

Correspondence

CHEHALEM

Charles Rien, Sr., is on the sick list with the la gripe.

John Semmer of Portland spent Christmas with his parents.

Mary Harmon of the O. A. C. is spending the holidays with her home folks.

Mrs. S. E. Warren has been very sick for the last two weeks with la gripe.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steele of Mid-dleton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rien.

Mrs. William Garland is expecting a sister from Scotland, whom she has not seen for over forty years.

Alvin Peterson who is employed on the S. P. bridge gang at Brooklyn, spent Christmas with his family.

Mrs. Greathouse and son, Henry, of Portland spent Christmas at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Harmon.

Anna Winters and her friend, O. C. Burnham of Portland, spent Christmas at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Winters.

REX

Mary Jones of Portland spent Christmas with her father.

Miss Alice Dow of McMinnville is spending the week at the Simon Sanderson home.

The Wiley-Sandermans and Asmuses had their Christmas dinner and tree at the Asmus home.

C. C. Wiley has been on the sick list the past week, so he had to be off duty one night on the highway work.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Wiley spent Christmas at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dennis Mills, of Springfield.

Walter Cook and Cecil Hinshaw had charge of the meeting at the Rex Friends church last Sunday morning.

The community Christmas tree and program were well attended and enjoyed by all, especially the children. It was held on Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Macy and two sons went to Portland Christmas morning to spend a few days with Mr. Macy's brother and family.

Mary Sanders of Portland spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, returning home Sunday evening, taking her parents with her to spend Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brickle of Portland are rejoicing over a fine baby girl, born on December 22. Mrs. Brickle was Elizabeth State, daughter of Henry State of Rex.

There will be an New Year's social at the Community hall on New Years night. Refreshments will be on sale and a social time is being arranged. The proceeds will go for the piano.

DUNDEE

Miss Sally Beck spent Christmas with relatives in Portland.

The Christmas play held in the community hall was well attended. Everyone enjoyed it greatly.

Postmaster H. W. Bahninger reports the biggest Christmas week in the history of the post office this year.

The Dundee Alumni association will hold its big reunion of the year at Community hall tonight (Thursday).

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morecroft went to McMinnville to spend Christmas with Mrs. Morecroft's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cunes.

The Epworth League is enjoying some great times on Sunday evenings. Sunday school superintendent Ward Bahninger will lead next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Parrett and son, Billy, enjoyed their Christmas with Mrs. Parrett's sister, Mrs. Wallen, in Portland, where a family reunion was held.

For the past week during the big Christmas rush, Mrs. Swink at the S. P. depot, and the post office force have enjoyed very much the prompt and efficient service of C. W. Scott, who is the official carrier between these two places. Mr. Scott is a very capable man and we are glad that he is with us.

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association will be held at the school house on Tuesday, the second day of January. Mr. Nye, the new art teacher, will give a talk and a demonstration of his work. Another interesting feature of the afternoon program will be a discussion of hot lunches. The teachers are especially desirous of having an expression from the parents on this subject. Everyone interested in education and children is cordially invited to attend these meetings of the parent-teachers' and take part in the discussions.

WEST CHEHALEM

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Baker and sons spent Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Baker near Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Fendall and son spent Christmas with Mrs. Fendall's mother, Mrs. Jones, in McMinnville.

Daisee Leffler is home for the holidays from Eugene, where she is taking a course in journalism and cartoonist work at the U. of O.

Donald Davis is spending the holiday vacation at home. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis of Yamhill are also holiday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Shaw and sons, Floyd and Virgil, left last Saturday for Sandy, near Mt. Hood, where they will spend some time with Mr. Shaw's parents.

Lewis Amoth has traded his orchard property here for an east-side hardware business in Portland. The Amoths will move soon, but the new owner's name has not been learned yet.

Ewing Young school had a short Christmas time together last Friday afternoon. After Santa Claus (Billy Sullivan) had distributed the presents, candy and nuts were enjoyed by all.

Following Sunday school there was a short Christmas program last Sunday. Besides several recitations there was a violin solo by Winona Smith and a duet by Lois and Kenneth Fendall after which we were favored by a splendid Christmas sermon by Rev. Lewis.

The boys' class, as previously announced, will give an entertainment in the church basement Friday evening, December 29. Besides an exhibition of a marvelous incubator invention, a real fountain of youth, for which Ponce De Leon sought vainly, and a one-act play, there will be recitations, music, and stunts in magic. This is neither a stock show, opera, or circus, but we trust you will enjoy it. Admission—your presence and attention. Come and see.

FERNWOOD

U. S. Bryant and family spent Christmas in Portland with relatives. Mr. LeFevre is quite ill this week. It is hoped by all of his friends that he will soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker and baby from Salem spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Parrish.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Livengood spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bingham in Newberg.

Miss Ruth Baker from Aberdeen, Wash., spent Christmas at the home of her mother, Mrs. H. N. Baker.

Royal, Milton, Everett and Chaney Gettmann are spending a few days with relatives in Willamina.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Livengood and Miss Grace Riley spent Christmas at the home of Norman Sanders in Newberg.

Miss Grace Riley from Lafayette is spending the Christmas vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Livengood.

Mr. and Mrs. Aga Jentzen and children from Dayton, spent Christmas with Mrs. Charles Jones, mother of Mrs. Jentzen.

The Misses Della and Freda Parrish from Newberg, spent Christmas at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Parrish.

Stanley Bryant from Portland, who is spending the week at the home of U. S. Bryant, is installing a radio set for Jack Bryant.

