Chetah.

BY ALLANSON HUNTO.

My first morning in the blue-green region as the guest of father's old friend, Mr. Oldfield, was a truly perfect one, and I was early astir to get a glimpse of the country in its full beauty. As I ventured upon the veranda of the 'loveliest house,' I found my white-haired host walking up and down in a fever of vexation. The wild hogs were falling upon me he began to unburden himself of.

"Oh! a few dozen hogs, sub, a barn door that's what he left. I've a hundred dullest of dullness I know Chetah's holt that two-headed Wildwind-Ticklebottom fell by.

"I laughed in his face, sub, that's what I did! Then I got mad, sub, I said to Majah Bliven, "Oh, sub, I a pawpaw? Am I pinched for a newly little fine few hundred dullest! What a cow, sub, I know beeth; maiah! Five hundred dullest of dullest would be on Chetah's skin; sub, no sub, I'll not sell my daughter, and I'll not sell Chetah! Majah Bliven couldn't look me in the eye, sub, or read away on his boom.

"Oh, sub, I never d'ኣera day now to show my face at a place of home again if I sold little Chetah! That fella's been raising a ruckus, and cut all the dullest of sugar, an' then the prose! follow him all ov the valley, hunts, and he's a kitten when Malby rehsn nothun' but his mouth.

"Five hundred dullest, indeed!" the colonel continued, his anger having abated somewhat. "Why, Chetah som twice that in huh fast race at is a roll, sub, he kept his hopp-scotchin' mad when I ordered neggah Tom to put the pifly in trainin'.

"We had hold hawks, cut things was mighty equally sub a fine thing. But I had my way, sub, an' I always do!" the colonel went on, lowering his voice and glistening apprehensive at open door.

"But the trains' went on, an' at' just the day hoff the day had come. No betal's blood even reached for a five-eighths dish. West was Black Star to Bonnie Scotland, Moon shine by Old Distillers, Cyclone by Thondrousbe, an' half a dozen others, as fe'n olds as ev'rrackt a paddock.

"Malguy's in the grast', an' I noticed a decidedly unimpressed look in hush eyes. She had asked me again a day ago that two betel's to take Chetah out, but I woudn' he to it. But the time he had acc-" AMERICAN ROYAL.

"I know Malby would have the whip-" Mr. Oldfield interrupted. "At that am' me to thinking hale. I thinks I see my way out by puttin' the limy-" the colonel continued. "I know Malby heard it was an old friend's final decision. An' so I went up to whew she was a sid' in the grast', an' whispered. 'Come to think of it, Malby, I don't believe Chetah's fingers could be to keep the pace. This is a grast'. Thans' mighty fine blood in this company. You see, a half-sister to Ashland Belle—not a certain amount of surgars events and the farmer below at about the same level. Above the level the river is subject to sudden floods, and some forty miles below, after the confluence of the Mand чел and Cracked rivers, the people living along the shore notice a rise when the same goes off. But at Bend the river is always the same, and a difference in depth of six inches is unknown. The river is always cold, and clear, and deep with extremely rapidity through it carries current open with yellow pine timber. There are few places along the bank to obtain the lumber, and here the river contains the finest pools, eddies and rapids in the world and anyone who starts out with his rod and creel's a day's sport comes back dimmed or disappointed.

Exercise in Pronunciation.

An exercise in pronunciation was planned for the Blackboard of a touch MARKETING

MANUFACTURER OF

Wool, Pelts, Wood, Coal, Hay and Grain.

Special attention given to wool: first-class grading and facilitating delivery.

All Modern Improvements for Handling Stock.

LAYERS PROVIDES ATTENTION TO.

PRINEVILLE, ORE.

ESTIMATING A SPECIALTY

KING, HUNTER, & MARTH.

TIMBER, CRUSERS AND LAND LOCATORS.

BEND.

—OREGON.—

THE BEND BULLETIN

Deoted to the Interests of Eastern Oregon and Creek County in general and the Bend Country in particular.

WE WANT

Bend is the coming City of Central Oregon. In five years it will have a teeming population of five thousand. If you don't believe this, ask the best posted men on this State or lumber and agricultural matters, and abide by the improvements the Bulletin is made to help your readers on posted the improvements Bulletin is made to help your readers posted.

POLITICALLY REPUBLICAN.

MAX LEDBURNER, Publisher.