SUNNYCREST

Most everyone has threshed or will soon thresh.

Miss Katherine McCredie and her brother Ralph, were week end visitors with Sunnycrest friends.

A. O. Peterson came for a visit with the wife and babies a few days the latter part of last week. He has a contract grading for the railroad company at The Dalles. He says men are quite scarce at the present time.

Several of the neighbors have found the best remedy for berry stained hands and berry strained backs is beach sand and ocean water. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Graves were the ones trying this recipe last week.

Walter and Mark Wilsey started for Idaho last Monday. They expect to work in the saw mill or lumber woods. They received word that the mills in that vicinity are starting night shifts to keep up with their orders.

Last Saturday evening the Sunnycrest ladies' club gave an ice cream social to finish their obligations on the Legion Memorial building. Mrs. Harley Hall, president of the club, was responsible for the home made ice cream, and fruit punch. The rapidly with which the ice cream and cake disappeared attested the success of the evening. At making real ice cream Mrs. Hall is an artist.

A letter from Mrs. A. E. Switzer of Lexington says that harvest is well under way with a good yield of grain. The Switzer family are well pleased with their new home and the youngsters are all at work.

Yes, thank goodness, this week ends up the berry proposition for this year. What with strawberries, blackcaps and loganberries, and doing quite a bit of picking ourselves, along with the other little jobs like planting spuds, cultivating and hoeing same, cutting grain and hay and filling barns, we'll say it's some job. But on a small place the berry industry brings better returns for your work than any other we know of.

REX

Mrs. F. I. Eves spent Monday at the home of Mrs. Jay Ditto.

Miss Pauline Terrell of Newberg attended the Rex Friends church last Sunday.

Ralph Otis and family are spending the week at the coast. They left Saturday.

The message was delivered at the Rex Friends church by Miss Flora Campbell in the morning and Mrs. Mary K. Shaver of Portland in the evening. The male quartet of Portland furnished the music.

Will Schaad and family and August Schaad and family went Sunday afternoon to Sims' Bar near Dayton for a little outing for the children. The little ones enjoyed the water and want to go again.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Sanderman and daughter, Edyth, autoted to Portland Monday, looking at some Shope brick tile houses. They expect to build a new brick tile house in the near future, their beautiful home having been destroyed by fire last December.

Will Sanderman gave a bunch of children an outing at Columbia beach last Saturday. Those who went were Edna and Raymond Asmus, Elizabeth Wiley, and Austin Milton and Winona Sanderman. The children enjoyed the day immensely. Mr. Sanderman gave the bunch an outing last year.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dauvaut and son and two daughters from Tulsa, Oklahoma, arrived by auto Friday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Sturgis. On Monday Mrs. Dauvaut and children and Mrs. Sturgis and son autoted to the coast for a week's outing. Messrs. Sturgis and Dauvaut are batching during the ladies' absence.

Quite a fire broke out on the McDowell farm last Tuesday. The spring being quite a ways from the house, they took the clothes to the spring to wash. Their daughter, Della, was doing the washing and had some ready to hang up, so taking them to the house, it being 15 minutes to 12, she stayed to eat her dinner. During that time a spark blew into the brush and started a blaze. It had gotten quite a headway before they noticed it. Mrs. C. C. Wiley and C. V. Compton, who were stacking grain at A. V. Peterson's place, saw it. They all rushed to the fire and it required about three hours of hard fighting before it was under control. We are glad it didn't do more damage.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graves held a social last Friday evening for their berry pickers. All joined in games and a general good time. Some very good cake and ice cream was served to all and a pleasant time was reported by those present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McClaffin and son, Russell, and little daughters, Lucille and Reta Bell, and Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson left early Tuesday morning for a sojourn at Pacific City. They were going to meet their brother, Mr. McClaffin and family and Mr. and Mrs. Rice Davis of Newberg and all go in a crowd together.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graves and family are soon to leave the community. It is understood they have traded their farm for a farm in Idaho. The family has resided here seven years. They have the best wishes of all as they depart for their new home in Idaho.

Last Sunday afternoon Bert Ingraham's barn caught fire in some unknown way, and was very soon reduced to ashes. Mr. Ingraham is in the eastern Oregon harvest fields and the wife and children were out around the place at the time. It was very unfortunate for them and they can ill afford to have this loss. Also their Ford roadster and a drag saw were included in the blaze.

Mr. Gomers and Mr. Fletcher, who were visitors from the east, motored out from Portland Thursday accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Baughman. Messrs. Gomers and Fletcher were going to California and Canada before returning east. Mrs. Schroeder remained and spent the week end with her daughter, Mrs. P. W. Baughman. Mr. and Mrs. Everett of Portland were also Mr. and Mrs. Baughman's guests Sunday.

A Graphic classified will sell it.

Announcement!

Having purchased the tailor shop and business formerly conducted by the late I. W. Hill at 602 1-2 First street, I am now prepared to do anything in the tailoring line, including, cleaning and pressing, repairing and alterations; suits made to order; also retaining the Edw. V. Price line of high grade made to measure suits.

Having been in this line of business for the past twenty years, I feel safe in requesting the public to give me a trial on their work and I will assure satisfaction.
