NEW LEGION BUILDING FITTINGLY DEDICATED

Armistice Day Celebration Was Great Success With Large Crowds on Hand for the Programs

GEORGE WILBUR MADE ADDRESS

Albert Loughridge and Walter Toose Also Made Talks—A Big Dinner Was Served by the Ladies

Armistice Day was a big event in Newberg, combining the regular celebration of this national holiday with the dedication of the new American Legion Community Memorial building. There was a very large crowd in the city for the occasion and everyone seemed to appreciate the efforts which the Legion members and others had made for their entertainment.

The parade was the first thing on the program. At the head of this was the Berrian band following which came the old G. A. R. veterans and then the American Legion squads, following which were automobiles with guests of honor, speakers, etc.

At 10:30 a. m. the dedication exercises occurred at the big auditorium of the new Legion building. The auditorium had been specially seated with new bench seats for this occasion and it was filled to capacity with quite a considerable number having to stand in the rear.

Seated on the platform were Dr. J. S. Rankin, ex-parte commander and chairman of the meeting; State Legion Commander George Wilbur of Hood River; State Legion Chaplain Rev. Frank Jones; State G. A. R. Patriotic Instructor Albert Loughridge of Salem; Hon. Walter L. Toose, Jr., of McMinnville; Local Post Commander Frank Swart and about a dozen war mothers as guests of honor.

The Berrian band played an opening selection after which Chairman Rankin introduced Mr. Wilbur as the first speaker on the program.

Mr. Wilbur acknowledged the honor paid him in inviting him to be present on the occasion of the dedication of Newberg's new Legion memorial building. He said that it is a most wonderful monument—not a monument of bronze but one which has a utility value. He said that it is fitting and proper that the American Legion should be made the custodians of the building. The speaker said that he is glad to stay the hope that the Legion would take up the torch of liberty now being relinquished by the fading ranks of the G. A. R. and bear it through the years as faithfully as had the older veterans.

"What is the Legion?" asked Mr. Wilbur and then proceeded to answer his own question. It is not a lodge; it is not a secret organization; it is not formed for a selfish purpose, but was the natural outgrowth of the celebration of Armistice Day. It was talked in the camps before the boys returned home. Addressing the G. A. R. veterans, the speaker said, "You old gentlemen, who we have loved and revered through all these years, know the value of such an organization." The speaker then spoke of the effect of war upon the men in changing their ideas and bringing them into contact with new ideas and ideals. He said that when the men came home that their one idea was "How can I carry on?"

"The American Legion consists of your sons, your brothers, your husbands and your fathers. It is not a thing apart from the community. It is the biggest thing in Newberg today and it will be the biggest thing in America." Franklin D'Olier, past national commander of the Legion said, "The American Legion is the best insurance policy which the country can have." The speaker asserted that the future of the American Legion is the future of the nation and then went on to prove this statement as follows: There was not a single community but what sent its full quota during the late world war. They sent their best young men. It will only be a matter of a few years until these men will become the men of 45, not 25. Then they will occupy the positions of importance everywhere. Ninety percent of the ex-service men will then have come into the Legion, and thus the Legion will practically be running the United States.

The purpose of the Legion is as broad as the nation itself. It is not formed for selfish interest but for the perpetuation of American ideals. Mr. Wilbur then made an appeal for a spirit of toleration toward the Legion stating that it is an organization of young men and naturally they sometimes make mistakes. Be lenient with them, he urged, until they get older.

The activities of the Legion as a national organization may be divided into four general classes, Mr. Wilbur said. These are: Hospitalization, Rehabilitation, Adjusted Compensation and Americanization. He then took up each one of these and showed what they mean and what is being done along these lines. These four things are going to broaden us.

The Legion will never enter poli-

DEATH OF MRS. GEORGE

Mrs. Marion F. George passed away very suddenly last Monday following a stroke. Mrs. George was 67 years old on the 10th of this month. Funeral services will be held from the Friends church on Saturday at 3 p. m. The obituary will be published next week.

