

Local and Personal News

Mrs. U. S. G. Miller made a trip to Portland last Friday.

Mrs. C. M. Collins went to McMinnville Saturday on a short business trip.

Kenneth Miller of Portland is visiting Claude Cummings, Jr. this week.

Mrs. L. I. Kelly and daughter, Grace, went to Portland Saturday morning for the day.

Mrs. Chas. Shires was a Portland passenger last Saturday morning, returning home the same evening.

Miss Geraldine Russell returned Monday from a two weeks' visit with Mrs. May Thornton at Rockaway beach.

J. S. Graves has traded his 40 acres at Chehalis Center to Fred Cooley for his 170 acre ranch at Council, Idaho.

Mrs. Mable Hill left last Saturday for Anacortes, Washington, for a visit with Mrs. Moore who was a sister of the late I. W. Hill.

Mrs. Jean Masters, who has been visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Archie McCrea, returned to her home in Marshfield on Tuesday.

Lucille Davis returned to her home at Middleton last Saturday after a two weeks' visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. E. Ramey.

Rollie Brown left Thursday morning for his home near Dallas, after a few days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brown.

Dr. and Mrs. VanValin and son, Herbert, and Miss Beatrice Davis and George McGee went to Pacific City last Sunday for the day.

A. Barr and wife of Tracy, California, arrived here last Friday morning for a visit with Mr. Barr's sister, Mrs. Chas. Ryan, and family.

Miss Isabelle Lingenfelter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lingenfelter of this city, is now employed in a music store at Spokane, Washington.

Miss Helen Sierken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sierken, left for Portland last Friday morning after spending some time with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. James Clemenson, Mrs. James G. Burness, Miss Richardson and Ted Clemenson of Portland were Sunday visitors at the E. L. Evans home.

Mrs. Ralph McCauley and children of East St. Johns came up last Saturday morning for a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Levi McCauley. She is a daughter-in-law of the late.

Mrs. Esther Price and daughter, Miss Minerva Price, of Tacoma, Washington, came down Monday for a week's visit at the home of Mrs. Price's mother, Mrs. S. B. Dodge, Sr.

C. S. Hull is advertising his household goods for sale at public auction in this issue of the Graphic and expects to leave with his wife some time next week for southern California.

W. J. Turnidge of the Imperial hotel returned Wednesday from a business trip which took him as far as Enterprise in eastern Oregon. Mr. Turnidge had been away since Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davis and two children of Jefferson were Newberg visitors last Friday evening at the Frank Cummings home. Mrs. Davis will be known to many Newberg people as Miss Mable Blalock.

D. C. Crider, of the Dallas Mercantile Co., accompanied by Mrs. Crider, daughter, Alice, and friend, Miss Jackson, motored down to Newberg and spent Sunday with cousins, Mrs. Bloom and Mrs. Chrisman.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Slyter and family and niece, Miss Adelaide Everest left Monday morning for Hesper, Oregon, where they will visit some of Mrs. Slyter's relatives and the men folks will go on a hunting trip.

Mrs. W. H. Shaw and Mrs. L. R. Graham returned Tuesday from Portland where they went on the previous Friday. They attended the funeral of the late Claude May, who was drowned in the surf at Seaside last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Blalock and little daughter, Lois, came up from Tigard last Sunday evening for a short visit with friends here. They expect to return to their home at Seattle, Washington, the latter part of this week.

Mrs. U. S. G. Miller and Mable Miller went to Portland Monday.

Billy Brazeau of the Music Box was a Portland visitor on Monday of this week.

U. S. Bryant of the Fernwood district returned home Wednesday from a trip to Seaside.

F. D. Warner's house, located at Home Acres, is nearly completed and ready for occupancy.

Mrs. Minnie Owen returned home Tuesday from Portland where she spent a week visiting relatives.

May Willis went to McMinnville last Saturday to visit for several days with Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker.

Miss Helen E. Brown of Portland is visiting her cousins, Euphemia Boyes and Thelma Cummings, this week.

Mrs. Wm. Hammett and children went to Portland last Saturday morning to spend the week end with relatives there.

