

Local and Personal News

Miss Florence Cooley left Sunday evening for Eugene to spend the Fourth.

Mrs. Vandell went to Monmouth Tuesday evening to spend a week with friends.

Mrs. J. C. Allen of Pasco, Wash., arrived here Monday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Chester A. Diamond.

Miss Rush and Miss McCane, who are attending Normal at Monmouth spent the Fourth in Newberg with home folks.

Miss Martha Ehret, stenographer for a Portland law firm, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ehret, on the Portland road.

Mrs. Tina MacFayden of Zealand, Sask., Canada, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Paul Johnson, and will spend a couple of months here.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith of Junction City, Ore., a son, at an early hour on July 4. Mrs. Smith is with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ada Barr, 414 Howard street.

Ralph Butt and Bill Allan were appointed by Lester C. Rees Post to attend the state Legion convention at The Dalles this month. Dr. Rankin and Barney Groth were selected as alternates.

With a dog and pony show and a merry-go-round already set up on the concession grounds adjoining the Graphic office it looks like the kiddies would have a good time during the festival also.

O. S. Morris and wife are driving through from Grays Harbor, Wash., and expect to arrive here tonight. Mrs. Morris is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Chas. E. Gibson. They expect to spend about three weeks here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw of Portland arrived in Newberg Wednesday, where Mr. Shaw has accepted a position with the Newberg Motor Co. For the present they are making their home with Mrs. Shaw's mother, Mrs. C. C. Preston, on Second street.

J. L. VanBlaricom and wife returned last Friday evening from California. Mr. Van Blaricom states that it was exceedingly hot there and that Mrs. Van Blaricom improved in health while away but that the return trip was rather hard on her.

Billy Braseau and wife and George Hodges and wife left Sunday for Grass Valley in eastern Oregon, where Mr. and Mrs. Hodges will locate. Mrs. Braseau will visit her people in eastern Oregon for a time before returning but Mr. Braseau returned this week.

Roy Stratton, who was formerly a resident of Newberg, but who is now living at Silver Lake, in eastern Oregon, came over last Sunday for a visit with his sisters, Mrs. Archie Seeley and Mrs. Chas. A. Hodson. Mr. Stratton has been away for ten years and notes many changes in Newberg during that period.

Miss Jessie Gibson, dean of girls at Spokane, Washington, high school, and Mrs. Frank Dement of Walla Walla, Washington, arrived here Thursday morning to visit their parents, Rev. and Mrs. Chas. E. Gibson. Mrs. Dement will probably remain for about three weeks and Miss Jessie Gibson will spend the summer here.

The council was supposed to meet last Monday evening for the transaction of the regular first of the month business and there was quite an attendance of citizens but only two councilmen and the mayor showed up so no meeting was held as they lacked a quorum. Councilmen Dowd and Moore were the two who were present.

John Gower was selling local tomatoes to the stores on Monday of this week.

City Attorney C. R. Chapin and family went to the coast Sunday to be away over the Fourth.

Ned McCoy and Bert Miller left Monday morning bright and early for a fishing trip in the Meadow Lake country.

The local sawmill was closed down from Saturday night to Wednesday morning to enable the employes to celebrate the Fourth.

E. B. Merrill and wife of Albion, Iowa, arrived here on Friday of last week for a visit with L. E. Arney and wife. They left again on Wednesday of this week.

Have you bought your chautauqua ticket yet? If not, you had better do so at once. You can get them at any drug store, bank or confectionery, or at Klenle's music store.

Locke Silva of this place attended the Free Methodist conference at The Dalles recently. This conference returned Rev. H. E. Kreider as pastor of the Newberg church for another year.

W. E. Crozer and family and Mrs. Pemberton, mother of Mrs. Crozer, autoed Sunday to Vancouver to visit Mrs. Crozer at the hospital. She is improving and expects to return home in a few days.

Mrs. Olive Bassett expects to leave the last of this week for Sacramento, Calif., where she will visit her father, W. H. Davis, for a month or two. She will be accompanied by her daughters, Miriam and Frances.

