

Local and Personal News

J. W. Hubbard and family autoed to Sand Lake last Sunday.

Mrs. W. Richard Everest made a trip to Portland on Friday of last week.

S. S. Duncan and H. G. Eckman of McMinnville were Newberg visitors last Saturday.

Mrs. M. E. Moore came up from Portland for an over Sunday visit with her brother, P. M. Tallman, and wife.

Mildred and Eleanor Davis of Portland visited their grandmother, Mrs. M. E. Moffitt last week, returning home on Sunday.

Mrs. J. R. Shackelford returned from Portland last Friday where she had been visiting her sister, Mrs. G. B. Woodcock for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Carl and daughter, Iva, of Santa Ana, Calif., visited their old friends, the W. Richard Everests, here last week.

Mrs. Raleigh Morris of Seattle, Wash., was a Newberg visitor over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Morris on Seventh street.

H. G. See spent last week in Portland in attendance at the Buyers' Week events. Mr. See was promoting his shoe grease and See-Proof oil.

Ralph D. Casey of Seattle will join the staff of the school of journalism at the University of Oregon this fall as professor of trade journalism and literary markets.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Chase and daughter of Redmond, Oregon, came Saturday for a visit with Grant Conway and family. Mrs. Chase is a daughter of Mr. Conway.

C. E. Waterman went to Portland last Friday morning to attend the Sabbath school convention of the Seventh Day Adventist church. He expected to be away over Sunday.

The Grant Conways and the Chase family took the trip around the McMinnville, Forest Grove, Hillsboro loop last Sunday. Mr. Conway thinks this is one of the finest trips in Oregon.

Bill Sanders, who has been spending the summer at Myrtle Creek in southern Oregon, where he was engaged in some construction work in putting in a new power line, returned home last Friday.

Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Gohn came up from St. Helens Sunday morning and Rev. Gohn preached both morning and evening at the Baptist church in this city. They were guests at the E. H. Burns home while in the city.

The city council met Thursday evening in executive session for the purpose of selecting a night marshal. The final ballot showed that Wesley Boyes was selected and as Mr. Amy wished to be relieved immediately, he took up his duties that night.

C. C. McElroy and wife and two children of Spokane, Wash., visited at the J. F. Taylor home last Saturday night. They are looking for a home in this county and went on to McMinnville to visit Mrs. McElroy's brother, William Gunning, and family.

Prof. L. M. Tupper of Redford, Mich., accompanied by his wife and his sister and her three sons of Gresham, Ore., visited at the President Pennington home last Thursday.

The rain of the past week has demonstrated one thing which is needed about town very much. This is the cutting of weeds along the sidewalks. In some places these overhang the sidewalks to such an extent that it is difficult to walk without getting wet. In addition to this they are very unsightly.

28,000 PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS

unite in giving to the world a reliable remedy for indigestion and stomach troubles now known to the medical world as

HEPATIC SALTS

It follows closely in chemical composition the celebrated natural waters of Europe—a combination of tonic and laxative salts fortified with lithia and sodium phosphate. It flushes the kidneys and alimentary tract, washing away all impurities and thoroughly cleansing the body system. If you are mentally depressed, physically worn out, bodily fatigued, lacking in nervous energy, or have back aches or headaches, don't suffer any longer—go to your druggist and ask for A. D. S. Hepatic Salts. They will bring immediate relief.

Graham's Drug Store -

Mrs. James Farr of Dundee was a visitor in Newberg Tuesday.

Maggie Littlefield left Friday for Pacific City for a month's stay at the beach.

Fred L. Ames and sister, Mrs. Huldah Hanson, went to Portland Friday for the day.

Mrs. S. F. Gause of Washougal, Wash., was a Newberg visitor for several days this week, visiting old friends.

Roy Gardner and wife and daughter came over from Lebanon and visited with Mr. Gardner's mother, Mrs. Emily Gardner.

Despite the hard rain last Saturday there was quite a heavy traffic on the highway towards Tillamook and the coast points west of here.

