m., graduating exercises, Academy class and Commercial. Address by Arthur B. Chilson. 8 p. m., public program by the members of Pacific College alumni. Wednesday, June 14, 10 a. m., commencement exercises for class of 1922, of Pacific College; address by Dr. Walter C. Woodward. 6 p. m., alumni banquet (by invitation). The public is cordially invited to all these exercises except the alumni banquet. No admission fee is charged to any of these exercises. There will be a considerable attendance from outside the city, and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance from Newberg and vicinity.

Prices on petite prunes were announced as follows:
50-60s ... 10c
60-70s ... 9c
70-80s ... 8c

OREGON GROWERS ASS'N SET THE PRUNE PRICES FOR 1922

Opening prices on the 1922 crop of prunes has been announced by the Oregon Growers' cooperative association. A committee on dried fruits consisting of three representative growers met with the management yesterday afternoon and after a lengthy discussion the following prices were decided upon:

Oregon Mistlebrand packed in twenty-five pound boxes f. o. b. plant:
40-50s ... 11c
50-60s ... 9 1/2c
60-70s ... 8 1/2c
70-80s ... 7 1/2c

Prices on petite prunes were announced as follows:
50-60s ... 10c
60-70s ... 9c
70-80s ... 8c

GEORGE JAMES ELECTED AS CLUB PRESIDENT

The board of governors of the Newberg commercial club met at the club rooms on Monday evening and transacted a number of important matters. George W. James, who has been one of the directors of the club, was elected president to fill the vacancy made by the death of George Kelly. Tom Tyndall was then elected to fill the vacancy in the position of director.

The board of governors let a contract to the Graphic for the printing of 3,000 booster booklets for the club similar to those previously put out. It was also voted to lend their efforts towards raising funds for the Berrian float for this year.

BIG CIRCUS COMING TO NEWBERG SATURDAY, JUNE 10TH

The manager connected with Howes' Great London Circus with Van Ambler's Trained Wild Animals exhibiting in Newberg, afternoon and evening on Saturday, June 10, is the magnificent result of many years of continuous expeditions to forests and jungles of every clime, involving vast expenditures, yet forms but one department of this "World's Wonder Show," as it has been appropriately styled, included in the price of one admission ticket—fifty cents.

Parents should consider taking their children an imperative and delightful duty, giving as it does, an opportunity of studying the most complete and comprehensive animal revue ever assembled. Opening the program in the mammoth main tent is "Cinderella in Jungland," an extravaganza which introduces hundreds of people and scores of wild animal actors. Appropriate music, scenic and lighting effects are used, while the wardrobe and trappings represent a fabulous investment.

Then, in quick succession, come a myriad of amazing and dare-devil demonstrations of the power of the human mind over the brute, by the greatest and most fearless trainers known to international fame, both male and female, in which they subdue and subjugate the most blood-thirsty and ferocious man-killing monsters with utter disregard of danger. Colossal coterie of elephants, tigers, lions, leopards, jaguars, cougars are made to perform the same as the more docile domestic groups.

The lion is virtually made to "lie down with the lamb" in some of the mixed groupings. There is a "Riding Lion" on horseback, another ascends to the dizzy heights of the

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT WILL BE HELD JUNE 4 TO 9

The high school commencement exercises this year will start with the baccalaureate sermon at the Friends church Sunday evening, June 4.

Rev. C. H. Phillips, pastor of the Christian church of this city will deliver the baccalaureate sermon. There are thirty-five graduates in this year's class which is probably the largest class ever graduated from the local high school with the exception of last year, which numbered 47.

On Tuesday evening the junior class play, "And Home Came Ted," will be given at Wood-Mar Hall. This is a three act comedy and is said to be one of the best plays ever put on by the high school students. The play runs for two and a quarter hours, with music by the high school orchestra between acts. The admission for this play is fifty cents. Seat reservations may be made at Graham's drug store without any extra charge.

On Thursday night the seniors will observe class night at the high school auditorium and the seniors say that this is to be an especially good affair. No admission charge is made for this entertainment.

The commencement exercises proper will be held at the Friends church on Friday evening, June 9. At this time Dean Straub of the University of Oregon will deliver the commencement address. Dean Straub is the high school teacher and the high school feel that they are fortunate in securing him for this occasion. The diplomas will be presented by Principal E. H. Ross of the high school. Detailed program of the commencement exercises will be given next week.