W. F. Cooley and daughter, Miss Esther Cooley of Morris, Minnesota, who have been visiting here for the past ten days left Monday for Seattle on their way home. Mr. Cooley is a brother of H. A. Cooley and C. N. Cooley of this place.

'Red' Rice, Fred Fogie and Leonard Gower went on a fishing trip to the Wilson river country last Saturday expecting to stay over the Fourth. However, they came home Monday as the forest fires were getting bad and they did not want to get caught in the forest.

Jack Abbott of Independence, Oregon, has accepted a position with the Newberg Motor Co. as head mechanic. Mr. Abbott is rated as one of the best Ford mechanics on the Pacific coast and the Newberg Motor company feel highly pleased at being able to secure his services.

Miss Kate Barton, who will be the director of the local chautauqua, arrived in Newberg this (Thursday) morning to look after some of the details of arranging for our chautauqua season. Miss Barton was an old school friend of the editor and the Newberg chautauqua is assured of a good lively leader with her as director.

A party consisting of Ethel and Arloline Johnson, Mrs. C. H. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jones, Wm. Gall, Clarence and Zella Fitcher, Alva Heater, Dana Parrett, Mrs. Tina MacFayden of Canada, Clive Henry and the Misses Anetta, Freda, Thelma and Della Parrish left Monday evening for Silver Creek falls where they will spend the Fourth.

The Graphic told of a fishing party composed of Messrs. W. H. Woodworth and Chas. Morris and the Misses Emmabelle Woodworth and Mary Balzer, which went over in the Tillamook country last week. We are informed that the two young ladies caught 120 pounds of salmon in about 20 minutes. The gentlemen seem to be somewhat reticent about their catches.

Henry Seidel who has lived on Chehalis mountain north of Newberg for about 20 years, left last Saturday, July 1, on the initial stage of a trip to Germany. He will stop over in New York for a time waiting for his ship which leaves there on July 11. He expects to be away a year and possibly longer. Mr. Seidel came to America about 40 years ago.

Chandos Chase sustained a painful injury while trying to crank a gasoline engine at the sand and gravel plant on Monday. The engine fired while Mr. Chase was cranking it and the resisting force thus being removed it allowed the crank to come out and the force of the turn brought it up against his hip with such a force as to cut the lip clear through. The wound was dressed and five stitches taken in it. It is not probable that the injury will prove at all serious although it is painful.

Mrs. Chas. F. Butler and little son, Norman, went to Portland Monday to arrange for securing tickets for a trip to Mauston, Wisconsin. Mr. and Mrs. Butler and little son and C. P. Carey, father of Mrs. Butler, expect to leave today (Thursday) for the east. Mr. Carey will probably remain for a year, while Mr. and Mrs. Butler expect to spend a couple of months on the trip. This is Mr. Butler's first real vacation in 32 years. Mrs. Butler has two sisters living at Mauston. The Butlers plan to return via the Canadian Pacific.

C. Edwards of Portland was a guest of Dr. Blomwick on Tuesday.

C. B. Sanders spent the week end and the Fourth at Vancouver and Washougal, Wash.

Mrs. Walter Ricks and three daughters of Portland spent the Fourth with Mrs. Fannie Allen.

Quite a number of Newberg people went to the Grand Ronde celebration to accompany the Berrian band.

George W. Hobson of Moro, Ore., drove down Sunday to spend the Fourth with his mother, Mrs. Hobson, and sister, Mrs. Cora Jones.

Miss Edna Wann came home Saturday returning to Portland Tuesday. Miss Wann is taking a nurse's course at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland.

Gladya Bond, Bernice Bullack, and Mabel Rush were home from the summer school at Monmouth over the Fourth. Gladya Nichols was also home from O. A. C.

Miss Olive Bassett, who was assisting Rev. H. E. K. Whitney in his Portland office for several weeks, left last Sunday for Heppner, where she will spend the summer.

Joe Hollingsworth went to Oysterville and spent the Fourth with his family. He says that it was nice and cool there and that they enjoyed a small fire in the fireplace.

