

Local and Personal News

Picking of early cherries commenced the first of this week.

L. M. Parker has gone to Turner to help with the haying work on the ranch.

Sherwood and Tualatin will hold a joint Fourth of July celebration at Tualatin this year.

Dr. and Mrs. Claude Lewis are visiting at the home of Dr. Lewis' father at Springbrook.

Miss Helen Jones, a sister of Mrs. Asa Sutton, left last Friday for her home at Cascade, Montana.

Paul Elliott was a Corvallis passenger Monday morning. Mr. Elliott will attend summer school at O. A. C.

The U. S. Bank and hotel buildings have been receiving a new coat of paint the past week. Albert Willis did the work.

Clifford Hadley and wife and little son came up from Portland and spent the day here Sunday. Mr. Hadley was formerly a resident of Newberg.

A Mrs. Brown of Blackfoot, Idaho, a cousin of Jasper Bales and sister of Ellis Bales, has been visiting here during Pacific College commencement and the yearly meeting.

Francis Haworth returned the last of the week from Eugene, where he has been attending the state university, and will be at the home of his mother, Mrs. Alice Haworth, during the summer.

The Hugh D. Brunks, the M. H. Kendalls, the B. E. Hollingsworths, and Delmar Alderman, were at Newberg on Monday evening to attend the meeting conducted by Evangelist Floyd Ross and family. News-Reporter.

Mrs. Mabel Hill is advertising an auction sale of her household goods and other articles, to be held at her home at 305 Center street on Saturday, June 24, at 1:30 p. m., in this issue of the Graphic. She has some very fine furniture for sale.

The town of Willamina is facing a water shortage according to the Willamina Times, which paper says that there isn't a drop in the reservoir and but scant supply in the mains. The council is considering placing an emergency pump at the river.

Rev. Skipworth of Portland, who was pastor of the local M. E. church eight years ago, visited at the U. S. G. Miller home on Saturday and Sunday and preached at the M. E. church Sunday morning. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Elizabeth Skipworth.

Clarence Kienle who has spent the past month at Grants Pass where he had charge of a music store during the absence of the proprietor, returned home Sunday evening, bringing a Mr. Harper of Grants Pass with him. They will spend a week here, attending the Rose Festival and will then return to Grants Pass, where Mr. Kienle expects to remain for about two weeks more.

J. H. Zimmer of Portland visited at the A. J. Morgan home Sunday.

I. N. Campbell left Monday for a week's outing at Woods near the coast.

Dr. and Mrs. Wallace of Portland were Sunday visitors at the S. F. Wallace home.

The Woodburn baseball team will play a three game series with the Gervais team on July 2, 3 and 4.

Supt. A. C. Stanbrough left Tuesday morning for Eugene to attend summer school at the University of Oregon.

Floyd Parker and wife came over from Turner, Oregon, last Saturday for a short visit, returning to the farm the same evening.

Miss Sarah Sutton returned home last Saturday from Tacoma, Washington, where she has been teaching the past winter. She will teach in Portland next winter.

Eddie Welch, who was raised by George Hardwick here in Newberg, writes that he is now located at Rochester, New York, and states that he expects to return to the coast, as he likes it better here than in the east.

Miss Norma Bassett, an artist of Portland, visited with Dr. I. M. Blomwick at this place last Saturday evening. Dr. Blomwick and Miss Bassett were schoolmates. Miss Bassett is a graduate of the Portland Art school and also of the Chicago Art school.

Rev. J. M. Brown of Los Angeles, California, arrived here last Thursday and expects to spend about ten days in this vicinity before returning to his home in California. Rev. Brown owns a ranch about three miles west of town on the Chehalis valley road.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Ferguson went to Eugene Sunday to attend the graduation exercises at the University of Oregon. Their daughter, Miss Mildred Ferguson, is a graduate this year. Ray Amy has been acting as city marshal during Mr. Ferguson's absence.

It takes vision to plan a float or decorate a car. Newberg paid $700 for the prize winning float entered in the 1921 floral parade at the Portland rose show, but she told a story of her enterprise and berry industry that has given her international advertising. —Yamhill Record.