Tom Crews was down from Laurel on Tuesday and states that the rains have spoiled all of the small potatoes as it is making big ones out of them.

Frankie Crites will box a ten-round bout with Kid Sarp of Boise as the main event at La Grande at the D. O. K. K. convention on August 31.

Mrs. Edith Holt and daughter, Ruth, went to Portland the latter part of last week for a visit of several weeks with their son and brother, Chester Holt.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Haymes of Marshfield, Missouri, are expected here tomorrow (Friday) for an extended visit with their daughters, Miss Clara Haymes and Mrs. Jasper Bales.

George Graves was up from Portland last Friday. Mr. Graves, who was at one time editor and publisher of the Newberg Enterprise, is now one of the head officers of the Macabees lodge in this state.

Barney Garrett of McMinnville was down here on business this week. Mr. Garrett was formerly secretary of the McMinnville commercial club but has resigned that position and is engaged in private business now.

Mrs. C. A. Riddle and children returned home from Newport Friday evening. Their camping party at the beach was considerably inconvenienced by the heavy rains of last week, and they with many other vacationists cut short their stay.

The Spiritualist meeting and picnic which was held at the W. A. Bond place on south River street last Sunday was a decided success. There were 62 present and a lecture was given by Dr. Shaw. Other features of the day were the tests given and the picnic dinner which was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Coon, mother of Mrs. Dale Butt, passed away from pneumonia in Portland last Thursday and funeral services were held there on Saturday. Ralph Butt went down to attend the funeral. Mr. Coon and Dale Butt and wife took the remains back to Bay City, Michigan, after the funeral for interment there.

Herman Schoenarth of Granton, Wisconsin, was here for a week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Rice Davis and other friends in Newberg. He departed Tuesday for Tacoma to visit other friends and will also stop at other points enroute home. He expects to return to the west next year with his family to make his home.

The Graphic acknowledges the gift of a very beautiful bouquet of dahlias from Mrs. George Crites. The blooms are all marvellous for both size and colorings and were certainly much appreciated by the force. Mrs. Crites has a beautiful assortment of these flowers in her yard and is advertising the cut flowers and bulbs for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bryant and daughter, Miss Mabel, and R. C. Cooley and Mrs. M. W. Cooley all of Eugene, motored down last Monday to spend several days with the Cooleys at this place. Mrs. M. W. Cooley is the mother of H. A. and C. N. Cooley of this place, while Mrs. Bryant and R. C. Cooley are sister and brother of them.

Miss Nora Lambert returned Thursday from California where she has been attending the San Jose normal, to be with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Webster until school opens in the fall. She went to Portland on Friday to meet some other teachers who were coming up from San Jose by boat and expected to bring them home with her for a short visit here.

The American Legion boys believe that they have the equal of any floor in the state for dancing in their new building and they are offering good music and making every effort to give the public a good time at their regular Saturday night dances. They accept the scrip in payment and urge the public to come and enjoy an evening with them any Saturday. See their advertisement in another column for prices, etc.

The first carload for this season of dried loganberries packed in 25 pound boxes was shipped to an eastern market early this week by the Oregon Growers cooperative association. Dried logans are being packed in various sized cartons for the trade this year, which it is expected will greatly increase consumption. In marketing this delicious fruit by this method and with particular care in maintaining quality, future crops, it is believed, will find a better reception in eastern markets.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Butt left by auto to attend the national bar association meeting at San Francisco. They went with the expectation of camping out along the way but on the second day just before they were ready to go into camp they ran over a big snake and decided to camp inside. Some years ago it would not have been considered wonderful that one should see snakes on their way to a bar association meeting, but in Volstead times it is a little peculiar to say the least. At any rate Mr. and Mrs. Butt expect to return home Sunday and doubtless the judge can then explain it all.

Mrs. Mary Waltz was a Portland visitor on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. E. M. Huntington came up from Portland Saturday for an over Sunday visit.

A ladies silk purse was found at Fifth and College streets. Owner call at Graphic office.

