Bert Warner was killed at the sawmill here Thursday at about 10 o'clock when three logs slid off a car unexpectedly and caught him in the chute, carrying his body into the river. Warner and Floyd Rhoads were hooking chains on to some logs that had stuck in the chute preparatory to loosening them and while they were thus engaged, the other they were thus engaged the other they were thus engaged the other than the thing they are the thing that the thing they are the thing they are the thing that they are the thing they are the thing that they are the thing that they are the thing they are the thing that the thing they are the thing that they are the thing they are the thing that the thing they are the thing that the thing they are the thing that the thing the thing that the thing that the thing the thing the thing that the thing the thing t they were thus engaged, the other logs slid off the car and started down. Lester Pike who was at the top, yelled down to them and they started to climb out of the chute. Rhoads climbed out all right and was uninjured but Warner seemed to hesitate as though dazed and looked up at the logs. Of course it was only a matter of a second or so until the logs were upon him and he was crushed beneath them and his body carried down into the river.

After some time, perhaps nearly an hour, the body was recovered and

SISTERS AND ONE DAUGHTER CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Many people have had the honor to celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary and while it is not done so frequently in any one man's life as to become a commonplace occur-rence, yet it is not an unheard of thing in any community. But to celebrate your 40th wedding anniversary at the same time as your sister does hers and to have your daughter celebrate her fifth wedding stance.

Such an event occurred at Springbrated their 40th anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Asa Butler were also celworth.

Besides, all of those above mentioned, there were present on this sion: Mr. and Mrs. John T. Haworth, the former a brother of J. L. Haworth; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Williams, the latter another daughof the Haworths; and Prof. Russell Lewis and wife, Rev. Paul Lew-is and wife and M. Eunice Lewis, give therefore my reasons as fol-

First, the general fund of the city is depleted, and in the proposed improvement of said portion of Fifth street the costs of the improvement of that part thereof adjacent to the park will be assessed the said property and the city has no means to pay the installments and interest as the same become due.

Second, the remonstrances filed by property owners along said portion of said streets and who would have assessments to pay in improvement of said streets. A comparative few of said property owners being really in favor of the improvement.

Third, that said portion of Sixth street has been within the last two years graveled and improved at heavy expense to the property owners, and to take up the gravel placed on said street under said improve-ment will be an absolute loss to the property owners and for which they will receive no adequate return. Further, the improvement of the porexpense to the school district which is maintained by the tax payers, and which district is not financially able to bear such additional burdens.

Fourth, that there are outstanding warrants issued covering improve-ments made in 1921, aggregating ap-proximately $25,000, issued against street improvement funds, and for taken to provide funds to retire the ing. warrants, and the holders of said warrants are demanding their pay. and for the city under like circumstances to incur larger indebtedness and liability without taking action to care for the present pressing demands is not in accordance with good

Fifth, the city is now facing another deficit on account of final installments coming due this year covering improvements bonded and made under the first paving in the city, caused by certain property owners failing to pay their assessments, and under these conditions and while such deficits are facing the city it appears ridiculous that the city shall incur further and unnecessary obligations without ample provisions to care for the indebtedness to be incurred, which will result in several assessments where the assessed value of the property will be less than the improvement

Sixth, there will be additional costs by way of changes and repairs in sewer and water pipes, and as the sewer fund is entirely depleted there is no way to meet said additional expense in connection with the sewer pipe changes but to draw on the general fund for which no provision has been made, and in which there is no funds, and on which fund large amounts have already been drawn to cover other improvements. Seventh, that the costs of excavation of Sixth street is approximate 20 cents per cubic yard larger than it should be for the reason that the dirt is to be hauled over on Fifth street to make a fill for which Sixth street property owners are not lia-Respectfully submitted, S. CITY COUNCIL HELD ROUTINE MEETING TUESDAY EVENING

The city council met Tuesday night of this week as Monday was Labor Day, but although there was a fairly large attendance on the part of the public, there was a complete dearth of fireworks. The meeting was largely taken up with routine matters. The minutes were read and the regular grist of bills was allow-

An order was entered for the place ing of concrete monuments at the corners of the city limits to mark these locations. Street signs which have been ordered placed at the var-ious entrances to the city were dis-cussed and it was decided that the wording on these should read, "City of Newberg, speed limits 20 miles, intersections 12 miles." This is in compliance with the state law.

