As a great many Newberg people are intensely interested in Virgil Hinshaw and wish to hear of his speedy recovery, we are glad to receive the following news of his condition from Perry D. Macy, regarding him: "The symptoms of meningitis did not develop but instead the doctors are now assured that he has typhoid fever. He has a private nurse and is getting along quite well now. His mother still remains in Eugene and is with him each day." This was written under date of July 18.

A very pleasant day was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Gearin Sunday, July 9, when Mrs. Gearin's brother, Mr. Fred Van Hooz, and family, and Mr. George Stadler drove up in their car from Portland to pay them a visit. Her sister, Miss Martha Van Hooz, also of Portland was a recent visitor at the John Gearin home, prior to her trip to San Francisco, California, where she contemplates an indefinite stay for the purpose of continuing her pipe organ studies. Martha will live at the "Daughters of Israel" club.

A letter from Teddy Leavitt to his parents reports the closing of a three weeks' evangelistic meeting held by the Leavitt Soul Winning Team on Lopez Island, one of the small islands of Puget Sound. Thirty-five souls confessed Christ, these for the most part were heads of families. Bible school and Bible study classes were organized, very suitable rooms were rented where these new converts may gather each Lord's day for Sunday school and communion service, as well as mid-week prayer service. Teddy and wife are expecting to be home in Newberg for a short visit, before going to other rural districts in Washington and Oregon.

William Crede and son of Pittsburgh, Penn., who are with the Bankers' association people attending the convention in Portland, came up from Portland last Sunday for a visit with Mr. Crede's brother, Ed Crede of this place. They had not seen each other for forty-three years, so that it was a very enjoyable meeting. They left Thursday for San Francisco. There are 614 eastern bankers in this party and they are traveling in four special trains. Mr. Crede was greatly surprised at the fine country here and said that he would go back and tell his friends and neighbors about it. He said that if he were a younger man he would like to move out here and make his home in this fine country.

Oliver F. Kilham, who for the past three years has been director of the Smith-Hughes agriculture work in Newberg, has resigned his position here, his resignation to take effect on July 25, and he will accept a position as horticulturist with the Placer county high school at Auburn, California. Auburn is in the center of what is probably California's finest deciduous fruit district. In a letter to the Graphic Mr. Kilham states that 4101 cars of cherries, peaches, plums, pears, grapes, quinces, apples, persimmons, apricots and figs alone were shipped out of that district. There were also 48,503 crates of berries, 17,242 lugs of tomatoes, and many nectarines and pomegranates shipped. Mr. Kilham is fortunate indeed to secure so fine a position, and while he will be missed in Newberg, the people here will be glad that he has received this advancement.
