a lot of oratorical language was produced on each side. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative. However, it is all agreed that the home and the school should work together for the formation of the best of characters for the young American. After a feed of pie—plus of every kind and a very generous supply—with hot coffee which was brewed by Charles Shires, all departed homeward, feeling that these community affairs promote a better acquaintance throughout the neighborhood.

PARRETT MOUNTAIN

Mrs. Faro has again returned to Portland. L. W. Waters of Corral creek was seen on the mountain last Monday. Sam Peters visited Sunday, the 10th inst., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Kiser on the banks of the Willamette. The Misses Elsie and Irene Moad visited and practiced Christmas do-in's at the home of Mrs. Cleve Heater Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. E. Gilmore will spend their Christmas at the home of George Gilmore on the Pacific highway near Sherwood. D. Parrett and W. Smith marketed chickens in Sherwood last Saturday. They report the trip O. K., but the price received, Y! Y! Y! Cecil Waters of Portland is expected to spend the holidays with his brother, L. W. Waters, at the family home near Corral creek. Many of us were looking forward to the trip to Sherwood on the 20th. There was much interest shown. I wonder why! Oh, yes, the new bank. Pretty cold up here at the top of this mountain—cold, snow, sleet and rain. Quite a winter! As the Chinaman says: "Too much cold no good, me no likee." Neither do we. L. W. Waters made the rather trying trip into Portland last Saturday by team, taking into the city with him a piano for Mr. and Mrs. Polchow, who now live on Steele avenue, in the vicinity of Reed College. Ollie Smith, who is and has been working for some time in a Coos Bay city as a policeman, is expected home about the first of the year, possibly to remain. Elwood, or "Bud," is getting along fine down there in the big timber.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence James and son are now living in the Mother Parrett house across from Donnie's. Mr. James will also participate in the cordwood industry of our mountain. Donnie and Will Smith moved the family out from Newberg last Thursday. Welcome to our neighborhood.

E. Garland is doing a big cordwood business on the W. W. Parrett quarter section, or rather he is cutting wood rapidly and in large quantities. He is working a crew of eighteen men and hopes to cord up 4000 cords this winter. He has three gas saws chugging away when weather permits. R. O. Bristow, Vern Phillips and Fred Parrett are each running a gas saw in the timber crew.

Christmas with all its joys and blessings is nearly here. Children are being just as good as they can. We are all wondering, guessing, planning, predicting, preparing, and deciding just what we are going to do and how we are going to do it. Certainly each one can do something, and the real Christmas joy comes from what we do and give, rather than what we receive. A Merry Christmas to all!

It was suggested by a lady living in Clackamas county that it might be of interest to part of our neighborhood at least, to learn that Miss Harriett Phipps of Oregon City won the queenship for the bridge opening ceremonies on December 28, Miss Harriett having won over Miss Vena Barnes of West Linn. Miss Barnes will be maid of honor to Miss Harriett. It is hoped that this will bring about a better mutual understanding and cooperation between the two cities on either side of the river.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Evans of Portland who recently traded homes with Mr. Polchow are now in their new home on what is known as the Joe Roberts place on Corral creek. Mr. Evans still retains his work in the Stevens building on Washington street, and Mr. Evans, Jr., is on the farm straightening things around, and caring for a fine flock of Plymouth Rock chickens. He has four caponized birds, which are certainly large and fine specimens. We are glad to welcome you all in your new home and neighborhood.

GULBRANSEN Player-Piano

A Pledge

Ranking first by a wide margin in the production of player-pianos it is fitting that Gulbransen give a pledge to our public—

A PLEDGE to foster the restless desire for improvement which has made possible the exceptional music of the Gulbransen. A PLEDGE to adhere strictly to the Golden Rule principles that have governed all our business relations; this includes our organization, the people from whom we buy—the people to whom we sell. A PLEDGE to continue branding the price of each Gulbransen in the back, at the factory, for the protection of our customers. A PLEDGE never to make a Gulbransen and send it out under any other name, thus preserving Gulbransen quality for Gulbransen buyers. A PLEDGE always to keep bright our ideal of providing exceptional music for all classes of homes, at modest prices.

A PLEDGE that the ease of playing and instant control you enjoy in the Gulbransen will ever be the standard of excellence among all player-pianos.

THESE principles affect the purse and the happiness of every family buying a player-piano. The phenomenal sales Gulbransen enjoys shows the public's approval of the fairness, sincerity and importance of our creed. Christmas morning countless Gulbransens will delight families everywhere. Will your family be one of these? Play a Gulbransen at our store today—and you will understand fully these things which have brought about the broad sweep of Gulbransen popularity.

community were saddened by the death of little Jane Ellen, daughter of Fred and Sophia Herring. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Groth of Dundee.

Miss Mae Groth who is spending the winter in Pasadena, Cal., writes home to friends and relatives that life there is one continual round of pleasure. It has rained torrents ever since she arrived there but that makes it seem more homelike.

Word has been received by friends here that Mr. and Mrs. Foster and daughter, Ruth, who were on their way to California, met with an accident enroute which demolished their car and hurt Mr. Foster quite badly, while Mrs. Foster was cut about the face. Miss Ruth escaped without injuries.

The Yamhill county confederated community clubs met with the Dundee Commercial club on Tuesday evening. A short program was given by home talent which was enjoyed by all. There were a great many interesting discussions and talks by men throughout our county. After the meeting, refreshments were served by the Commercial club to all. The next meeting will be held in McMinnville.

The annual rummage sale held by the Dundee Woman's club last Saturday night was deemed a grand success. Warm supper was served to all from five until eight o'clock, when the rummage sale, which was conducted by Sally Beck, began. While the sale was not as large as last year, there seemed to be the usual amount of interest taken in it. The fishpond was the main attraction for the kiddies and was well patronized. Candy was sold from a beautiful booth to all having a sweet tooth. The side-show, which consisted of a Tennessee chorus and a jazz band was a scream from first to last. Miss Dina May Snow and Mr. Suds Gingersnap taking the prizes for the handsome couple. The writer has not the total receipts for the evening but will have it for the next writing.

P. E. O. MEETINGS

P. E. O. met with Mrs. Lutz on Tuesday, December 19. Roll call was answered by members with an account of some historic spot in Oregon. Mrs. Hayward was the leader for this program. After this the hostess served refreshments in the dining room. Those present were Mrs. Hayward, Mrs. Woodworth, Mrs. Rankin, Mrs. Spaulding, Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Chapin.

Mrs. John Rankin entertained P. E. O. at her pleasant Edwards street home on December 4. Each woman present answered to her name with a current event. Mrs. Palmer read a paper on "Scenic Wonders of Oregon." Luncheon was served by Mrs. Rankin. Beside the hostess those present were: Mesdames Chapin, Lutz, Palmer, Cummings, Baird, Cooper, Hayward, and Gill.