John Hadley went to McMinnville Monday morning and from there to Sheridan. He returned home on Tuesday.

Mrs. Marion George went to Garden Home Monday morning to visit her sister, Mrs. Hunt. She expects to be away several days.

Mrs. D. A. Fitzpatrick of Duluth, Minnesota, is making a visit of a couple of months with her sister, Mrs. C. H. Fitzpatrick at this place.

Miss Rachel Alice Willcuts of Burr Oak, Kansas, arrived here last Saturday for a visit at the home of her cousin, E. G. Pierce, on Sheridan street.

Harry Bailey of Santa Barbara, California, and Calvin McDermitt, of McMinnville, old time friends from Missouri of the Conways, visited them Sunday forenoon.

Arrangements have been made so that those desiring to take the eighth grade examinations before school opens this fall may do so at the grammar school building on September 7 and 8.

Quite a number of local people will attend the meeting of the republican county central committee at McMinnville tonight (Thursday) when the question of selecting a new county clerk will be taken up again.

Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Leavitt stopped over here last week for a visit with Mr. Leavitt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Leavitt. They were enroute from the Puget Sound country to Scotts Mills where they will hold a four weeks' series of meetings.

Councilman Will M. Doud was a Portland passenger last Friday and said that he expected to attend the circus, the county fair at Gresham and any other attractions he could find in and around Portland. In fact we judge he was going to make a day of it.

Shiloh Post W. R. C. gave a chicken dinner at the I. O. O. F. hall last Saturday noon as a benefit for the new American Legion building fund, to pay their pledge. The dinner was fine and there was a generous patronage. As a result of this dinner the ladies netted over $50.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Grant, who visited here two weeks ago with Mrs. Grant's brother, C. A. Riddle, and family, returned here last Sunday from Newport, where they spent several days, and remained until Wednesday morning, when they departed for their home at Riddle, Ore. Mr. Grant is president of the Riddle State bank.

W. H. Woodworth, president of the First National Bank, returned Monday morning from an extended trip to the middle west. He was accompanied on his return by his mother, Mrs. C. C. Woodworth, who will visit here until about the first of October. Mr. Woodworth visited at Chicago and Sterling, Illinois, and at Hutchinson, Kansas, which is the home of his mother.

William Arthur White and family motored from Yakima arriving at Newberg on the 8th, and are visiting with his mother, Mrs. Mary U. White, and his sisters, Mrs. Thomas E. Miles and Mrs. Spencer W. Kentner. He says this country looks fine considering the drought. They have irrigation at Yakima and fruit, crops, etc., are immense. They think the Columbia highway perfectly grand.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Blaylock and family came up from Tigard Friday of last week for a day's visit at the Chester A. Dimond home. Mr. Blaylock and Mr. Dimond were roommates at Willamette University some 12 years ago. Mr. Blaylock has a position in the Seattle schools now and they have been visiting Mrs. Blaylock's mother at Tigard since the summer school session closed at O. A. C.

The Berrian band went to Portland last Sunday afternoon as scheduled and played with the I. O. O. F. band of Portland in a concert at the Peninsula park. Quite a good many of the local band men were unable to go for lack of conveyances and because of previous engagements but the combined bands made a good showing and there was a large crowd in attendance to hear the concert which was a splendid success.

Rebekahs and their families, numbering 57, gathered at the city park last Monday evening for the annual picnic. The occasion happened to fall on the anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Eckerson's wedding and so that event was also celebrated. Mrs. W. W. Nelson composed and read a poem fitting the occasion and presented the Eckersons with a set of cups and saucers. According to this poem, which space will not permit us to publish, the Eckersons were married in 1879 in Michigan.

The W. C. T. U. will meet on August 23 at the Baptist church for an all day session to make quilts for the children's farm home. Bring lunch. A half hour in the afternoon will be given to the study of law enforcement. The lessons are very interesting and instructive. We find how very little we know on this subject as we study the book. Anyone wishing to give towels, clothing, fruit, or anything the farm home can use are invited to do so. See Mrs. Eleanor Jeffries, 800 North street. Mrs. Mary E. C. Scott, secretary.