JOINT BAND CONCERT GIVEN WEDNESDAY EVE

Portland Odd Fellows' Band and the Berrian Band of Newberg Heard Here

LOCAL PEOPLE ALSO PARTICIPATE

"Berriana," New Band Selection by Mr. Hal Campbell, Played Here For the First Time

About two hundred persons attended the joint band concert and entertainment given as a benefit for the Berrians at the new Legion hall The matter of grading west Sher-idan street and North street from Main a short distance beyond Wash-strong and the Berrian band of about the same number, in joint en rendered some very splendid selec-tions and interspersed throughout these there were enough vocal numbers to give the program variety. Mr. Hal Campbell, director of both these bands, is certainly to be congratulated upon his work as direc

> Of course the band does not represent the polish to be obtained w a band is composed of all profession-als, but it does represent something which is not found in the purely pr fessional aggregation — community spirit. Newberg should be mighty proud of her Berrian band and should also feel very grateful to the Portland Odd Fellows band which made the trip to Newberg at their own expense to put on this concert.

The program rendered was as fol-lows: March, "Stars and Stripes Forever" (Sousa), band. Overture, "The Enchantress" Overture, '(Dalby), band.

Vocal solo, "Spring Song," Miss Lola Gore Green. Valse, "Berriana," (Mr. Hal Campbell), band.
Selection, "Daughter of the Regiment," (Donnizetti), band.
Vocal solo, "I Sing With Delight," Bert Miller.

Indian Two-Step. (Storey), band. Cornet solo, "Polka D'Concert" (Rollinson), Harry Gardner, March, "Cyrus the Great" (King),

March, "Sons of Australia" (Lithgow), band. Overture, "Princess of India," (King), band. Vocal solo, Mrs. Georgiana Babcock. Selection, "Faust" (Gounod), band.

Remarks, Dr. Van Valin and Mr. Ray of Portland Odd Fellows. Vocal solo, Miss Evah Hadley.

Trombone Orgy, "Windy Willie" (Losey), band, Selection, "Star Spangled Banner" (Keys), band.

Dr. Van Valin acted as chairman of the evening and introduced the numbers. Time and space does not permit of a discussion of the relative merits of the various numbers and many of the soloists were recalled for encore numbers. One of the features of the band program was the valse, "Berriana," written by Mr. Hal Campbell especially for the Berrians and played for the first time at this entertainment. Mr. Harry Gardner of the Portland Odd Fellow band played a number of solo parts in connection with the band selections and also played a very difficult cornet solo, which he followed with "Sing Me to Sleep" as an encore number. Mr. Gardner is the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Gardner of this city and was himself a Newberg boy. All of the soloists seemed to be in good voice and it would be difficult to say that one or the other was any the better. Mrs. Babcock introduced a violin accompaniment in her encore number, the violin part being taken by Mr. Earl Pinney.

W. W. HOLLINGSWORTH & SON ENLARGES STORE BUILDING

W. W. Hollingsworth & Son have started work on the construction of an addition to their present splendid furniture and undertaking establishmnt on the corner of First and Howard streets. They are going to extend the east wall of the building back 45 feet and thus square up the rear end of their building and eliminating the triangular space at the rear, which was difficult to utilize. Through this addition their chapel, which has often proved too small under present conditions will be more than doubled in size and will accommodate 250 persons. In addition to the chapel on the ground floor, there will be a family room, with an alcove for the casket; a music room, and embalming room and a slumber room. The chapel, and in fact this entire part of the building will be finished in a panelled effect. The upper story will be utilized for the carpet department which has formerly been located on the lower floor, thus giving more space there for the display of furniture. When completed this will make the building 50x149 over all. George Howland has the contract and is pushing the work as rapidly as possible to try to get it completed be-fore the heavy fall rains.