Mrs. Zella Linton has returned from a two months' visit with her sister, Mrs. J. F. Steinbeck, at Lagrande, Oregon.

Maynard Leavitt and wife and son, Bobbie, from Eugene were week end visitors at Mr. Leavitt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Leavitt.

Mrs. Dave Burns returned from the coast last Friday and left on Saturday for Heppner for a two weeks' visit with her sister.

Mrs. Floyd Bilyeu and children, Helen Margaret and Billy, returned to Newberg Friday from Salem where they had been visiting relatives.

Mrs. L. Mayer returned to Portland last Saturday after having visited since Tuesday of last week with her brother, John Reed, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Fuchs and three children, and Alfred Eynes and two children of Portland, went to Pacific City Monday on a two weeks' outing.

Miss Mable Miller underwent an operation for gallitis at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland on Tuesday of this week. At this time she is getting along nicely.

The regular morning and evening services at the Baptist church will be conducted next Sunday by Dr. G. H. Young of Portland. The weekly services will be held as usual.

Jack Baker and Bob Whitbeck, of the candy making departments of Lang & Co., motored out and spent the week end with the latter's mother, Mrs. Preston of Second street.

The Southern Pacific Company has pensioned 1,775 employees to date, of which $34 are living, and has paid out $5,296,356 in pensions since the pension system was adopted in 1903.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Ehrlich and two small children, of Newberg, drove to Yamhill Sunday and visited a few hours at the home of Mr. Ehrlich's aunt, Mrs. C. W. VanWormer. —Yamhill Record.

The meeting of the city council which will be held in the council chambers tonight (Thursday) promises to be another lively session as the matter of paving Fifth and Sixth streets will be discussed further.

Dr. Elton B. Jones will open an office in the rear of the Gem Barber shop, the entrance to which is between the barber shop and the 20th Century Grocery, about Sept. 1st. Dr. Jones is a chiropractic physician.

State Forester F. A. Elliott and wife of Salem, and Orange Elliott, wife and daughter, Kathryn, of Newberg, accompanied by their niece, Miss Ruth Clark of Georgetown, Ill., spent the week-end at Gearhart, Seaside and Cannon Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. L. Chamberlain left last Saturday morning for Cascadia where they will join the C. H. Nichols family in an outing. The Nichols family has been there for about a week. The Chamberlains expect to remain for a few days.

E. F. Hoskins and family came up from Portland last Friday. Mr. Hoskins will have charge of the resurfacing of the highway between here and the Multnomah county line and expects to locate his family here if he can find a place to house them.

J. J. Thurston and wife of Senelon Falls, Ontario, Canada, arrived here Wednesday morning for a visit with the former's uncle, R. M. Thurston and family. Mr. Thurston is an M. P., which in this case means Member of Parliament rather than Mounted Police.

Elmer Little and wife of Moscow, Idaho, have located here, having rented the property at the corner of Fifth and Willamette streets. Mr. Little reports conditions in Idaho as being rather bad in view of a long hard winter and terrible drought during the past summer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Strich and three children, Miss Leona Bauer, Mr. and Mrs. George W. James and two children, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gast and four children and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hilbert and daughter autoed to Pacific City last Saturday afternoon, returning home Sunday evening.

Last week at Newport we met Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cooper whom many of the older citizens of Newberg undoubtedly remember. Mr. Cooper conducted a meat market and Mrs. Cooper ran a bakery. Their place of business was on First street at or near the present Newberg bakery.

The Coopers left Newberg in 1905 and Mr. Cooper is now a city mail carrier in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cummins returned last Thursday from a trip to Jefferson, where they visited Mr. Cummins' uncle, Webb Cummins, and then went on to Albany for another visit with friends there. They report having seen thirty-seven California cars in thirty-seven miles travel on the east side highway, which shows that California tourists are visiting Oregon in large numbers this season.

Ira Venable and family left Tuesday for a week's outing at Newport. Miss Sadie Chrisman of 400 west 5th street spent several days last week in Portland.

Jack Curry has purchased a sedan and is now advertising his Dodge touring car for sale.

A Mr. Hall of Sherwood was a Newberg visitor on Monday taking treatments from Marion George.