The Farm Bureau announces that they still have some of the poison barley for squirrels, rats, etc., at the Chehalis Valley Mills and the farmers can get it at cost, which is 12 1/2 cents a quart.

Miss Thelma Parrish left today (Thursday) for Sillcoos to attend the summer conference of the Girls Reserve. She goes as a delegate of the local high school unit of this organization. The conference will last for ten days.

William Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Curry, Mrs. Owen and Herbert went to Gwago Lake for a family picnic on the Fourth and were joined by Mrs. Floyd Bilyeu, Billie and Helen Margaret, who returned to Newberg for a few weeks visit.

G. H. Umbaugh, editor of the Kelsoian, of Kelso, Wash., came down Monday and returned Wednesday with his daughter, Edith, and sister-in-law, Mrs. F. R. Rundell. From Kelso, Mrs. Rundell will go on to Napavine for a visit with a cousin and uncle.

Mrs. R. Soper of Canby, Oregon, has resigned as chief operator of the telephone company at that place, which position she has held for over sixteen years and expects to come to Newberg to make her home with her sons, Earl and Allan Hutchinson.

Mrs. R. Grant of Culver, Oregon, accompanied by her two sons, Irvin and Frank, and also by C. H. Robertson and wife of Portland and Lee Windom of Madras, arrived here last Tuesday and will stay until after the Berry Festival. They are visiting Mrs. Grant's motrer, Mrs. L. R. Stringer.

Mrs. C. A. Riddle and four children arrived here Wednesday from Riddle, Oregon, their former home, and they will make their home here in the future. Mr. Riddle is employed in the Graphic office as linotype operator. They have rented a residence property on north Meridian street.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Bogges of Berea, Ohio, arrived here last Friday and will spend the summer here with Mrs. Hiram Gould. Dr. Bogges is an instructor in Baldwin-Wallace College at Berea. Mrs. Bogges was formerly Miss Ina Gould and is well known here, having taught in the local public schools.

Lynn B. Ferguson has a new special Buick roadster which is one of the sportiest and handsomest cars in the city. This car was purchased through Palmer's Buick garage and delivery was made last Monday. The car is a deep red or maroon color and has all the latest improvements and refinements on it which add to the comfort and pleasure of motoring.

A farewell party was given at the Chas. Wilhelmson home last Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Hodges, who left on Sunday for eastern Oregon. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed and refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wilhelmson, Mr. and Mrs. George Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. Brownie Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Abdill, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Braseau, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilhelmson, Allan Morris, Alta Nash, Barbara Duncan and Walter Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Turnidge and daughters, Geneva and Virginia, were in attendance at a family reunion meeting of the descendants of Elder John Turner, deceased, which was held at the Jasper D. Turnidge farm near Talbot station in Marion county on Sunday, July 2. The reunion was held in a beautiful grove where seats and a long table had been prepared for the occasion. By a vote of those present it was decided to hold a reunion of the family each year. The same place was selected for the meeting next year and the date set for the third Sunday in June. There were about 75 of the relatives in attendance at this reunion.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Romig spent Sunday at Seaside.

The Vancouver list of marriage licenses contains the license of Ben-tor Castell of Tualatin and Desta L. Floch of Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Chase and little son, Billy, of Astoria, are making a few days' visit with Mr. Chase's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chase.

Dr. L. M. Blomwick left Wednesday for Portland and attended the state chiropractic convention in session there Wednesday afternoon and today, Thursday.

Willard Bassett will be one of the Whitney Boys who will be taken on the Canadian tour by Rev. Whitney. This trip will take the boys as far east as Montreal and will cover a period of about eight weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Chase and children and Miss Margery Johnson returned Tuesday evening from a week's outing on the coast, at Pacific City, Netarts, and other places. They caught a nice lot of fish.

There is a street rumor being circulated that a man counted the cars passing through last Saturday on the way to the coast and that between seven o'clock in the morning and five in the evening there were over 3,000 passed him.

