AN AMERICAN PRINCIPLE

The Graphic thoroughly believes in that old American principle of majority rule. We do not always agree with what the majority accepts and some times take up a defense of a minority as against the majority, but we do believe that when the majority say that they want a certain thing they have a right to it. However, the publishers of the Graphic do not feel that just because the majority want something which we feel not to be for the best, that the minority have to partake of the same and if we find ourselves in the minority on some matter we shall try to give the majority the same right which we would ask if we were in the majority, while at the same time maintaining our own rights regarding the same.

For example, if the majority of the citizens of Newberg favor football, they have a right to enjoy that sport and the Graphic should as a courtesy to its readers and the majority, publish the news of the various football games, whether its publishers enjoy that sport or not. It happens in this case that we do enjoy a good game of football. However, the point is just the same whether we do or do not. In our estimation, the same rule should apply to other pastimes which we do not ourselves participate in at all, but which we try to chronicle out of fairness to those who do.

We realize that we are sometimes criticized for things published in the Graphic, but believe that the public at large does not take into consideration that we do not necessarily endorse everything which occurs in the community and which we give space in our paper. It is true that the newspaper should lead public thought along the lines of morality and better living, but there are limits beyond which a newspaper cannot go in this. If they do overstep those bounds, they only tend to antagonize those whom they oppose and at the same time fail to accomplish the desired result.

The Graphic is open at all times to communications on various subjects of public interest and if persons feel that right and morality are being sacrificed in the community, we believe that it would be much more effective for them to take up the matter than for the paper to attack it singlehanded. Our idea in this is to bring the pressure of united public opinion rather than the ideas of the editor alone to bear on the subject.

During the last two berry festivals street concessions were brought to Newberg and among them were a large number of stands where ketchup dolls were given as prizes on chances. The Graphic objected to these stands as being of a rather degrading nature and offering the public poor entertainment, with a very nominal chance of winning anything for money expended. However, in spite of personal and newspaper opposition, the stands were here both this year and the year before. We believe that this illustrates to a marked degree the ineffectiveness of a newspaper taking such a stand alone and unsupported. After the last festival, one reader of the Graphic did write an article in which he endorsed our stand. However, the public are inclined to sit back and criticize without themselves doing anything to bring about a change.

If you see something wrong in your community, don't expect your newspaper to right it alone. It probably couldn't do it, no matter how much it desired. Just sit down and write an article yourself on the subject and then talk it over with some of your friends who think as you do and get them to do likewise. In this way public opinion is aroused and before long something happens. But don't blame your newspaper for chronicling the facts pertaining to happenings in the community, even though they don't approve of them, until you yourself have done something to help stop the practices.

SUNNYCREST

Mr. Brown was a Portland visitor last Friday. Lester Hanna accompanied the Whitney Boys' chorus to Portland last Friday.

Mark Hanna was one of the agricultural boys to visit the stock show last Friday.

Mrs. Pifer and children were visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Stubblefield last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. McCredie visited the home place last Sunday, returning home with what things they had left at the farm.

Last week was beef canning week in this locality. A. W. Hubbell and Harley Hall both killed beeves, which were disposed of among the various neighbors.

Mrs. L. H. Gable and children made a whole day celebration Saturday at Newberg. They remained over night with Mrs. Gable's mother, Mrs. W. H. Hubbard.

Eugene Hubbard and his father-in-law, Mr. Dillinger, visited the stock show in Portland last Saturday. They said some of the stock was fat enough for beef.

Sunnycrest was nearly a deserted neighborhood for Armistice Day. Those who did not attend the Legion celebration were in attendance at the Church of Christ convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Parks and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dillinger, Mrs. W. H. Hubbard and son, Dannie, were guests for Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hubbard last Sunday.

Ben Craven was a visitor to the stock show last Wednesday. Ben said he did not know there were so many fat cows, and that he was glad he did not have a herd like the champion Holstein to milk.

Mr. and Mrs. Linas Christensen were visitors at the Harley Hall home for a day or two the latter part of the past week. Mr. Christensen hurt his foot by stepping on a nail so was unable to work for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw made a trip to Portland last Saturday. Mr. Bradshaw attended a meeting of the state Farm Bureau. Mrs. Bradshaw spent a very enjoyable day renewing acquaintances and visiting familiar places.

A Mr. Ellis from near Hebo has been visiting with C. A. Crater for the past few days. Mr. Crater returned to Hebo with Mr. Ellis on his returning home Wednesday. Mr. Crater expects to return Friday or Saturday of this week.