WOMENS CLUBS HELD MEETING AT DAYTON

REPORTS SHOW MANY ACTIVITIES

Large Attendance From Many Cities and Communities of County at Gathering Last Week

Tall pedestals bearing huge bunches of early spirea and trailing vines, with here and there a table made gay with vases of iris and pansies, was the pleasing view of the interior of Artisans' hall at Dayton, Oregon, that greeted the delegates to the annual meeting of the Yamhill county federation of women's clubs.

Mrs. A. V. Lowe, president of the federation, called the meeting to order. Editor F. Mellinger of the Dayton Tribune led in the singing of "America" and two old favorite songs. Rev. Fisher of Dayton gave the invocation. Mrs. Sherman of Dayton, one of the past presidents, very graciously welcomed the guests to the city, and Mrs. F. Hutchinson of Dundee responded.

Reports of the various clubs were then given in answer to roll call. Fifteen clubs of the county responded either formally or informally, and so varied were the activities reported that one listening was led to wonder, "Is there anything left to do this year?" However before the day was over, so inspirational were the ideas received that there is no doubt but that every club woman present will go home feeling that she is favored in belonging to a progressive community where there is work for every individual, and where the majority of the citizens feel the call to help in making our own little corner of this great country of ours one of the best parts of the whole. Some of the clubs reporting are organized for study—Oregon, its history, geography, geology, commerce, manufactures, laws, and literature was the topic to which several organizations gave a large part of their study time during the year. American writers, the Washington conference, China, Japan, a trip around the world, and current events were topics reported. One unique club from a small community has service to its individual members for its object. The ladies meet from house to house helping each other with whatever work is particularly pressing in the home of the hostess. Darning, mending, sewing, even washing and ironing are on the list of possibilities, nothing being barred save house cleaning. Perhaps the latter is not undertaken, not so much on account of the disinclination of one woman to help another in this semi-annual ceremonial, but out of regard for the men folk of the household. One woman is hard enough to live with at house cleaning time. What would the poor men do if the neighboring women joined forces with his wife?

Nearly all the clubs of the county took part in a "label contest" in which Oregon made goods were the subject of study and much information concerning our wealth of manufactures was brought to light and advertised widely. Oregon products dinners also figured in community affairs. The work done by the various civic clubs is amazing. Some special civic betterment, month by month, does not impress the public at large, but summed up in an annual report it is astonishing. McMinnville leads in membership of its women's civic improvement club, having a membership of 266, with sixteen standing committees and several special committees. The club took out papers of incorporation during the year and took steps toward the erection of a club house. Child welfare work, needs of the rest room, the woman's exchange, Americanization work in connection with the courts, friendly calls upon new members of the community, help with the scholarship loan fund, ten especially good musical events, education, conservation, Red Cross seal sale, help to the health clinic, and securing several lecturers of note are among the activities reported by this club. Newberg civic club, Dayton civic club and Sheridan civic improvement club also reported civic improvements started or aided by the respective clubs. All of these clubs also assisted in the same line of activities as the McMinnville club, noticeable features being the sale of Red Cross seals, child welfare, education, scholarship loan fund, and sociability. The Dayton club bought real estate valued at $4000 and started a campaign for a public library. Smaller clubs of the county reported civic work according to the needs of the community.

WOMENS CLUBS HELD MEETING AT DAYTON

REPORTS SHOW MANY ACTIVITIES

Large Attendance From Many Cities and Communities of County at Gathering Last Week

Tall pedestals bearing huge bunches of early spirea and trailing vines, with here and there a table made gay with vases of iris and pansies, was the pleasing view of the interior of Artisans' hall at Dayton, Oregon, that greeted the delegates to the annual meeting of the Yamhill county federation of women's clubs.

Mrs. A. V. Lowe, president of the federation, called the meeting to order. Editor F. Mellinger of the Dayton Tribune led in the singing of "America" and two old favorite songs. Rev. Fisher of Dayton gave the invocation. Mrs. Sherman of Dayton, one of the past presidents, very graciously welcomed the guests to the city, and Mrs. F. Hutchinson of Dundee responded.

Reports of the various clubs were then given in answer to roll call. Fifteen clubs of the county responded either formally or informally, and so varied were the activities reported that one listening was led to wonder, "Is there anything left to do this year?" However before the day was over, so inspirational were the ideas received that there is no doubt but that every club woman present will go home feeling that she is favored in belonging to a progressive community where there is work for every individual, and where the majority of the citizens feel the call to help in making our own little corner of this great country of ours one of the best parts of the whole. Some of the clubs reporting are organized for study—Oregon, its history, geography, geology, commerce, manufactures, laws, and literature was the topic to which several organizations gave a large part of their study time during the year. American writers, the Washington conference, China, Japan, a trip around the world, and current events were topics reported. One unique club from a small community has service to its individual members for its object. The ladies meet from house to house helping each other with whatever work is particularly pressing in the home of the hostess. Darning, mending, sewing, even washing and ironing are on the list of possibilities, nothing being barred save house cleaning. Perhaps the latter is not undertaken, not so much on account of the disinclination of one woman to help another in this semi-annual ceremonial, but out of regard for the men folk of the household. One woman is hard enough to live with at house cleaning time. What would the poor men do if the neighboring women joined forces with his wife?

