ALL DAY MEETING AT GERMAN M. E. CHURCH

Beautiful for situation at the foot of Parrett mountain, three miles east of Newberg, in a most thriving community, in the very heart of Oregon's Edenic agricultural and horticultural districts, is to be found the German M. E. church. Strictly speaking, it is located on the corner of the Gottlieb Schaad farm with a seating capacity of about 200. Just by the church is the forest primeval. Tables are built in the shade thereof and also seats for all. Water piped from a mountain stream trickles through the grounds.

On last Sunday an all day meeting had been planned. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and pink roses and at 10 o'clock was quite well filled. Several visitors were present. The regular Sunday school and church services gave place to other exercises wherein several young people took their final tests in the catechism, receiving their diplomas and were taken into full church membership.

The class consisted of Rowland W. Schaad, Hedwig Schaad, Esther Harley, Esther Schaad, Clara Trommerhousen, Gladys Wassman and Gilbert Schaad.

Other features of the program were instrumental music, choir music with a dozen trained voices, with Ruth Schaad as organist, and a duet by Mrs. Sehner and Lillian Wassman. The program was very impressive.

At noon a sumptuous basket dinner was served on the grounds and for two hours a splendid social time was enjoyed by all. The program in the afternoon was in charge of Will Schaad, superintendent of the Sunday school and was given by the young people and children, followed by an address by the pastor, Rev. P. J. Sehner, who with his estimable wife, are doing an excellent work in this community. The spirit of the occasion was very enjoyable and worthy of the effort.

SUPT. A. C. STANBROUGH ADDRESSED CONFERENCE

University of Oregon, Eugene, June 28.—A. C. Stanbrough, superintendent of schools of Newberg, took a prominent part in the discussions Saturday afternoon, June 23, at the annual principals and superintendents' conference held on the University of Oregon campus June 23-24.

Superintendent Stanbrough followed E. R. Hedrick in a discussion of an address on "Teachers' meetings as a means of improvement in service," given by C. A. Howard of Marshfield. Mr. Stanbrough emphasized the necessity of keeping in touch with new ideas, and gave several methods of doing this. One successfully followed in Newberg was to have a committee of teachers select a book for study, which they would all read. In this way the proper books were sure of being used and good results were obtained.

Superintendent Hedrick spoke on the evils of calling teachers' meetings without sufficient reason, and added that a meeting should not be called unless for some definite purpose.

GONE TO NEW YORK

W. N. Brown and son Warren left Saturday for New York City to be gone a couple of months, during which time Mr. Brown will visit his parents. His father has not been in good health and it is likely that his son's visit will be cheering to him. Mr. Brown is an employee of the Spaulding Logging Co at the local planing mill. Mrs. Brown and the other children plan to spend some of the time with relatives in Portland and Albany during her husband's absence.—News-Reporter. Mr. Brown at one time ran a picture show in Newberg.

BIG DOUBLE BILL AT BAKER THEATRE 3D AND 4TH

Crash! Two polo ponies going toward one another full tilt, meet and go down with their riders, Wallace Reid and Elliott Dexter, underneath. Both are injured—for the purposes of the story, but not at all in fact. How either escaped injury is a mystery.

The scene was for "Don't Tell Everything" which is to be the attraction at the Baker theatre next Monday and Tuesday and in which Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson and Elliott Dexter play the featured roles with Dorothy Cumming and others well cast. It is a Paramount picture directed by Sam Wood.

The polo game was the real thing. It was staged in California between two regular teams. A big crowd turned out to witness it and the excitement was intense.

Also on the same nights "Never Weaken," a Harold Lloyd comedy, will be shown. Needless to say, the star of "Never Weaken" is Harold Lloyd, the comedian who has introduced to photoplayers the new laugh that comes clean and full from a happy heart and carries no blush with it.

The laughs that will accompany the showing of "Never Weaken," however, will be energized with spine-tingling thrills, for in this three-reel Associated Exhibitors comedy, Lloyd performs some amazing stunts on the iron skeleton of a skyscraper in the process of construction.

Pretty Mildred Davis lends leading feminine support. Others are Roy Brooks, Mark Jones and Charles Stevenson. "Never Weaken" is the result of the combined imaginations of Hal Roach, its producer, and Sam Taylor, and the direction of Fred Newmeyer.

ST. PAUL WON ANOTHER GAME FROM SALEM SENATORS

St. Paul defeated the Salem Senators at Silverton last Sunday afternoon by a score of 10 to 6, thus tying the series at two and two. The Senators started the scoring and led up to the fourth inning with a score of three to nothing. In the fourth inning, however, St. Paul secured four tallies putting them in the lead and they maintained a lead all through the game from then on. It was a good game and there was a large crowd on hand to witness the close rivalry. Louderbach and Vose were the battery for the Senators and DeGure and Baker for St. Paul. DeGure was used in this game instead of Carson, who played field, because the former is a right hander and works better against the Salem sluggers. St. Paul and the Senators plan to play the fifth game of their series at Newberg during the Berry Festival providing the proper arrangements can be made. This should be a very strong game as it will decide the series and as both teams have now won two games it will probably be a very hard fought game.