N. P. Nelson and family and D. P. Shaw and family returned last Thursday from an outing at Pacific City.

Phillip Graft is building a very attractive bungalow at Home Acres and is having an electric line extended to it.

Ed Klenle and family and Milton Klenle made a trip up the Columbia river highway last Sunday, going as far as Bonnaville.

Henry Keeney and wife expect to leave the first of next week for Hood River, where Mr. Keeney has a position in the high school.

Meredith Moore left Saturday morning for Corvallis on a two weeks' visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Richmond.

L. M. Hesse of Beaverton, who was a candidate for the legislature in Washington county, was a guest at the F. R. Russell home Sunday.

Mrs. A. P. Sutton, Miss Sarah Sutton and Mr. and Mrs. T. I. Sutton drove over to Scotts Mills last Friday and spent the day with a friend.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Miller and G. O. Miller of Portland were Newberg visitors on last Friday. G. O. Miller is president of the Miller Mercantile Co. chain of stores.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Pacific College will meet next Saturday afternoon at half past two at the home of Mrs. L. M. Parker. All members are urgently invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Clemenson, son and daughter, arrived here Saturday evening from Didsbury, Alberta. They are staying with Mr. Clemenson's sister, Mrs. E. L. Evans. They expect to make their home in Newberg.

The Newberg Motor Co. has another fine window, the work of Lester A. Forkner, this week. The background is made up of blue and white crepe paper in streamer effect and their sundries are displayed under a canopy of the same in very effective manner.

H. C. Candeaux and George Avert, workers at the sawmill, left Saturday night after nine o'clock on a hunting trip west of Dallas. They report that by eight o'clock Sunday morning they had an eight point buck deer hung up. That is certainly showing some speed.

A birthday party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Deaton on Wednesday afternoon in honor of the sixth birthday of little Myrl Deaton. Besides the little host, the following were present: Gordon and Maxine Miller, Douglas Sharp, John Allen Dimond, and Margaret Fitzpatrick.

Rev. and Mrs. George H. Lee went to Albany Saturday morning. Rev. Lee preached at the first Presbyterian church in Albany Sunday and they expected to visit with Rev. Lee's brother, Wallace, at that place for several days. Rev. Lee is taking a two weeks' vacation from his church duties here.

Mrs. Floyd Bilyeu, son and daughter, who have spent the summer in Newberg at the home of William Perkins left today (Thursday) for Portland where they will spend a week with relatives and will then go to Pasadena, California where they will reside. Mrs. Bilyeu is a daughter of Mr. Perkins.

Mrs. Amy E. Hall returned Tuesday from a visit at Toledo and Siletz. Miss Maxine Hall returned with her for a visit in Newberg. While in Toledo there was another Miss Maxine Hall living next door to the one who is visiting here and who was no relation to her, which is quite some coincidence.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bissett of Marysville, Cal., came up for a two weeks' visit with Mrs. Bissett's father, D. G. Gilbert of this place. Mrs. Bissett will be known better as Miss Hulda Gilbert. Mr. Bissett has been teaching in the high school at Marysville for the past three years and will start on his fourth year this fall.

Dr. S. W. Gray, who had been visiting his sister, Mrs. N. D. Haskins for some time, and who had been quite sick while here, died at Spokane, Washington, on Tuesday while enroute to Joliet, Illinois, where he was going to be with other relatives. The deceased was 74 years old and his death was pronounced due to heart trouble.

Mrs. Levi Eldridge and daughter, Ida, of Pilot Rock, Oregon, came to Newberg from Canon Beach, where they had been on an outing, Wednesday morning with the intention of visiting for a few days with Mrs. Eldridge's brother, T. H. Thorne. However, they received a letter from Pilot Rock saying that another daughter was sick and had to leave that same afternoon.

E. S. Greer brought a small stem of Chaverte walnuts to this office which contained fifty nuts in six clusters. One cluster has sixteen nuts in it. Mr. Greer says that he found one cluster which had 26 nuts in it. This tree is fourteen years old and the nuts are used principally by confectioners. Mr. Greer also brought in a fig grown by George H. Greer which weighed four ounces and which shows that even these more tropical fruits can be grown here.