FIREMEN-LEGION FOOTBALL GAME WAS CLOSE

The Legion Team Annexed the Long End of an 8 to 11 Score But Had to Fight for It

The football game between the American Legion and the fire department teams on the Pacific college field last Saturday afternoon was all that had been anticipated. Both teams put up a good fight and it was with great difficulty that the Legion finally managed to pull out winners by the final score of 8 to 0. At that in the last few minutes of play the firemen came very near to scoring a touchdown, which would have brought the score up to 8 to 6.

The teams lined up for the start as follows:

Legion	Firemen
Harold Nichols	LE Garland Hayes
Bill Allan	LT Ole Crabtree
Bill Heater	LQ Zimri Ellis
C. VanBlaricom	C. G. W. Cornelius
Archie Abbill	RG Dale Miller
Bob Forkner	RT Ralph Butt
Brady Elliott	RE Geo. Hodges
Don Crow	QB Bill Sanders
Red Rice	LH V. Harrington
Oswald Beat	FB Frank Harding
G. W. Wells	RH Bert Miller

The following substitutions were made: Firemen, Sims for Ellis; Frank Sitton for Ralph Butt; Otto Sitton for Dale Miller; Chas. Sitton for Frank Sitton; and Omar Gause for Bill Sanders. Legion, George Merton for Bill Heater and Ray Russell for Red Rice and Red Rice for Ray Russell.

In the first quarter the ball sawed back and forth across the field with little gain made by either side but finally the Legion got the ball down toward the goal line and kicked. The ball went over the line and Bill Sanders touched it and then a Legion man fell on it converting it into a safety which counted two points for the Legion.

There was no further scoring until the third quarter. During that time both sides played hard and kept the ball going first one way and then the other, but neither were able to get within striking distance. Finally in the third quarter the firemen had the ball and Ray Russell caught a forward pass and raced with the ball towards the goal. He was tackled almost at the line. It took four downs to force the ball over but it was accomplished and thus the legion scored six more points.

In the last quarter of play the firemen staged a comeback and it looked as though they were going to score but the Legion stiffened finally and recovered the ball and prevented the firemen from making any further progress in the direction of their goal line.

Prof. Jones acted as referee and Prof. Conover as umpire. Russell Parker was head linesman and Ernie Duncan official water carrier. Several players received minor injuries during the game necessitating calling time out. It was a game though and from a spectator's viewpoint was well worth the price of admission.

WHITNEY BOYS CHORUS HELD MEETING TUESDAY EVENING

The Newberg Whitney Boys' chorus has started activities again this year following the long summer vacation period. Work was late in getting under way this year because of the fact that Chas. A. Morris, who so ably directed the chorus last year, found it impossible to take up the strenuous duties again this year. However, a very capable substitute has been found in the person of Mr. P. D. Frost and work started off most auspiciously last Tuesday night with seventy boys present in spite of the fact that no publicity had been given the meeting. Rev. H. E. K. Whitney, father of the movement, came up from Portland for the meeting and reports that a very fine rehearsal was held.

Bertram Miller, one of the boys of the chorus, acted as accompanist on the occasion with great credit to himself. Mr. Whitney says that it is his intention to endeavor to get a local board of directors organized to look after the business end of the local chorus. Mr. Whitney says that since the defeat of the Portland exposition, he thinks that with the aid of the board of directors it will be possible to work out a plan to take the chorus to Philadelphia to attend and participate in their exposition there.

Another rehearsal will be held on next Tuesday night and every Tuesday night thereafter. All boys who desire to be in the chorus are urged to come out to rehearsal and enroll themselves as soon as possible so as not to miss any of the work.

MARY ADEL HAYS OPERA SINGERS TO PRESENT OLD CLASSICS IN COSTUME

The Mary Adel Hays Opera Singers, featuring costumed excerpts from both light and grand opera, as well as many concert classics, will be heard here in recital in the near future. Scenes from "Faust," "Rigoletto," "Carmen," "Il Trovatore," "Martha," and many other old favorites will be presented musically and artistically correct. Miss Hays' position as one of the popular American coloratura artists is secure, and her company sets a distinct forward pace in the standard of Lyceum music.

This company of artists will be at Pacific College in the Lyceum Course next Thursday evening, November 23, at 8 o'clock. Seats are on sale at the college and at the Klenie Music Store. Reservations for the entire course will be made free of charge at the Klenie Music Store Saturday, November 18th.