Nearly all the clubs of the county took part in a "label contest" in which Oregon made goods were the subject of study and much information concerning our wealth of manufactures was brought to light and advertised widely. Oregon products dinners also figured in community affairs. The work done by the various civic clubs is amazing. Some special civic betterment, month by month, does not impress the public at large, but summed up in an annual report it is astonishing. McMinnville leads in membership of its women's civic improvement club, having a membership of 266, with sixteen standing committees and several special committees. The club took out papers of incorporation during the year and took steps toward the erection of a club house. Child welfare work, needs of the rest room, the woman's exchange, Americanization work in connection with the courts, friendly calls upon new members of the community, help with the scholarship loan fund, ten especially good musical events, education, conservation, Red Cross seal sale, help to the health clinic, and securing several lecturers of note are among the activities reported by this club. Newberg civic club, Dayton civic club and Sheridan civic improvement club also reported civic improvements started or aided by the respective clubs. All of these clubs also assisted in the same line of activities as the McMinnville club, noticeable features being the sale of Red Cross seals, child welfare, education, scholarship loan fund, and sociability. The Dayton club bought real estate valued at $4000 and started a campaign for a public library. Smaller clubs of the county reported civic work according to the needs of the community.

(Continued next week.)

I. W. HILL PASSED AWAY IN PORTLAND HOSPITAL SUNDAY

The death of Irving W. Hill, local business man and citizen of Newberg for many years, which occurred at a hospital in Portland on May 28, following a long illness, came as a surprise and shock to his many friends, even though it was known that he was very sick. Early this year he had what seemed to be a slight attack of the influenza and although he seemed to get some better, he never fully regained his strength.

Funeral services were conducted from the Hollingsworth chapel Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Lee officiating and the services being under the auspices of the local I. O. O. F. lodge. Interment took place in the cemetery here.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Faulcon and Mr. and Mrs. Harris Monroe of Anacortes, Washington, both of whom were sisters; Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Hill of Portland, a brother of Mr. Hill; Mrs. Ida Meyers, an aunt and Mrs. J. C. Elder a half sister of Portland, were also present at the funeral.

Obituary

Irving W. Hill, son of Henry C. and Anna Hill, who were pioneers of 1843 and both of whom are deceased, was born at Delph, Oregon, on Dec. 15, 1887, and died at Portland Oregon, May 28, 1922. He was married to Miss Mabel Allen of this place on Dec. 15, 1916 and they have spent their entire married life in Newberg. "Irve," as he was known by his friends, was well known here, having owned and operated a tailor shop for many years and having been a resident of Newberg for the past fifteen years. He made a home for his aged mother until she passed away six years ago this month.

Early in this year he had what was seemingly a slight attack of influenza but he never regained his strength entirely and took to his bed early in May. After no improvement, it was decided to take him to Portland where everything could be done to regain his health, but all efforts to find relief failed and he passed away Sunday morning, May 28. During his illness he spoke a few times of thinking that the end was near but this seemed to give him new strength to make a fight for life.

He was a great lover of nature and spent all of his spare time in the mountains, hunting and fishing. He leaves to mourn his departure, a widow, Mabel Allen Hill, a sister, Ellen Moore of Anacortes; a brother, Arthur K. Hill of Portland; two other sisters, Cora D. Faulcon and Maud F. Shortridge and two brothers, Harry and Noah of California; three half sisters, Mrs. J. C. Elder, Mrs. Etta Hill Norman, and Mrs. John Rising, and one aunt, Mrs. Ida Meyers, all of Portland.

HIGH SCHOOL ANNUALS OUT

The high school annuals, which have been commanding the attention of the Graphic force for some weeks past, are now out and the high annual staff are receiving many congratulations upon this year's annuals. The book contains 52 pages besides the covers and is well filled with good cuts. The pictures are clear and lifelike and the reading matter is sufficiently terse to be readable while being extended enough to cover the subject. The covers are in green and gold, the class colors, and the book is tied with a fine gold cord. The book is dedicated to Miss Virgie Ingrid Anderson, the English instructor at the high school.