A band of gypsies drove into town Wednesday and started to unload and scatter out through the business section of the city. They little knew the feeling of our city marshal, Claude Ferguson, toward their clan or they would never have taken the trouble to stop, for as soon as it was humanly possible they were rounded up and ordered to move on and the marshal saw to it that they went nor tarried in the going. They were headed south and said they were bound for Sacramento. There were five autos in the party.

Frank Shires has accepted a position as brakeman with the S. P. Co. J. C. Porter went over to his ranch at Beaver near the coast last Sunday.

County Clerk, or is it Postmaster, Chas. B. Wilson was a Newberg visitor last Saturday.

Miss Zenith Eames returned the first of the week from an extended visit in eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberson and son of Port Orford spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Alice Haworth.

Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Stannard have been visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Russell Parker.

Mrs. Earl Pinney, who has been visiting her parents at Woodburn for a couple of weeks, returned home on Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. Emma Gray returned Thursday from Fairview, Montana, where she had been on a two weeks' visit with her son and brother-in-law.

Roland and Rowley Dart, grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dart, returned to their home in Portland last Sunday after a week's visit here.

F. M. Blanchard and wife, who have been at Camp Sherman, in central Oregon for some months, came over Wednesday of this week for a few days' visit.

President Levi T. Pennington of Pacific College gave an address on Peace and Disarmament at the session of Salem Quarterly Meeting at Scotts Mills, last Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Curtis and son, Joe, returned Tuesday from a two weeks' visit with relatives at White Bluff, Wash. She was accompanied by her niece, Miss Mary Willis, who will remain for an indefinite visit.

Night marshal Wesley Boyes arrested a Portland auto party one night this week on a charge of reckless driving, as the driver had his arm around the lady who was occupying the seat with him. City Recorder Smith administered a fine of $5.

The insurance adjusters were here on Tuesday making adjustment of the loss incurred by the fire at the Motor Inn garage. This insurance was carried through the firm of W. E. White & Co. and it is only fair to say that Messrs. Hullit and Sutherland are well pleased with the adjustment made.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gass and daughter, Miss Kathlene, of Victoria, B. C. and Mr. and Mrs. William Grayson of Moosejaw, Saskatchewan, Canada arrived here Tuesday and are guests at the M. McDonald home at Third and River streets, for a few days. Miss Gass was at one time a student at Pacific College.

A number of the young Friends of Newberg are attending the Young Friends' Conference of Oregon Yearly Meeting which is in session at Bar View. President Levi T. Pennington of Pacific College is one of the principal speakers, and in addition to a daily class hour, delivered the conference message Wednesday morning.

Miss Leona C. Jackson returned to Newberg Monday from California where she attended summer school working for credits and doing assistant teaching at Berkeley University. At the close of the summer session she toured the southern part of California, going as far south as Long Beach. She returned home by way of Crater Lake.

Mr. Arentz of the Oregon Contract Co. states that they will finish the paving of River street Saturday. They commenced the actual paving on Monday, August 14 and paved the entire street in two weeks time. Of course it will take thirty days for this paving to cure, but some of it will be ready for use in less than thirty days from this time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Otis, Mrs. A. T. Behnke and little daughter, Bonniere, and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moore left for Seaside Monday, August 14 at 5:30 a. m. for an indefinite stay. They reached Seaside at 1:30 p. m. and at 6 p. m. were snugly settled in one of the "Hayes" cottages and seated at a table groaning with good things to eat and appetites in shape to do justice to the food. Had quite a rain Monday night but all was clear before noon Tuesday and weather ideal since. There are quite a number here from Newberg. Great crowds on the beach every day. Two Portland men were drowned in the surf Tuesday morning. One body was not found till Friday morning. Six have lost their lives here this season.

BE HONEST WITH YOUR EYES

Your eyes serve you well. They are worth thousands of dollars to you.

When they are in distress and need help, do not be stingy with them.

Give them the best service money can buy. That kind of service is here.

