The Misses Velma McConkie, Grace Wilson, Eleanor Warner and Jackson, all of whom are teachers in the local public schools, will attend the Berkeley, California, summer school, this summer.

All Whitney boys are urged to come out to the meeting and practice next Tuesday evening. It is hoped that the new hats will be here by then and much work must be done to get ready for the Rose Festival.

I. N. Robinson, a former merchant of Tualatin and who is well known throughout this part of the state among the old timers, is reported as being very ill with leakage of the heart and other complications and is not expected to live. Mr. Robinson is about sixty years of age.

Ernest Hall, son of L. F. Hall, passed away in this city Wednesday morning following an illness of several weeks. His death is attributed to sleeping sickness. Funeral services will be held from the Hollingsworth undertaking parlors Friday at 2 p. m. The deceased was about 53 years old at the time of his death.

T. C. Nye, who has been teaching drawing and cartooning here in Newberg for some months has also started a class at Rex and began with about six pupils, which number will no doubt be increased very soon. Mr. Nye is a good artist and has a faculty for teaching the young folks how to acquire the trick. He was artist for the Pendleton Round-Up for years and was the originator of the horse which is used as the trade mark of that organization.

The girls chorus of the grade school will sing field day, Friday, June 2, at high school grounds at 2 o'clock.

Following the business meeting, a social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Granville Everest was in Tuesday from his place in the hills beyond Laurel. He says that the problem residents of his district have at present is to furnish men to keep up the grading of the Newberg road being done by the county caterpillar and scoops and at the same time take care of delayed farm work. Petals are just falling in the prune orchards and prospects for a fine crop are good, he says.—Hillsboro Independent. (Mr. Everest lived near Newberg until a few years ago, and at the time of his leaving was the leader of the Fernwood band.)

Any persons wanting to join the Berrian drill team should feel at perfect liberty to do so, even though they have not been personally invited, is the statement of Chief Scribe Logan Bert Miller. A start had to be made somewhere and so a committee went around and asked all whom they encountered to join, but they realize there are probably others in the community who may wish to get in. The first shipment of suits have arrived and about 30 members are drilling regularly every Wednesday evening in preparation for the Rose Festival. Other suits may be ordered from time to time as others desire to join the drill team. Every member has to pay for his own suit, which costs a trifle over thirty dollars.

What is more attractive than a country home, comfortable and well appointed, with the modern and up to date conveniences, that make home life easy and pleasant. With running water in the house, provided by an electric pumping outfit, electric iron, vacuum cleaner, electric range, fan-for the summer months, heaters for the cool fall days, all these made possible by having electricity on the farm.

What attractions in the town can draw one away from a reality so pleasing and satisfying? And now the radio phone. Within a short time we shall have installed a Westinghouse receiving set and the public is invited to be our guests at our offices in Newberg. This set is capable of "picking up" 1500 miles and we feel our many friends will have the opportunity of listening to excellent entertainments which this set will afford.

Electricity is the balm that eases the hardships of human life. We shall have for sale the radio phones and after our set is installed we shall carry a stock to supply the large demands that are sure to follow.