Mrs. Merklen and daughter of Williston, North Dakota, spent a week at the J. B. Northrup home on Fifth and Lincoln streets. They are old acquaintances of the Northrups and were so greatly pleased with this country that they stated their intention of returning to locate.

The S. P. company have issued a new monthly individual ticket which is good for 25 round trips and which costs only $15.02. This ticket is not transferrable and is good only during the month of purchase, but at this rate, persons going to Portland and back every day get a round trip rate of only 72 cents.

Miss Merle Clark left last week for her home near Des Moines, Iowa.

W. S. Houck, mayor of McMinnville, was a Newberg visitor last Friday.

All four members of the Willamina high school graduating class expect to enter O. A. C. next year.

Miss Grace Meyers of Woodburn came over last Saturday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Earl Pinney.

Miss Elva Best, daughter of Mrs. Jennie Best, came home Saturday from Portland where she has been teaching.

The Standard Oil company (California) has announced that it will, within a very short period, begin the erection of a distributing station at Yamhill. —Yamhill Record.

Tillamook will celebrate the Fourth of July in grand style this year and the proximity of the ocean with its cooling breezes will no doubt be an added attraction in drawing many valley people to their celebration.

The new paving has been completed on the Amity road as far as the South Yamhill bridge, and after thirty days to cure will be opened for travel, when the detour by way of the Booth Bend road can be dispensed with. —Telephone Register.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Doolittle went to Seaside for a short outing last Saturday and on Sunday a telegram came from Springfield, Illinois, telling of the death of Mr. Doolittle's sister. Local people were unable to get in touch with Mr. Doolittle at that time, however.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Graham went to Portland Sunday to attend a family reunion picnic given by Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Frinck at the Sellwood park. A son of Mr. and Mrs. Frinck has just returned from Montana, where he graduated from a mining school and relatives from Salem, Dallas and Falls City gathered for the reunion.

J. B. Northrup celebrated his 55th birthday last Thursday and the Adult Bible class of the M. E. Sunday school surprised him in the evening by calling and bringing with them refreshments. A very pleasant evening was spent there being over twenty members of the class present. Other neighbors also called and helped swell the gathering.

Dr. Blomwick went to Portland last Friday for a visit with her cousin, Lars Garthe, who is on board the Freighter Nielson of Norway, which has been loading lumber for China. Dr. Blomwick also visited with Mrs. T. S. Frinck and son, Ellis Frinck, has just returned from school at Helena, Montana.

Gus Gianopoulos, proprietor of the Newberg Famous Candy Shop, will leave within a week for New York to meet his wife who will arrive on the steamer King Alexander from Greece. Mr. Gianopoulos feels greatly elated over the return of his wife who has found it difficult to secure passports and get back to this country owing to immigration limitations.

Miss Velma McConkie, who has taught in the Newberg schools several years, left for Berkeley, California, Tuesday morning by auto, where she will attend summer school. Her mother will accompany her and Miss Velma will teach in California this next year. The change is being made in the hopes that the climate of Southern California will benefit Mrs. McConkie, who has been in poor health for some time.

A card to the Graphic gives the news that an eight and one-half pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jess Waltman Wade of Grangeville, Idaho, on June 16, 1922, and has been named Mary Lou. Mrs. Wade, who was formerly Miss Doris Gregory, will be remembered by many Newberg people as the Gregorys were former residents of Newberg, and Mr. Gregory was at one time editor and publisher of the Newberg Enterprise.

Abraham Lincoln Hurst, who has been living on the Bowman place one mile north of town for the past nine months, passed away at his home at 11:45 a. m. Monday. Deceased was 48 years old and leaves a widow, Mrs. Carrie Bowman Hurst. Mrs. Hurst is a sister of Austin Bowman. Funeral services were held from the Bowman home Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Chas. E. Gibson, pastor of the local M. E. church officiating. Interment followed in the local cemetery.