DUNDEE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION HAS BEEN ORGANIZED

The Dundee Athletic association has met and is making arrangements toward fulfilling Dundee's way of doing things and turning out a winning basketball team this year. The association is thankful that their community has always been so willing to cooperate with it, and it is this spirit that gives them much encouragement for the future. It is the ambition of the organization now to ask the community for money free gratis but to actually earn all they receive and more than that they are going to give the people something absolutely free. A program in the form of a public entertainment is being arranged. For this program the manager has made arrangements for two championship bouts. One a boxing and the other a wrestling affair. It has been only through strenuous efforts that these men have been persuaded to settle their dispute of championship here.

Following the free entertainment there will be given a basket social and general good time. All girls from the age of 3 to 190 are asked to prepare baskets. Newberg and vicinity are cordially invited to join with us at this affair. Watch next week's Graphic for more details concerning this affair. The date is set as Saturday, November 25. Manager Fred Hutchinson tells us that although we have lost two of our letter men from last year, there is ample promising new material to warrant a team that will be able to tear down the bulwarks of most any opposition. He also feels encouraged toward again getting "Osie" Best as coach. "Osie" was the maker of last year's team.

CONVENTION OF CHURCHES OF CHRIST HELD HERE

The convention of Yamhill churches held here last Saturday brought to the town many delegates from outlying points. The women of the local congregation served about 135 with dinner. The day was filled with speeches and business, addresses being delivered by C. E. Swanson of Portland, B. F. Bennett of Silverton, Mrs. C. G. Eason of Portland, H. E. Brink and M. H. Kendall of McMinnville. At the morning session it was voted, in view of the program provided for the community at the Legion hall, to dispense with the evening session and to crowd that part of the program into the afternoon session. Altogether it was acclaimed to be the best convention of the Yamhill county churches held in fifteen years. Sheridan entertains the convention next year.

OBITUARY

The funeral services were conducted in the Church of Christ by Mr. Phillips of Berretta Elizabeth Parrett, who died at Lad Hill on November 13, 1922. The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Riley of Lad Hill, and was born in August, 1886. She was married to James Parrett in May 1904, to which union were born four children, Louis 17, Martha 15, Earl 11, and Lloyd George 5. Besides these children and her husband, she is survived by her parents, three brothers and four sisters.

NEWBERG HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATED ESTACADA 6 TO 0

On Saturday, November 11, Newberg high defeated Estacada high 6 to 0 in one of the hardest fought games of the year on Estacada's field. N. H. S. still has the right to say that no high school team has crossed their goal line this season.

In the first quarter of the game things looked bad for Newberg. Thomas received the kickoff and kicked 40 yards to Estacada, who were downed in their tracks. From then on Estacada had the advantage of the period. The N. H. S. line could not seem to break up their plays. In the second quarter things were somewhat different. N. H. S. decided they wanted a touchdown and they got it. A pass, Thomas to Board, gained fifteen yards around left end. Line plunges by Hanville, Thomas and Board put the ball upon Estacada's ten yard line. Thomas passed to Babcock, who received the ball behind the goal line for Newberg's score. Thomas missed the goal kick.

Estacada claimed a touchdown when one of their men picked up an incompleting forward pass and ran for our goal. This, however, does not happen to be in the rule book. A forward pass when blocked is eligible for any player to catch before the ball reaches the ground. After the ball touches the ground it is dead. Therefore Estacada's fake touchdown could not be counted because the ball had reached the ground.

On Friday, November 17, the local boys will tangle with Hillsboro high on the high school field here. Hillsboro high comes with a long string of victories and one defeat. They defeated Forest Grove by the same score that N. H. S. did, 6-0. This will prove to be one of the best games of the season, because two teams that are evenly matched will play. Come out and bring your pep and voice and help N. H. S. keep a clean slate this year. P. L. B., '24.

B. F. REVLAND

Benjamin Franklin Revland was born in New York, December 15, 1844. While he was still a youth he moved with his parents to Wisconsin. He enlisted and served in the Union army during the last year and a half of the Civil War, and was with General Sherman on his march to the sea.