Persons who have purchased tickets for copies of this annual may now secure their copy of the book at the Parlor Pharmacy. The annuals sell for $1 a copy and any persons desiring copies should get them at once as the supply is limited.

BERRY PICKERS WANTED

Local berry-growers state that there is a great shortage of pickers this year and that whereas they have always had inquiries in response to ads for pickers, that this year no one seems to be getting results. When approached personally regarding picking many persons have said that they were signed up to work at the cannery. One grower states to the Graphic that if these people only knew it, the work at the cannery would not open up until after the early picking was over. Any persons desiring to get immediate work should get in touch with the various growers, many of whom are advertising in the Graphic. If you are already signed up with the cannery, find out when they will want you, so that you may be able to take advantage of the early picking if possible.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR MISS EVA MOORE

Eva Moore left Newberg Tuesday morning for an extended visit in central Wisconsin with her parents and other relatives and friends. About sixty members of the Baptist church and choir met at the home of her uncle, L. A. Moore, at 617 north Main street, Monday evening, giving her a farewell surprise. The social committee of the church arranged a basket picnic dinner served at 7 o'clock, on the lawn. She has served as pianist in this church for the past three years.

WOMENS CLUBS HELD MEETING AT DAYTON

REPORTS SHOW MANY ACTIVITIES

Large Attendance From Many Cities and Communities of County at Gathering Last Week

Tall pedestals bearing huge bunches of early spirea and trailing vines, with here and there a table made gay with vases of iris and pansies, was the pleasing view of the interior of Artisans' hall at Dayton, Oregon, that greeted the delegates to the annual meeting of the Yamhill county federation of women's clubs.

Mrs. A. V. Lowe, president of the federation, called the meeting to order. Editor F. Mellinger of the Dayton Tribune led in the singing of "America" and two old favorite songs. Rev. Fisher of Dayton gave the invocation. Mrs. Sherman of Dayton, one of the past presidents, very graciously welcomed the guests to the city, and Mrs. F. Hutchinson of Dundee responded.

Reports of the various clubs were then given in answer to roll call. Fifteen clubs of the county responded either formally or informally, and so varied were the activities reported that one listening was led to wonder, "Is there anything left to do this year?" However before the day was over, so inspirational were the ideas received that there is no doubt but that every club woman present will go home feeling that she is favored in belonging to a progressive community where there is work for every individual, and where the majority of the citizens feel the call to help in making our own little corner of this great country of ours one of the best parts of the whole. Some of the clubs reporting are organized for study—Oregon, its history, geography, geology, commerce, manufactures, laws, and literature was the topic to which several organizations gave a large part of their study time during the year. American writers, the Washington conference, China, Japan, a trip around the world, and current events were topics reported. One unique club from a small community has service to its individual members for its object. The ladies meet from house to house helping each other with whatever work is particularly pressing in the home of the hostess. Darning, mending, sewing, even washing and ironing are on the list of possibilities, nothing being barred save house cleaning. Perhaps the latter is not undertaken, not so much on account of the disinclination of one woman to help another in this semi-annual ceremonial, but out of regard for the men folk of the household. One woman is hard enough to live with at house cleaning time. What would the poor men do if the neighboring women joined forces with his wife?

Nearly all the clubs of the county took part in a "label contest" in which Oregon made goods were the subject of study and much information concerning our wealth of manufactures was brought to light and advertised widely. Oregon products dinners also figured in community affairs. The work done by the various civic clubs is amazing. Some special civic betterment, month by month, does not impress the public at large, but summed up in an annual report it is astonishing. McMinnville leads in membership of its women's civic improvement club, having a membership of 266, with sixteen standing committees and several special committees. The club took out papers of incorporation during the year and took steps toward the erection of a club house. Child welfare work, needs of the rest room, the woman's exchange, Americanization work in connection with the courts, friendly calls upon new members of the community, help with the scholarship loan fund, ten especially good musical events, education, conservation, Red Cross seal sale, help to the health clinic, and securing several lecturers of note are among the activities reported by this club. Newberg civic club, Dayton civic club and Sheridan civic improvement club also reported civic improvements started or aided by the respective clubs. All of these clubs also assisted in the same line of activities as the McMinnville club, noticeable features being the sale of Red Cross seals, child welfare, education, scholarship loan fund, and sociability. The Dayton club bought real estate valued at $4000 and started a campaign for a public library. Smaller clubs of the county reported civic work according to the needs of the community.

