

BAPTIST CHURCH

Next Sunday is to be "Go to church" Sunday and old and young are specially invited to be present and assemble in family groups.

After the morning service everybody will gather in the basement of the church for a big noonday luncheon. A fellowship program is planned during luncheon, and after luncheon all will join in an hour of singing and special music.

The evening lecture will be illustrated with stereopticon slides. The musical program will begin at 7:30. The brotherhood banquet at the vestry last Friday night was a delightful occasion.

The "Newberg Eight" sang at the Legion auditorium Armistice Day at both morning and evening programs. At the morning dedication program they sang "Under the Flag."

WEST CHEHALEM

Harold Pollett is now driving a Chevrolet touring car.

Mrs. Majel Washbond entertained company last Sunday from Gearhart.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Finch of Portland were visitors last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Amoth.

The Ladies' Aid society meet this week all day Wednesday. This will be the first meeting this fall.

Howard Webber from Iowa has been visiting here with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sitton and Mr. Sitton's mother, Maggie Sitton, from McMinnville, were Sunday visitors at the E. G. Fendall home.

Professor Kenneth D. Fendall has been appointed Sunday school superintendent to fill out the rest of the year, owing to the vacancy created by the resignation of Wm. V. Dolph, who plans to go to California for the winter.

Bill Rogers and family have gone to southern Oregon on a visit. E. G. Gatch on the Far View farm took in the stock show last week.

Miss Winnifred Finigan was a guest at Ed Wohlshlegel's Sunday. M. J. Boatwright made a business trip to Hillsboro one day last week.

J. P. Jones and son, Wayne, were dinner guests at John Haynes' Sunday.

E. C. Wohlshlegel was among the crowd who attended the stock show last week.

John Ornduff and Orval Hanson, who with his wife are visiting there, motored to Portland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Howard and son, Arnold, made a trip to Portland Thursday and visited the stock show.

Potato harvest is in full blast with a good variety and an abundance of tubers. Nothing small about them but the price.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Boatwright Sunday morning and left a seven and a half pound baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McCormick came out from Portland Saturday and spent Sunday with Mrs. McCormick's father, G. W. Whitmore.

Several of the schools on the mountain were closed three days last week, while the teachers attended Washington county institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wohlshlegel have moved up to their mountain home where they will stay while they dig their eighteen acres of spuds.

E. L. McCormick, city recorder of Hillsboro, spent the week end on the mountain, visiting his father, W. H.

McCormick, brother C. M. McCormick, and sister, Mrs. W. B. Davis. Miss May Jones, who is staying with the A. Allens of Dundee, was home for a short time Sunday.

Myron Bryan, who has been in the United States veterans' hospital since last January, with the exception of one week in June, was operated on again last week and is very low. There is little hope of his recovery.

Mrs. Ella Hanson, an old time resident on the mountain and who still owns a farm here, has been visiting at the John Ornduff home. Mrs. Hanson and her two sons, Ernest and Orval, and Mrs. Orval Hanson, recently drove down from Stettler, Alberta.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Finigan and daughters, Berniece and Wanda, went to Pacific City last Wednesday week after salmon, but could not stay long enough to get any on account of Wanda having an attack of tonsillitis.

They spent two days at L. L. Hult's in Newberg on the return trip, where Dr. Wendt treated both daughters, Berniece having had an attack of the same disease. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hult returned with them Saturday and remained until Sunday evening.