He was married to Mary Jane Baird on May 21, 1874, in Henry county, Missouri. In 1887 he came to Oregon and settled near Heppner and in the spring of 1899 he moved to Newberg where he has made his home most of the time since. After several months of failing health he departed from this world on Sunday, November 12, 1922, at the age of 77 years, 10 months, and 27 days. The deceased was converted and joined the Methodist church when 33 years of age and since that time has been an active church and Sunday school worker.

He leaves to mourn his departure his widow, six daughters, Mrs. E. J. Born and Mrs. C. L. Patterson of Portland, Mrs. C. S. Kinney of McMinnville, Mrs. W. F. Fleket of Camas, Wash., Mrs. Cora Wrenn and Mrs. Essie Deach of Newberg; one

A SPLENDID MUSICAL PROGRAM WAS GIVEN

Large Crowd Attended the Evening Events at New Legion Building on Armistice Day

The musical program which was given at the new Legion building last Saturday evening as part of the Armistice Day celebration was a very fine affair. The program as arranged was splendid and the execution of the various numbers was exceptionally fine. There was an immense crowd in attendance, even eclipsing that of the dedication exercises. Chairs were brought in and filled in addition to the benches and still people stood up all across the back of the room and even out into the entrance and up the stairs to the second floor. But everyone must have felt repaid for their trouble in standing up to hear such a fine program.

The first number was a selection by Klenie's orchestra. This ever popular organization played two beautiful numbers and were very heartily encored in hopes of getting them to return for another. The orchestra is composed of Mr. Ed Klenie, cornetist and director; Miss Mabel Miller, pianist; Earl Pinney and Royal Gettman, violinists; Professor Jones, cellist; V. V. Gould, baritone; and Howard Nottage, clarinetist.

The second number was a drill by a band of little folks from the primary department of the local schools. Everyone likes to see the little folks perform and this number proved to be fully equal to what is ever expected of the little tots. Led by little Louis Hoekins, who issued the commands of "Face," and "March" in true military style, evoking not a little smiling on the part of the audience, the little ones marched around, carrying flags and went through many different maneuvers. They also sang and recited short lines filled with a fervor of patriotism quite in keeping with the occasion. It is only fair to say that these little folk were trained by Mrs. C. R. Chapin.

Sheridan M. Delepine played two violin selections in his characteristically artistic manner. Following this the double male quartet sang two selections and responded to a hearty encore. Mrs. Chas. A. Morris sang two very beautiful numbers, the first being "Go to Sleep My Dusky Baby," and the second was "Where Dreams Are Made." Both were heartily encored and were rendered in fine voice.

Miss Della Hanville gave a reading "Smack and Spoon" which was of a humorous nature, and she was forced to respond to an encore. Miss Hanville's numbers were very good and very well given.

A vocal solo by Mrs. Richard Williams was the next number on the program. Mrs. Williams sang two numbers, "Where My Caravan Has Rested" and "Folks Need a Lot of Loving."

Following this the double male quartet sang two more numbers and then Klenie's orchestra played another selection.

After the program was ended the floor was cleared and a dance was given, which was largely attended, there being several hundred people on the floor. This closed the day's program.

BENEFIT AT COLLEGE

The college students are to give at eight o'clock on Friday evening a program for the benefit of students of Europe and the Near East who are nearly destitute of books, clothing, food, warmth and adequate shelter, but who, for the sake of their countries, are trying to study. The program will include a group of readings, stunts and music by both students and faculty members.

The college students, through the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. S. have been preparing for their gift of fellowship all this week—trying the plan of going without something for the sake of the other students. The girls reserves of the high school are helping to sell tickets and otherwise seeking to increase the gift from Newberg students.

BOUGHT FINE PIANO

Klenie & Sons made delivery of an Ivers & Pond grand piano to Miss Jessie Britt at her studio in the Edwards building recently. This is a very fine instrument and one of which Miss Britt may well be proud. son, Charles of Portland; one brother, Sherwood Hevland of Dallas, and a sister, Mrs. Fannie Newburg of Portland; eighteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. One daughter has preceded him to the heavenly home. Funeral services were conducted from the M. E. church on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. J. E. Strevey officiating. Interment followed in the local cemetery.