E. H. Ross, who is principal of the Mayville high school, is spending the Christmas vacation at the home of his mother, Mrs. H. C. Ross.

Miss Ethel Ross, who spent several weeks in Beaver with her sister, Mrs. Speary, returned home last week for the Christmas holidays.

Miss Dena Offel and Miss Hazel Pearson, who are both employed in Portland, spent the Christmas vacation at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Lunstrom.

The Fernwood band has again reorganized. Quite a few new members have turned out for practice and now every Wednesday night the familiar sounds are heard.

Christmas day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cox included R. G. Stewart and family, Clarence Davis and Miss Nora Thomas all from Portland and Mrs. C. W. Nice from Newberg.

Quite a crowd attended the Christmas program given by the Sunday school children at the gymnasium last Saturday night. Dan Whohmuth acted as Santa Claus and each child present received a bag filled with candy and nuts. An enjoyable time was had by all.

RIBBON RIDGE

Miss Wilda Orr is spending a week with her sister at Eugene.

Emil Jenson is sawing wood for Fay Harford with his drag-saw.

Mrs. Rudolph Wenger visited Mr. and Mrs. George Wenger on Tuesday.

Miss Gladys Hertig spent Tuesday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. William Carter.

A. F. Hertig and son, Delmer, helped George Wenger butcher last Monday.

John Carter entertained all his children on Christmas day with a fine dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carter moved into their new bungalow the day before Christmas.

Mrs. Frank Lowe enjoyed Christmas by having her children come home to eat turkey.

Hubert and Raymond ZenZen of Raybell visited their sister, Mrs. George Wenger, last Saturday.

Miss Mildred Sallee is spending the holidays with the home folks. She is attending Pacific Academy.

Mrs. George Wenger and daughter, Gelene, and Nick ZenZen went to Portland Sunday and spent Christmas with their sister, Mrs. George Pantenberg.

Miss Clara Louise Hertig came home from Portland last Saturday night to spend the holidays with the home folks. She attends the Jefferson high school at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams and sons, Marvin and Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Harford and daughter, Kathryn, spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. West Laughlin at Yamhill.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lyons and son, Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sallee and daughters, Mildred and Eva, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith of Newberg on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Boyd and son, Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Upchurch and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nagal, Mrs. Ruby Sleeper and son, Billy, of Portland, all spent Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Nelson and sons, Earl and Harvey, and daughter, Louise, of West Chealem, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cook and sons, Norman and Ralph, and daughter, Helen, of Chealem Center, were Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Carter.

NORTHWEST NEWBERG

Saloma Burkett is quite sick with pneumonia.

The Preo's are spending the holidays in Eugene.

Charles Brooks has been on the sick list for several days.

Howard Snow took Christmas dinner with his brother and wife.

Mrs. H. F. Nelson has been shut in with a bad cold but is better now.

George Clarke and family spent Monday with the Frank Clarke family.

Inger Byers of Portland spent Christmas with her aunt, Mrs. Simpson.

Oliver Warden and wife came down to spend a few days with his folks.

The Ed Born family of Portland were Sunday visitors at the Deach home.

Bernard Mainwaring spent a few days with his parents the first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Payton are spending a few days at the Stanbridge home.

A. C. Stanbridge's mother from Portland is visiting at the Stanbridge home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Worden and family attended the Nash reunion in town on Christmas.

W. C. Johnson was up from Portland and spent a few days with the Stanbridges and Nelsons.

Mrs. Edward Walls of Albany spent Christmas at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Titus.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lunstrom and daughter, Mabel, spent Christmas with the Swan Benson family in Portland.

Grace Colby, who is living with her sister at Pendleton, spent a few days last week with her father, W. W. Colby.

Homer Worden, who is going to trade school in Portland, came down Friday to spend the Christmas holidays with his folks.

A. A. Post and family are spending the holidays in Amity where Charlie is setting up a radio outfit for his grandfather.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lunstrom and family were Christmas visitors at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Lunstrom.

Roy Bremmer and family of Salem came to Newberg the first of the week and took Mr. Bremmer's mother home with them to spend the holidays.

Mrs. Frank Richardson and her grand-daughter, Beatrice Gislason, went to Portland the first of this week to spend a few days with the Gislasons.

SPRINGBROOK

Vivian Hadley spent the Christmas vacation at home.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Baldwin is a little better at this writing.

Revival meetings commenced Monday evening at the church. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. John Kramlen, who has been quite sick with a cold, is much better at this writing.

Mrs. Julia Bowers from British Columbia is visiting with her sister, Mrs. P. H. Hammond.

Myrtle and A. E. Newby spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Newell and family in Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincsod and family spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Mosher in McMinnville.

Marjorie Brown, who is teaching school in Greenleaf, Idaho, arrived home last Saturday for the Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spencer are spending the Christmas holidays at Linda Vista with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kramlen.

Stella Hubbard left Monday morning for Marion, where she will spend a few of the holidays with her brother, Lisle, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Heater and family are enjoying a visit with Mrs. Heater's brother, Mr. Holiday, and family from Independence.

Lester Gunn from Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hunt from Aberdeen, Wash., and Mrs. Ray Langworthy and little daughter, Ellen, from Atlanta, Ga., are here for the holidays.

Levi and Anna Johnson from Portland are here for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincsod and family are here for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincsod and family are here for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincsod and family are here for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincsod and family are here for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincsod and family are here for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincsod and family are here for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincsod and family are here for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincsod and family are here for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincsod and family are here for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincsod and family are here for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincsod and family are here for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincsod and family are here for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincsod and family are here for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincsod and family are here for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincsod and family are here for the holidays.