The Twentieth Century groceries of which there are now 21, held their first picnic at Crystal Lake park on Wednesday of this week. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Haas, managers of the Twentieth Century store in Newberg, closed the local store and also attended the picnic. The Twentieth Century stores are located at strategic points in and around Portland and are run by the International Sales & Produce company of which Ross McIntyre of Portland is president. The latest addition to their chain of groceries is a second store at Oregon City.

Chas. B. Wilson was over from McMinnville last Thursday on a business trip.

Mrs. Vasco Cather, nee Leila Diedericks, is in Newberg visiting her mother, Mrs. Cora Diedericks.

R. G. Miller, who has been living at Dundee, will occupy a house at the corner of Second and Center streets.

Bob Brown who has been working near Dallas, returned home last Friday night for an over-Sunday visit with his folks.

Mrs. Elsie Payne and children of Hillsboro came over Monday evening for a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Douthitt.

Mrs. Eva Hummer Hull, and her sister, Mrs. Foster, who is spending the summer with her here, departed for Astoria last Saturday to spend several days.

The Newberg Motor Co. report the following sales the past week: C. S. Hullin a new touring car; Kenneth Kinney a touring and J. L. Van Blaricom a delivery car; and George Trunk a tractor.

A. P. Patten, representing the extension division of the United Y. M. C. A. schools, has been working in Newberg for several days soliciting the young men of this territory to take up correspondence courses.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Fendall came over from Forest Grove last Thursday. Mr. Fendall is taking a week's vacation from his hardware business and is attending buyers' week events in Portland, while Mrs. Fendall is visiting her mother, Mrs. Gardner, at this place.

Professor William Johnson and wife of Indianapolis, Indiana, were here on a visit last week. Mr. Johnson was formerly a member of the Pacific College faculty and spent one night with President Pennington, and later visited with his uncle, Elwood Johnson, at Chehalis Center.

R. C. Dale, a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morley, has been visiting them for a couple of weeks. Mr. Dale's home is at Kelso, Washington, but he has been running a confectionery store at Ocean Park for some time. The Morleys expect to take him up to Kelso next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Cline and little daughter, accompanied by two of Mrs. Cline's sisters, visited the Chester A. Dimond family here last Thursday. The Clines live at Fallon, Nevada, and were friends of the Dimonds at that place. They were enroute to the Rainier national park for a short vacation trip.

Rev. R. E. Myers of Woodburn came over last Friday and took his daughter, Mrs. Earl Pinney and her two children to Woodburn to visit them and an uncle, A. J. Stout of Hutchinson, Kansas, who is visiting there while on his way to the fire chiefs' convention at San Francisco. Mrs. Pinney expected to be away for about a week.

The Lafayette Mineral Springs hotel, bath house and engine house were completely destroyed by fire last Thursday noon. Some of the fixtures in the bath house were saved but the hotel was a complete loss. The fire is said to have originated in the upper part of the hotel. The dance hall and two cottages were not damaged. Dr. Brown had the place under lease.

Miss Elizabeth Skipworth returned to her home in Portland Sunday after having spent her two weeks' vacation with Mrs. Ralph G. Otis. While here she accompanied the Otis family to Seaside where they spent a week. Miss Skipworth has a responsible position with Lipman, Wolfe & Co., being head of the fancy work department, and she makes her home with her parents. Her father is pastor of the Woodstock Methodist church.

Mrs. William Clemmens entertained ten lady friends as a benefit party for the women's foreign missionary society of the M. E. church at her home on Hancock street Tuesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in conversation and sewing and refreshments consisting of sandwiches, salad, cake and coffee were served by the hostess. Those present were: Mesdames Boggers, Gould, Ed Klenie, U. S. G. Miller, Alice McNay, M. J. Nash, Lois Swart, J. H. Sherlock, Sr., Mrs. G. E. Klenie and Chester A. Dimond. The ten guests will unite in giving a joint party at the church next Tuesday afternoon to which all ladies are invited. A charge of 25c will be made for this affair.