As this has to be to press quite early in the week, we can only say we have heard rumors of a wedding with a Sunnycrest young man as one of the principals, or shall we say necessary parts? Perhaps the editor may note in another place this happy event; if not next week we will do better.

The annual meeting of the Sunnycrest Telephone shareholders was held at the home of C. K. Hubbard last Monday evening. Reports of the treasurer and secretary were read. Business pertaining to renewing the poles was taken up. Robert Shires was rented the privilege of connecting on the line for a year.

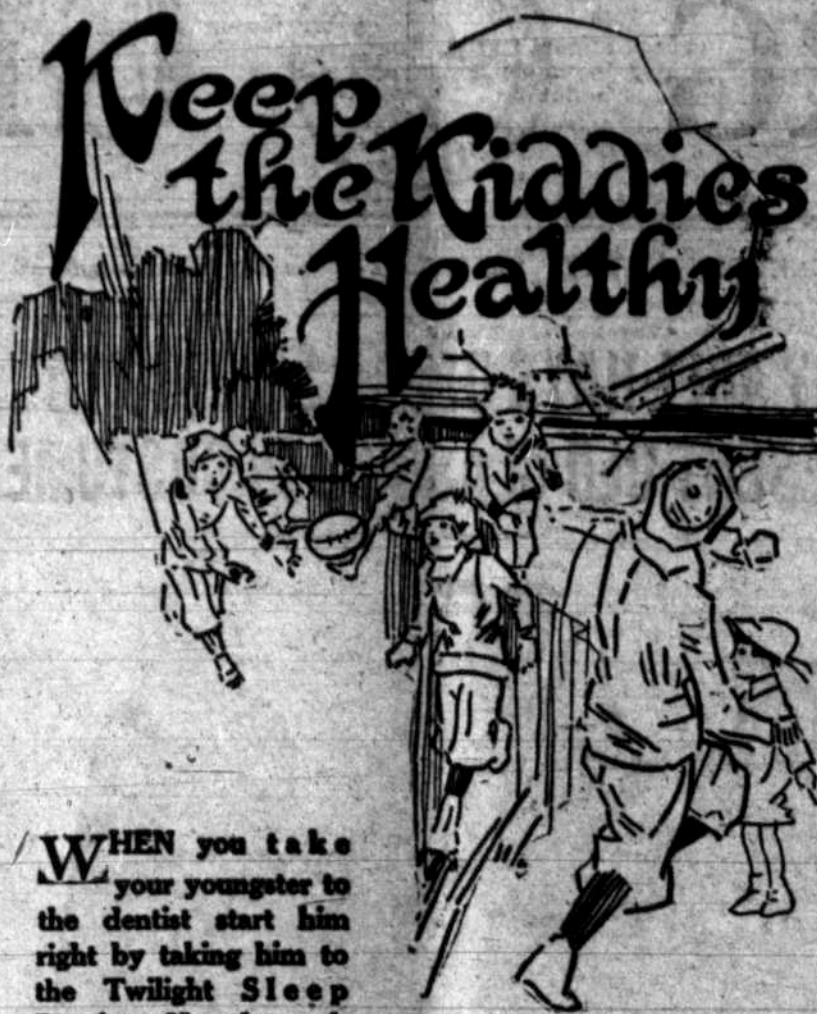

Miss Maud Koeber from Portland, paid a visit to the home of her sister, Mrs. C. K. Hubbard, Saturday evening and Sunday. Miss Koeber is employed by the Ross Candy company and she usually brings a fine sample of their wares along, thus making herself doubly welcome, especially to the two boys of the Hubbard household.

Last Thursday the Sunnycrest Ladies' club held the regular meeting at the home of Mrs. C. A. Crater. A very enjoyable and profitable afternoon was spent by the ladies in talking over the various community affairs and laying plans for their winter meetings and entertainments. Three new members were added to the roll. They were: Mrs. Robert Shires, Mrs. Harris and Miss Silva Nolan.

LOCAL MALE QUARTET SINGS AT DAYTON

The male quartet, consisting of Messrs. Crow, Frost, Gill and Phillips, visited Dayton and sang at the revival services being conducted there by Mr. Phillips. This is the third public appearance of this quartet, they having sung twice in Newberg during the past month. They plan to visit Dayton next week and also to render some of their numbers in town in the near future.