H. G. Moore and wife and son, Ralph, will leave here about June 28 on an extended trip which will eventually take them to Marion, Indiana, where they expect to locate. The Moores have been residents of Newberg for the past three years and their friends here will be sorry to see them leave. Mr. Moore has been employed at the Newberg Packing and Produce company. They will go by way of Spokane, Yellowstone Park, Cheyenne and possibly Denver and will visit Chicago before locating in Indiana.

A gold strike has been made on a ranch five miles west of Forest Grove according to a report in the News-Times. Not only gold, but silver, copper and tungsten are said to be contained in the ore. Claims have been staked out and preparations are being made to secure machinery. Mr. Nordgren, the owner of the ranch on which the gold was discovered, is an old-time railroad man and purchased the farm eleven years ago on which to retire. Associated with him in the mining enterprise are W. C. Brown, Wm. E. Clark and Eugene B. Good.

Miss Gladys Nichols left Monday morning for Corvallis where she will attend summer school at O. A. C.

Mrs. May Huntington and son, Bennie, are gone to Portland for the summer, where Bennie has work during vacation.

Rev. Hiram Gould has been doing the mason work on the Tom Warner prune dryer. Mr. Gould was a mason by trade before entering the ministry. He also did the plastering on the Frank Cummins bungalow.

Mrs. Mabel Hill expects to open the tailor shop formerly conducted by I. W. Hill and which is located between the Palm confectionery and the C. A. Morris jewelry store, on June 26 and will carry on the business as before.

Andrew Conner, who lives on the Portland road just east of town, had a dispute with a swarm of bees Wednesday and judging by his looks must have got the worst of the argument. Of course we haven't seen the bees, but Mr. Conner certainly looks "swell."

The Woman's Relief Corps held a social at the I. O. O. F. hall Thursday afternoon of last week. Over fifty members of the G. A. R. and W. B. C. and friends were present. Mrs. E. L. Evans had charge of the program, which consisted of piano and violin solos and readings. Coffee, strawberries and cake were served by the committee.

A call has been issued for all signers for this year's chautauqua to meet at the Commercial club rooms Monday evening of next week to lay plans for the advertising and sale of tickets and other preliminary work for the chautauqua. This will be a very important meeting and all members of the committee are urged to be present.

The Sherwood News has the following to say regarding the chautauqua this year: "The chautauqua which closed Friday night is said by those who saw the previous ones to be the best ever held in Sherwood. The entire program was very interesting and instructive. The numbers were all good and it would be difficult to judge between them."

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dimond and daughter, Lola, of Spokane, Washington, and Mr. Russell Dimond and Mrs. Hannah Dimond of Portland came here Tuesday for a short visit at the W. J. Nottage home. Mr. Dimond and Mr. Nottage lived in adjoining houses in St. Paul, Minnesota, for a number of years. Mr. Dimond is an uncle of Chester A. Dimond. Like the majority of the Dimond family he is a printer.

W. W. Hollingsworth and wife returned last Friday from a trip to Pe Ell, Washington, where they made a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Gwinn and family. They were accompanied on their return to Newberg by Orville Hollingsworth and wife and son Roy and daughter Gladys and also by Mrs. Schumaker all of Port Angeles, Washington, and by Mrs. Gertrude Gwinn and son George, Jr., of Pe Ell. These people all returned to their homes on Monday of this week.

Miss Enid Snow entertained a number of her young friends at her home on west Illinois street last Friday evening. They played games and had music and singing and refreshments of ice cream and cake. Those present were: The Misses Lucille and Leona Smith, Leona Bauer, Thelma Stretch, Lucille Ehret, Eula Vincent, Mabel Fortune, Helen Wright and Enid Snow; Merle Fortune, Joel Callison, Jasper Crow, Lorin Deach, Norman Deach, Clarence Heater and Orin Hess. All reported a good time.

A big picnic dinner was enjoyed at the L. M. Parker home last Sunday there being many relatives and friends present at that time from other places who were attending the yearly meeting. Among those who attended the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Marrs of Portland, Paul Marrs and family of Corvallis, O. R. Marrs and family of Portland, J. R. Pemberton and family of Salem, W. C. Woodward and little daughter of Richmond, Indiana, Bernice Louise King of Portland, Aunt Mary Allen, and C. W. Parker and family.