Glasses Are Elevators

A pair of our glasses for your close work is like an elevator for the top floor.

You may read and do your close work with absolute comfort when properly fitted with our double vision glasses.

C. A. Morris

THE JEWELER-OPTICIAN

We Carry Everything Electrical

For the home, factory and business—lamps, lamp socket devices, motors, fans, ranges, washing machines, wiring materials, at prices that are right. HOUSE WIRING A SPECIALTY. Call or write us at Newberg. It is our aim to give service. If we can be of service to you in designing your house wiring, motor wiring, or anything appertaining to the electrical industry, we shall be pleased to give you the benefit of our experience.

Yamhill Electric Company

"It Serves You Right"

Mrs. W. E. Paxson returned Wednesday from Albany where she visited with the Frank Taylor family.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moore went to Pacific City last Tuesday morning for an outing and expect to return Monday.

Mrs. J. D. Gordon entertained the past matrons club, Eastern Star, Tuesday afternoon at her home on Fifth street. The guest of honor was Mrs. Emma Gordon of San Jose, Calif. Delicious refreshments were served.

William Perkins has rented his place on Villa road to Mr. Bates for a year and will leave about the first of October for Globe, Arizona, to be with his son, Harry. Mr. Bates has been living on the old Otis place just east of the highway bridge.

Dr. Record of Sherwood had a brand new Ford coupe stolen from a garage in Sherwood Wednesday night. Twenty dollars cash was also taken from the garage at the same time. Dr. Record called up the local officers to have an eye out for the car, giving them a description of it.

Miss Henrietta Walsh arrived here Monday of last week, returning from a trip to California, and spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. M. G. Elliott. On Tuesday Miss Walsh and Mrs. Elliott left for Seattle where Mrs. Elliott will spend about two weeks with her parents, returning about September 1, when Mr. Elliott takes up his boys' work at Salem.

Wesley Wire went to Portland Wednesday evening to join his brother, Frank, on a trip to Douglas county for hunting.

A. D. Rose and wife and daughter of Bozeman, Montana, arrived here Wednesday evening for a visit with Mrs. Rose's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Millard. They are on their way to California.

Fred Strong, who was injured by a shock from a high power wire and fell from a ladder, remains in a semi-conscious condition with little change. It is thought there may be a clot on the brain which it will take time to absorb.

Mrs. Fred Holcomb and children came over from Woodburn last Sunday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McNay, and sister, Mrs. Walter Bartlett. Mr. Holcomb expects to come over Sunday and take the family back with him.

A letter from F. E. Gray to the Graphic states that he has taken the management of the Sterling Shoe company in Portland at 112 Fourth street. He accepted the position on June 15 and says that the business has more than doubled since that time. He says "The store is across the street from the S. F. electric and I meet people from Newberg nearly every day. Give my regards to all my friends in Newberg. The two years I spent in Newberg were a pleasure and I will never forget the many friends I have there." Mr. Gray was with the Miller Mercantile company here.

W. H. WOODWORTH, President R. P. GILL, Cashier A. R. MILLS, Vice Pres.

First National Bank of Newberg

Foreign Exchange Interest on Time Deposits

Domestic Exchange Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent

Puretest Household Drugs

Always of the highest quality made safe for you. In neat air tight containers, assuring a clean, potent product. Purity insured by rigid test. Insist on "Puretest." Safeguard the family medicine chest with the "Puretest" label. Mothers have confidence in "Puretest" household remedies. "Puretest" has revolutionized the drug business—an advance in the method of handling ordinary commodities for home use. We have a complete line of the "Puretest" drugs and at prices as low as the old style of buying them.

SEE OUR WINDOWS THIS WEEK

Lynn B. Ferguson

PRESCRIPTION DRUGGIST

The Rexall Store

302 First Street Black 106 Newberg, Oregon