R. W. Snodgrass and family of Yakima, Wash., and Leonard Ingram and family came down from Bickleton, Wash., on Wednesday for a short visit here. Mr. Snodgrass was a resident of this community about 25 years ago. They left again the same day.

In the excitement of attending the Berry Festival, don't forget that Newberg's chautauqua will be here next week. Get your tickets in advance. They are on sale at the drug stores, the banks, Klenle's Music Store, and some of the confectionery stores.

Bernard Mainwaring, who has been publishing the Hermiston Herald for about a year, has purchased the Milton Eagle from Charles D. Rows and will move to Milton. Mr. Mainwaring was a Newberg young man and his friends here are watching his success with a feeling of pride.

J. J. Pree of Eugene has purchased the Lee Vandemark barber shop in the Duncan building and took possession on the first of July. Mr. Pree also sold his barber shop and confectionery business at Scott's Mills to Mr. Vandemark, who will locate at that place. Mr. Pree has brought his family to Newberg and purchased the property formerly owned by Mrs. Johnson at 224 west Illinois street.

The Ford people are entering into our Berry Festival this year in a big way. They will have their famous Ford caravan in the parade and will establish headquarters early corner across the street from the Newberg Motor Co. where demonstrations will also be held. Other entertainment features are promised by the Ford people who are agreeing to work with the Berrians in any way possible to help in furthering the festivities of the day.

A fire alarm called out the department shortly after noon on Wednesday to the Dave Ramage barn on Main street. Here it was found that a manure pile in the rear of the barn had become ignited in some unknown manner and the fire charred the rear end of the barn somewhat before it was extinguished. Very little damage was done. In the absence of Chief Sherlock, Assistant Chief Spaulding has asked us to call the public's attention to this special fire menace and urge people to keep their premises as clean as possible during this extremely dry weather.

Fifty Men

Have made it possible to have Chautauqua in Newberg next week. There were no selfish motives behind their signatures.

Patronize the Chautauqua by buying a season ticket. Help those who have made the Chautauqua possible.

Yamhill Electric Company

DR. S. M. WENDT Surgeon Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Calls answered to your home. Edwards Building Newberg

UNCLE HANK

A number of the Berrians went to Hillsboro on the Fourth and were highly entertained by the Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce who furnished a special closed car for them in the parade and who tendered a fine dinner in their honor at noon. At this dinner Mayor Shute made a speech in which he stated that they wanted the Berrians to come over later and help organize a booster club there. The Hillsboro celebration people showed a fine spirit toward the Berrians and announced the Berry Festival from the big dance floor and also at the baseball game. They also announced that they would send over their Goddess of Liberty and attendants and a float for our parade here. The Berrians who attended in uniform were admitted free to the dance and every courtesy was shown them.

If you will need garden hose soon, you can save money by getting it at Doyle's Tire Shop now. 4011

FOR SALE - Span mares, weigh about 1300; also grain binder cheap. Owner has no further use for same. Phone 12457. Lucas Cowgill. 4011

What we need is a Lincoln to free us white slaves from th' colored bells. Let the Graphic sell it for you.

W. H. WOODWORTH, President R. P. GILL, Cashier A. R. MILLS, Vice Pres.

First National Bank of Newberg. Foreign Exchange, Interest on Time Deposits, Domestic Exchange, Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent. MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM.

Bargains for July As we promised, our July offerings, at special reduced prices are Real Bargains. JONTEEL FACE POWDER, ANOTHER BIG BARGAIN, PURETEST ZINC STEARATE, FIRSTAID Z. O. ADHESIVE PLASTER, FULLER WHIRLING SPRAY FOR $1.98, SCOUT FLASHLIGHT, HARMONY LIQUID SHAMPOO, REXALL LIVER SALTS.

Do you enjoy the pleasure of seeing as you did ten or fifteen years ago? We are prepared to fit your eyes with a double vision glass that will enable you to see with real pleasure at both distance and near. We Have Helped Thousands. Yours for better eyesight, C. A. Morris THE JEWELER - OPTICIAN