Miss Esther Wilson from Manett, Wash., who has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Garland, for two weeks, returned to her home on Monday.

Mrs. Hattie Dyer and daughter of Springfield attended Sunday school and church at the Rex Friends church last Sunday. Mrs. Dyer gave the message.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Mills of Springfield were at the home of her father N. L. Wiley, last Sunday, attending a birthday dinner, it being Mrs. Wiley's birthday.

Marvin and Robert Garland, Mrs. Ewart Garland and children and Mae and Esther Wiley autoed to Salem on Friday of last week. They report considerable tire trouble.

There will be an ice cream social given at the community hall on Friday evening of this week and a special surprise program is being prepared. Everybody is invited to attend.

The musical plays given at the hall last week ended on Friday evening. The beautiful pictures done in pastel work by Mr. Cooper were drawn by Edwin Schaad and Albert Walters, both of whom greatly appreciate these works of art.

SUNNYCREST

Hop! To the hop yard for several of the neighbors this week.

Mrs. C. A. Crater and sons, Lester and Mack, accompanied their cousin, Mrs. Ross from Newberg to Dallas last Sunday to visit with relatives and friends near that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Maskel paid the home folks a short visit last Sunday. The young folks took their baggage in preparation of beginning housekeeping in their new home.

Several of the neighbors were peach hunters one or two days the first part of the week. As a result there are several jars of that luscious fruit awaiting the cold winter.

Will Gable visited a few days with his brother, Lloyd, and family last week. Mr. Gable has been working at Marshfield for some time but was enroute to Astoria where he expects to work in the future.

Mrs. Charles Koerber and daughter, Nathalia, grandmother and aunt of Mrs. Chas. E. Hubbard, were visitors at the Hubbard home Monday. The Koebers live at Hillsboro, but have been in attendance at the Free Methodist camp meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Schwank and small son from Walla Walla, Wash., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hubbard from Thursday of last week until Monday of this week. Mr. Schwank is a large wheat rancher of the Pendleton district.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobson, who have been visiting at the Graves home, took a few days off and made the trip up the Columbia river by boat. As they are Kansas people they sure saw things to tell the folks back home about. They left the fore part of this week to visit with their son, who lives near Alsea. They expect to leave for Kansas within a short time. On the return they expect to go by way of California and see the wonders of that state before leaving the coast.

WEST CHEHALEM

Edgar Washbond was a Sunday visitor of Floyd Shaw.

Mrs. C. W. Smith has recently returned from a visit in Seattle.