WOMENS CLUBS HELD MEETING AT DAYTON

REPORTS SHOW MANY ACTIVITIES

Large Attendance From Many Cities and Communities of County at Gathering Last Week

Tall pedestals bearing huge bunches of early spirea and trailing vines, with here and there a table made gay with vases of iris and pansies, was the pleasing view of the interior of Artisans' hall at Dayton, Oregon, that greeted the delegates to the annual meeting of the Yamhill county federation of women's clubs.

Mrs. A. V. Lowe, president of the federation, called the meeting to order. Editor F. Mellinger of the Dayton Tribune led in the singing of "America" and two old favorite songs. Rev. Fisher of Dayton gave the invocation. Mrs. Sherman of Dayton, one of the past presidents, very graciously welcomed the guests to the city, and Mrs. F. Hutchinson of Dundee responded.

Reports of the various clubs were then given in answer to roll call. Fifteen clubs of the county responded either formally or informally, and so varied were the activities reported that one listening was led to wonder, "Is there anything left to do this year?" However before the day was over, so inspirational were the ideas received that there is no doubt but that every club woman present will go home feeling that she is favored in belonging to a progressive community where there is work for every individual, and where the majority of the citizens feel the call to help in making our own little corner of this great country of ours one of the best parts of the whole. Some of the clubs reporting are organized for study—Oregon, its history, geography, geology, commerce, manufactures, laws, and literature was the topic to which several organizations gave a large part of their study time during the year. American writers, the Washington conference, China, Japan, a trip around the world, and current events were topics reported. One unique club from a small community has service to its individual members for its object. The ladies meet from house to house helping each other with whatever work is particularly pressing in the home of the hostess. Darning, mending, sewing, even washing and ironing are on the list of possibilities, nothing being barred save house cleaning. Perhaps the latter is not undertaken, not so much on account of the disinclination of one woman to help another in this semi-annual ceremonial, but out of regard for the men folk of the household. One woman is hard enough to live with at house cleaning time. What would the poor men do if the neighboring women joined forces with his wife?

Nearly all the clubs of the county took part in a "label contest" in which Oregon made goods were the subject of study and much information concerning our wealth of manufactures was brought to light and advertised widely. Oregon products dinners also figured in community affairs. The work done by the various civic clubs is amazing. Some special civic betterment, month by month, does not impress the public at large, but summed up in an annual report it is astonishing. McMinnville leads in membership of its women's civic improvement club, having a membership of 266, with sixteen standing committees and several special committees. The club took out papers of incorporation during the year and took steps toward the erection of a club house. Child welfare work, needs of the rest room, the woman's exchange, Americanization work in connection with the courts, friendly calls upon new members of the community, help with the scholarship loan fund, ten especially good musical events, education, conservation, Red Cross seal sale, help to the health clinic, and securing several lecturers of note are among the activities reported by this club. Newberg civic club, Dayton civic club and Sheridan civic improvement club also reported civic improvements started or aided by the respective clubs. All of these clubs also assisted in the same line of activities as the McMinnville club, noticeable features being the sale of Red Cross seals, child welfare, education, scholarship loan fund, and sociability. The Dayton club bought real estate valued at $4000 and started a campaign for a public library. Smaller clubs of the county reported civic work according to the needs of the community.

WOMENS CLUBS HELD MEETING AT DAYTON

REPORTS SHOW MANY ACTIVITIES

Large Attendance From Many Cities and Communities of County at Gathering Last Week

Tall pedestals bearing huge bunches of early spirea and trailing vines, with here and there a table made gay with vases of iris and pansies, was the pleasing view of the interior of Artisans' hall at Dayton, Oregon, that greeted the delegates to the annual meeting of the Yamhill county federation of women's clubs.

Mrs. A. V. Lowe, president of the federation, called the meeting to order. Editor F. Mellinger of the Dayton Tribune led in the singing of "America" and two old favorite songs. Rev. Fisher of Dayton gave the invocation. Mrs. Sherman of Dayton, one of the past presidents, very graciously welcomed the guests to the city, and Mrs. F. Hutchinson of Dundee responded.

Reports of the various clubs were then given in answer to roll call. Fifteen clubs of the county responded either formally or informally, and so varied were the activities reported that one listening was led to wonder, "Is there anything left to do this year?" However before the day was over, so inspirational were the ideas received that there is no doubt but that every club woman present will go home feeling that she is favored in belonging to a progressive community where there is work for every individual, and where the majority of the citizens feel the call to help in making our own little corner of this great country of ours one of the best parts