FERNWOOD

Mrs. H. N. Baker visited at Ladd Hill Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. George U. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wohlgenuth are proud parents of an eight and a half pound son born Saturday, August 19.

Earnest Brouillette from Seattle, Wash., visited over the week end with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Brouillette.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wilson and Clarence Davis, all from Portland, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Cox.

Miss Esther Roberts, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Grover Livengood, left Sunday for her home in Prosser, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Salvadge returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Brouillette Sunday evening after spending the week end at Pacific City.

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Bryant and children are spending the week in Clatskanie, near Astoria, with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Van. Mrs. Van is a sister of Mrs. Bryant.

Otto Werth and little son, Adrian from Bandon, Oregon, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gertman a few days last week. Mr. Werth is a brother of Mrs. Gertman.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker have traded their Briscoe for a Hupmobile and are leaving about the first of September for California where they will stay for two or three years.

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Brouillette, with T. L. Cummings and family, Mrs. Wesley Boyes and family from Newberg, motored to Portland Sunday as dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. Blake.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Powell and daughter, Effie, with R. P. Gill and nephew, Paul Godeon, from Newberg, left early Sunday morning for Seaside, where they expect to remain for at least two weeks.

LAD HILL

Mrs. Joe Roberts and Miss Pearl Roberts called on Mrs. C. M. Kiser Monday.

Chris Ives and family and J. A. Parrott and family went to the coast this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith and Donald Ward and Tom Parrish and Earl Parrish went to the coast Tuesday.

Mrs. B. H. McManigal was splitting some small pieces of wood and cut the end of her front finger and the thumb off.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dahlgren of Portland visited several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Case. They returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kersey and three children and Mrs. H. N. Baker and son, Bub, all of Fernwood visited at the home of George W. Smith Sunday.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Kiser were R. O. Bristow and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sauter and baby, and Miss Marie Bristow and Oral Winters.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tautfest and daughters, Mabel, Hazel and Hilda, and son, Russell, were Sunday visitors at the home of Will Smith. The Misses Hazel and Hilda stayed over to spend a week with their aunt, Mrs. Will Smith.

Mat Kiser finished threshing the fall grain for his neighbors and pulled his machine home to thresh his grain that was in the shock. George and Will Smith, Roy Kramien and Percy Kiser each took a few loads of spring grain there to have it threshed at the same time.

The best yield of grain that we have heard of so far was from a two acre piece of wheat of Andy Johnson's that went 36 bushels to the acre. E. Struve had a piece that went 32 bushels. The average for wheat was about 25 and for oats 30 bushels. This was all fall grain. The spring grain was light.

REX

Rev. Chas. Whitlock gave the message at the Friends church last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Wiley were at the campmeeting at Middleton Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wright and Ruth Gridley spent Sunday at the home of Frank Gustin.

Miss Esther Gertis and Martha Green from Portland came Saturday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strait. They returned home Sunday evening.

The school board is having the school house repaired. They are shingling a part of the roof and enclosing the bellry. Mr. John Illig is doing the work.

Jas. Newman stopped last Thursday to spend the day with his daughter and family on his way to his home in Modesto, California. He had just returned from a visit at his daughter's, Mrs. Chas. Kennell, at Lewiston, Idaho. Mr. Chas. Kennell accompanied him.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brickley and children and Mae Krietzler from Portland, while enroute home from the coast last Saturday stopped over Sunday with Mrs. Brickley's parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strait. Mr.

Brickley's auto gave them so much trouble that they decided to stop and repair it. They returned Monday.

Mrs. F. I. Eves entertained at her home this week Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and daughter of Portland, who are putting on a musical play at the hall. The troupe, though only three in number, surely are giving wonderful entertainments, mostly music, with some plays. They have twenty-six different instruments and among the most wonderful instruments played were the water glasses, which Mr. and Mrs. Cooper play together. They play different instruments every evening. We hope to have a full house each evening and assure a good entertainment.

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN

Mr. Jones was a Newberg visitor Saturday.

Mervin Whitmore and family have been vacationing at the beach.

Mrs. George Maynard was a Wednesday afternoon caller at Henry Versteeg's.

Floyd Hoffman and family have been away some time, taking in the salt air at the ocean.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. McDonald spent the week end at Sandy, visiting with relatives and friends.

Elmer Whitmore is buying beef cattle on the Modoc and butchering them for market in town.

Mrs. C. E. Skelton and baby Virginia, have been quite sick the past week with some form of throat trouble.

Henry Versteeg and neighbors were busy Wednesday stacking his grain and getting ready for threshers this week.

The Jerome Buzan house is blossoming out with a new front porch and it looks fine. Mr. Maynard is helping to build it.

Mrs. L. V. Hulit and children from Portland are visiting this week at the home of her daughter, Olive Wohlschlegel and family.

E. C. Wohlschlegel got his grain threshed Tuesday and they are all happy over having it done and over such a good yield which was better than they expected.

Mr. Louis Finnigan was circulating a petition Friday with the object of having some new territory taken into the Laurel Heights school from which two scholars attend school, and the John Davis home, from which one scholar attends is effected.

What we like about the Graphic is the way the different parts are classified. You always know that want ads will be with the want ads and not in the personal news or real estate transfers. We have heard quite a few people speak of this in regard to the Graphic. What do you like best about the Graphic? We think it would be nice to get different people's opinions.

SUNNYCREST

The prunes are getting the "blues" yet everyone seems happy about it.

Lester Hanna was one of the hikers with his Sunday school class last week.

Miss Goldia Nolan was a home visitor last Thursday and attended the Ladies Club meeting at the Alpaugh home.

Mrs. Al. Namitz was hostess to several friends and relatives last Sunday. Those enjoying one of Mrs. Namitz's famous Sunday dinners were: Mr. and Mrs. Heacock and family from Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Namitz, Jim Namitz and a friend from Portland.

That law of nature whereby all moving objects tend to follow a straight line, came nearly by the undoing of one young man last Sunday. The moving object was an auto, the straight line it tended to follow led across a ditch and into a grain field. At the present writing he nearly has the wheels gathered together.

Make known your wants through a Graphic classified.

DUNDEE

Jesse Morris is enjoying a visit with his brother from Tillamook.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wittich and family spent Tuesday evening with Ed Billich, Sr. and family.