C. A. Morris

THE JEWELER - OPTICIAN

We Carry Everything Electrical

For the home, factory and business—lamps, lamp socket devices, motors, fans, ranges, washing machines, wiring materials, at prices that are right. HOUSE WIRING A SPECIALTY. Call or write us at Newberg. It is our aim to give service. If we can be of service to you in designing your house wiring, motor wiring, or anything appertaining to the electrical industry, we shall be pleased to give you the benefit of our experience.

Yamhill Electric Company

"It Serves You Right"

X-RAY

A complete and up to the minute X-Ray machine and laboratory for any kind of examination, diagnosis and treatment. Machine is powerful enough to make examination of any part of the body. Cancer and other skin diseases treated. Expert plate reading and interpretation. DR. S. M. WENDT, Newberg, Or.

Mrs. E. E. Blalock of 315 Sheridan street presented the Graphic with a very beautiful bouquet of dahlias. Mrs. Blalock has 600 plants of these beautiful flowers at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Utley, Floyd Utley and Miss Marie Utley, son and daughter, all of Portland visited last Thursday at the A. J. Morgan home on Villa road. On Sunday afternoon the Morgans had as visitors from Portland Mr. and Mrs. Henry McMahon and Mr. McMahon's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Morris, accompanied by the Misses Evah and Mary Fisher and Miss Katherine Pettingill left the first of the week on a trip to Crater Lake, expecting to be gone for a week or ten days. They also expect to visit the Josephine caves and the redwood groves of northern California.

The Friends Sunday school held a picnic at the church grounds on Tuesday. The affair commenced at 3 p. m. and lasted throughout the evening. A picnic dinner at the supper hour and a bonfire throughout the evening as well as a generous supply of ice cream proved to be a very enjoyable affair. There were about 200 present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. White, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wright of Portland and Miss Gladys Lee of Goldendale, Washington, returned from Seaside on Monday evening.

Miss Ruth Clark of Georgetown, Ill., who has been attending summer school at Berkeley, Cal., and who spent the past ten days visiting her uncles, Orange and W. H. Elliott, left Monday for LaGrande, where she will visit her aunt, Mrs. W. S. Parker, before returning to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Dodge, Jr., and son, came down from Corvallis, where Mr. Dodge is attending O. A. C., on Tuesday for a week's visit with Mr. Dodge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Dodge, Sr., of Morton street. They were accompanied by Miss Inez Dodge, who has been visiting her brother during her vacation from the local telephone office.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Charles of Silver Lake, Oregon, arrived here on Monday for a visit. Mrs. Charles expects to undergo an operation at Portland while here and it was for this that they came over. Mr. Charles has been appointed postmaster at Silver Lake and is filling this position in addition to his work as editor and publisher of the Silver Lake Leader.

W. H. WOODWORTH, President R. P. GILL, Cashier A. R. MILLS, Vice Pres.

First National Bank of Newberg

Foreign Exchange Interest Time Deposits Domestic Exchange Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent

Stationery Just a Little Different

MORE MODISH MORE DISTINCTIVE MORE POLITE

LORD BALTIMORE CASCADE SYMPHONY LAWN

TABLETS - POUND PAPER - BY THE BOX

TINTS OR PLAIN WHITE

Prices Consistent With Quality

Visit our Stationery Department and See the Extensive Line of Items we Offer for Correct Correspondence

Lynn B. Ferguson

PRESCRIPTION DRUGGIST

The Rexall Store

302 First Street Black 106 Newberg, Oregon

Newberg Packing & Produce Co.

Home of quality and quantity meats

ALL WEEK BEEF SPECIALS

Round steak, per lb.20c
Loin steak, per lb.18c
T Bone steak, per lb.18c
Rib steak, per lb.18c
Hamburger steak, per lb. . . .15c

LUNCH MEATS

Best weiners15c
Old fashioned head cheese .15c
Bologna15c
Minced ham20c
Dried beef60c
Boiled ham55c
Kippered salmon30c
Pickled tongue20c
Pickled pigs feet12 1/2c
Smoked spare ribs10c
Smoked jowls16c
Salt pork15c

Our Hams and Bacon are sugar cured and well smoked at whole sale prices.