FRUIT AND NUT MEN MEET AT CORVALLIS

Addresses and Conferences Will Fill Out a Big Three Day Program For Growers of Oregon

NOVEMBER 23 TO 25 ARE DATES

Charles Trunk on Walnuts and L. S. Otis on Raspberries to Be the Speakers from this Locality

Six big attractions await the joint meeting of the Oregon State Horticultural society and Western Nut Growers association at the state college, Corvallis, November 23-25. These are the fruit, nut, vegetable and berry growers' conventions, the horticulturist-home conference, and the college hort show, a classic in horticultural exhibits.

The society starts off Thursday morning with the general subject, pruning, as follows:

Apple tree pruning, Cleve Currin, Benton county; prune tree pruning, A. E. Reuter, Washington; small fruit pruning and training, S. E. Hall, Multnomah; pear tree pruning, Edw. Carlton, Jackson; pruning discussion led by Claude C. Cate, Jackson.

The nut growers will at the same time deal with walnuts as follows: Harvesting and drying walnuts, Charles Trunk, Yamhill county; walnut varieties, R. L. Shinn, Marion; record and yield of seedling walnut orchards, A. L. Page, Marion.

A joint session of fruit, nut, vegetable and berry growers, on soils, will be held on Thursday afternoon, as follows:

Handling soils in prune and cherry orchards, R. W. Hogg, Polk county; handling soils in a walnut orchard, Ferd Groner, Washington; handling soils in a raspberry field, H. G. Andrews, Multnomah; handling soils in a pear and apple orchard, Harry Rosenberg, Jackson; soil discussion led by Clayton L. Long, O. A. C.

The hort show will be formally opened Thursday evening by W. S. Brown, chief of station horticulture, N. R. Moore, Corvallis' mayor, will give the welcome address. B. W. Johnson, president of the horticultural society, and Ferd Groner, president of the nut association, will respond. James T. Jardine, director of the experiment station, will discuss the part the station is playing in the horticulture of Oregon. Music and an address on the Port of Portland as an outlet for Oregon fruit, by W. B. D. Dodson, president of the port commission, are other items.

Friday will be a busy day with separate sessions of the tree fruit, small fruit, vegetable and nut growers, and the horticulturist-home group.

The orchard program on thinning starts with apple thinning by J. F. Slover, Umatilla county, and Robert Forbis, Washington county. Other numbers are prune thinning, Robert Shinn, Marion county; pear thinning, Claude C. Cate, Jackson. Thinning discussion led by Henry Hartman, O. A. C.

Drying and pest control lead Friday afternoon; dryers up-to-date, L. H. Weigand, station specialist; pest control in an apple and pear orchard, A. C. Reed, Hood River county; pest control discussion led by A. L. Lovett and H. P. Burs, O. A. C.

The nut growers will deal with filberts Friday morning; planting walnuts and filberts, Knight Percy, Marion county; filbert yields, Percy Glese, Multnomah; suckerless filbert, A. M. Gray, Clackamas.

Friday afternoon has "Interlocking of Filberts for Two Years," W. H. Clark, Lane county, and "Filbert Pollination," C. E. Schuster of the station.

The vegetable men will be presided over by R. W. Gill of Portland, with the following program Friday morning:

Western grown broccoli seed—value and how grown, C. H. Bailey, Douglas county; discussions led by C. W. Bruce and Dave Long, Clackamas; an efficient program of insect control for vegetable growers, A. L. Lovett, O. A. C.; growing and marketing premium winning celery, H. C. McGinnis, Multnomah.

The afternoon program has: Use and value of irrigation in vegetable production, L. B. Chase, Lane county; discussion led by growers from Wasco county; growing quality vegetables and improved methods of marketing, A. G. B. Bouquet, O. A. C.

The small fruit program Friday morning provides: Growing and marketing the evergreen blackberry, Sam H. Brown, Marion county; the loganberry; handling the red raspberry, H. G. Andrews, Multnomah; raising and marketing black raspberries, L. S. Otis Yamhill; small fruit discussion led by L. P. Wilcox, O. A. C.

In the afternoon it will join the main association. Discussion of the home grounds will open the horticulturist-home conference Friday morning, A. L. Peck of the college, speaker. The flower garden, Margaret Johnson of British Columbia; the vegetable garden, A. G. B. Bouquet of the college,