If you wish your eyes to be good at the age of seventy, they must have care from time to time through life.

Later on in life it will be a serious proposition if you have neglected your eyes earlier in life.

We have made a study of these conditions and we are here to help you.

Yours for better eye service

C. A. Morris
THE JEWELER - OPTICIAN

Keep the Kitchen Cool

The summer days are made doubly worse by the use of the hot wood range. If you would be comfortable and cool in your kitchen the Electric Range will afford the relief you seek from the hot, steamy cook room, incident to the use of wood for fuel. We have several makes of the best Electric Ranges which we sell at cost on easy terms. You cannot appreciate the excellence of Electric Cooking until you have tried it. See our ranges and we shall be glad to install one in your home on reasonable terms that will satisfy you.

Yamhill Electric Company

"It Serves You Right"

DR. S. M. WENDT
Surgeon
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Calls answered to your home.
Edwards Building Newberg

Rev. W. H. Cox left Newberg for the eastern part of the state on Wednesday. He will be back on Saturday.

J. M. Lemon and wife and daughter, Miss Aubrey Lemon, have returned from an extended trip to California.

Lester Fortner has purchased a new Ford coupe and is having it fitted up with new disc wheels and other improvements. It will be some Ford when completed.

George Fraser, proprietor of the Olympic Bakery, is making quite a study of walnut culture and has quite a large number of small trees which he is nursing at his bakery with a view of going into this industry on a larger scale in a short time. Mr. Fraser has been convinced by his experience with the three trees which grow in the parking on the Edwards street side of his bakery that there is good money in the industry. From these trees he took $75 worth of nuts last year and will do better than that this year. He is studying up on grafting and other lines of walnut culture and will also plant some alberts.

Mrs. W. T. Anderson, Mrs. R. W. VanVain and Mrs. Bert Miller were among those who went to Portland Tuesday to witness the coronation exercises at the Rose Festival.

All people who got reserved seats at Kienle's for the Whitney concert in Portland are urged to call and exchange them for the duplicate original reserved seat tickets at C. A. Morris's store.

Miss Matilda Haworth, a missionary from Guatemala, was in attendance at Friends Yearly Meeting, and also visited her aunt, Mrs. Alice Haworth, and other relatives. She left Monday morning for her home at Long Beach, California.

TWO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR SALE—Small horse, A. B. Scherf, phone 2A151. 3812*

FOR SALE—Laying hens at 75c each; Oregon strain. Call White R155. 3812

FOR SALE—1 high grade Jersey bull; 1 dry cow; 1 cow milking; 1 to freshen soon. A. Versteeg, White R152. 3812

COMFORT FOR YOUR

Feet

No More Foot Troubles

Warm weather means continual discomfort from tired, aching feet. There is no need for you to suffer any of these discomforts.

TRY A CAN OF

Rexall Foot Powder

Sprinkle a small amount into each shoe and sock, and immediately you will feel the soothing, cooling effect. It is in sprinkler top cans and easy to use.

WHEN BATHING THE FEET USE

Rexall Foot Bath Tablets

which will add still further to your foot comfort.

If corns trouble, use First-Aid Corn Plasters, and Rexall Corn Solvent

LYNN B. FERGUSON

Prescription Druggist

The Rexall Store

302 First St.

Newberg, Ore.

Black 106

W. H. WOODWORTH,

President

R. P. GILL,

Cashier

A. R. MILLS,

Vice Pres.

First National Bank of Newberg

Foreign

Exchange

Interest on

Time Deposits

Domestic

Exchange

Safe Deposit

Boxes for Rent

Take a

KODAK

with you

Kodak adds to fun and keeps it—in pictures. Be sure your next holiday plans include a Kodak. We have the one you want, and the film and accessories as well. This is the place to come for the Eastman line of photographic goods.

Kodaks—all autographic—$6.50 up.
Brownies—$2.00 up

W. A. GRAHAM
Druggist